The Presbyterian Church in Canada
HELD IN KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, TORONTO
JUNE 3, 1959

FIRST SEDERUNT

At the City of Toronto, Ontario, and within Knox Church there, Wednesday, the third day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine, at eight o'clock in the evening.

Which place and time Ministers and Ruling Elders, Commissioners from the several Presbyteries of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened pursuant to appointment of the General Assembly held in the City of Toronto, Ontario, on the fourth day of June last Year.

The Reverend John McNab, M.A., S.T.M., D.D., Moderator of the last General Assembly, assisted by the Reverend Dr. Wm. Fitch and the Reverend J. M. Laird, conducted public worship and preached a sermon from the words: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain." Isaiah 40:3, 4.

Thereafter, with prayer, he did constitute the General Assembly in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only King and Head of the Church.

INTER-CHURCH AID AND SERVICE TO REFUGEES

On motion of Dr. W. Barclay, duly seconded, the following report was received, ordered placed in the Minutes, and consideration was deferred.

How real are the prayers we offer in church for our fellow Christians in foreign lands? This question has been asked; and at least, the answer may be given that they are becoming more real because of the stirring of the churches to meet the emergency needs in all parts of the world created by the natural disasters of storm, flood, drought and earthquake — or by "man's inhumanity to man."

The most recent Refugee Problem is in Northern India where thousands of Thibetans have sought refuge from the Chinese. On the other hand, Hong Kong provides an example of a long-standing problem, most serious in its dimensions, involving the plight of a great variety of the hapless victims of trouble in the Far East.

1959 is Refugee Year; and the World Council of Churches through the Canadian Council of Churches, is urging us to recognize by our contributions how much more fortunate we are than the harassed parents of families flooding into India from Thibet or than the pathetic children living on the sidewalks of Hong Kong.

Perhaps also an intensifying of understanding prayer for fellow-Christians of other lands is arising from increasing realization of what is meant by the phrase "Inter-Church Aid." Our own Church's most recent givings through Dr. Pradervand, General Secretary of the World Presbyterian Alliance, to struggling Reformed Church groups, are listed as follows: Belgian Christian Missionary Church, Waldensian Church of Italy, Austrian Reformed Church, Polish Reformed Church, Spanish Reformed Church, Greek Evangelical Church. Each received $500.00, which with another $500.00 for training of special groups for ministerial and lay work, makes a total of $3,500.00.

Our total of donations for 1958 was $12,962.25, including $44.15 for Hungarian Relief. This compares with $13,021.98 in 1957, including $3,163.10 for Hungarian Relief. The income for 1958 was distributed as follows:

$4,000. sent to the World Council of Churches to be used at their discretion.

$2,000. sent to Dr. Marcel Pradervand to be used at his discretion.

$3,500. sent to Dr. Marcel Pradervand to be expended as explained earlier in this report.

$3,462. to the World Council of Churches to be used at their discretion with the suggestion that Flood Relief in Madagascar, Refugees from Thibet to Northern India and hurricane damaged Island of Niue in South Pacific should be considered.

Recommendation: Urge increase of contributions in 1959 to mark its being Refugee Year.

WILLIAM BARCLAY, Convener.

Planes from many different lands are filled with people whereas a few years ago they were half empty. This age seems to be the beginning of Missions in the modern sense. The Church of the individual country feels for the first time that the Christian Church is their Church too. Competitive faiths are at work in various countries and strongly opposing the Christian Church. Wherever we go it is not ourselves we preach, but Jesus Christ as Lord.

In this nation so rapidly changing the Church should be much concerned about the things that are happening in Canada and throughout the world. A large influx of people from other lands has constituted a challenge to the Church. There are agents in the Old Land and port chaplains and workers, but after the Board does all this, the work of welcome must be done by the individual church people. In the vast new housing areas we need to proceed with Church Extension. In the last ten years 198 churches have come to self-support and are now ready to help other congregations. As a Presbyterian Church we have a great responsibility to serve this country from coast to coast.

FUND FOR MINISTERIAL ASSISTANCE

The Assembly called for the report of the Fund for Ministerial Assistance which was given in by Dr. J. A. Munro in the absence of the Convener, as follows:

During 1958 The Fund for Ministerial Assistance provided 382 quarterly gifts to ministers on the basic stipend and 628 gifts to their children. This was a decrease from 1957 of 229 gifts to ministers and 310 to children, indicative of the increase of stipends paid by congregations to their ministers.

$100,000.00 has been received annually from the Donor and total receipts up to the 31st December 1958 amounted to $825,000.00.

Because of the increased support of congregations in ministers' stipends, the Appointors found it unnecessary to reduce the amount of gifts to the ministers and their children.

It would appear now that the Fund may continue much beyond the ten years for which it was planned and may even go on in perpetuity.

The total sum paid out in 1958 was.....	$ 14,058.60
Balance at 31st January 1959 in the Capital Account amounted to.....	480,155.49
Balance in the Current Account amounted to.....	160,343.09
Making a total of.....	$640,498.58

The Appointors again express to the Donor the appreciation of the Church for this magnificent gift. We again acknowledge with thanks the assistance given by the Assistant to the Treasurer, the Home Missions office staff for their assistance in administration, and Mr. Bamber Hannigan, who has looked after the investments to the great advantage of the Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ALAN MUNRO, Secretary.

And it is recommended that Mr. Gibson's application to be received as a minister of our Church be circularized among Presbyteries; if no competent objections be received by the Board of Education within sixty (60) days, that Mr. Gibson be received as a minister eligible for appointment by the Board of Missions, or to receive a regular gospel call.

(2) That $100.00 be assured effective January 1st, 1960.

(3) That all Presbyteries be required to make a survey of aid-receiving congregations in the months of September and October, 1959, with a view to ascertaining how much of this $300.00 can be taken up by the congregations, and that the results of this survey be forwarded to the General Board of Missions by October 31, 1959.

(4) That final action on the remaining $200.00 of the proposed $300.00 be a matter of consultation and action between the General Board of Missions and the Board of Administration in view of the reports of the survey made by Presbyteries, and that the Church be notified of the final action by December 1, 1959.

On request of Dr. Johnston, and by consent of the Assembly, Dr. J. A. Munro addressed the Court relative to the recommendations.

It was moved in amendment by Mr. W. MacKinnon, seconded by Mr. J. Weir, that where congregations will contribute $100.00 of an increase in their support of the Ordained Missionary's stipend, the grant remaining the same, the Ordained Missionary's stipend be increased by $100.00 per annum on February 1st, 1960, and should the finances of the Church warrant it when General Assembly meets in 1960 the increase in stipend be made to all Ordained Missionaries retroactive to February 1st, 1960.

Recommendation 6 (a) was then adopted.

Recommendation 6 (b) — That because contributions approximate 88.6 per cent of the annual suggested allocations, the allocations for the next five years be based on the following figures:

1960	$1,800,000.00
1961	1,920,000.00
1962	2,030,000.00
1963	2,140,000.00
1964	2,250,000.00

This recommendation was adopted.

Recommendation 6 (c) — That, in order to encourage liberality, the Assembly approve in principle the prior and controlled apportionment of this increase among the various Spending Boards.

This recommendation was adopted.

Recommendation 6 (d) — That the determination of the specific percentages of the prior and controlled apportionment be established in the Fall of 1959 by the Conference of the Representatives of the Spending Boards.

OVERTURE 7, PRESBYTERY OF PARIS RE USE OF DUPLEX ENVELOPES

The Assembly called for the Report of the Stewardship and Budget Committee on Overture 7, as above, which was given in by Mr. J. D. C. Jack, in the absence of the Chairman, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was received, considered and adopted as follows:

Contributions may not be used except for the purpose for which the donors contributed them.

If a congregation, by decision of its Annual Meeting thoroughly publicized, agrees to receive contributions for several objectives in the red half of the duplex envelope — and contributors make their gifts on this understanding — then, of course, the contributions may be used as stipulated. The printing on the envelope should correspond with the congregation's policy.

If no such prior understanding exists, then neither session nor congregation may use the contribution except for the General Assembly's Budget Fund.

We recommend that this statement be sent to the Presbytery of Paris in reply to its Overture; and that the Stewardship and Budget Committee prepare and circulate to all congregations an expanded statement of these views.

OVERTURE 13, PRESBYTERY OF LINDSAY RE FAMILIES AND CHURCH DEFICIT

The Assembly called for the Report of the Stewardship and Budget Committee on Overture 13, as above, which was given in by Mr. J. D. C. Jack in the absence of the Chairman, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was received, considered and adopted, as follows:

(A) Re use of the "Family" column of statistics:

1. The statistical data on the number of families is compiled on a variety of bases — including member-families, church-school-families, fringe-families — so that it does not afford an accurate index of the relative strength of congregations in any particular, let alone of their financial strength.

2. The number of wage-earning persons in a congregation bears no relationship whatsoever to the number of families reported in congregations in different types of community.

(B) Re Assessment for deficit reduction:

3. We regard any flat rate-per-family-basis of assessment for any purpose as inequitable, because of the differences in the economic circumstances of whole congregations, and the even greater differences in the circumstances of families.

4. We would regard any special assessment for deficit reduction as inequitable and undesirable because:

(a) It would be justly resented by many congregations whose long-term record of liberality absolves them from any responsibility for the present deficit.

(b) In 1958 and the first part of 1959, many congregations have already contributed liberally to the Special Appeal for Debt Reduction while other congregations have not, within years of memory, contributed even the full amount of their allocation.

5. The Presbytery of Lindsay, which in 1958 stood 44th or 45th in its rate of giving-per-member, should be encouraged to make a special effort to promote a higher level of liberality in meeting the normal Budget Allocation in all congregations within its bounds.

We recommend that the prayer of the Overture be not granted and that this statement be sent to the Presbytery of Lindsay as the General Assembly's reply to its Overture.

On motion of Mr. J. D. C. Jack, duly seconded, the report as a whole as amended, was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RECRUITMENT FOR FULL-TIME SERVICE

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Recruitment for Full-Time Service which was given in by Dr. E. A. Thomson in the absence of the Convener.

On motion of Mr. J. Dutton, duly seconded, the report was received and adopted as follows:

Recruitment for Full-time Service represents a crucial issue in the growth and development of any institution. In the beginning it seems to represent the most elusive part of the Church's life. It seems so impossible to reach by organization or technique the forces which call a ministry out of a Church's membership. Upon further consideration, it is obvious that even the most elaborate efforts and propaganda would be of little avail. The raising of the ministry and a staff of church servants is a very personal thing. The Christian call is still a unique requirement for the full-time servant — that call may manifest itself in a variety of ways but the assurance that one is doing work that God intends him to do, beyond any doubt is a prerequisite to an effective ministry over a long number of years. This in itself may appear to present a difficulty but actually offers a solution upon further consideration. The real and adequate provision of church leadership can only be provided by vital concern at the congregational level. It is only at this point that a full person to person appeal can be made.

May I have the privilege of pointing out that the first concern of the congregation is to present an environment for our young people where they are keenly aware that the Church of Jesus Christ is providing dynamic leadership within the congregation, within the community and at the same time holds world-wide concepts of the Christian Mission.

It is equally important that the congregation and the community seek that leadership, direction and strength which the Church is willing and capable of providing. This means our young people will see at their doorstep an opportunity for a useful and effective life. You cannot expect young people to give their lives to a Church which in their own community is not calling people to the Christian adventure. This is not alone the task of the minister, though he is the key to the situation. The nature and the quality of the Christian Education staff, the awareness of the Session to their opportunity and to their duty — these are but some of the congregational factors that provide our future ministers and deaconesses with a fertile soil in which the call, faint though it may be at first, grows and matures, into a full-fledged assurance. As long as we neglect this we shall always have a problem in recruitment both in quantity and in quality. You cannot expect our strong young people to give their lives to a purpose whose direction and power are in question. Anything less than this will provide a challenge only to those less gifted and less qualified. If in the coming year our hundreds of congregations across the nation through our Ministers and Sessions would dedicate themselves to a revitalizing of congregational life we would find amazing results.

This first requirement having been met, a multitude of things begin to nurture the first important decision — young people's camps, student missions, visitation of college personnel, instructional literature, etc.

The decision finally being made, our congregations ought to dedicate themselves to the training and support of their young people who are going forward. We are not thinking of the support as making things easy for them but rather making our claim for Christ more nearly complete — showing them by deed and concern that the Church has accepted their offer and has claimed their lives. If circumstances make it impossible for certain congregational groups so to nurture young people who come from their midst, then Presbyteries ought to be responsible to find congregational groups that will take a deep and personal interest.

As Convener of the Recruitment Committee over a number of years I have had a chance to observe this at work in my own and many other congregations as proof of the fact which is herein presented. We must recognize that today 10 per cent of our congregations are producing 100 per cent of our church leadership. A complete answer to this vital issue in our Church is the acceptance of the remaining 90 per cent of this truth. If with God's help they move forward, great days are ahead.

F. G. Stewart,

Convener.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE "A", PRESBYTERY OF CALGARY RE MEMBERSHIP IN A CONGREGATION

The Assembly called for the report of the Special Committee on the above Overture which was given in by Mr. Wm. Weir, Convener, on whose motion, duly seconded, the report and recommendation were adopted as follows:

In reporting on Unprinted Overture "A" from the Presbytery of Calgary re Holding of Offices, your committee expresses the opinion that the overture is none too clear in stating the problem that exists or the legislation desired.

However, as we understand the situation the Presbytery is asking this Court to enact legislation which would prevent a person who is not a member of a congregation or a person who is not a member of The Presbyterian Church in Canada from holding office in any society within the congregation.

This, perhaps, would be the ideal arrangement, but it seems to be an impossible one in the life of many congregations, such as newly formed congregations and many small congregations.

In recommending that the prayer of the overture be not granted your Committee points out that it is within the power of every Session, as it is their duty, to exercise kindly but firm discipline over all societies and all people in or associated with the congregation.

Sincere appreciation is recorded concerning the visits and greetings at Assembly from representatives of other Communions: the Rt. Rev. Bishop F. H. Wilkinson of the Anglican Church of Canada, Dr. Ernest Long of the United Church, Dr. Emlyn Davies of the Baptist Federation of Canada. We record also our appreciation of the presence and sentiments of Dr. E. G. B. Foote of the Chaplaincy Services, of the Rev. B. L. Walden of the Bible Society, of Dr. W. J. Gallagher of the Canadian Council of Churches, and of His Worship, Mayor Nathan Phillips, Q.C.

The Assembly thanks Presbyterian Publications for their exhibit in the Sunday School Room, for providing post office facilities and stationery, and for their gift to each Commissioner of a pen, and Miss Isabel Gibb and Mr. William Geggie of Presbyterian Publications for their many kindnesses.

To the Board of the University of Toronto for the use of rooms at the University College Residence and Whitney Hall, to the Board of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School for rooms, and to the Board of Managers of Knox College for use of the Residences, and to the Matron and her Staff at Knox College, we extend our thanks.

The visit of commissioners was made more pleasurable by the Metropolitan Police by assistance in parking, by the Shell Oil Company of Canada and the Canadian Oil Companies for maps of the City, by the University of Toronto for "Visitors' Guides", by the British American Oil Company for lawn tables, chairs and sun umbrellas, and by the Church Officers of Knox Church, Messrs. James Craig and Innes McCartney in their helpfulness.

Finally, we thank the Press for their coverage of happenings throughout the Assembly.

Many others co-operated in making the Assembly a felicitous gathering, and to all, the Assembly tender warm thanks.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE A—PRESBYTERY OF CALGARY
Re MEMBERSHIP IN A CONGREGATION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the holding of an executive office in a congregation by a member of another congregation imposes an unnecessary problem of discipline upon the courts of the Church, and

WHEREAS, members of other denominations who hold offices in The Presbyterian Church may introduce inappropriate procedure into our institutions, and

WHEREAS, it is obviously unfair for a member of another congregation to deprive that congregation of his total loyalty and support, while interfering with the machinery and damaging the spirit of the congregation in which he holds an office, and

WHEREAS, only a full member of a congregation can be considered fully qualified for leadership in adult groups,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Calgary humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly to proceed to the enactment of such remedial legislation as shall prevent the ambiguous situation wherein the affairs of one congregation might be seriously influenced by members of another congregation or, indeed, of a different denomination.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE B—PRESBYTERY OF BROCKVILLE
Re UTTERANCE OF REV. MALCOLM RANSOM

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the daily newspapers of Tuesday, April 21st, in reporting the proceedings of the Synod of Hamilton and London, meeting in Ingersoll on Monday, April 20th, says that in an address given by the Rev. Malcolm Ransom, Assistant Secretary to the Assembly's Board of Missions did say, "It may no longer be possible for the Presbyterian Church to maintain a separate existence in Canada. The question of the formation of the United Church in 1925 was not settled once and for all at that time," and

WHEREAS, those remarks of the Rev. Mr. Ransom have since been verified by the Clerk of the Synod of Hamilton and London and, further, as that same Synod at a later sederunt disassociated itself from the sentiments expressed by Mr. Ransom, and

WHEREAS, any statement by a Secretary of a Board so important as that of Missions carries more weight in the eyes of the general public than does a like utterance from a non-official, and

WHEREAS, the people of our Church, both Clergy and Laity, during the Church Union controversy suffered hardship in an unusual degree and made sacrifices of an extreme nature in order to maintain the historic traditions of our Church and preserve the purity of the Church's doctrines and the simplicity of our worship and to continue unbroken the life and work of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, and

WHEREAS, because of sacrifice unexampled and a steadfast devotion, the ravages of the split of 1925 have been largely repaired and our Church is making its contribution to the spiritual life of our country and to Missionary work beyond our borders, and

WHEREAS, it is the firm conviction of the Presbytery of Brockville that the vast majority of the members of our communion have no wish or desire to merge with any other ecclesiastical body.

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Brockville humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly,

1. To request the Board of Missions as a body to repudiate the sentiments expressed by Mr. Ransom as reported in the press, and

2. To inform the Board, that before making any appointment, to send the name of the nominee down to the Presbyteries of the Church, so that every possible step can be taken to avoid an utterance or statement by an official which might cause unrest or division amongst our people disturbing the rest, peace and progress of the Church.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, new developments are springing up in Northern Ontario and in Northwestern Quebec, such as the one at Moosonee, and

WHEREAS, this area is tremendous, embracing several presbyteries, and

WHEREAS, home missions conveners have neither the time nor the money at their disposal to keep in touch with these developments,

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Temiskaming humbly overtures the General Assembly to appoint a Synodical Missionary for Northern Ontario and Northwestern Quebec.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE D—PRESBYTERY OF HAMILTON
Re GRANTS TO INTER-DENOMINATIONAL WORK

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly each year makes certain grants to inter-denominational work, and

WHEREAS, these grants (though approved by the various Boards of the General Assembly) are made from the Budget Funds of the Church, in the name of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, and

WHEREAS, these grants are at present included in the authorized expenditures of the individual Boards most directly concerned with these worthy causes, and

WHEREAS, such inclusion gives an inflated representation of the actual amount at the disposal of a Board for the financial support of its particular program,

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Hamilton humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to dissociate the grants to inter-denominational work from the authorized expenditure of its Boards, while continuing the practice of making such grants upon the recommendation of these Boards.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE E— PRESBYTERY OF HAMILTON
Re APPOINTMENTS OF SALARIED REPRESENTATIVES

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, we believe the government of this Church by Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods and General Assemblies, to be founded upon and agreeable to the word of God, and

WHEREAS, it is both desirable and needful that the Boards and Committees of General Assembly be responsive to the Courts of the Church, and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has agreed "to instruct all Boards of the Church before making appointments of salaried representatives, that they advise Presbyteries of the proposed appointments, with the request that Presbyteries send in the names of any they deem specially qualified for the work" (Minutes, 1930, p. 29), and

WHEREAS, this regulation governing the Boards of the Church has not always been applied in the past (Book of Forms (Appendices) Part 2, section 1, p. 130),

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Hamilton humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to bring this regulation to the attention of its Boards and Committees, that they may be governed thereby in the matter of executive secretaries, associate secretaries, and assistants to secretaries; to limit the initial term of assistants to secretaries to a maximum of five years; to put on record the understanding that appointment as assistant does not automatically involve the right of succession to associate or executive secretaries.

THE GENERAL BOARD OF MISSIONS

GENERAL

Each year is examined by men in order to "read the signs of the time". In human affairs, calendar years may not coincide with discernible movements within history and relationships. Seldom can great events be computed in "Balance Sheet" form at the year end, but within any twelve-month period some of the "signs" are evident. What may we say of our world in 1958?

Probably one of the most significant insights has been the realization that no one nation (let alone, one man) possesses complete governmental competence. Another is the realization that no one nation, or group of nations, can guarantee victory to itself or to its allies in a "fighting war".

From the time the Russians shot Sputnik 1 into space, toward the end of 1957, until now, over a year later, men of all nations have been thrust into a period of uncertainty. Statements from leaders of sovereign nations have not become more humble in essence, but rather carry a more militant and belligerent dictum — as a shield against their own insecurity. Peoples of all nations have sensed two things: (1) the increased power of the great and wealthy nations, and (2) the fear of the great and wealthy nations that the power which they have is not enough. There is sufficient power to destroy all, but not power to conquer all.

So, through the nations, there is a greater uncertainty that has been understood for years. This lack of confidence in the complete competence of any nation is in contrast with the "cook book recipe" type of thinking which can be labelled Marxism or Capitalism or Democracy, Socialism or Militarism. Not many days ago, one or other of these recipes was held up as the proper "bread" for all nations.

It is too early yet to know the end result of what the people of 1958 are realizing. Much has been written and spoken of the plight of our day. That we have failed in stewardship in and among the nations is certain. That we have been able to follow our vision into the awful grandeur of God's universe before we have understood the stewardship of what man already possesses, is just as certain. The marks of our failures are on every continent. Think of Africa, of the Middle East, of the Far East, of Europe, of the Americas, and of the islands of the seas. Mankind is still trying to achieve great economic, national and spiritual advances by "slugging it out" with physical force and power dominance.

It would seem, then, that 1958 has a very special message for the Church of Jesus Christ. Has the year not said to us who serve in His Name

- 1) By lifting our eyes so that they follow missiles into space, we have an enlivened and new experience of the Creator God.
- 2) We have an urgent demand to speak for Christ so that He is the competent governmental Power for all people and for every year — The Lord of all Life.
- 3) His Church must say these things with one voice and with honesty and truth before all men.

The new Pope of Rome has called for an Ecumenical Conference aimed at bringing into union the Eastern Orthodox Church and the Roman Catholic Church. Christ calls His Church to true catholicity; intelligent, honest, full of faith and with unity of spirit and purpose, to confront the world with Christ's Message in such manner that the world must hear.

OUR WORK AT HOME

The slowing down in our national economy during 1957 became more noticeable in 1958. Early in the year (by the end of April) manufacturers' shipments were down five percent and international trade was down 1.5 percent.

Labour agreements and contracts in Canada during 1958 were up for review in large numbers (more than 1500 compared with 375 for 1957). This vast number of 'reviews' always yields uncertainty and strikes or the threat of strikes.

Accompanying the slow-down in our economy was an increase in our population. It was estimated in March that we had increased from the first of the year by 61,000 for a total of 16,948,000 people.

By mid-January 1959, those without work in the Nation and seeking work numbered 538,000 as compared with 527,000 a year previous. 5,538,000 were employed at January 17th, 1959; an increase of 88,000 more than at the same date 1958.

In spite of the recession of the second half of 1957 and throughout part of 1958, the Church must give thanks and rejoice that in many ways these were two of our very best years. Budget receipts for 1957 were $1,315,470.00 and for 1958 $1,479,776.00, to which was added $64,022.00 as a special emergency offering.

In 1958, as in 1957, our Mission to the Nation grew in strength and in dimension. Eleven charges hitherto supported by deficit grants came to full self-support. Four mission fields came up to augmented status. Churches were built and new congregations were begun; churches were in the process of building at the close of the year.

The two most patent factors brought about by our changing economy in the Nation were 1) a marked decrease in immigration, 2) a very significant change in government policy on defense and military equipment.

The Church in Canada, under these changing conditions, must have something to say to the people. Is this a time when we may, as part of Christ's Church, overtake much that has been left undone to work with people recently come to Canada? It would appear so.

Moreover, it is a time when all of us must have clear and good thoughts for the future of Canada. The Church can and ought to make such an impact on the life of Canadian people that in education, research, economic knowledge, and in all the other avenues of human endeavour, we can in Christ's way challenge the world with His kind of Peace.

OUR WORK ABROAD

1958 was a year of marked advance in our mission work overseas. There was a small increase of staff although the level of expenditure was kept very close to that of the preceding year. The Board was able to make a very substantial advance in clarifying objectives and bringing every part of the work into sharp and effective focus.

The Board has continued the policy of intensive study of the work on each of our fields and careful administration of it. This has called for frequent visits to the fields by the Overseas Secretary. The Board believes that these visits have borne abundant fruit in strengthening the hands of our missionaries and mission groups in the work that they are now doing, in more effective use of present expenditures, and in the improvement of the schools and hospitals on the fields.

In earlier days the desire for economy led the Board to adopt a policy of restricting visits to the fields. It can be seen now that this policy has been costly both in life and money. On several fields, problems and tensions, which might have been eased by an early visit from the Board, developed to the place where individuals and sometimes whole groups of missionaries withdrew or had to be withdrawn. This has been costly in life. Men who went out with fine missionary purpose have been embittered by distressing experiences which need not have occurred. It has been costly in funds. Many thousands of dollars are required to prepare a missionary for his work which are largely lost if he does not continue as a missionary of the Board. It has been costly in allowing institutions to deteriorate and to be turned into activities which had little value in relation to our central missionary purpose.

During this year we have had good reports from the Mackay Memorial Hospital in Taipei, the Tamsui Middle School, and the Berbice High School. In all three of these institutions significant advances have been made in terms of a distinctive Christian contribution by strengthening staff and programme and in improving the buildings and equipment.

We have continued our programme of training of missionaries, both new candidates who are going for the first time to the field and older men who are home for furlough. Mr. John Murray has made a study of the work of the layman, particularly in terms of economic problems. Rev. F. Knox has been studying the communication of the Gospel to the Bhils in terms of their beliefs and customs. Rev. Donald Powell has been working on the role of the layman in the mission of the Church. Each one has had a subject which relates particularly to his responsibility in the overseas fields. The papers produced by these men constitute a valuable resource for our overseas work as a whole. The outgoing missionaries had a period of intensive training first at a linguistic course in Toronto, then at the Outgoing Missionary Conference of the Department of Overseas Missions of the Canadian Council of Churches, and finally at an intensive study course organized by the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

We have also continued a programme of training men for leadership in the fields abroad. Outstanding work has been done this year by Rev. Nwachuku Eme of Nigeria and Mr. Basil Beharry, Principal of the Berbice High School in British Guiana. If we are to call on the new Churches for increased initiative and responsibility we must help prepare them for that kind of leadership.

On each of our fields there have been events of very special significance.

In Formosa our work marked an historic milestone when the 84th General Assembly of the The Presbyterian Church in Canada approved a plan for placing the contribution of our missionary staff firmly within the courts and committees of the Presbyterian Church of Formosa. In that Island plans were also laid for a much stronger missionary approach to the amazing new Christian community among the Aboriginal Tribes.

The opening of the Korean Christian Centre on the outskirts of the city of Kyoto was the important move in our work in Japan. In the summer of 1958 we rejoiced to learn that the Korean Christian Church in Japan was received as a member of the Alliance of Reformed Churches.

During 1958 the Board had intensive discussions of the proposals for the Church Union in North India which would include the United Church of Northern India of which our work in both the Bhil and Jhansi fields is a part. Conversations about Church Union have been proceeding in India since the late '20's. Our Board was invited to send their comments on the present proposal and we communicated with the United Church of Northern India, passing on to them some of the statements of inter-Church relations as approved by the 84th General Assembly of our Church in 1958 and the 73rd General Assembly of 1947.

In our Bhil Field the Jobat Hospital was strengthened as plans were smoothed out for the addition of a T.B. Ward and a School of Nursing. The local Presbytery continued to pick up increased responsibility for a joint programme of evangelism.

Our missionaries in the Jhansi Field continued to develop the work more closely in relation to the Indian Christian community in the city of Jhansi. Our Mission continued to lease property to the Evangelical Fellowship of India.

In January and February of 1958 the Overseas Secretary made a second visit to Calabar where he had intensive consultations with our missionaries, with missionaries of the Church of Scotland, and with leaders of the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria. These led to a further clarification of our working relationships with the Scottish missionaries and the Nigerian Presbyterians and underlined the tremendous significance of the work which we are undertaking there.

Most important advance in British Guiana was in our study of plans for theological training of ordained men. Two students were sent to take their training in the Union Theological Seminary in Kingston, Jamaica, the strongest centre in the Caribbean region where our men might secure theological courses. Plans were drawn for a new building for Berbice High School and conversations with the Government seemed to lay a more secure base for proceeding with an adequate building.

During the year four new missionaries were appointed for overseas service: Mr. and Mrs. John Geddes for educational work in Formosa; Dr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson for theological teaching among the Aboriginal Tribes in Formosa; Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Johnston, for short-term educational work in Nigeria, and Rev. and Mrs. Rodger Talbot for student work among the Koreans in Tokyo, Japan.

Members of our Board continued to play an active part in various ecumenical organizations in which we participate. The Overseas Secretary was one of the Canadian representatives at the Assembly of the International Missionary Council held in Accra, Ghana, at the beginning of 1958. He later was the only Canadian representative at the historic first All-Africa Church Conference in Ibadan, Nigeria, in mid-January.

As a member of the Joint Committee of the International Missionary Council and the World Council of Churches, Dr. Johnson participated in the working meetings in Denmark on Missionary Studies and on joint activities of these two world bodies. We have continued to play an active part in the Department of Overseas Missions of the Canadian Council of Churches within which our staff and officers are stimulated and strengthened in missionary thinking in consultation with those of the other Canadian Churches. One of the most important issues before the I.M.C. and the Department of Overseas Missions was the proposal for integration of the International Missionary Council and the World Council of Churches. Our Board gave general approval to the proposed integration believing that the integrity both of Mission and of Church is involved in this plan.

During the year we had two very important changes in Staff. Mrs. H. E. Stewart, the Assistant to the Secretary for Missionary Education, tendered her resignation. This was accepted with regret and with expressions of deep appreciation for her great contribution. On September 1, Rev. R. Malcolm Ransom joined the staff as Assistant Secretary for Overseas Missions, and since his appointment has made an outstanding contribution to strengthening the Overseas work of the Board.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION

During the year the Committee for Missionary Education has undergone a number of important changes. The editorial work has been interrupted by the resignation of Mrs. H. E. Stewart, whom the Committee is seeking to replace at an early date as Editorial Assistant. In September, The Rev. A. W. Currie was elected Chairman. Dr. E. H. Johnson, Secretary for Overseas Missions, continued as Secretary of the Committee, but his work was seriously curtailed by prolonged hospitalization for surgery. During this time of transition, the work of the Committee was largely maintained by the experience and untiring efforts of the office secretary, Miss Helen McFavish.

MISSION FOR THIS DAY

The 1958 account of the mission work of the Church was published under the title "Mission For This Day" in a similar format to the two previous reports, and with a study guide included within the text. The initial printing was increased this year to 7,000.

PAMPHLET SERIES

One new pamphlet was added in the Home Mission series, entitled "Indians of Canada." 20,555 copies of this pamphlet have been printed. Two general pamphlets, "Our Mission Overseas" and "Our Mission in Canada" were reprinted during the year, making a total printing of 158,000. This stock has been largely exhausted.

CALENDAR FOR 1959

The Secretary again acted as Editor of the Church Calendar. Over 32,000 copies have been sold and distributed, an all-time record in the history of this publication.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PUBLICATIONS

The aim of this Committee has been to work towards an integration of missionary education into the whole curriculum. The present missionary questions have for some time been considered quite inadequate. The Committee has been working towards the recognition of the fact that "mission" is a central and indispensable aspect of education for the life in Christ. It is involved in every part of the educational process and must be woven into the total Christian Education programme in a way that will produce full commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord.

THE RECORD

The Rev. De Courcy H. Rayner, has continued the whole-hearted cooperation with this Committee which was established by the previous Editor, and a number of major articles have appeared during the year on Mission themes, as well as shorter items of news.

STEWARDSHIP AND BUDGET WEEKLY CALENDARS

The Stewardship and Budget Committee has worked closely with this Committee in the production of Weekly Calendars on Mission themes.

ITINERARIES

The Committee continued throughout the year in the attempt to develop more meaningful itineraries for missionaries on furlough and overseas personnel in order to make their contacts with congregations more effective. The World Mission Weekend programme was carried a step farther in its development. This method of Missionary Education has proved itself to be a useful means of interpreting the Mission of the Church and has been set aside as a major emphasis of the Committee for the forthcoming year.

Another experiment in meaningful Missionary Education was the Brampton "Centre of Influence" programme. This made use of one missionary figure, and placing him for a period in a rural area that has a clearly defined centre which controls the communications throughout the district. Making use of all the dynamics of communication he was presented by radio and newspaper to the whole community first, and following this with meetings in the various churches.

Regular deputation work was carried out by the following missionaries on furlough: Rev. S. Moore and Mrs. Gordon (Formosa); Rev. Donald H. and Dr. Marion Powell (Japan); Rev. E. C. and Mrs. Knox and Mr. John M. and Mrs. Murray (Bhil Field, India). And by the following overseas nationals: Rev. Neil Ramsaroop; Rev. Moti Lail; Mr. Su-ti Tan and the Rev. Nwachukwu Eme. Mr. Eme was our visiting minister from the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria and carried out extensive deputation work in the early spring and summer throughout the Maritimes and the National Y.P.S. Camp at Clear Lake, Manitoba.

THE COURTS OF THE CHURCH

The Committee sees its work as consisting not only in disseminating missionary information, but also in the interpretation of the mission of the Church in this day, and the calling of the Church to the realization and acceptance of its mission. The Committee feels therefore that there is an urgent need to work out structures and programs in our Church Courts and congregations which would have continuous responsibility for calling the Church to its missionary task. The Committee finds that it has no clear channel through which to work in the Courts of the Church by which it may carry out its missionary education function. Most Mission Conveners are already burdened with considerable administrative details and so have little time left for the work of missionary education within the Presbytery or Synod.

Conferences with individual Mission Conveners (Synod and Presbytery) have been held in an attempt to work out their responsibility to this Committee for Missionary Education in their respective Church Courts.

THE AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE

The Committee for Missionary Education is directly represented on the newly-organized Audio-Visual Committee, and has sought to promote sound working procedures between these two committees. A new slide set was produced on "The Indians of Canada."

THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES COMMITTEE ON MISSIONARY EDUCATION

The Committee on Missionary Education of the Canadian Council of Churches came into being this year. We are represented both on the full Committee and on the Executive.

THE COMMISSION ON MISSIONARY EDUCATION OF THE NCCC/USA

This Committee was represented at the Annual Meeting of the CME of the NCCC/USA and at the semi-annual meeting in Toronto. Editorial work on CME manuscripts was done by the Secretaries during the year in preparation for books published by Friendship Press.

Respectfully submitted,
E. H. JOHNSON.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

1. Re International Affairs:

WHEREAS, International Affairs today dominate many aspects of our national life and many of the concerns of our Church people, and,

WHEREAS, the Church has a responsibility for Christian witness and prophetic utterance in world issues, and,

WHEREAS, our Church has no appropriate instrument to study these matters, to call our people to thought and prayer on such matters, or to participate with other Churches in these concerns,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends that the General Assembly instruct some existing Board or Committee of the Assembly to take special responsibility in this field.

2. Re Future of our Missionary Participation in Nigeria:

WHEREAS, there is in Africa today a tremendous urgency for the proclamation of the Gospel, and

WHEREAS, faithfulness in this task requires increasing missionary resources from abroad, and

WHEREAS, we have received a hearty welcome from the Church of Scotland and from the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria, especially as expressed by Sir Francis Ibiam, Rev. Nwachuku Eme, Dr. James Dougall and others, and

WHEREAS, the experience of our Church in the first five years of work in Nigeria confirms our conviction that God has called us to this task.

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, The Presbyterian Church in Canada continue to serve in missionary work in Nigeria, and

THAT, this work be continued as part of the work of the Church of Scotland and the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria and not as a separate geographical field, and

THAT, our missionaries continue to serve as members of the Calabar Mission Council and on the same terms as the missionaries of the Church of Scotland, except where the General Board of Missions has made special provisions for Canadian missionaries, and

THAT, The Presbyterian Church in Canada follow the policy of relating our missionary staff as fully as possible to the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria.

3. Re: Graduates for Ordained Missionary Work:

WHEREAS, The General Board of Missions is concerned that the Assembly's action requiring a period of ordained missionary service for graduates of our Theological Colleges should include service abroad if so desired by the graduate,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the phrase in the action of the 66th General Assembly in 1940 which now reads:

"That all students graduating from one of the Canadian Theological Colleges or those graduating from any seminary outside of Canada, and who seek to be taken on trials for licensure by one of the Presbyteries of the Canadian Church, or licentiates seeking admission to the Ministry of our Church, be required by the General Assembly to serve for a period of one year on an Ordained Mission Field under appointment by the General Board of Missions."

be amended to read: "For a period of one year as an ordained missionary under appointment by the Home Mission section of the General Board of Missions or for a period of two years under appointment by the Overseas Section of the General Board of Missions to British Guiana, or Nigeria, where the work can be done in the English language."

4. Re Recruiting Programs:

THAT, The General Assembly take appropriate steps to strengthen a program of recruitment for full-time service, both for urgent immediate needs, and for long-term plans; and, that the recruiting concerns and activities of the several Boards of the Church be fully co-ordinated.

5. Re Japan Centennial — November 1 - 7, 1959

WHEREAS, The Christian Church in Japan will celebrate on November 1 - 7, 1959, the centenary of Protestant missionary work in that country,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the General Assembly send appropriate Christian greetings to the churches in Japan through the National Christian Council of Japan on this historic occasion of centennial celebrations.

6. Re Church in China:

WHEREAS, recent authoritative word from China informs us that the Christian Church is undergoing shattering experiences that have tended to destroy formal Church life and make effective Christian witness extremely difficult,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the General Assembly issue to all our congregations a special call to prayer for our fellow-Christians in China and for the people of that nation, such a call to be supported by a document of recent information concerning the state of the Church in China which would be prepared by the General Board of Missions for circulation throughout our Church.

7. Re Composite Charges

WHEREAS, some of our smaller congregations which could be joined into composite charges object to such arrangements because of changes in the hours of services of worship and other local prejudices, and

WHEREAS, our Church is extremely short of ministers and one minister could easily serve the composite charge,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the General Assembly urge Presbyteries to take appropriate action where several congregations may be served by one minister.

8. Re Deficit Grants

WHEREAS, some aid receiving congregations appear to consider the fact that they are "aid-receiving" lightly, and fail to understand their responsibility to the Church and the necessity of reducing the amount of aid given to them, and

WHEREAS, grants in aid are oftentimes considered an unalterable right of these congregations,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the General Assembly approve that the term "deficit" grant be used to designate moneys paid to assist aid-receiving congregations.

9. Re Basic Stipend

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1957 (see p. 76, Recommendation 1, Acts and Proceedings 1957) set the basic stipend to all ministers at $2,800, together with a travel grant of $200, and

WHEREAS, this definition has led to confusion as between the set travel allowance of $200 and car allowance based on Sunday driving mileage, and

WHEREAS, the $200 travel allowance is in reality part of the stipend, and

WHEREAS, the designation of this amount as travel allowance has no relevance to ministers' income tax responsibility,

THEREFORE, the General Board of Missions recommends:

THAT, the General Assembly approve that the basic stipend be stated as $3,000 rather than $2,800 and $200 travel allowance.

OVERSEAS MISSIONS REPORTS

CANADIAN PRESBYTERIAN MISSION IN BRITISH GUIANA

Understaffing is a serious problem and at least two new missionaries are needed for the growing work undertaken by our Church in British Guiana.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

More than 14,000 children in the 31 Primary Schools were reached with a message from God's Word. This was done through visits to the schools by the women missionaries and Guianese deaconesses and by the Manager of the Canadian Mission Schools, the Rev. Allan Reoch. Special studies for the 406 teachers in the schools have been sent out, as well as 800 books and booklets on Bible study. Training classes for Sunday School teachers were carried on at Georgetown and on the Essequibo Coast.

In June, the Rev. R. D. Duncanson returned from Canada to take up his duties as acting-principal of the Berbice High School. In July, 157 pupils were presented for the General Certificate of Education, Ordinary Level. There were 374 pupils enrolled.

The General Board of Missions sent Dr. E. H. Johnson to British Guiana in July to discuss with the Mission Council, the Presbytery and the Government, a government proposal to assist in up-grading the Berbice High School. The annual grant of $27,500 which had been reduced to $16,000 was restored to the School: a saving of $11,500 per year to the General Board of Missions. The Government also promised to bear one-half the capital cost of rebuilding the school which is projected in three phases over the next five years.

EVANGELISM

1958 marked an important milestone in the work of training leaders for the Guianese Church. March saw the completion of the three-year course given at Bethel College for catechists and deaconesses. At the graduation on March 26, seven former catechists, five student-catechists and four deaconesses received the diploma of the College, and the Canadian Presbytery granted certificates to nine catechists and six deaconesses.

Twenty-one delegates attended the third annual conference held in August at Better Hope, East Coast, Demerara. The elected Executive Committee was authorized to organize the work of the Young People's Societies in the Canadian Presbyterian Church in British Guiana.

Six new deaconesses were appointed to work in various districts. In Demerara and in Berbice County, 11 and 16 women's groups respectively, are meeting regularly, and the women's work in Essequibo received an added boost with the coming of two new deaconesses. In August a one-day colony-wide conference for women was held for the first time.

FORMOSA

The Church in Formosa continued to advance in spite of trials and testings, war and rumours of war. During the year the Canadian mission staff on the Island numbered 24. With the addition of the Geddes and the Wilson families who arrived at the year's end, the staff is now the largest in history.

EVANGELISM

Ninety-eight per cent of the Island's population is still unevangelized. In a time of social change and political turmoil the Church was challenged to fresh evangelistic efforts. Church building activity was considerable. Throughout the plains old edifices were repaired and about 25 new ones were built. There are still more than 160 towns in the plains where no church has yet been established. The number of congregations increased to 359, a gain of 42 in the year. Such is the increase and the need that approximately 100 churches are without ministers.

Among the fishing folk in the Pescadores new churches are being built. Work among the aboriginal tribes is going through a period of transition and consolidation. Fifteen churches were erected by the aborigines during 1958, bringing the number of churches among the aborigines to 335. An application is now before the General Assembly asking permission to form a Presbytery by the Sediq tribes on the East Coast. Six aboriginal pastors are now acting as district superintendents.

In the Ilan area baptismal services were held for a large number of new members, and in three of the villages new churches were dedicated. In Hsin Chu Presbytery there are two Tayal ordained pastors. Four Presbyterian missionaries also work part-time. Sixty-seven enquirers were received into the Church in one mountain congregation.

A new gospel portion — St. Mark in the Amis language appeared in print during the year, and the first Tayal hymnbook came off the press. More than 1,000 copies were sold. This was the work of our missionary, Rev. Clare McGill. The 57-page Tayal primer was published and circulated to every home in the Tayal communities, as was a four-page pamphlet based on health talks by Miss Hildur Hermanson.

Slow progress is being made in evangelism among the Hakka people, the most neglected on the Island when it comes to Christian work. Of a million souls, only about 4,000 are in touch with the message of Christ. Five missionaries are engaged in the study of the Hakka language in the south portion of the Island. In the north, The Presbyterian Church has 22 churches and chapels among the 600,000 Hakkas, and one missionary, Rev. George Malcolm.

Throughout the year the Bible women carried on their faithful mission of visitation and teaching.

The T.K.C. (Taiwan Christian Presbyterian Youth Fellowship) which will celebrate its tenth anniversary in 1959, through its 50-cent-a-month, contributed aid to 14 new churches throughout the eight Presbyteries.

The women of the North and South have continued to meet and plan for the General Assembly organization. Representatives from the South attended the two-day annual meeting in Taipei. The Women's Bible School was re-opened in September and had an enrollment of 12; ten Taiwan students and two Mountain students.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

In June the new Theological College Chapel was dedicated on the magnificent new site outside Taipei, and in November a new dormitory for girls was completed. A total of 91 students enrolled.

To help strengthen the life and work of the Church the Theological College has established a School of Christian Education, where young men and women of senior high school standing are offered a three-year course designed to fit them for vocations within the Church.

A site near Hsin Chu has been chosen as the new location of the Bible School which this year graduated one of the largest classes in its history.

A large tract of land has been selected at Hualien for the permanent site of the Mountain Training Centre for training leaders. Thirty-nine students are enrolled in the regular course and 12 elders are engaged in one term of study.

The year has brought about improved morale in the staff of the Tamkang High School under Mr. Suti Tan, Principal. A new system of counselling and group work was introduced into the dormitory life of the school, and a scholarship system was established enabling students with a high average to obtain partial or full payment of fees. Training in teaching the Gospel is provided as the students are responsible for teaching in five Sunday Schools.

The Theological College faculty is carrying on classes for laymen in the City of Taipei.

Located near Taichung in Formosa, Tunghai University will graduate its first class of students in the summer of 1959. It is the only Christian College in Formosa with a liberal Arts and Science course with standards comparable to those in the best government universities. The General Assembly of the Formosan Church nominates three members to the Board of 15 Directors of Tunghai.

MEDICAL WORK

New plans have been arranged whereby two doctors in Lotung give part-time service to aboriginal patients at St. Luke's Clinic (organized in 1957 with a monthly grant from the Canadian Church and the Joint Commission on Rural Reconstruction). The grant from Canada pays for the care of the patients and medicines.

This was a year of real advance in the work at Mackay Memorial Hospital. Repairs and new construction on the 48-year-old building carried out at a cost of $324,972. One or more doctors and a nurse are needed if the hospital is adequately to maintain its purpose of healing the body and expressing the love of Christ. The pastor and Bible women have been faithful in preaching the Gospel by private interview with patients and at public meetings. During the year 66 patients expressed the desire to continue their study of the Christian Faith after they returned home. Ten former patients joined the Church and a junior doctor and the acting-superintendent of Nurses were also received into the fellowship of the Church.

Health clinics are held during the twice-yearly meetings of the aboriginal women's groups. At these conferences the women ask for teaching in health, Bible, hymns, catechism, reading, child care, cooking and handwork. At Pu Li there is a large medical unit where aboriginal people with T.B. and other diseases can come for free treatment.

Begun by the late Dr. Gushue-Taylor, the Happy Mount Leprosy Colony continued to prove by the numbers discharged during the year that leprosy can now be cured.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

In spite of the shortage of ministers to fill vacant churches in Formosa, the Assembly established an Overseas Missions Committee to recruit missionaries to work among the Chinese in the Philippines and Malaya. This project is part of a thanksgiving memorial in preparation for the 100th Anniversary (1965) of the founding of the Church in Formosa. Stewardship education received emphasis in September when Dr. and Mrs. Paul Lindholm held meetings in every Presbytery designed to attract laymen and women from rural congregations.

In 1954 the Presbyterian Church in Formosa began a movement to double the number of churches within ten years. It is now within sight of this goal. But population in Formosa is increasing faster than Church membership and the Roman Catholic Church which showed little vigour during the Japanese occupation, is now growing faster than the Presbyterian Church and any other Protestant Church on the Island.

The Missionary Language School has made improvements in the curriculum and is now using materials from the Yale Institute of Far Eastern Languages. Five of our mission staff were registered for 1958.

The China Sunday School Association has a publishing and distributing centre in Hong Kong, and in this way is also serving the churches throughout Southeast Asia. This Association supplies the materials for the Winter Vacation Bible schools in which more than 40,000 pupils and 2,000 teachers will participate on the whole Island.

The Presbyterian Church in Formosa maintains close contact with the Taipei Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A., and most of the 300 churches on the plains take an active part in the distribution programme of the Taiwan Church World Service.

INDIA — BHIL FIELD

An event of considerable significance in the life of the Bhil Church was the retirement of three of its veteran leaders: the Rev. Jigiya of Jobat, the Rev. Daniel Hamiro of Barwani, and the Rev. Tezlo Manglo of Amkhut. Their period of service covered a term of gradual but deep change in the Church. They came to leadership in the days of a Mission church that was restricted in outlook and training. They guided it, under God, to its present state of maturity with a higher level of education and growing consciousness of its place in the Church in India and in the world.

EVANGELISM

The work of evangelism, under the local committee on Evangelism, has gone forward. The churches have loyally supported this outreach. A new evangelistic centre was opened in May at Pangora. Four full-time evangelists are now stationed in this district. There has been a regular daily program of evangelism in the homes, and tours through the district during the period November to March.

The assignment of the Rev. J. W. Milne, to Alirajpur in October brought fresh encouragement to the church and the six evangelists in that area.

The Presbytery of Vindhya and Satpura has made great stride during recent years. In 1930 it was largely missionary dominated. In 1944 it was received as a Presbytery of the United Church of Northern India. Since that time it has grown in stature and has the benefit of capable national leaders to guide it in the new and perplexing problems of a land throbbing with new pride and hope. Much time has been devoted to a study of the Plan of Church Union for North India — a wider union into which the United Church of Northern India has been invited. Presbytery has expressed its convictions clearly and repeatedly on this matter. Serious consideration was given Presbytery to the need for strong pastoral leadership in the Church. Only two of the churches, Amkhut and Jobat, are self-supporting. The churches of the Presbytery continued to take their full share in the support of the Rev. and Mrs. Din Dayal, missionaries of the Indian Church to East Africa.

At Jobat in January a rally was held of representative women from ten different centres who met for worship, study and discussion. This was a stimulus to work among the women.

The regular refresher classes for pastors and evangelists were held at Amkhut in September with full attendance. Four houses for workers were built at Amkhut and an evangelist's house at Pangora. Two manses were completed with assistance from the General Board of Missions.

There was a partial crop failure in 1957-1958. Work was provided by the Mission Council and famine relief administered to the extent of $1,500 received from the home Church.

Miss Margaret Kennedy reports opposition to the Gospel arising from caste and from the fear of evil spirits, especially among women.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

At Amkhut school an attempt is made to give an all-round education at the elementary school level and make the school an effective Christian witness in the community. Courses include Hygiene, Agriculture, Carpentry, Sewing and Handwork as elective classes. Six graduates went on to High School, one to Bible School and three to Vocational School.

When school re-opened in June the enrollment was increased so that two new classes had to be added. There is acute need for classroom space and accommodation for teachers. 95 boys and 94 girls live in the Hostels which provide opportunities for Christian counsel and help. Five village schools have been in operation during the year and the Jobat Hospital has co-operated in medical examinations and diet has been supplemented by supplies from Church World Service.

MEDICAL WORK

During 1958 the number of out-patients at the Jobat Hospital was 4,057 and 2,046 "repeats." A total of 2,033 patients was admitted as in-patients with the average daily of 70, the highest it has ever been. The hospital cares for a wide variety of persons, Bhils, Hindus, Muslims, Christians. There were 438 minor and 54 major operations.

Three graduate nurses were added to the staff, two of these girls from our own field. There are two doctors: Dr. A. Ian Cunningham and Dr. Pushpa Moti Lall.

Each day's work commences with staff prayers at 7.30 a.m. There is a weekly Bible Class for staff members; and on Sunday afternoons preaching services are conducted in the hospital wards. It is hoped that a hospital Chaplain will soon be appointed.

The School of Nursing this year admitted a new class of 8, four boys four girls—all of them from our own field. Three of the first-year students topped the list in the mid-India Board Examinations. There are 23 students enrolled in the three-year course.

The Mobile Medical units continue to operate at full strength. One unit visited seven villages regularly with emphasis on well-baby and prenatal clinics. The total number of patients at these was 4,500 for the year. With the help of the Women's groups teaching about malaria prevention was given and many are now taking treatment regularly.

The units enjoy the interest and co-operation of the Public Health Service of the Province and plan to emphasize preventive medicine with the accent on mother-child health.

INDIA — JHANSI

India is well into her second Five-year Plan. The accent now is upon education to fill technical and scientific posts. In the life of the Church, greater emphasis is now being put on vocational witnessing and a trained ministry. Without losing sight of the great unevangelized areas about us, large pockets of which have not heard the Gospel of Christ, the Jhansi mission staff have been giving guidance in pastoral relation and in creating an informed and dynamic laity.

A laymen's institute and a retreat for women were conducted on the compound, with the teaching staff coming from Synod who presented various avenues of reaching out to the non-Christian masses. In December a team visited Jhansi to conduct classes in Stewardship, led by Dr. Lindholm from the Philippines, assisted by one from Lebanon and one from Iran. Further emphasis on the need of every Christian communicating the Gospel was given in the large Bundelkhand Convention when over 1,000 Christians gathered under canvas for four days.

It was a happy and expectant congregation in Gwalior that pushed through to completion their new manse in time to receive Rev. Moti Lall on his return from Canada. This metropolis has a population equal to Winnipeg, but there is only one church for the city and for an area of fifty miles beyond.

The three self-supporting churches in Jhansi have required much guidance and encouragement. Under the Indian democratic system small villages are grouped together under a 'panchayat' or Council of Five. From among 12 surrounding villages of Issagarh, they chose the Chairman from the village of Issagarh, who is also an elder in the church.

This year, Rev. Eric Lal, B.A., B.D., the son of the Issagarh pastor, was ordained. Two other evangelists have been sent on for post-graduate work in the Allahabad Seminary. Mission funds are being used to help two promising lads to obtain their B.Sc. in Allahabad, while two others are taking machine shop training at a Technical School near Delhi. Mr. MacKay has taken on a heavy responsibility as manager of the Christian High School with an enrolment of over 900 students.

With an estimated doubling of the population in the next 25 years, it is imperative that mass media for communicating the Gospel be used. Mrs. Self reports a growing interest in the vernacular literature and a banner year for distribution.

For three months Mr. Self was able to assist in the teaching in the Allahabad Seminary. This brought him in close contact with student life in the University and the Agricultural Institute and with the work of the Bible Society.

THE KOREAN CHURCH IN JAPAN

Thirty-two years ago, Dr. Luther Young, veteran missionary with the Canadian Presbyterian Mission in North Korea, was appointed to work among the growing number of Koreans residing in Japan. The Church grew until it numbered some 65 congregations, but by the end of the Pacific war in 1945 only three or four congregations remained. Since that time, through the tireless work of faithful pastors and lay members of the Church, assisted by missionary personnel and material assistance from The Presbyterian Church in Canada, the number of congregations increased to 27 in 1954, and to 55 in 1958.

Several new churches were completed during the year. The policy has been for the Korean members to raise 70-80% of the cost and The Presbyterian Church in Canada has contributed the balance for church construction. In some cases, such as at Chikko, the members have met the total cost and the Canadian contribution has been an organ or other furnishings.

EVANGELISM

The first Lay Training centre in Japan, the Korean Christian Centre, Kyoto, was one of the important developments during 1958. The centre can accommodate more than 100 persons, and work camps have been organized to further develop the property. This lay centre will facilitate the training of men and women for life and work in the Church of the future. Furnishings, a chapel, and a library are urgently needed.

Efforts have been made in the three Presbyteries of the Korean Church in Japan to visit non-Christian Korean homes in the large centres. Elders of the churches in these centres have given leadership in this programme. The increase in the number of baptized believers and the growth of the number of new congregations testify to the worthwhile nature of this programme.

The entire northern area of Japan, north of Tokyo, has until 1958 been without work among the Koreans. After a survey was made, a young pastor was appointed to the newly-organized centre at Sapporo, the north island of Hokkaido.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Assembly's Committee prepared teaching material for use by teachers and students in the Sunday Schools. Translation work is proceeding as funds become available. Scholarship aid has been given to theological students and to others preparing for Christian service.

Conferences have been held and small cells of Korean Christian students have been established in the university area. Some 24 theological students are training for the ministry of the Korean Church in Japan. The annual conference for theological students does much to meet the needs of these students during their years of training. A summer conference was attended by 175 delegates from the Young People's organizations of every church in the three Presbyteries.

WELFARE WORK

Koreans who have lost their homes through fire and Koreans in need of clothing and other assistance have been aided by funds from Presbyterian congregations in Canada during 1958. Help is being given to the children of pastors who, under adverse conditions, are continuing their education, through small but appreciated grants from many church groups in Canada.

AFRICA — NIGERIA

This year saw the first minister of the Presbyterian Church in Eastern Nigeria leave for Canada on the Scholarship plan of the Board of Missions for Nigerian pastors. The Rev. Nwachuku Eme, of Arochuku, went for a year of study at Knox College and observation of the Church in Canada. This has been a matter of real encouragement to the local ministry.

Synod has given careful study to the matter of evangelism and the witness of the layman in his daily work. A new Quarterly Journal of Evangelism was authorized and commenced publication this year with the Rev. Earle Roberts as editor. The integration of the Mission and the Church has gone forward this year to the point where it awaits final ratification and implementation at the Synod of 1959. This will mean that the Calabar Mission of the Church of Scotland will become an integral part of the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Nigeria. Inasmuch as the work of Canadian Presbyterian missionaries has been a part of the Calabar Mission it too will become integrated with the indigenous Church. This Church has been engaged since 1928 in conversations with Anglicans, Methodists, Baptists and others looking to a Union for the whole of Nigeria.

Sir Francis Ibiam has served as Principal of the Hope Waddell Training Institute and was appointed Chancellor of University College at Ibadan. He continues to play an active role in Church affairs throughout the colony as well as heading up a plan for the complete renovation of the Hope Waddell School. Duke Town Secondary School received a welcome addition to the staff at the year's end in the person of the Rev. Geoffrey Johnston who will be followed in the New Year by his wife and family.

The All-Africa Church Conference was held at the beginning of the year in Ibadan under the chairmanship of Sir Francis Ibiam. Dr. E. H. Johnson, Overseas Secretary of The Presbyterian Church in Canada was one of the few non-African representatives present at this gathering which gave new impetus to the work of the Church in Nigeria and was an important step in strengthening the whole Christian witness in Africa.

HOME MISSIONS' REPORTS

SYNOD OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES

As a preliminary statement, the following is a brief comparison of the work as at the end of 1948 and the beginning of 1958.

In 1948 there were 72 ministers on the Rolls of Presbyteries, while at the end of 1957 the total number was 73, an increase of one. Augmented Charges decreased by 14, making a total of 19 in 1958. Self-supporting Charges increased by 10, making the total 24. The number of elders increased by 158 in this period.

There has been a steady growth in congregational self-support, as well as steadily increased givings for all purposes. The total amount raised for all purposes increased in this period by $326,554.00, approximately doubling the 1948 figures. Budget givings (Missions) increased from $35,044.00 to $98,009.00.

The number of families increased by 2168 and totalled 13,532 at 1958. As in a previous decade examined and compared some years ago, the numbers received into the Church remained fairly constant or showed small increases while the removals show marked increases which make for a decrease of 1262 members during this period. The membership at 1958 was 18,913. It must be remembered that over the years, and particularly since 1875, this area of the nation has become an importer of consumer goods and an exporter of 'souls'.

The factual picture indicates a stable membership in the Synod as a whole, with increases due to urban growth and extension work and decreases generally in churches situated in the rural areas. The matter of declining rural population and the weakening of the rural church is a serious consideration and concern. Congregations are co-operating well in seeking to meet the difficulties created by decreasing strength in such areas by sharing with neighboring congregations the services of an ordained minister.

One factor is presently defeating the satisfactory and successful operation of an area or larger congregational unit than the accepted one of some years ago. The regulations at present governing the basic stipend level and car allowance make it impossible in some cases for an appointment or Call allowing adequate remuneration to carry on the larger work. There are cases where congregations have been re-arranged, making for a substantial saving in grants (and ministers), with the result that because the new unit, or units, so arranged need some grant, the minister serving is called on to do so for the minimum in stipend and allowances.

It can be stated that the Synod has financially assumed added responsibility for the carrying on of the Church's work. The total amount received by the Treasurer of the Church increased by $67,042.00 between 1948 and 1958. The total amount in 1957 was $101,526.00.

Two matters of special interest marked the year—the visit of the Rev. Nwachuka Eme of Nigeria and the progress made in founding a Synod Corporation. Mr. Eme was well received through the Synod and did much to increase interest in our Nigerian Mission and to deepen the spiritual quality of our Maritime Church.

The hope that the Maritime Synod Corporation will soon be established and operating has given much heart to the Synod. Planned and sound extension will be a possibility at long last.

Presbytery of Cape Breton

A number of changes have been made in congregational bounds in this Presbytery. The South Haven-Englishtown field has been divided and is associated with adjacent congregations. The Englishtown congregation is associated with the North River-North Shore charge and the South Haven Church with Knox Church, Baddeck. Middle River, which was for some years associated with Baddeck, is now a one-point charge and self-supporting with local help.

Presbytery of Newfoundland

St. John's, St. David's—The re-location and expansion of the former Queen's Road Church has been a major move during 1958. A fine new church, now under construction, will open in April 1959, on Elizabeth Avenue in a new housing area. The minister is the Rev. James A. Goldsmith.

St. John's, St. Aidan's—This is a new congregation in a new area. The congregation, now worshipping in an upstairs chapel, has a fine site for their new church. The work has been directed by the Rev. James Goldsmith, assisted during the summer by a student, Mr. Wilfred Moncrieff.

Trans-Canada Highway Site—A new church site is being sought on the Trans-Canada Highway by the Presbytery. If an ordained minister is available to develop this work in conjunction with St. Aidan's, the city will be 'ringed' with new churches, with St. Andrew's in the central area of the City.

Corner Brook—This new congregation has a fine site and plan to proceed with a building in 1959. The basement has been excavated and steel purchased. The minister is the Rev. Frank Gillespie.

Grand Falls—This charge, now self-supporting, has completely renovated their church building, adding halls and a basement. Dr. Archibald Brown is the minister.

Presbytery of Pictou

The year 1958 was a year of change and transition in this the largest Presbytery of the Synod. Most of the rural changes have been re-arranged, which action was felt by the Presbytery to be for the welfare of the congregations and the Church. Bounds of congregations were readjusted in order to make stronger pastoral charges. These arrangements are on a one year trial basis and will be reviewed in 1959.

Presently the Presbytery is made up of 19 pastoral charges and one mission field. At least two strong rural congregations have evolved from the new arrangements; Barney's River and Merigomish congregations making one such charge, and Hopewell, etc., and Middle River making up the other.

In October 1958, by action of the Synod, the congregation of St. David's, Springhill, was re-located in the bounds of Pictou Presbytery, thus severing its relation with the Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg. The Rev. D. Ross MacDonald was appointed as O.M. in March 1958.

On October 25th, the community of Springhill was to suffer another terrible, and this time, crippling blow by the coal mine disaster of that date. Seventy-four lives were lost; four were connected with St. David's Church. The Moderator of the Synod, the Rev. J. A. McGowan, the Moderator of the Presbytery, the Rev. Hugh Creaser, a former minister, the Rev. M. Y. Fraser, and the Superintendent of Missions at once proceeded to the stricken town and assisted during this trying time.

The leadership in this Presbytery, which is large in area, has ten ordained ministers, one deaconess and four lay supply men. A special tribute should be paid to the settled ministers who, as interim-moderators, minister to the people under their care during prolonged vacancies.

Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg

A number of changes have also been made in congregational bounds in this Presbytery in order to strengthen congregational units and reduce the need for ordained ministers and grants.

On the south shore, the congregational changes included the joining of Rose Bay, etc., and West Dublin, etc. Noel Road has been added to the Windsor charge and Dean joined the Elmsdale charge.

The work at St. Andrew's, Dartmouth, continues to show steady growth under the leadership of the Rev. John R. Cameron. This congregation expects to reach augmented status by July 1st, 1959. The congregation is now undertaking a manse project. A substantial amount of debt on the new church is being retired each year according to plan. The congregation at Musquodoboit Harbor did a major repair and re-decorating job on the church in 1958.

In the first year, 88 persons were added to the communicant roll of the new congregation of Westmount, Halifax. Approximately $6,000.00 was raised in 1958. This congregation, worshipping in city schools, contributed $773.50 for missions and the Budget of the Church. An Every Member Canvass was held in November 1958 and the congregation pledged approximately $8,000.00 for 1959. The congregation is finalizing its plans for the building of their church and hope to see construction started in the Spring of 1959. The new site of this congregation is on Ashburn Avenue, a very strategic location in the northwest area of the City.

The charge of St. Paul's, McClures Mills and Portapique was served during the Summer of 1958 by Mr. David Fraser. Progress is being made in reducing the debt and increasing givings for congregational work at St. Paul's, McClures Mills, where there is a good potential.

Presbytery of Saint John

The Rev. G. L. Blackwell continues to serve the charge of St. Columba, Lancaster and Sussex. This is proving to be a difficult field to serve from Lancaster. It is expected that the Presbytery will make some readjustment of this field in 1959. A student, John M. Allison, served in this field under the Presbytery and as assistant to Mr. Blackwell in the Summer of 1958.

The Rev. J. R. Weir continues to give good service to the field of St. George, Penfield, and Bocabec, which had no resident ordained leadership for many years prior to the appointment of Mr. Weir.

Camp Gagetown-Oromocto — a survey has been made in this area. The Town of Oromocto finally offered a church site to The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Property has been purchased and a new congregation is being formed in the Brentwood Village area of Moncton.

Presbytery of Miramichi

This Presbytery has suffered through prolonged vacancies. Two of the areas so suffering are the Bass River and Tabusintac enlarged charges.

Presbytery of Prince Edward Island

A Catechist, Mr. D. A. Dunlop, worked in the Alberton charge till the Autumn of 1958. The Rev. J. Garrett was appointed by the General Board of Missions in September 1958 and took up work there toward the end of the year. The congregation is now planning to extend a Call to Mr. Garrett.

The Brookfield charge is now served by the Rev. Gordon Bhe. It is expected that application will be made by Presbytery for his reception as a minister of our Church. The Rev. Charles Townsley was appointed as Ordained Missionary in March 1958 to the Marshfield charge. The North Tryon mission field is served by Miss Mary MacKenzie, Deaconess.

SYNOD OF MONTREAL AND OTTAWA

"Births and funerals of congregations in our Synod were witnessed in the year which has passed."

Born and doing well in the Montreal area — St. Michel: Sunday School attendance at year end 150; congregational attendance 150. Ile Perrot: A fine new congregation dedicated its new church and is gathering strength in the western tip of Montreal. St. Genevieve: Services were begun in homes of the area. Other services were begun in Beaconsfield and in Chateauguay, and a Sunday School was started in Preville.

While no new congregations have been started in the Ottawa area in 1958, it must not be forgotten that there are five young churches there, even if they were not born last year. They are St. David's, St. Timothy, St. Paul's, St. Martin's and Manor Park. While not all have church buildings at this date, property has been purchased for all.

Two new languages have been added to those being used in regular services in the Synod. A regular Hungarian Sunday Service was started in Montreal last March in Melville Church and later the services were conducted in First Church, since a greater concentration of Hungarian people was to be found in that neighbourhood. It should be noted that Hungarian services were held in Ottawa commencing as early as 1957. The second language service is the Japanese service being held on Sunday afternoon in Knox Crescent-Kensington Church, Montreal, where one of their elders, who was born in Japan, preaches. Conversions from Buddhism have been reported.

Chinese and Italian language services continue in the Chinese Institute and in the Beckwith Memorial Church in Montreal, which is now one of the great international cities of the world. The Chinese work has been augmented since the last war by the lifting of restrictions on immigration from the Orient, while the Italian Church has suffered in this respect since immigration from that part of the world has dropped off.

Our French work in Montreal continues to grow at an outstanding rate because an energetic evangelistic approach is made to the French, especially among those newcomers from Europe and Africa.

St. Andrew's Church, Quebec, opens its doors to ministers of the Gospel of all languages so that few immigrants in Quebec can say that during the year they have not heard the Glad Tidings of great joy in their own tongue.

English language classes were held in all non-Anglo Saxon congregations in Montreal and much of the ministers' time is taken up with helping to get newcomers settled. 1958 has been a very difficult year in this respect since it saw many native-born Canadians suffer from unemployment. This situation has been very distressing to our workers. A curious fact should be noted here and it is this, that no unemployment exists among Chinese in Montreal. This is a tribute to the Chinese Canadians and it also shows that racial or religious (some are of non-Christian faiths) discrimination does not exist for them when they come to seek positions.

French Camps and Conferences continue to be carried on by our French Church in Melbourne, P.Q., while a bilingual ministry is maintained by our pastor in Megantic and Beauce Counties and this latter is much to be desired. Our Quebec pastor reports a greatly increased interest in past months and all French congregations are contributing more liberally to the Budget of the Church, with St. Luc Church, Montreal, promising to become self-supporting shortly.

Winter fields should demand our attention. With the five-day week and with the great pressure of modern city living, people are taking to the Gatineau Hills and to the Laurentians north of Montreal for the week-ends. We have no Presbyterian preaching points at any ski-resorts while other denominations have pioneered in this respect and made an effort to reach the skier.

At the outset of this report we mentioned the burial of churches. Actually there was only one, that of Jersey Mills, just south of St. George de Beauce. The Presbytery of Quebec conducted an impressive service there on that occasion with many in attendance, but all from a distance since the original Scottish and Irish stock had moved away or were in the process of so doing. There was something sad about the service, as one realized that a former city set upon a hill was now going to be hid.

Our Church was ably represented on the North Shore of the St. Lawrence River by visits from our missionary at Leggatt's Point and other ministers from Quebec City and Montreal. We wish to bear witness to the Christian courtesy afforded our men by the clergymen, ministers and students of the Anglican and United Churches in this matter. We gratefully received a donation of one hundred dollars from Baie Comeau Anglican Church for mission work and we also rejoice to know that the same Church held a farewell gathering for our missionary, the Rev. Donald Wilson, as he took his leave of the Lower St. Lawrence for his new post in Formosa.

SYNOD OF HAMILTON AND LONDON

The year 1958 was another year of real endeavour throughout the Synod. Like other Synods we are extremely fortunate to have a varied program of witness—that is, we have an opportunity to see rural life and urban life, and the attendant problems. When we hear of amalgamation of charges, separation of charges, extension charges, downtown missions, we can see these things actually happening in our midst.

During the year, two of our charges became self-supporting and it is with deep gratitude that we recognize this step at St. Columba in Hamilton, and Oakridge Acres in London. Then two new pieces of work were opened, one in Font-hill and the other in the Greenbriar area of Brantford. Work was continued in the Chedoke area and received a minister of its own in the person of Rev. D. G. Neil.

The Presbytery of Niagara took a good forward step in Fort Erie. When Rev. Malcolm Ransom was called to be Assistant Secretary for Overseas Missions, Fort Erie was left vacant. By Presbytery visitation, the two churches, Knox and St. Andrew's, which were both served by Mr. Ransom, decided to become two self-supporting charges, and at the time of writing this report, both have called a minister of their own.

There is also, a new charge at Dorchester and South Nissouri, created by the amalgamation of these two into a vigorous field, and they too have called their own minister.

Before we report further on the work, we would like to recall the Centennial Service of Witness that was held in London on February 10th, 1959, in New St. James Church. The Synod authorized this service to remember with thanksgiving the birth of Dr. Jonathan Goforth on February 10th, 1859. Dr. E. H. Johnson gave a most significant address, reminding us of the source of strength in the life of this great missionary-statesman and man of God.

We should mention too, that within the Synod we have fine work going on among the Hungarian, Italian, and Ukrainian peoples, all in their own languages. The details of this work are reported elsewhere. It is mentioned here only to emphasize that we are grateful for the presence of these people and their ministers in our fellowship.

Among the significant problems in Canada to-day, one seems to be receiving long overdue attention, namely, the rural church. In our Synod each year, of late, there has been a fine conference held, and then followed by area meetings. The most recent of these conferences was on the theme, "The Interrelated Future of the Rural Church and the Family Farm." These conferences have helped us all to see more clearly that there is a DISTINCTIVE ROLE for the RURAL CHURCH in her witness IN THE COMMUNITY. Some of our ministers are active in this leadership and will, we are sure, make a fine contribution in reaching solid solutions to rural church problems.

Finally, we cannot help but feel that one real weakness in our Synod is our witness in the Downtown Missions area. It is true that many of our churches, thus situated, are working hard at feeding and clothing the needy, giving assistance in finding jobs and houses, as well as working closely with Alcoholics Anonymous in meeting the need of their fellow men. But this is only scratching the surface. Our real need is for modern centres with trained personnel, so that in the Name of Jesus Christ we fulfil our ministry as a Church.

We look forward to the establishment of our Synod Corporation, that out of it we may derive the financial help that will underwrite the dreams and hopes of the Synod's Heart.

SYNOD OF MANITOBA

Most of the Church's missionary endeavour with the Indian people lies within the Synod of Manitoba in two very large areas, the Lake-of-the-Woods country around Kenora, and Western Manitoba. Only recently have we seen encouragement in the Kenora area, but in the last year or two, our work had taken a significant new turn. Regular services are held at eight Indian reserves and Bush Camps surrounding Kenora, the Residential School at Kenora gives a tremendous opportunity, the Church in Kenora has grown in numbers and is making a most commendable effort both financially and in missionary awareness; a weekly radio program covers the whole area with Indian news items and a Radio Sunday School of 700 enrolled members; and a committee is actively at work to establish a social centre for visitors (Indian and others) to Kenora.

A Mission Council similar to those on Overseas fields has been formed in order to co-ordinate the various aspects of our work in this area. Rev. J. D. Marnoch began work in the Fall, as minister of First Church, with supervision over the work in the area. Rev. Stephen How of Formosa has succeeded Miss Beryl Millar at Shoal Lake and has had great influence throughout the area. Mr. Ivan Robson is the Missionary to the Reserves, and in charge of the Radio program. This is a vast work with great possibilities, and is being faithfully carried out with great devotion. Miss Ella Green at Shoal Lake, and Mr. Archie Redsky, assisting Mr. Robson, have continued to serve among their own people. There is need for at least one ordained missionary so that this field can be divided.

The appointment by the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Robinson as Principal and Matron of Cecelia Jeffrey School has been a great strength to the work there. Mr. Robinson is a member of the Session of First Church.

The Indian Mission in Western Manitoba has been strengthened by the appointment of Rev. Larry Jackson to Elphinstone and Okanais. A most successful arrangement of School integration has taken place here. Mr. Jackson is also Chaplain of Birtle Residential School.

In accordance with the policy of associating Indian work with white congregations, Minnedosa has been separated from Neepawa and made a joint charge with the nearby Rolling River Reserve. Rev. Rex Krepps of Virden is in charge also of work at Birdtail and Pipestone Reserves. Our work has continued at Waywayseecappo Reserve and Rev. Harry Crump, though curtailed by illness, has continued at Sioux Village, Portage la Prairie. There is need for two ordained men in the Western Manitoba Indian Fields.

The Women's Missionary Society (W.D) in co-operation with the Synod, has embarked on the establishment of a Reception and Social Centre in Winnipeg for young people (Indian and Others) coming to the City for work or study.

Our Hungarian work is becoming stabilized. Rev. L. Fejes travels all over the province with groups meeting regularly in Gladstone, Portage la Prairie, Brandon and in Winnipeg. In Winnipeg a Hungarian elder, Mr. John Saska is doing most useful work. We hope in the Spring to begin serving Hungarians at Red Lake and Fort Frances.

Turning to our Anglo-Saxon work, and looking at it by Presbyteries, in Superior Presbytery, Rev. K. Wilcox continues to develop his North Shore parish. Working from Calvin Church in Port Arthur, and with the aid of a student in the Summer, he has services at McKenzie and Hurkett, and is in a good way to make the whole territory as far as Nipigon, a Presbyterian field.

Oliver Road Congregation in Port Arthur, has difficulty financing, paying for a new building, and a competent man must be appointed there.

In Fort William, both our churches are self-supporting, but First Church is over-flowing and must launch a building programme. There is need to start one or two congregations in this growing city, but it is questionable if the Presbytery is seized of its opportunity.

Our work in Atikokan, under Rev. Gordon Bastedo, is in healthy condition.

In Winnipeg Presbytery, the new congregation at St. Vital, continues to progress, and is contemplating more adequate facilities. Mr. B. Davidson has done a most commendable job there, but the congregation has grown to a point that calls for an ordained minister.

Elmwood, with a long difficult history, has had its plans held up by Real Estate difficulties, which now seem to be resolving themselves, so that there is good hope of new life in this congregation.

A new congregation in Greater Winnipeg, West St. James, was organized during the year. It is still small, but it has acquired land, and will build a first unit in the Spring. This is a most promising location.

Presbytery has definite plans for extension work in the large growing area of South Winnipeg, and in the nearby town of Transcona, and is endeavouring to overtake the need and opportunity in other growing areas. There is need of an Extension Secretary to carry out this work.

The two rural mission fields, Gonor (3 points) and Stonewall (2 points) maintain themselves and do useful work, with the best improvement of the year in Gonor.

Brandon Presbytery is a huge mission field. No new work has been undertaken in 1958, but several charges started in 1957 and are developing, notably, the Crescent Heights Church in Portage la Prairie.

The main need in this Presbytery is for more missionaries. An appointment is badly needed at both Flin Flon and Thompson, to keep the Northern end strong.

Mr. Allison is doing excellently at Cranberry Portage, as is also Mr. Wilkie at Winnipegosis.

In the South, the Presbytery is in good shape. At Virden, Killarney and Boissevain, Rev. Messrs. Krepps, Phills and Amini are giving strong leadership.

SYNOD OF SASKATCHEWAN

Mistawasis Indian Reserve

The idea of the 'Mission Farm' is working out quite well. The 50 acres of mission property that was cleared in 1957, was seeded to barley last year, and a good crop was produced. As expected in a new venture of this kind, the people were inclined at first to call it "the minister's crop", slowly but surely, they are being taught that it is "theirs." On December 1st, Mr. Donovan, was granted a short leave of absence by the Presbytery, that he might, at the suggestion of the General Board, go to Fort St. John for the winter months. In the interim, Dr. Moore, our Missionary on the Wahpeton Reserve, has been providing weekly services and part-time supervision at Mistawasis.

Wahpeton

This Reserve near Prince Albert, (sometimes known as the Round Plain Reserve) has been served for two years by Dr. Moore, who served some 30 years on the Mistawasis Reserve. The Church building, erected and dedicated in 1957, is already proving to be too small, and plans are under way for an extension.

Carragana

Presbytery had hoped an O.M. would have been available last spring to take over the work on this field. No such appointment being possible, a student, John McIntosh, served during the summer, providing services, not only to Carragana, but to Somme, and supervision in the surrounding area. Since his departure in September, Presbytery have sought to have services each Sunday at Carragana. Every other Sunday, service was conducted by the Convener of Missions, the Presbytery Deaconess, or the Superintendent of Missions. On the alternate Sundays, the laymen (and laywomen) have conducted the service quite acceptably; but the Presbytery is again urging that an O.M. be named to provide the leadership and guidance that are so essential in this area.

Meath Park, Weirdale, Shipman

These three points were part of six points that were served by two men for many years. In 1957 and 1958, the two fields were consolidated and served by one student. Mr. Joseph Nancoo was our student last year, and the charge had one of its best years, and for the first time in many years, a grant though authorized, was not required. Weirdale may provide us with a problem this year, for though we have been the only Protestant group providing regular service here for many years, another group is seeking now to establish a congregation here, and time will tell whether we are able to hold our position and our congregation. We must take vigorous and positive action.

Golburn, Allenville and Milford

These points, in the vicinity of Sylvania, were served by Presbytery students for several years (some time ago). Lately these points have received no regular attention. Last year, Presbytery agreed to ask for a student to serve these areas around Sylvania, and Harold Bromley spent the summer there. His work was most conscientious and quite acceptable, but the response was not what had been expected. Only in Allenville district did the people rally around him and his work.

North-East Saskatchewan

For several years, Presbytery has been asking for the appointment of a fully qualified minister to be a roving missionary in the areas north and north-east of Prince Albert. The feeling is that the time is now ripe for such an appointment. The building of a highway to the north, and the opening up of the area, and also the development in iron-ore near Nipawin, as well as other activities in natural resources, point up the need for someone to provide periodic service in the new settlement till more sustained work can be undertaken.

Biggar

We are pleased to report that the Manse, which was mentioned in the last report has become a reality. After several months of planning and volunteer labour, the Manse was completed late in January, and the Minister is now using it. The congregation has made real headway under Rev. G. Firth, for whose re-appointment we are asking.

Wilkie

This field is showing the results of being without ordained leadership for several years. Presbytery asked for the appointment of a minister last year, but the appointee went elsewhere, and the field was without leadership, until Mr. Hans Riedel came in June to supply student services.

Coleville and Fairmount

This field was served most acceptably last summer by a student, Mr. Murray Davis. We are fortunate, and very grateful that Dr. John Brent, though not in the best of health has been able to provide weekly services in Coleville this winter.

Calvin, Saskatoon

Two points stand out here, among others: the Induction of Rev. D. B. Isaac in January, though he has served the charge for over 5 years, and the completion of a new manse.

St. Paul's, Saskatoon

This congregation has been served for several years on a part-time basis by the Dean of Presbyterian Residence.

Jonathan Goforth, Saskatoon

This rapidly growing area in south-east Saskatoon is one of Synod's priorities. A church school and Sunday church services have been carried on in a school (Holliston) for several years, but more vigorous, definite and visible activity is now a 'must'. The 'Mother congregation', St. Andrew's, are taking a real interest in this new work, and are planning to provide some substantial financial support for the erection of a church building in the near future. It is hoped that in 1959, the centennial year of the birth of Jonathan Goforth, that something definite can be done here.

North-West Saskatchewan

Each passing year points up new achievements, new work, new hope and new challenges in this area. Rev. M. Muth, who has served for two years as Minister in this large area, north of North Battleford has been conducting services in two points, Sandwith and Buffalo Narrows, and is now holding services at Ile a la Crosse. A substantial grant has been authorized for the erection of a church building at Buffalo Narrows.

Assiniboia

In 1958, mission work in this area has shown some real progress. The congregations at MOOSOMIN (Minister, Rev. R. Herrod) and a WHITEWOOD-BROADVIEW (Minister, Rev. S. Kennedy) are showing signs of new life. Moosomin is planning a new manse. Whitewood have, of their own initiative, agreed to cut their travel grant by 70%, in place of the usual 10%. Both of these congregations are making real progress.

Estevan-Stoughton, Northside, Regina, Assiniboia

These three charges are in desperate need of the leadership and guidance which only an ordained minister can give.

Calvin, Regina

is progressing very well. The fall visitation brought in pledges sufficient to meet the set objective. The Church School has an enrolment of 125, and church membership has also increased. It would appear that Calvin should have a minister of their own in the near future.

Walter Martin Memorial, Regina

This congregation (to which the Rev. G. Cunningham also ministers at present) is faced with the problem of being gradually surrounded by industry. It is expected that services will commence in a new housing area adjacent to the present district on a trial basis, and should the response be favourable, it might well be that the present church building would be moved to the new area.

Hillsdale, Regina

With the coming last fall of Rev. Ian Wishart to conduct services and provide leadership in this new congregation, there is a growing feeling of optimism. The new manse, the basement of which is to be used as a Chapel for the time being, is expected to be ready in time for the Easter services. The Manse and Chapel should be a real asset in giving visibility to our work in this area.

The Missions Committee had advised Presbytery that, in the not-too-distant future, it will recommend that

- (1) a full-time minister be appointed to serve Calvin, Regina
- (2) the amalgamation of Northside and Walter Martin Memorial Churches as one charge.
- (3) the relocating of the Walter Martin Memorial Church building in a more suitable area.

Yorkton

This city, where we began work just 8 years ago, is the scene of gradual, but steady progress within progress within our Church. The minister provides services weekly during the winter, at Barvas. In the summer, this latter field is supplied by a student, who also provides services at Stornoway periodically.

No report would be complete without mention and commendation of the students who served with us in 1958, Murray Graham, Mac Shields, Harold Bromley, Jack McIntosh, Hans Riedel, Murray Davis and Joseph Nanchoo, as well as the Deaconesses Misses Ada Wade, Bev Rupke, and Susan Gibson, not to overlook Miss Walker and Miss Reay.

SYNOD OF ALBERTA

At the Synod meeting in October 1958, the Reverend W. R. Bell, replaced the Reverend Ian MacSween as Convener of the Missions Committee. The Synod has seen its work grow stronger over the years and notes that during the past six years, eleven pastoral charges have become self-supporting; five new congregations have been organized; amount raised for all purposes has increased two and a half times and budget givings have tripled. Sixteen new church buildings, six educational buildings and sixteen new manses are also reported.

Peace River Presbytery

Scarcity of ministers has been a problem in two of the Presbyteries; Peace River Presbytery because, of the departure of the Revs. I. R. McKee and Wm. Duffy, and a leave of absence to Reverend Donald Campbell, depended on the faithful work of students Ross Kinsler, R. L. Nicholson, M. L. Garvin, a school teacher Mr. Harcourt Johnston, who filled in for two months at Fort St. John, Miss Iris Ford, Miss Rae McLetchie, deaconess at Dixonville and the Peace River Veteran, the Reverend Harold Grove. The Reverend Brown Milne in the northern part of the Presbytery, 1000 miles away, continues to report progress at White Horse where an addition was made to the church and Camp Site was procured. The Christian Education Building at Fort St. John was started, but work was stilled because of difficulty in arranging one of the mortgages. The people there are very grateful for the financial assistance given them by New St. James Church of London, Ontario. A new manse has been built at Dixonville, debt free.

Edmonton

The churches of the Edmonton Presbytery are all well manned with the exception of Wainwright, which is applying for an ordained missionary. Rev. J. S. S. Armour reports progress at Killam and Galahad since his arrival last summer and Lloydminster which has become self-supporting with the Induction of the Reverend Harold Morris, who is ready to start constructing a new Educational Building. Both Rupert Street and Westmount congregations have built new manse. The Ukrainian work has not advanced as much as was hoped when the congregation moved into a building of its own. The Hungarian congregation which has grown numerically, still use the facilities of First Presbyterian Church through the kindness of its minister and people.

Red Deer

Shortage of ministers is also a problem in Red Deer Presbytery, with vacancies at Rocky Mountain House, Willowdale and Olds. The last two charges having lost their ministers Rev. MacLean Bell and Rev. Thomas Roulston, by death. Rocky Mountain House has built a new manse. Eckville with Rev. Sheldon MacKenzie, appointed there last summer, plans a new church. Innisfail under the ministry of the catechist, Mr. Kenneth Grant, burn their mortgage next month.

Calgary

In this Presbytery, Bassano has become self-supporting, and the Rev. Hector Rose is to be inducted March 17th, 1959. Knox Presbyterian Church is to move out to South-West Calgary, where Rev. R. M. Esler has been conducting services assisted by a deaconess for survey work. Seven men from the new district have been received as elders into the Knox session, and the future is promising. St. Giles Church (an amalgamation of North Hill and Pleasant Heights) was dedicated last December. It is a fine building, but is already too small as the congregation grows under the ministry of the Rev. Lindsay Simpson.

MacLeod

The new Riverside Presbyterian Church in Medicine Hat was dedicated last year, and has now taken over the Medicine Hat Training School building for Christian Education and manse. St. Andrew's Church, Fort MacLeod and Jumbo Valley, both aid-receiving charges, were amalgamated and have called the Rev. Peter Walter.

Hungarian

The two Hungarian congregations, Calvin Church in Calgary, with their new minister, Rev. E. Seress and Bethlen Church, Lethbridge, under the ministry of Rev. L. Becske, advance and report excellent church and manse facilities.

W.M.S

The Synod is grateful to the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) for the deaconesses Dorothy Keller and Eileen Black, in their van work in the Peace River Presbytery and Tamiko Nakamura and Doreen Worden and the van in the Red Deer Presbytery.

Presbyterian Visitation

One of the most rewarding activities of some of the Presbyteries has been the visitation of every congregation by a committee of Presbytery every year. This has been done in connection with the Annual Meeting. The visits have been appreciated. The congregations are aware that they are part of a larger church. They are reminded of their responsibilities locally and outside of their own congregation. No longer is the visitation considered an investigation.

SYNOD OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Presbyteries of the Synod being in complete sympathy with the policy of the General Board of Missions have kept pressure on all aid-receiving congregations to assume a greater share of the stipend, rental and travel grants. As a result four congregations, Nanaimo, West Vancouver, Creston and Cranbrook have been raised to self-sustaining status and Penticton has become augmented. Other congregations, such as Port Alberni, White Rock and Mission City are nearing self-support.

The Presbytery of the Kootenays have consolidated Kinnaird and the small charges of the Slocan Valley into one pastoral charge which is now the only congregation requiring assistance from the General Board of Missions. We are keeping in touch with the Celgar development at Castlegar.

In the Presbytery of Kamloops now extending more than a thousand miles (from Rock Creek on No. 3 Highway in the south to Kitimat and Prince Rupert on the shores of the Pacific midway up the Province in the West) we are faced with a tremendous missionary challenge that will take wise planning and consecrated effort over the next decade. Communities such as Ossoyos, Clinton, Williams Lake, Quesnelle, McBride, Vanderhoof, Burns Lake, Smithers, Terrace and points north of Prince George to the Peace River boundary are under active consideration at the present time. Good progress is in evidence at Penticton and Kelowna where thirty-six new members were added in the past year. A new church has been erected at Kamloops, the Prince George Church considerably improved and a new manse planned for this spring.

The work at Kitimat has come through a time of testing because of the delay in further development of the aluminum plant. However, this is regarded as temporary and the people are in good heart in spite of the problems which perplex them.

Presbytery has placed Salmon Arm under the pastoral care of the Minister and Session of Armstrong as no progress was in evidence as the result of a year's work by a Catechist.

Good progress is in evidence in the Presbytery of Westminster. A new church was dedicated at Haney and the church at Abbotsford extended and improved. It is expected that the church at Whalley will be completed by early summer and at Garden Village by early fall. Following a survey of Richmond last summer the Presbytery has decided to initiate work there this summer. It is interesting to note that Whalley was the charge that pushed us into the establishment of an Extension Fund which eventually led to the incorporation of "The Presbyterian Extension Fund Corporation (B.C.) Ltd.", and it is now the first charge to benefit by having its loan from the bank guaranteed by the corporation. A new ten million dollar shopping centre is to be erected in Brentwood Park where we are at work, and this is the next project that must have the concern of the General Board of Missions and the Presbytery in the Vancouver Area.

In the Presbytery of Victoria there is considerable cause for encouragement. The progress at Nanaimo and Port Alberni has been mentioned. The congregation at Duncan is now authorized to relocate near a new housing development to the west of the town and is working out the details of the purchase of a fine new property overlooking this development.

A new manse has been erected in the Lansdowne development in Victoria adjacent to the three lots which we have purchased there for a new church. Rev. David Murphy and family are living in the manse and Sunday School and Church Services are now being initiated in the large finished basement area of the manse. A new church here is of paramount importance for this area.

CHINESE WORK IN CANADA

British Columbia celebrated 1958 its "Centennial Year." The Chinese were not behind in these celebrations, laying claim, indeed, to a large share in meeting the demands of her early pioneering days. One local Chinese journal even claimed, "it was the Chinese who first discovered the West Coast of Canada." They had in mind, no doubt, the Chinese men who accompanied Capt. Mearnes, 1789, during his early discoveries.

It is true, however, that Chinese prospectors as far back as 1852 began to drift up from San Francisco to the Cariboo gold-diggings, and, prior to 1886, played a major part, as labourers, in finishing the C.P.R. track from Lytton to the Pacific Coast.

Christian work among the Chinese dates back to these very early days when English, and Sunday school classes were conducted by laymen, and women, of our Church. It was not until 1887 that a petition was sent to the General Assembly asking for a full-time worker. Soon, thereafter, Dr. A. B. Winchester, Mr. C. A. Colman, and our first Chinese minister, Rev. Ng Mon Hing, were appointed.

When the first Chinese Mission House was opened in Victoria, the Mission Convener of Presbytery said, "We open, and dedicate this building to the Glory of God. We do not know what, if any, the results are to be, but we have faith."

It is a far cry from these early days. What with citizenship granted to the Chinese, 1947, and the consequent amendment to the Immigration Act, a new, and greater day has dawned. True there are difficulties, but never was the opportunity for bringing Christ to the Chinese people in Canada so great. The Chinese word for "crisis" is made up of two-root characters namely, "danger" and "opportunity." To-day is that day of opportunity, and in our Christian failure to meet it alone lies the danger.

Prior to 1947 the number of Chinese in Canada was, more or less, static. Since then women and children up to the age of 21 years (wives and children of bona fide citizens) have been permitted to enter this land. For the first time, therefore, Chinese home life here, and on a proper Christian scale, is now made possible. At one time the ratio of Chinese men to Chinese women was forty to one, an impossible situation.

Of the 1100 immigrant Chinese entering Canada in the first half of 1958 the greater number by far were brides. The coming of these many brides means that we now have a larger number of young married women attending our English classes particularly. We have a record of 150 weddings during the year in the Chinese Churches. Moreover, 162 of the 267 enrolled in our English Classes were women. When we consider, too, that only one in ten of all Chinese newcomers to Canada knows anything at all of the Christian Church or its teachings, we can then understand the far reaching influence of these classes. When we add to this the fact that the newcomers not only receive at these classes English studies, but also religious instruction, through prayers, hymns and Bible, then we realize why our Church and Sunday School attendance has so greatly increased. Adult classes in Sunday School is now a most important department of our work. Nursery classes have also been started and conducted during the regular services. This is a new departure and makes it possible for more mothers to attend the diets of worship.

Visiting in the homes has, in consequence of these many newcomers, especially of women, become a primary concern. This covers every department of domestic life, for so much of help and advice is needed in their new and strange surroundings, medical, legal, housing, immigration, citizenship, and even shopping and letter-writing.

During the year there was a staff of 19 workers, of whom 6 gave only part-time service.

Miss Annie Wilson and Miss Margaret Near each spent part of the year on furlough and special studies. Miss Susan Gibson took over Miss Near's work in the meantime.

Rev. Andrew Ng, who replaced Rev. M. F. Leung in Victoria, put in his first year there. Mr. Ng, while he found mission work and ways here very different from that in Macau, soon adjusted himself and with good success. He, and his wife, who is a medical graduate in Public Health, are bringing to our Canadian work a new zest and viewpoint.

At mid-summer in Toronto we lost the services of Rev. Wm. Doo who was called to the Chinese Presbyterian Church in New York. We were sorry to lose his valuable assistance. Under his aggressive leadership that congregation was won over to the complete official care of our Church, where, formerly, our Church had but a nominal control.

During the Toronto pulpit vacancy we were fortunate that preaching services were conducted by Rev. D. R. McKillican, Presbyterian Convener. His message each Sunday was, of course, translated into the Chinese tongue.

We were hoping, before the end of the year, to welcome our new minister to Toronto, Mr. Y. W. Lee, B.A. Mr. Lee has just completed a nine years' study period in Arts, and Theology, in the United States. He is, of course, Hong Kong born, and received his early training there. He comes, therefore, eminently qualified to take up the work.

Mention must be made here of the graduation and ordination of Ronald J. Con, our first Canadian-born Chinese for the ministry. By good fortune Mr. Con was appointed to Emmanuel and Lockerby churches in Sudbury.

This reference to workers, would indeed, be far from complete without some definite mention of the fine band of voluntary helpers, laymen and women, who, in Sunday schools, Churches, and even homes, across the country, give unsparingly of their time and talents, especially with the teaching of English to our many Chinese new-comers.

Altogether there were 40 baptisms recorded, 27 of this number were adults. This tells its own story. There were also 38 new members added to the Communion Roll, 30 on Profession of Faith and 8 by letter. These latter came to us from Hong Kong Churches.

As in the past the work among the children bids fair to head the list of activities. In all our four Chinese churches, as well as at Windsor and Sudbury, there was a marked increase in Sunday school attendance. The total enrolment was 546. Vancouver alone had an increase of over 100 new pupils. Moreover Adult Bible Classes, held in conjunction with the Sunday School, also show a decided increase. Add to all this the fact that of the 65 Sunday School teachers 46 were Chinese, then can we realize how far the Chinese themselves have advanced in the acceptance of responsibility for this work. It is not so long ago since by far the greater number of Sunday School teachers came from our other churches.

What applies to the Sunday School applies equally to the Kindergarten. There was also increased attendance in that department. Toronto, at the moment has no Kindergarten. Building restrictions forbid such. The total Kindergarten enrolment was 212, Vancouver having of this number 119. This latter is made possible by the Kindergarten's bus transportation, for which, of course, a fee is paid. Toronto has four autos, voluntarily provided, to aid with its Sunday School attendance.

Add to the above, the teen-age True Light group, Victoria; Junior choirs newly organized; D.V.B.S.; Cradle Rolls; Chinese school classes; etc., we find, then, we have week-day oversight of some 237 children and teen-agers.

The work amongst the Young People is by no means the least of that carried on. The total enrolment was 99. When we add the Student Fellowship and Social gatherings held from time to time in Montreal, the number is greatly augmented. Montreal sent out 300 invitations to local students, mostly University young men and women. As many as 60 would turn out to these Fellowship meetings, dining together afterwards. Many, at the same time, attend the regular services, while some teach in Sunday school.

Mention, too, must be made of the Young-Adult Fellowship in Toronto. Its principal objective is to win, for the Church, the confidence of English-speaking, young married couples especially.

In Vancouver the same bilingual situation prevails. There the Y.P.S. has organized into two groups, one speaking Chinese, the other English. This latter follows the "Senior-High Program", though several University students are in it. Time alone will overcome this language difficulty. Meantime the groups meet together for socials and games.

Another department of our work that is giving us great encouragement is that amongst the women. The total attendance here is given at 215. This number includes both the W.M.S. and Y.W.A.

For some time a movement has been underway to secure new and more commodious quarters for our Toronto work. That is, at last, made possible. This work has been carried on for well over 40 years in the Y.M.C.I. building, University Ave. Arrangements have now been completed to build on the corner of Beverley and Baldwin Sts. The Church site cost $65,000. it being necessarily in the expensive downtown area. Two houses, adjacent, have already been purchased as dormitories costing $44,000. These are all paid for. The old Y.M.C.I. building has been sold. That together with cash already in hand, makes available $182,000 toward the new church and community centre. A campaign for additional funds required is now begun, and building expected to begin in April 1959. This new building, and work unlike the past, will be directly under the care of the Church, and under one administrative direction. Much praise is due to that congregation for its initiative and inspiration, all of which spells a happy and aggressive outlook, under God, for the future of our work there.

As in the past our Chinese congregations continue to accept more and more financial responsibility for their mission work. Again increases in stipend have been assumed by all four congregations; Vancouver, this coming year, is to pay $1900 toward stipend, making their contribution $150 more. It is but a short time since the Mission Board paid the whole of these stipends. A total of $1686 was sent by the four congregations to the Budget, while $2259 was sent to the W.M.S. This latter sum includes $1435 sent in by the Vancouver Kindergarten, fees collected from the pupils, and goes to pay the salary of a part-time teacher there. Moreover, a sum of $457 was contributed by the four congregations for benevolent purposes, orphan relief in Hong Kong, Leper Missions, and local hospitals. $194 was also sent to the B. & F. Bible Society. This makes (including Budget and W.M.S. givings) a total of $4596 donated for purely Missionary purposes. All of which surely shows that the Chinese are not unmindful of the needs of others.

In addition to the above amounts, Montreal paid $1200 to help meet mortgage payments, while all these congregations also met their heavy current expenses, taxes, insurance, new equipment, repairs, etc., which, in such downtown institutional work, is heavier than in other types of work.

REV. D. A. SMITH.

THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON FRENCH WORK

Increasing fellowship and necessary consolidation have marked the past year for the Advisory Committee on French Work. In the course of two day-long committee meetings, and at a two-day Conference on Evangelism, the French workers and the members of the Committee grew in understanding of one another, and of their common responsibilities. The Conference was enriched by the presence of the Rev. Ray E. Pittman, an American missionary with the Presbyterian Church of Brazil. His humble and moving description of the life of this, one of the fastest growing churches of the world, was an excellent example of the evangelistic outreach of a church as such, i.e. through the attitudes and activities of ordinary, and often very limited, members.

The Advisory Committee as such has a function of co-ordination and fellowship, especially in thinking out policies and problems. It is 'advisory', both to the Presbyteries concerned and to the Board of Missions.

The reports of the workers illustrate a variety of encouragements, and some anxieties. Both are normal in Christian life and witness.

WILFRED F. BUTCHER.

Eglise des Cantons de l'Est

The church is now in its 9th year. Worship services are held every Sunday morning, with an approximate attendance of eighty to one hundred and fifteen. On special occasions 14 evening services are held. To stimulate and re-affirm the religious life of the congregation we had a week of evangelism and re-consecration. We are grateful to Reverends R. Rowat, E. Briard and A. Jossinet for their inspiring messages. Every week we meet for Bible Study on Thursday night, rain or shine the year round; one man makes twenty-four mile trip to attend.

The Church School

We have four classes plus a Bible Class, the attendance is almost perfect; we follow the Presbyterian course. The children's, plus a special appeal, collection from the congregation covered all expenses.

Young People

The Young People are very active. We have 24 members (half are Senior-High age). They hold meetings every month. Programmes include study, conferences, recreation, discussion on mixed marriages, and projects, etc. We have invited two groups of young people of our Presbytery for a meeting and service together. Moreover, our young people held a worship service for an isolated family.

Church Renovation

We have made a remarkable transformation and renovation within the church auditorium, replacing old wiring with a new system of lighting throughout the church; the old furnace was replaced, all this at a cost of over $3,000. In spite of the help of our Women's Association we have a debt of $1,300.

The huge Bible which now rests on an oak lectern, made from wood furniture belonging to Father Chiniquy, was in use for 100 years in the Church at Clairac, France, and was presented to us by the minister, Daniel Mann and his elders.

Bible Camp

This pioneer work undertaken 8 years ago has now become a permanent work to serve our mission. There were 48 children at Camp this year; with the personnel we were 57. We must begin to make plans and provision for future extension and improvements. Three things are a must. The most important is the swimming pool, for as the number of children increases so does the risk of transporting them on the highway to the nearest swimming pond. We hope to obtain financial help from the Provincial representative. Remains to be seen. It is urgent to have electricity as it is dangerous to use gas lamps with a number of children around. Moreover we will have to have it for refrigeration of milk and food as it is no longer sold in this region. Last summer we had to do without and it means daily trips for meat and milk.

Thirdly, we could use a few cabins to good advantage, for we only have tents, some of which cannot stand much rain. The success in the past gives us a right to appeal to our friends and benefactors for the immediate support of this work which bears fruit in the present generation.

Three Rivers

A worship service is held every Sunday, one conducted each month by Rev. Jacques Smith.

Inter-Church Work

Rev. J. Smith continues to take an active part in the producing of the oldest publication for all the French Protestants, "L'AUREOLE", of which he is President of the Redaction.

The First of July Rally

This day provides an occasion to join together all our old and new converts, a day for making friends, and enjoying Christian fellowship. Over 300 took part in this rally this year. The day always ends with a worship service and an exhortation sermon. Through registration we are able to add to our list names and contacts which are useful in planning our work of evangelization.

Who can say the value of our witness. It is seed which God causes to grow and which others will reap for Him.

REV. JACQUES SMITH.

Quebec City

Generally speaking this year was satisfactory for St. Marc. Improvement in every direction.

New families received: 5 with 10 adults and 5 children
Catholic families gained: 2 with 3 adults and 1 child. One by profession of faith.

(2) SOME DETAILS

(a) YOUTH

Friendly Sunday Meetings: We received 10 young people of whom 4 were students in Laval (coming from the States and Europe) and 6 from our congregation.

Hockey Team: 20 boys of whom 5 are Catholics regularly play on a little rink in the back garden of our Manse, coming from the district.

Young Couples: Friendly meetings every week in relations with free discussions about the Bible and religious matters. A kind of Adult Catechism. 5 young couples attend.

Adolescents: It seems to us the time is coming to look for the possibility of founding a Young People's Society.

- (b) Financial Statements: This problem has begun to solve itself. We have sent our full allocation to the General Budget, $130. The "Every Person Canvass". The individual response has begun. Some families are giving their stone and others are not yet doing so. We have to meet as a Kirk Session, with some other men to study and launch a full Every Person Canvass. One family has promised to give $100 a year. Suggestion made to the congregation as an average for an average family: $1 a week for three quarters. By these means we shall reach and hope to reach a $600 Annual Budget as a beginning.

CONCLUSION

Nothing is perfect, but nevertheless encouraging.

1. The general loyalty of the part of most families. Approx. 45 people attend).
2. Better knowledge of the present work of the Church.

3. More teen-agers.

4. Improvement of the financial situation.

5. We are better known now in general.

- (c) Our General Policy: Without neglecting the outlying points, we want to make our maximum effort on Quebec City where we have now real possibilities.

To continue to make our effort on the financial point which we want to master. The hard and blind period of deficiency and hesitancy seems now flying away. We have more reasons to Hope in To-morrow than ever. Some dynamic elements we now have will be introduced in the Kirk Session.

Remarks: My visit to Toronto and Kitchener were very important steps for me in linking our congregation to the Church. God sustained us in great difficulties of beginnings, we are sure He will also help us for the second step: "increasing."

REV. A. JOSSINET.

Eglise St. Luc, Montreal

We have to report for the year 1958 a new increase in our French work in Montreal. 97 new members have been received during the year, out of these 97, 77 were by Profession of Faith. As only 1 was a young man whose parents were members of our congregation, 76 were converts from the Roman Catholic Church. Our communicant membership stands now at 310, which means that if every year we receive many new members we also lose a good number of people moving to other places in Canada and the U.S.A. or going back to Europe, and people who have no more connections with our Church. But we gain more than we lose, and we have the feeling that God has built among us a congregation of people devoted to Him and conscious of their responsibilities. The graphics show in an impressive way the steady increase of the last years. We had 19 baptisms through the year, 17 infant baptisms and 2 adult baptisms.

All the organizations of the congregations have reported an increase parallel to the growth of the congregation.

Our Church school has now an enrolment of 144.

Our Youth groups have shown an increase in membership; there are 18 Cubs; 17 Girl Guides; 21 Boy Scouts; and for the first time we have a Young People's group which started last Fall and whose membership is now 24. For all these groups we have devoted leaders. A good number of our children took part in camps last summer, namely Matambin and Richmond camps and our Scouts had their own camp near, Namur, an old French Protestant centre in Province of Quebec.

From a financial point of view, the year has been very encouraging too, thanks to the wise administration of the Board of Managers and the loyal co-operation of members of the congregation. We received last year in envelopes $2,300. more than the year before, and we reached our target set at the Annual Meeting of February 2, 1958. If we ask the same grant ($950) as the year before, it is due to the fact that our grant was asked for the period July 1st, 1958 to June 30th, 1959. For this period, our grant represented a reduction of $2,400. over the preceeding year and that meant for our congregation an unbalanced budget. So, if this year we are asking for the same grant, that means that our congregation has to find $1,500. in new resources. Our congregation has given $1,200. toward the budget in 1958.

"La Vie Chretienne", the French monthly Presbyterian paper, has been generally well received and has been a great help in our work. It presents the message of our Church in French to French-speaking people in Canada and especially in the Province of Quebec; it establishes or maintains a contact with people interested and searching the truth. It is also a very necessary means of communication with members of our different French Canadian congregations generally spread out. We are grateful to the Mission Board for their help in the printing of this very valuable paper, which is now in its 8th year.

We would like to mention that if we have 185 families where there are communicant members, we have also apart from that around 200 families who are connected with our congregation, whether they are adherent or prospects or having a loose contact with us through the school.

We also have a lending library with the best religious books in French we can buy. A good number of people are reading the books, even the classics of the Protestant Faith as the Calvin Institutes, the Luther works, etc.

This is also the reason why we strive to have a congregation always opened to newcomers, not satisfied on its own achievement but conscious of its responsibilities to witness the true Gospel of Christ.

The influence we have had has been due largely to the opening of a French Protestant School, and we have here, the indication that, in the Province of Quebec, our effort of evangelism to attract people to the Gospel must be coupled with a similar effort to have French Protestant institutions. I think that we should now have a kindergarten for French Protestant children. This Kindergarten should be organized by the Church. The time has come for us to go forward. If we do not provide the French work with other French Protestant institutions, we will hamper our work because people will not be free to act as they would like and our work will suffer.

There is also a big question mark in our French work in Montreal. We have reached mostly immigrants, and for them especially, the economic situation of Canada is not good. There is too much insecurity. They are often considered as things which can be taken and rejected, and not as men with responsibilities of families. Many, especially among the French people, think of going back to France. They are disappointed. Some who have means will go back to France this year or next year. They were good supporters of our work. Others will leave Canada as soon as they have sufficient money, unless there is some change in the economic situation. Will our work continue to develop?

But the main thing is to remain obedient to God and He will show us the way. May our witness be true to the Word of God and our prayer be faithful and fervent, that others will be led to know Christ and the power of His resurrection.

In concluding, I would like to thank the Board of Missions and the Women's Missionary Society for the help they are giving me in my work.

REV. ANDRE POULAIN.

HUNGARIAN

Toronto

This 33 year old congregation, with a membership of 310, having doubled its membership and tripled its constituency within the past few years, goes through its age of adolescence carrying in itself the possibilities of a great congregation, but not being able to comply with its greater responsibilities.

Among the regular activities of the church, a very active youth group, a well-going scout troop, and a recently organized laymen's group, are the promising factors of development in 1958.

Some data from the statistics: Average attendance at Sunday services 122; at communion 98. Church School enrolment 52. Baptized 38 infants. Confirmed 10 teenagers. Married 10 couples; buried 5. Total raised for all purposes $6,044., decrease of mortgage obligations — $1,239.

K. D. TOTH.

Mount Brydges

I am thankful to the Lord this last year I was officially accepted as a permanent member of The Canadian Presbyterian Church. My induction was held on July 25th at 8.00 p.m. at our Church.

We held 56 services and 2,410 visited our Church. This comes to an average of 44 per service. Monthly attendance was as follows: January 40; February 37; March 50; April 76; May 92; June 38; July 37; August 12; September 17; October 34; November 36; December 70.

In Chalmers' Presbyterian Church, London, we held 13 services. Altogether 174 attended — average was 13 people. We had Bible classes at the manse with an average attendance of 8.

We had Lord's Supper on 6 occasions at Mount Brydges. 255 took part, 149 men and 106 women members. Average was 44.

In London we had Lord's Supper 4 times, 34 took part, 18 men and 16 women members. Average was 8.

We have 15 members in the Sunday School, of these 10 usually attend. In the first half of the year the minister's wife taught the children but had to give it up because of illness. Irene Gageny took over with Esther Vago. On June 29 we had our Sunday School closing exercises, tea was served. May 11, we had our special Mother's Day service and concert, with refreshments. This day was a great success. There were 160 present. December 21 we had our Christmas concert after our regular service — attendance was very good, 140 present.

Welland

In a few weeks this congregation will celebrate the Tenth anniversary of its re-organization in 1949. Perhaps a few comparative figures will portray best our progress in these years, of which 1958 was one of the most significant periods.

1949 — We began the year with no property of our own.	1958 — The approximate value of Church, Manse and site for new church was $40,000.
1949 — The congregation's share in the stipend was $600.	1958 — 2-400.
1949 — We gave $50. to the Budget Fund.	1958 — $370.
1949 — Membership was 157.	1958 — 231
1949 — We began with weekly Worship Services in Hungarian.	1958 — Our Services and active organizations included: Sunday Services — 11 a.m. The Session Ladies' Aid Society (Adult) Bible Hour in Hungarian — and — Sunday Services — 10 a.m. Church School Young Ladies' Association in English.

In addition to the regular services and activities of the church two important events took place in 1958 :—

- (1) Inauguration of Worship Services in English for young and non-Hungarian members. Average attendance 30 - 35; best attendance was at the Christmas Communion Service — 81. In the regular (English) services we follow the liturgy generally used throughout the Church; in Communion Services we follow Calvin's liturgy as has been the practice of the Reformed Church in Hungary ever since the XVI Century. Six of our elders were assigned to the duties and oversight of this part of the congregation.

- (2) The congregation purchased a new organ which, to a great extent made it possible to have two services. The old reed-organ proved useless when the congregation needed "leadership" rather than accompaniment. The new organ was selected with anticipation of our needs in the new church which we plan to erect in the near future.

Another characteristic feature of 1958 was further integration of recently arrived immigrants into the life of the church. It is my humble opinion that this wave of immigration was (in relation and comparison to the 1930 and 1948 influxes) the most readily co-operative in our efforts to build them into the life of both church and community. No other immigrant group of Hungarian origin was so willing to learn, to accomplish their studies which they carried on in Hungary, or to begin a new trade, than these refugees.

Here I would say that the numbers to be reported for statistical purposes causes concern. How can one judge after only a short period of acquaintance whether a person is to be considered a "communicant" member or not?—when our extensive social work produces a feeling of loyalty, which is not necessarily identical with the traditional concept of membership, on which budget allocations and other obligations are to be based. The submitted number therefore is the nearest figure corresponding to Canadian standards, but has little bearing on our Christmas Communion attended by some 300 Hungarian Presbyterians. This congregation, like so many others, is in constant state of "formation"—there is but one unchanged line throughout its Journey—God's grace . . . the love and sacrifice of those Brethren who bear with our weakness . . .

NICHOLAS NOVAK.

Portage La Prairie

By the Grace of God who guard and keep us in this world at the commencement of our new life and who guides us through every ordeal and hardship, and with the gracious co-operation of the Canadian Presbyterian Church it became possible to preach in our own Hungarian language.

Early in 1958, the Rev. Oden Seres, who began our work, was transferred to Calgary, the ministry changed into the hands of Rev. Laszo Fejes from Montreal on 5th March, 1958.

Our pastoral work in the Provinces embraces three towns, namely, Winnipeg, where we established our congregation on 16th February, 1958, Portage la Prairie established 23rd February, 1958, and Brandon. The necessary dignitaries were elected for the Church organization. Sunday services in all three places are held on a regular organized basis. Portage la Prairie every Sunday, except during inclement weather; Winnipeg every second Sunday; Brandon once a month. In farming areas two to three times a year.

Meetings with English speaking congregations were held in Winnipeg on April 6th on Easter Sunday evening, a combined Canadian-Hungarian Service in Both languages. In Portage la Prairie on October 5, 1958—combined Holy Communion Service.

The faithless apathy and wordliness in man's heart is very great, but we believe that our Lord's Gospel is a source of great strength against sin. May His Holy Spirit bless our souls and strengthen our work.

LASLO FEJES.

Calgary

In the first two months of 1958 I was still at Portage la Prairie in the Manitoba Mission Field. During this time new Hungarian congregations were formed at Winnipeg and Portage la Prairie with limited memberships. Rev. L. Fejes will no doubt give a comprehensive report on this Mission Field.

In the midst of past years' conflicts, which occurred between ministers and congregations, the adherents of long years, with a few exceptions, have remained loyal to the church. Now after a year of harmony it can be said that peace again prevails and that the life of the congregation is beginning to flourish. During the time spent in Calgary I have experienced the true brotherly love and understanding of a promising congregation.

Soon after my arrival we re-organized the Management of the church. The Session was organized into a separate body which heretofore was part of the "Presbyterian" and was entrusted with the leadership of the spiritual life of the Church. Christian education was resumed, which resulted in rapid growth in membership in the Church School classes. When I first arrived only 7—8 children were attending Church School, now the enrolment stands at 47, with an average attendance of 27—28. In 1958 six young people attended Communicants classes and again this year the same number. (In the three years prior to 1958 there were no communicant classes). It is regrettable that youth work ceased within the church. Now it is our greatest problem to commence such work. Recently we called a meeting of all ladies over 18 years with the intention of forming a Young Women's Christian society.

We are thankful to God that the life of our church is progressing in the proper direction and we pray that we may be worthy of His blessings.

EDMUND SERESS.

Lethbridge

We can say, with gratefulness in our heart: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us".

In 1958 we made a great journey again. On April 24, 1958 we celebrated the third anniversary of the dedication of our Church. Few congregations can boast of building a Church and Manse within four years and paying off their debt by the fourth year. The loan of $500. which is interest free from the Board of Missions was not included in the debt.

Attendance at Church services on the whole has been satisfactory. We have members who hardly miss an opportunity to hear the word of God. On the other hand we have members who attend irregularly and we also had members discontinue their attendance.

On the occasion of immovable holidays we had 100—120 people, but during the farmer's outdoor work period, or on Sunday morning, we only had 25—30 people. We had an average of 50 people. The number of Church members in 1957 was 86 and in 1958 it rose to 118.

On March 15th we showed the film "Martin Luther" with success. In September we paid our debts in full and we burnt the mortgage letter in a joyful gathering. With the payment of our debt and other investments we spent more than $5,200. It is my belief that this congregation is strong enough to be self supporting to ease the burden of the Mission. I feel this congregation, without any special effort, is strong enough to make a budget of $6,500. for itself with which they can meet any obligation.

10 children were baptized during the year, four marriages and five burials. The minister conducted Saturday afternoon communicant's classes from September till the end of April. We had four boys and five girls who pledged their vows on April 20, 1950. Our Sunday School is not functioning very well because of poor attendance. Although we have more than 40 Sunday School children, because of great distances we had at the very best an average of 15.

The Taber congregation is our affiliated Church. At one time it was stronger than Lethbridge. In a few years this situation reversed. The first Sunday of the month I go to Taber and hold services in the United Church at 3 o'clock. Average attendance is between 14—18. In 1958 they gave our Church $125. For the Building Fund we received from them $35. and for the Springhill Disaster Fund $25.

To sum up, I believe that 1958 was a prosperous year in the life of the Congregation. There were 177 adults in connection with the Church and 146 persons on the Communion Roll.

I finish my report that for everything be Glory to God. Soli Deo Gloria. May He give us strength, that our faith will not be weary and the oil of our lamps won't run out. May God be with us and if God be for us who can be against us? NO ONE, surely NO ONE.

L. BECSKE.

Interior British Columbia

I settled in Penticton in April 1958 and was introduced soon by Mr. McBride and the pastors of Kamloops Presbytery in the churches of Penticton, Kelowna, Vernon and later in Kamloops. I spoke in the English congregation and had an opportunity to tell them of the problems faced by the Hungarians.

The first period of my work was a time of orientation: where are the Hungarians; what is the proportion of protestants among them; what are the possibilities of holding them together? I visited some places far from Penticton—Prince George, 600 miles; Kitimat 1,100 miles; Prince Rupert 1,200 miles—but found visiting of these cities will not be rewarding because of high travel expenses and the time lost in travel.

I also visited the Okanagan and Kootenay Valleys:—Northward from Penticton: Kelowna, Vernon, Kamloops, Summerland. Eastward from Penticton: Osoyoos, Trail, Nelson, Cranbrook. These are the centres visited by people sometimes from a distance of more than 120 miles.

Despite the fact that 80% of the Hungarians living in Okanagan and Kootenay Valleys are young men, we do not find them at the services and relatively few attend the social meetings. Nevertheless there is slow progress in the visiting of these young men, as at one time there were none of them present.

In the Okanagan and Kootenay Valleys there are no Hungarian Churches or Clubs and our service is the only gathering of Hungarians. My work is to gather the Hungarians into English speaking Churches as the numbers are so small that separate congregations would be impossible. In Osoyoos there is no Presbyterian Church, Osoyoos with Oliver together (11 miles) form the biggest group of Hungarians in the whole area.

The Hungarian people are seeking the Church, but language creates many problems. When they ask for the Reformed Church—the name by which Europeans recognize the Presbyterian Church—they are told by many "We don't know". Is this a new sect? However they are eventually able to find our Church.

My greatest surprise came on arrival in Kitimat. I was walking along the street when a car drove up and a voice in Hungarian asked me to come over to it. It was a family of my former congregation who had moved to this city. I asked if they had a chance to hear the word of God in Hungarian and they answered "Yes". "Who is the preacher, I asked?" "You are". At first I did not understand but then they explained that before leaving for Kitimat they had tape-recorded one of my sermons. They pass the recording from family to family and at Christmas and Easter they come together and listen to it. This shows there are thirsty souls in need of our work.

In closing this report I would like to say how often I hear our people saying

Greater Vancouver

As someone has well stated, "The function of the church is to introduce people and their needs to Jesus Christ", so this was our only business during the last year. As we are trying to measure up somehow and to fulfil this task, God again was gracious to extend His Lordship over the hearts of men in this area... and there was plenty of room for Him to do just that.

Roman Catholic parents are bringing not only their own children but are picking up several others weekly to the Sabbath School. In the congregation Presbyterians, Roman Catholics, Lutherans, Baptists, Unitarians and even Greek Catholics both Old and New Canadians, can be found side by side in the pews worshipping the One Lord of all.

Although as our social work slowed down amongst the refugees and hundreds of "rice Christians" faded out of the Vancouver picture, the number of communicants increased from 24 to 47, and the adult adherents who applied in writing for admission increased from 184 to 260 last year. The number of children attending Sabbath School is close to 60. Attendance on Sunday mornings varied between 130—180. Morning services are in Hungarian, evening services bilingual. Guest speakers from every walk in life brought the Christian Message in English to the congregation at 28 Sunday evening services, when the minister acted as interpreter. These meetings were especially successful in reaching outsiders. During Lent we had a week of evangelism and in August one week of family camping at Robert's Creek. Both endeavours resulted in several commitments for Christ and for church membership.

The front of the church was fully modernized and an attractive new steeple was erected with voluntary labour of the members. The envelope system was introduced for the first time and the new church building was almost paid for by the end of the year. (Still outstanding on the church building $1,274.) The total raised for all purposes, with the balance from the previous year, amounted to $5,300. Since our church has no basement our most urgent need is for room for our children's and young people's work. We plan to raise the church and put in an adequate basement in the near future. This is a "must" for the future growth of this work.

Central Ontario

F. W. METZGER.

I respectfully submit the following report on work as territorial missionary for Central Ontario Hungarian field and editor-publisher for NEW LIFE and QUIET MOMENTS, Hungarian publications.

In Oshawa there are about 400 Hungarians, of whom 60 are Protestant. Regular work is carried on. I am in charge of the field along with my editorial activities. It was recently discovered from old church papers that Oshawa was at one time, (in the early thirties) a small but organized congregation with a Board of Managers. At present half of the membership consists of old Canadian Hungarians while the rest are refugee newcomers. Church attendance is satisfactory as regards both elements. Among the refugees there are a great many single young men.

Belleville, Kingston, Brockville, Prescott, Peterborough are the principal centres for our diaspora work, where in each city we have 15, 20 or 25 Hungarian Presbyterians. The largest contingent is Kingston's 24, the smallest Peterborough's 9. The majority of the Hungarians are old-timers integrated into English-speaking congregations. In other towns about 90% of our small congregations are new Canadians. Services are held twice monthly in Oshawa and once monthly in other towns. Attendance at the services is most satisfactory in Prescott and poorest in Brockville, where most of our people are single young men. I paid one visit to Trenton, but there are no Hungarians there.

Statistics	No. of Services	No. of Communion Services	Pastoral Calls
Oshawa	22	4	54
Belleville	12	2	39
Kingston	12	3	26
Brockville	10	1	34
Prescott	12	2	17
Peterborough	6	2	12
Gananoque	—	—	2
Napanee	—	—	1

Baptism: Oshawa—2. Marriage Services: Brockville—1.

NEW LIFE monthly is published in 1,000 copies. QUIET MOMENTS devotional, twice monthly, in 2,200 copies. 75 copies of Quiet Moments are sent into Hungary, 100 copies to Yugoslavia, where there is a Hungarian Reformed congregation in which every family receives our devotional as a gift. We imported and distributed 350 Hungarian Hymnals from Holland.

At present we are reprinting Rev. L. Kecskemethy's, The Blessed Physician, fourth edition—a prayer book for the sick. In October 1957 we published a mimeographed edition of a popular Confirmation Catechism, 150 copies.

The July-August issue of NEW LIFE was an all-English edition of our monthly paper, carrying a description of Hungarian Presbyterian work in Canada.

Further Plans; tracts, small books of prayer, and English edition of the above mentioned book of prayer for the sick, devotional reading for the bereaved, Christmas cards.

We would like to build up a fund for establishing a printing shop of our own for printing Hungarian language evangelical literature which would facilitate our work a great deal and would reduce printing costs.

ITALIAN

Beckwith Memorial—Montreal

1958 has been a year in which, failing every hope for an Italian Protestant Immigration, we had to re-organize our congregational life toward a different outlook. We tried to maintain the status quo. Meanwhile 7% of our congregation turned over to English speaking Churches. This is a great loss for a small congregation but, at the same time, we must consider it and this is its truer meaning—as a good partial fulfilment of our reason for being an immigrant church. Our success is mainly unseen and always humble, we could almost use the words sub contraria specie.

The Beckwith Memorial Church has kept alive its sense of responsibility and remained watchful for any possible opening. Our finances have improved again. As a matter of fact our canvass has secured for us, for 1959, $1.12 per member per Sunday.

At Easter time we received the Moderator of the Waldensian Church and at Christmas another Waldesian minister came to speak to us. These two occasions have been of great importance to our congregation in strengthening links with other Italian Protestants.

Hamilton

R. BERTOLOT.

Our Italian Mission surpasses all my expectations in every aspect. I am happy to report that from August 1957 the membership of the Church which was 26 active members, increased five times. We now have a congregation with 130 communicants. Financially the church is progressing above my expectations. We are almost ready to put down payment for the manse.

A mission cannot be developed without suitable place, workers and money. Our Mission needs very badly, and very soon, a lady missionary or deaconess, if we are to increase and also to keep our results of Italian origin to be able to converse and understand the ninety-two percent of our members who do not speak English.

R. BARTOLINI.

UKRAINIAN

Toronto

Every Ukrainian in Toronto is welcome to come to our mission with his problem. As a result our mission earned a reputation of a place where everyone could talk about and get assistance with his needs. There are about 50,000 Ukrainians in Toronto. Many of them know our church personally. Our time is filled with interpreting in divers offices for those who do not know English readily, finding work for unemployed, hospital visiting, family counselling and correspondence with readers of the Evangelical Truth all over the world. Our church membership is not indicative at all of the amount of work which the missionary is called to perform every day. In fact, a great deal of time is spent to help outsiders. Many a Greek Orthodox or Roman Catholic, while in the hospital asked me to visit them, notwithstanding the fact that they are visited by their own priests. Without trying to look busier than any other minister, I would say that with editing and printing of "The Evangelical Truth" and "Kubanski Krai" as well as work in our Credit Union, I am fully employed all year around.

Our papers, "The Evangelical Truth" and "Kubanski Krai" are printed practically every month and meet with the approval of most of our readers. It is very important work, especially in view of the fact, that the United Church is slowly liquidating "Canadian Ranok". It circulates mostly in Western Canada. No movement will amount to any influence unless it is supported by the printed word.

During the year, the congregation raised its budget allocation, and increased the minister's stipend of $300.

Our Credit Union proved to be a blessing. It is small, but is sufficient to satisfy emergencies which arise in the families from time to time. We charge 8% interest on all loans.

Among our receipts for 1958 is listed a donation from Malan Construction Company, amounting to $500.00. Mr. Malan, years ago was in our Sunday School. During the war he joined the army. Returning, he settled in Etobicoke Township and joined the English speaking Church. He became a successful builder. Mr. Malan did not forget us and sends us a donation from time to time. We may receive another donation from him in 1959, but we could not include it in our statement of anticipated receipts in view of the nature of the item. The fact is we are not able to retain in our membership successful people looking for a more suitable environment. In this way we lose many good families.

In anticipated receipts for 1959, it is shown that W. Assn will contribute $100.00. In 1958 they contributed $280.00. These were proceeds from the 17th Anniversary Dinner and cannot be repeated.

In expenditures for 1958, we spent about $50.00 for Sunday School materials. The sum of $146.80 paid to the Presbyterian Publications includes other items such as Chalice, etc. In 1958 $437.30 expenditures included carting, stationery, hardware, furnace, servicing, city tax for local improvements, advertising, etc.

MICHAEL FESENKO.

Edmonton

Very important is often underlined, for many times and on different occasions by all Ukrainian ministers: "Ukrainians came to Canada without any protestant background or without any church background."

Therefore, the number of Ukrainian adherents is a very important matter. They come from the Roman Catholic, the Greek Orthodox, or often belong to no church at all. They may attend services for a few weeks and then disappear. Some of them come back. It is a continually changing procession from which we gather our true members. Their contributions, as a rule, are mostly the reason why they hesitate to get the members. However, we have in our congregation a family contributing $211.45 in the past year, another $77.30 etc. It is indeed a very sound gesture and an encouraging example for other givers.

In the city of Edmonton live about 25,000 Ukrainian descendants. Our members are most New Canadians and they require many different services from me. Very often I even must be the lawyer, spiritual adviser and social worker to many of them.

Almost $\frac{1}{4}$ of our members are jobless. One of them who supports a family of three, is unemployed for about two years. It is generally known that neither Poland or Hungary has such drastic and high duties for the parcels to be sent into Ukraine. Everyone of us have miserable relatives in the Russo-Bolshevist Paradise. Even most poor must send them the "gifts" because they have everything, even vodka.

Considering everything we decided nevertheless, to contribute $100.00 more toward the minister's stipend in 1959. At the end of 1958 we visited together with the elders sixty families in the City of Edmonton. I continue to visit the Ukrainian families from house to house.

Conscious of the very great responsibility entrusted to me, the Ukrainian Mission in Edmonton and Alberta at large, my wife, our daughter and I do our best. The final blessing of God Almighty will be a glorious achievement for our Mission in Edmonton and in Canada.

STEPHEN S. SASS.

Oshawa

1958 has been a year of steady growth. The regular Bible Study on Wednesday nights has deepened and strengthened our spiritual life. The number of sincere and sacrificial church workers has increased. Especially the Ladies' Aid Society has proved to be the most helpful in every way.

Financially it was a very difficult year for us. We had to put in a new oil burner and two new sections to our furnace. This job added over one thousand dollars to our expenditures. In spite of this extra financial burden we were able to pay $500.00 on our mortgage and send nearly $300.00 to the General Assembly budget. An every member canvass has been well planned and successfully carried out, and are offerings are substantially increased. We feel that our congregation is now in a healthier condition than ever before. We have 40 families enrolled in the Every Home Plan. The Presbyterian Record is reaching approximately 150 persons of Ukrainian descent.

We thank God for His help during the last year and hope that He will abundantly bless our work this year.

ARMAGH

The year 1958 was for Armagh an increasingly busy one. As the new wing had been opened in March 1957, 1958 was the first year of full operation with a capacity of twenty-two. The year started with sixteen girls in care, and another eighty-five were admitted during the year, bringing the total number cared for, to one hundred and one.

As the year went on, there appeared to be an increasing demand for admission. A record kept from July to December showed one hundred and five requests for admission during this period. Of these, thirty-seven could not be admitted because of lack of space and a further group of six made other plans, rather than wait until there was a vacancy.

The lack of space raises serious difficulties since there are few alternatives for the unmarried mother to choose from. If she remains in her own home she may feel she is almost a prisoner there, hiding from her neighbours and the rest of the community. As the number of unmarried mothers increases with rising population, the problem of shelter for them becomes more acute.

A look at the girls served at Armagh in 1958, shows that the majority again came from Ontario. The average age is twenty and the majority of girls were either workers in offices or students. Just under two-thirds of them were church members.

During the year we have been increasingly aware of the limited length of time we have in which to work with a girl, an average of sixty-seven days. This means that our social work and missionary endeavours must be developed and concentrated if we are to make a lasting impact. Failure to do so may have serious consequences. One girl who was at Armagh declared that she was through with the church. She had discussed her problem with her minister and her comment about their talk was, "He said nothing". To an unmarried mother, facing a hostile community, loss of regular employment, separation from family and friends the responsibility of a wise decision regarding her child's future, there can be no superficial or easy answers. As her future is bound up with those of her parents, relatives and friends, those things which affect her will in turn reach and influence them.

But changes must also take place in the community if the unmarried mother is to make a successful return to everyday living. Because of this we attempt to publicize the work of Armagh as well as the service we provide. In addition to speaking engagements and the yearly Open House, last year we had our first Annual Meeting and the reports from it were printed and circulated throughout the Church. These are aimed at creating an understanding of the unmarried mother and the varied factors in her background which had resulted in her pregnancy.

The work of Armagh is futile unless it evokes an answering response which is shared by the Church as a whole. It is a success as each church member individually assumes his missionary responsibility.

Growth

The growth of the Downtown Mission of The Presbyterian Church in Canada has been most encouraging in every aspect. The work has been extended far beyond the limits of Toronto and vicinity. We hear from practically every Province in the Dominion. Gifts of money, food and clothing have far exceeded our expectations. All these are dedicated in the task of reclaiming souls in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We do thank you beloved co-workers for making 1958 a year of growth and blessing.

Twenty-one Presbyterian Church Groups conduct nightly services at the Mission. These groups come prepared to speak, sing, play the piano and provide sandwiches for one hundred men — old age pensioners, alcoholics and transients.

The Bible School, Good News Club, Girls' Club and Women's Group continue to be healthy. Special mention must be made of the Women's Thursday afternoon meeting under the leadership of Miss Starrett. An average of forty women and twelve children attend. Ladies from other churches come down and look after the children while the women have their meeting.

From the 3rd to 9th November we had our first Preaching Mission. The Missioners were Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Lockerbie. These meetings proved to be worthwhile and we believe several made a definite commitment of their lives to the Lord Jesus Christ. Others were helped and encouraged spiritually. We think such a Preaching Mission should be conducted once or twice a year.

Relief work has developed so rapidly that at times we were literally buried with bales. We have not sufficient room to handle this necessary part of our Rescue program. We have to pass on to other agencies some of the extra clothing because of this lack of space. Churches and individuals are beginning to keep our grocery shelves well stocked. Instead of making one donation of food stuffs at Christmas, Church groups are now making periodic donations throughout the year. This is ideal.

Statistics

60 mothers and teenagers were given a holiday at a Christian Camp for a period of two weeks.

November and December were busy months. 800 items of clothing, including 150 coats were given out. About 4,000 articles of clothing were distributed throughout the year.

Tickets for 400 beds and 500 meals were given.

In November and December 1952 items of food were given to needy families. About 5,000 lbs of food were distributed during the year.

25 hampers were provided for families; 160 gifts to men and women and 170 gifts to children were presented.

1,400 monthly News letters were sent out.

There were 265 nightly meetings—average attendance 90; total 23,850. Approximately 65,000 cups of coffee and 131,000 slices of bread were given to those who attended the meetings along with 22,830 donuts.

Receipts for the work of the Mission totalled $24,000. This amount came from: Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church; Knox Presbyterian Trust Fund and gifts from individuals and churches throughout Canada.

ST. ANDREW'S HALL

The following aspects of Presbyterian work centering at St. Andrew's Hall

1. The residence;
2. University Hill Presbyterian Church;
3. Outreach to University Students;
4. Pre-Theological Students;
5. The larger life and work of the Church;
6. Relationships with the University;
7. International Outreach;
8. Administrative matters;
9. Planning for the future.

Early in March 1958 the congregation which met in the chapel of St. Andrew's Hall was formally organized to become University Hill Presbyterian Church. There are two Elders and 18 members. We continue to think of this congregation as primarily a "University Congregation" so that the services and sermons are designed to appeal to people of University level, rather than the general level of the community. Various students have expressed a great deal of appreciation of the way the services are slanted towards them. They say they feel they are particularly welcome. Some students come several miles from the city to attend. Mrs. Carson has organized a student choir which has rendered faithful service during the University session. A survey of the Acadia Camp was conducted with the help of students and a Sunday School was started with Mrs. Carson in charge of a staff of student teachers who receive regular teacher training. Average attendance is about 12 children. The children of married students tend to be too young for Sunday School. The Sunday evening services did not seem too popular this year and were discontinued. Attendance at church services during the summer was most gratifying, and during the regular session of the University was much better this year than last. A fine communion set was donated by Mr. Alex Darby of New Westminster. The congregation is now paying $500. of the grant which was originally given by the Board of Missions and, in addition, contributed over $200. to the Budget. They also bought chairs and tables to the value of $500., which equipment is used interchangeably for congregational purposes and those of St. Andrew's Hall. Communicant classes were held in January and February both in 1958 and 1959.

TYNDALE HOUSE

As in the past years, morning worship was conducted every Sunday throughout the year, as well as an evening service on the last Sunday of the month. Carol services were held on Christmas and Easter and attendance at Easter Sunrise Service was gratifying. The World day of Prayer was well observed. Young people from Church School, C.G.I.T., Teen Age Club, Guides and Scouts conducted the Teen Age Service, while the adult service was directed by the choir. Church School teachers were re-dedicated to their work at the Rally Day Service and there was a Church Parade held by Scouts and Guides. Worship services are enriched through leadership in song and anthem by our Choir.

New Year's Day Rally of the Montreal Presbytery was attended by almost 100 of our people. Three of the girls won prizes on the essay of Moses, while a fourth, whose essay was given the highest marks of all grades, was chosen to read the Queen's Message to the Assembly. For the third consecutive year, Tyndale House won the banner for highest percentage present at the Rally.

Three Sunday afternoon teas for Church School pupils and parents were held and on Palm Sunday our children presented a gift to Mr. Ramsarop to take back to the children in British Guiana. The Annual Church School picnic was most enjoyable. At an open missionary meeting the children invited the parents and friends to come and share with them what they had learned about Japan. Contributions from the children made possible a gift to help the work in India. Monthly teachers' leadership training sessions continue and are a source of great strength to those participating.

The Young People's Society had a busy season. On alternate Wednesdays they meet for prayer and Bible study. Special speakers and religious films were enjoyed. The remaining Wednesdays are spent planning money raising and service projects, visiting and entertaining outside groups, as well as occasional recreation evenings. Children of the Church have happy weekly sessions playing games, listening to flannelgraph stories, talking about the Church and Missions and doing elementary craft work. The C.G.I.T. divide into three groups on their meeting nights. With a varied program of Bible study and recreation they seek to develop, cherishing health, seeking truth, knowing God and serving others.

Girls and boys participate in the Explorers program. During the year they explored the Church, Bible, Community and other countries and did some craft work. Their motto "Be doers of the Word and not hearers only", their prayer "Teach us Thy way, O Lord, that we may always serve Thee".

A W.M.S. Evening Auxiliary was organized during the latter part of the year and bids fair to become a valuable asset to Tyndale House.

Contributions to the Mission to Lepers were made by the above groups.

Under excellent leadership, well planned programs are enjoyed by the Brownies, Guides, and Scouts. Over 150 varied tests were passed by the cubs and scouts, special events such as parents night, Christmas party, outside hikes were enjoyed as well as a period of games in the gymnasium each week. A pennant competed for by several troops in the district for scouting skills was won by the Tyndale troop.

Singular honour was conferred upon the Guides Company when one of their girls was chosen from 200 girls to represent the division at the National Camp. Two other girls attended Guide Camp, passing several outdoor tests along with their studies and practice for badge test—hikes, toboggan parties and recreation periods in the Gym were enjoyed. The Brownie Pack was active, learning Brownie laws, games and tests. Four girls graduated into the Guide Company.

Our Ladies' Scout and Guide Auxiliaries were most active and of great assistance in providing necessary equipment for all the groups.

Eight teen-age girls and boys make up our Junior Council. Their motto, "To give service to Tyndale wherever possible", is carried out by doing odd jobs around the building, providing leadership for the woodwork and games clubs,

Our Ladies' Scout and Guide Auxiliaries were most active and of great assistance in providing necessary equipment for all the groups.

Eight teen-age girls and boys make up our Junior Council. Their motto, "To give service to Tyndale wherever possible", is carried out by doing odd jobs around the building, providing leadership for the woodwork and games clubs, taking complete charge of weekly movies and providing office supply daily from 4—5.30 p.m.

Seven well conducted gym clubs and sports leagues, along with a team entered in the City Biddy Basketball league, providing excellent outlet for the boundless energies of many boys between the ages of 7—17. An adult Badminton Club meets weekly. Boys and girls from 10—15 meet weekly to play checkers, table tennis, monopoly, and so on.

An opportunity for boys to improve their skill in woodwork and small crafts is provided through our woodwork club and craft club. In the sewing and craft club girls enjoy making doll clothes, aprons, stuffed animals, puppets and other articles. A play by the Craft club was enjoyed at the Mother and Daughter banquet. The women's sewing club is well attended by mothers who get together to knit, learn smocking, make children's clothing and do a lot of chatting.

A variety of activities are planned for the "Tiny Tots"—girls and boys 5—7. They play games, enjoy singing, stories, crafts and painting. The Teen Age Club meets weekly for discussion and recreational activities. A special committee makes a careful selection of films which are shown weekly. The children's library is well used by children who come to sit and read or take books home.

A well organized Nursery School is conducted daily from 10—12 a.m. Here again interest span is short and a good deal of thought is put into planning.

Our third annual Father and Son banquet and the first Mother and Daughter Banquet were happy and exceptionally well attended events. Each year the parents are showing added interest in these functions.

Summer provides an excellent opportunity to serve our people who find it difficult to get away from the city. During July and August eight evening adult bus rides and seven all day family beach trips were enjoyed. Daily Vacation Bible School was held for two weeks in August. 41 children registered, 22 of them had perfect attendance.

A summer program for children from 5—13 was held from 23rd June to 25th July. One hundred and twenty-one children registered for this program.

Tyndale has an excellent corps of volunteers. Thirty-nine persons gave weekly service in Church School and various clubs. Others assisted at special functions. Our Executive Committee are all dedicated people, their contribution both in time and money is invaluable.

Through contributions from our various clubs, friends and a substantial gift from the Montreal Rotary Club, over $450. was raised to purchase 50 much needed stacking chairs and six folding tables. We also received 60 knives, forks and spoons from the Kiwanis Club of Montreal.

Our enrolment: 72 children in Church School; 38 families on Church roll; mid-week registration shows: 18—Nursery School; 70—Adults; 123 girls; 197 boys. During the year 36 different groups were served with an aggregate attendance of 25,944.

Tyndale House has been richly blessed. The staff is thankful to God for their opportunity to serve so many people. We trust we have not faltered in our task of serving Him.

IMMIGRATION

At the beginning of a new year it is customary to look over the events which have taken place and which we leave forever behind. It is the same with the activities of a department. One of the most outstanding memories is of the serious illness which affected our small circle of workers. Dr. Wm. Orr Mulligan, Port Chaplain in Halifax, who has given faithful service to his Church, had the misfortune to undergo several operations, culminating in the amputation of a leg before Christmas. This was a very big shock but we are certain that Dr. Mulligan's buoyant spirit will help him.

Recognizing the administrative obligations of this report we are giving the names and purposes followed by our overseas chaplains. The Rev. Garvin Hunter, Liverpool; The Rev. John Taylor, Southampton; The Rev. John Service, Scottish chaplain, all prepare and send us advance lists of the names and addresses of all Presbyterian emigrants. They also visit the ship, distributing literature and very often giving good words of comfort to the emigrants. For the second time, negotiations are open between ourselves and the chaplains at Le Havre and it is hoped this time we shall receive answers which will enable us to build up the work by correspondence.

Attached is a resume of the routine work of the department, together with statistics which will show you that there was a retrocession in the number of immigrants. There was however a reverse effect in our office work where the activity was increased by a larger number of special cases. As a consequence of the latent, but real, depression we were called frequently to obtain jobs. All too often financial distress and domestic difficulties—which in normal times would have been overcome—became dramas and problems requiring very delicate and tactful intervention. Certain of these were dealt with in collaboration with our friends, notably lawyers of admirable competence and leaders in legal matters. The confidential character of our case work prohibits our giving details, of course, but we are able to attest that the number as well as the seriousness of these cases increased.

It is an important matter that the visitation returns be considered by everyone as an extension of the ministry and not as an additional clerical burden. It is good to note the percentage of answers coming back to the office has increased, although the number of immigrants decreased.

We have to consider that in the last ten years one and a half million people have come to Canada through immigration—the equivalent of the population of British Columbia—bringing with them $800 million in cash and $300 million in other possessions. People impressed by the figures could be superficially happy but it is good to remember that countries were not built in generality with money alone but with hard work, a high idealistic faith serving God and the country.

Of the 124,000 who came in, 61,000 were dependents, 25,000 were sponsored, i.e. assured by companies or individuals of jobs; 19,500 were self-establishment types—farmers, businessmen and professionals. Only 18,600 entered the labour market and that number included 4,700 with specialized training in nursing, teaching, medicine and similar skills in short supply in this country BUT ALL 124,000 ADDED TO THE CONSUMER MARKET.

Each year we receive large numbers of immigrants and we should try to analyze the motivating spirit and try to determine to what extent their morale is influencing our own problems. Until recently, Europe was more or less fearful of a third world war and of Russian invasion. This dangerous tension impelled the generality of immigrants to come in a spirit of submission, accepting more or less the life here, including the good qualities and defects. They were happy to be far from the source of possible conflict.

Special Fields:

Without going into detailed comment we can say that this year the British sector is once again giving the most satisfaction. A favourable feeling is evident among employers. The Dutch, because of close alliance with their own people, also make progress. The Germans are practically free from the employment problem because of their strong community spirit and support from their government agencies in this country. A point to mention is that there are approximately 1,000,000 Germans now in Canada. The Austrians, in general, are benefitting from the fact that they too are speaking the German language, and the few Protestants are absorbed as though they were natives of Germany. The Italian immigrants are strong in their faith, their extreme unity and particular ability to restrain themselves during the first difficult years. No change in the general policy will be made in the Italian category. The maximum of 25,000 will be maintained—if the government Department of Immigration judge it to be

Explanatory notes

- † It is interesting to note that 1728 were sent out. Where there are ladies in the family, a duplicate visitation notice is sent to the welcome and welfare secretary, as well as to the minister, which means that actually approximately 3,000 notices went out. Out of this number, 858 were returned.
- * Each family is regarded as a unit—even if there are eight in the family, hence the difference between the number dealt with, and the number of visitation notices sent.
- † Welcome letters are sent when immigrants cannot be specifically located, having an address such as R.R. 3, Ottawa.

subsidies. The main point, common to all countries, will be that above all a rigid balance must be maintained between the economical situation and the labour market. In the Italian cases preference is given to relatives, of the first degree, then those affianced, and after that the openings which cannot be filled by Canadian citizens. This is another general rule which is becoming common policy for every category of immigrant.

The opening of the seaway will not affect the general routine followed by the Government Department of Immigration in the way that ships carrying more than 25 passengers will be stopped at Quebec, and the work will be done at Montreal.

J. A. E. DE VRIESCHOUWER.

PORT PROCEDURE AND FOLLOW-UP

From our overseas chaplains we receive advance lists of our immigrants. When the ship docks the port workers secure the ship's manifest, and lists any further names of immigrants and makes necessary corrections in the list where addresses may have changed in the interim. The port worker then puts our welcome card on the immigrants' baggage, in order to welcome them in the name of the Church. These cards are printed in English, French and German. A welcome letter is also given—also in English, French, German, Dutch, Italian, Hungarian and Ukrainian.

When the people disembark, the port worker helps any who need her assistance, regardless of denomination, but trying to keep a special eye out for those of our church. When an immigrant's address is given, but cannot be specifically located, (i.e. a R.R. address), a welcome letter is sent. In many cases no address is given other than the name of the city, so no notice or welcome letter can be sent. Our only contact is the welcome card at the ports. At this point we hope that our ministers and welcome and welfare secretaries will welcome the immigrants into their communities, and more especially into their church fellowship. When contact has been made the visitor should return the visitation report so that our office may have an over all view of the results.

HOSPITAL VISITOR'S REPORT—TORONTO

Hospitals and Homes visited during 1958 were: Queen Elizabeth Hospital; Toronto Western Hospital; Lambert Lodge; Hilltop Acres; Thornhill Rest Home. In addition, shut-ins were visited in their homes, where requested, and jams, jellies and candies were distributed to them.

Literature provided included Scriptures, Glad Tidings, Presbyterian Record, "A Ministry to the Sick and Shut-Ins" and other suitable material. Friends who are interested in our work and wish to help supplied clothing for distribution where required. Clothing for men, women and children, was given also to Evangel Hall, and included in the Bale sent to the Indians from Wychwood Church.

The patients are greatly encouraged that the Church members remember them and wish to minister to them in their need. May God set His seal upon all that is done in His name and To Him be the Glory.

MARIE CARSON.

In the course of my duties as Hospital Visitor during 1958 I visited patients listed as Presbyterian in the hospitals assigned to me as follows: Toronto General—1,140; Mount Sinai—280; Grace—364; Sick Children's—148; total 1,932. These figures represent the number of patients visited and would be increased considerably if repeat calls were included. It is a constant encouragement to find doctors and nurses welcome the visitor with every courtesy and consideration. For this good will I am deeply grateful.

Of the many impressions that day by day visitation leaves, one is particularly vivid,—the fact that crisis so often brings life into truer perspective. It was so with the patient who said: "I read the Bible this morning for the first time in years, and now I have a visit from the church. I must keep on reading!"

There are also those who say that through their illness they have been brought back to the church. Some confess past failure to attend, offering no excuse and simply admitting their carelessness; others that they had fallen away through resentment of what they considered an injury. Ill and lonely they now remember the blessings they had known and long for their return. To such troubled souls a portion of Scripture and a prayer may be the "word of reconciliation" which will restore them to the Christian fellowship. Even devoted members may be like the woman who, on returning to her home church said that the visitor's call had helped her realize more than ever the many different ways in which her weekly contributions were used.

Desirable as such later effects may be, one must not lose sight of the fact that the primary purpose of hospital visitation is to bring encouragement and comfort to those who suffer. On a return visit to a patient after her operation, she told me she had remembered what I had said, had put her trust in the Great Physician and was not afraid. Pain, fear, solitude of spirit in the midst of many, are ills no other can cure; their souls He alone can bind and heal.

In the Hospital for Sick Children our little ones must spend many homesick hours. With them I always try to leave the thought that the love of God, their Heavenly Father, comes to them in the care so gently offered by doctors and nurses; that just as Jesus long ago healed the sick and took little children in His arms and blessed them, so He is near to them to make them strong and happy once more.

I pray that God may bless what has been done, and that many who have walked in the valley of the shadow of death will be guided into a future bright with the One Presence which will enable them to "walk in newness of life".

MYRTLE MACKINNON.

1958 has been a year of service for the Master. I have visited St. Joseph's, Lady of Mercy, Queen Elizabeth and Runnymede Hospitals. Several Rest Homes also have been visited.

It is the same problem at St. Joseph's to obtain complete lists of Presbyterians from the Office. I enquire of the nurse on each floor if there are other Presbyterians whose names are not on my list. In this way I may get from three to four more names. One day I found a patient who had been in the Hospital for a long time. After having prayer with her I asked if there was anything I could do for her. I learned she was from out of town. Her home people or Church did not know of her illness. I wrote to her sister and her home Church (at her request) telling of her illness. Later there was a letter from her sister and Pastor thanking me. I usually have prayer, read to them and have a word with them. One day I visited a patient who was going home the next day. She was a stranger in the city. A Presbyterian, no Church home; I suggested I contact the Pastor of the church near where she was living and give him her address. She said, "Please do I have several children and want them in Sunday School". I did so. In this same room there was another patient, a Roman Catholic. When I prayed with this patient I included her. As I finished she said "Oh thank you, I am a Catholic and have just had an operation. Your prayer means so much to me".

Patients being in the Hospital for such short periods it is hard to make more than one contact. If they are there longer one gets very close to them. Some follow up work has been done.

There are five or six Presbyterians in Our Lady of Mercy Hospital. Several are senile. We have about 30 patients in the Jubilee Wing of Queen Elizabeth, about 24 women in Runnymede besides a few men. How much these shut-ins enjoy a visit. I do enjoy my work.

The leaflet prepared by our Church is very much appreciated. Little leaflets and portions of the Scriptures, including Gospels and Psalms are given out. Birthdays, Christmas and Get-Well cards have been sent to Queen Elizabeth and Runnymede Hospitals.

The Women's Missionary Society has sent Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter cards for our shut-ins. I want to thank them. The Scott Auxiliary of St. John's Presbyterian Church of the East Toronto Presbyterial sent a box of gifts and a box of little jars of jams. These were much appreciated by the patients. I would like to thank them for helping me to give cheer to our shut-ins.

In closing I want to thank the Toronto East Presbyterials, Scott Auxiliary and the Women's Missionary Society and staff of the Hospitals and the Pastors who have been so helpful.

MARY I. BRADLEY.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY (Eastern Division)

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Woman's Missionary Society (Eastern Division), respectfully submits the following report for the year ending September 1958:—

OVERSEAS MISSIONS

BRITISH GUIANA—Five students were supported at Bethel College and three completed the course and were graduated in April. As they began their work as full-time deaconesses, we undertook the support of two of them.

Miss Ruby Gopaul, having graduated from the Deaconess Training School, returned in May to her home. Her support for two years at the school had been the special project of our Girls' Organizations. Miss Gopaul is now stationed in Essequibo working under the Christian Education Committee. One of her tasks is preparing and editing Sunday School materials. Her salary is being paid by our Children's Organizations.

Miss Chhangur and Miss Budhoo, two Guianese deaconesses, who have been in our employ for some years, have been granted leave to come to the Deaconess Training School for further study. The Woman's Missionary Society (E.D.) are paying their transportation to Canada and expenses while at the school. The Girls' Organizations are sharing in this.

In February, our Missionary, Miss Anna MacDonald, attended the Annual Women's Conference in Trinidad. She assisted with Vacation Bible Schools which were held in April. The mission Council reports that these Bible Schools are the means of bringing many girls and boys into the Church and keeping them there. There are seventy-five Sunday Schools in the Colony, most of which were visited by the women missionaries and deaconesses. Bibles bought from a gift sent by our Society were distributed to many of the schools.

INDIA—The Jobat School of Nursing under the direction of Miss Mary Nichol has continued to fulfil its purpose—the training of nationals to supply the great lack of qualified nurses. Dr. Ian Cunningham writes, "The School of Nursing is one great hope we have for a competent adequate nursing staff. Little hope of this hospital's future could be entertained were it not for Miss Nichol's school". During the first part of the past year there were thirteen students in training, six second year students and seven in their first year. In July a new class of eight was admitted. The W.M.S. (E.D.) has met the full expenses of the School for the first two years of operation.

There is great need of more building accommodation, both for administration and for students' residence. It is hoped that funds will be made available to meet the cost of this very necessary building. At our Annual Meeting $5,000 was allocated for this purpose.

The Hospital continues to receive money from our treasury for supplies.

Several special grants were sent during the year to India, $1,000 was given for the up-grading of Hudhiana Hospital, $1,000 for Study Centres, and $125 for Christian Literature. In addition $300 went toward the support of a Bible Woman.

TAIWAN — Special contributions toward Mrs. Dickson's work totalled over $800 during the year. The $2,000 for repairs to the Tamkang School, which had previously been allocated by our Board, was sent forward.

JAPAN — In Japan also we have given thought to training for Christian service. Five hundred dollars was contributed toward support of Korean student deaconesses. Five hundred was sent for the new Korean Christian Centre and five hundred toward the support of the family of Pastor Duk Sun Kin while he studies at Presbyterian College, Montreal.

NEW HEBRIDES — By sending a small contribution each year, we continue our contact with the New Hebrides. To these islands the first missionaries from the Maritimes carried the Gospel.

HOME MISSIONS

Four deaconesses were employed during the year. Miss Susan Sylvester continued as Hospital Visitor in Halifax until her retirement, April 30th. After forty-one years of service in various parts of the Maritimes, Miss Sylvester is known and loved throughout the Church there.

Miss May MacKenzie, North Tryon, P.E.I., has seen progress under her capable leadership. She reports that organization is good and improvements have been made in the church property. Miss MacKenzie was absent from the field for some time during the Winter due to illness but subsequently resumed her duties.

Mrs. Ruby J. Young, working under the direction of the Miramichi Presbytery, has conducted services in vacant charges, has done some hospital visitation and assisted with a number of W.M.S. Auxiliaries, Children's groups and Young People's Societies.

Miss Margaret MacDougall, as Regional Secretary, has been busy with rallies, leadership training Institutes and other services throughout the Synod. During January and February she represented the Presbyterian Church on the Atlantic Provinces Project on Christian Vocations for Women in co-operation with other denominations and the Y.W.C.A. As usual she gave splendid leadership at Synod's Camp Geddie during its season. One deaconess and three student deaconesses were employed during the Summer assisting in Synod and Presbytery Camps, conducting Vacation Bible Schools, and doing survey work. Our Home Missions' Secretary reports — "These young women have given excellent service and are highly commended by those with whom they worked."

At Halifax port Mrs. George Ingraham was busy during the winter months. She reports the "inflow of immigrants to be slackening". There were approximately 14,000 Protestants and 28,000 Roman Catholics landed at Halifax.

At Saint John, Mrs. I. M. Creaser was kept busy during the Winter and worked until May 15th, helping those who were still in quarters at the Port although shipping had closed March 31st.

We have made the usual grants to the Interprovincial Home at Coverdale, N.B., and the Maritime Home for Girls in Truro, N.S.

As is our custom, Camps Geddie, Mira and Keir have also received grants. Bursaries of $150 each were given to six student ministers and two student deaconesses.

Our Children's and Girls' Organizations continue to grow, but slowly. Two week-end C.G.I.T. Camps were held, one at Camp Mira, and one in St. John's, Newfoundland. It has been suggested that a leadership Training Camp be held to further this work.

The $5,000 previously allocated was sent to St. Paul's Church, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. The cash loan which St. Andrew's Church, Dartmouth, received in November, 1954, was reduced to $7,000.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY (W.D.)

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Council Executive of the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) respectfully submits the following report of the Society's work for 1958:

ORGANIZATION:

During the year 1958 the Organization Department of the Society continued through materials prepared and the leadership given by staff members to emphasize Christian and missionary education throughout the various groups within the W.M.S. family. Reports from the various departments indicate an increase in membership in every department and general use of recommended programme material.

Two W.M.S. Training Centres were held in July, 1958, one in Albert College, Belleville, Ontario, the other in Luther College, Regina, Saskatchewan. To these Centres came 99 representative leaders from the various Synodicals and Presbyterials. Bible Study was an important part of each Centre. At Belleville, Mrs. A. John Coleman of Toronto gave outstanding leadership in this, and at Regina, Rev. Stuart B. Coles, Secretary for Lay Studies of The Presbyterian Church. National and Regional Secretaries conducted workshops on the work of their Departments. The work of the National and Overseas Departments was presented by members of the staffs of those Departments. A sincere endeavour to present a picture of the total work of the Society was made through the working together of all the Departments.

Additional leadership training material was made available for the use of Presbyterial Children's, Girls' and Adult Secretaries, to assist them in local training.

The Organization Department staff, consisting of a Director, National Age-Group Secretaries (Children's, Girls') and the Regional Secretaries continued to work in close cooperation with the Board of Christian Education.

Deputation work was arranged so that a staff member or a member of Council Executive visited all Synodicals and many of the Presbyterials. Missionaries available for deputation work were used as widely as possible. One overseas student, one Organization staff member and two missionaries were sent to the various Children's, Girls', Young People's, Women's and Family Camps. A total of 17 camps were thus provided with missionary education leadership.

OVERSEAS MISSIONS

Total staff overseas in 1958 — 25.

New appointments — Miss Audrey Prendergast, Reg. N., who was called to overseas service in Ludhiana Medical College in Northern India. Our Society is associated with Knox Church in sending her to this work; Miss Diana Wadsworth, B.A., M.R.C., who is completing studies in preparation for educational work in India; Miss Dorothy Bulmer, L.R.C.T., proceeded to Nigeria in December.

The overseas work of the Women's Missionary Society is done in cooperation with the General Board of Missions (Overseas section). Candidates are reviewed in the Joint Candidates Committee, and policy is determined in the Joint Policy Committee.

Increasingly the value of the Christian Education Programme is evident. In the several countries graduate deaconesses, teachers and nurses are at work strengthening the church. Together with the Canadian staff these workers are jointly aiding in building and giving leadership to the Christian Church in their respective lands.

During the year there have been a number of serious enquiries by young women desirous of serving the Church in full time work overseas. This accompanied by requests from the Church overseas makes us realize that our work can increase, and that we are being led into wider spheres of service.

NATIONAL MISSIONS — 1958

During 1958, the National Missions staff were engaged in many different types of work from British Columbia to Quebec — in Christian Education Centres; as Hospital Visitors; in organization work in new housing areas and new industrial developments; also in downtown areas of Montreal and Toronto.

Many Chinese people came to Canada in 1958 and a greater impetus to our work in Victoria, Vancouver, Toronto, Windsor and Montreal has been noted.

At the Birtle and Cecilia Jeffrey Indian Residential Schools, where over 300 children were in residence, a number of the older students attended High School classes in the adjacent towns, Birtle and Kenora. The children from both of the residential schools have fared well in district Music Festivals and in sports competitions.

Two graduate deaconesses were appointed during the year, Miss Ada Wade and Miss Susan Gibson. Nine students were employed during the summer of 1958.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Women's Missionary Society Estimate for Christian Literature in 1958 was $12,000, of which $5,000 was the Annual Grant from the Legacy Fund. To this amount, through the Special Gifts and Legacies which come in throughout the year for this special purpose from individual groups and interested friends, was added $3,246.07, thus bringing our W.M.S. givings for Christian Literature in the year just past to a total of $15,246.07.

Through the Annual Grants, we have been able to send out good Christian literature of many types and kinds, and in many languages and dialects into numerous far places of the world, as well as in Canada, to Protestant French, Italians, Hungarians, Ukrainians, Kuban Cossacks and Chinese, and we have also contributed to the work of the British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada. The evangelizing power of the written word has been sent into Formosa; British Guiana; India; Africa; to the millions of Chinese refugees in Southeast Asia; Japan and Korea; and, through ten magazines for women and children, which our W.M.S. has helped to keep in circulation, into many lands and in many languages.

Urgent needs and requests from many fields for Christian literature opportunities and necessities, which we could not have met in any other way, were fulfilled through the generous Gifts and Legacies. Special literature for women and children was financed for the Koreans in Japan; Ukrainian Hymnals were provided for a newly-opened Church; funds for Lending Libraries for the young people's work in Formosa and British Guiana went to our workers there; Nigeria received help for needed literature; subscriptions to "Happy Childhood", and to "The Lighthouse", familiar Chinese magazines went to our workers for the newly-arrived Chinese women and children in Canada; special gifts went for Hungarian and Ukrainian literature in Canada, and to the work of the British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada; World Christian Books were supported; Sunday School materials sent to India, and a grand total of $825 provided 33 Village Lending Libraries for a like number of newly-literate villages in India and Southeast Asian lands. These special gifts were thankfully sent to cover each individual need, and received in every case with real gratitude and appreciation.

SUPPLY REPORT FOR 1958

In writing this report I would quote from one of the reports received: "Our Supply Secretaries are trying very hard to do a good job". Reading the reports one is very conscious of a good job done.

There is mention made of warm clothing and food sent to city missions, orphanages, homes for retarded children, etc., Christmas gifts sent to our Indian schools and to our workers in charge of children's centres and Chinese work. Our Hospital Visitors were supplied with many gifts. Our overseas work was not forgotten and gifts were sent to our missionaries in Formosa, India and Nigeria. Through money given for supplies we have been able to meet the needs of our Overseas Missionaries.

(Mrs. A. S.) AGNES CURR,
Supply Secretary.

WELCOME AND WELFARE REPORT

Welcome and Welfare — For whom and by whom? This is a question often directed to those who are actively participating in the work of this Department of our Society and it might be at least partially answered by saying that the service this Department seeks to render is one of a friendly 'Christian' concern for the happiness and welfare of others. "Others" might be newcomers to Canada, those already connected with a congregation, or strangers in a new community.

Fewer names were received by our secretaries from the Immigration Department in Montreal last year, partly because a number arrived by air, and also because of fewer arrivals. Most of these Newcomers were visited by our Welcome and Welfare Secretaries but incorrect addresses create a difficulty in reaching them. However the majority of those contacted were almost overwhelmed by the kindness shown them, first by the Port worker at the Point of Entry on to the visit made by our Welcome and Welfare Secretary in their new home where they were welcomed by a handclasp of Christian comradeship, extended in the name of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Last year approximately one thousand five hundred and seventy-five persons came into some organization of the Church and of that number seven hundred and sixty either became active members or adherents of the Church.

Hospital visitation in areas where no official hospital visitor was available calling on those bereaved or shut-in, visiting new church members, accounted for a large part of the 39,000 calls recorded by our secretaries. 250 complimentary copies of the Presbyterian Church Calendar were given to one hospital and a number of new Canadians were entertained in one local church, only mentions two of the many acts of kindness extended to those having a personal need, whether physical or spiritual. This Department provides a practical type of service for others which reflects our Christian profession and witness in action.

(Mrs. J. M.) LAURA BURNETT,
Welcome and Welfare Secretary.

REPORT RE CODIFICATION OF LEGISLATION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The General Assembly of 1958 (A. & P., 1958, page 60) directed the undersigned Joint Clerk of Assembly "to codify legislation as it pertains to the composition and personnel of the various Boards and Committees of the General Assembly". Mr. J. D. C. Jack, Convener, 1958, of Assembly's Committee to Strike Standing Committees, has kindly brought the undersigned's 1953 codification to date that his successor may have the data from which to work for this Assembly. The immediate needs, therefore, that led to the Minute cited in the first sentence have been met, and thanks have been extended to Mr. Jack for his able assistance.

In the larger needs indicated by this Minute, the undersigned believes that the Church should have a complete index of all Acts and Proceedings, 1925 to this date, and, assuming such would be desired, has begun the work. It is the intention to incorporate in addition to that which concerns 'the composition and personnel of the various Boards and Committees' the significant pronouncements of Assemblies in overtures, board and committee reports, etc., with necessary explanatory lines as a clue to the contents. The years will be taken in order, then all will be indexed and, where necessary, cross-indexed. Further, it is the intention to produce this in mimeographed form with a copy for each presbytery clerk, to be presbytery property, and other copies for those desiring to purchase them. The cost will be the cost of mimeographing. As the work is one of very great detail, the presbytery clerks will be asked to send in any suggestions or corrections they may have after reading the first edition. A list of those possessing copies will be kept by the Clerks of Assembly that correction sheets, as necessary, may be sent out, and at stated intervals, say every two or three years, the same work will be done for later Acts and Proceedings and sent to those possessing copies of the first work. In short, both a digest and a codification is contemplated.

It is recommended that general authorization of this plan be now given, and this be received as a progress report.

Respectfully submitted,

L. H. FOWLER,

THE CHAPLAINCY SERVICES COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

There were no changes in the personnel of Presbyterian chaplains in the Armed Services during the past year. Integration of the Chaplain Services on a partial basis to provide for co-ordination at National Defence Headquarters and at Commands changed the positions of some of our chaplains. A Chaplain General was appointed with the rank of Brigadier and made responsible for the policy, organization, supervision and administration of the three branches of the Chaplaincy. He is assisted by a Deputy Chaplain General for each of the three Armed Services. One of these positions is held by Dr. E. G. B. Foote, formerly Chaplain of the Fleet. Another of our ministers, Dr. J. F. Goforth, is an Assistant Chaplain General, responsible for the religious and moral training programme of the three services. Dr. Goforth had leave of absence during the year for study at Union Theological Seminary.

In addition to those mentioned, the following ministers continue to represent our Church in the Chaplaincy Services: Dr. C. H. MacLean and Mr. Gordon Faraday with the Navy; Major J. M. Anderson, Capt. J. D. L. Howson and Captain Howard Doig with the Army; Wing Commander James Dunn, Squadron Leader K. W. House, Flight Lieutenant E. G. Moore and Flight Lieutenant R. J. Ritchie with the Air Force. Flight Lieutenant Moore returned from service with the Air Division in Europe because of serious illness, but we are happy to report that after undergoing a major surgical operation his return to good health is anticipated.

Your Committee is satisfied that the spiritual interests of our men, women and children connected with the Armed Services are being cared for as well as can possibly be done by a ministry that serves all denominations. Chaplains are eager to bring to Christian decision and service, not only those belonging to the denomination they belong to themselves, but all others for whom they have equal responsibility.

Our Committee has continued to supervise the work of revision and enlargement of "the Armour of God" booklet to be given to Presbyterians in the Services. This booklet will give in brief form some basic thoughts concerning our Reformed Faith and the Church. The Committee has proceeded carefully with this work and every effort is being made to make it worthy of our Church and useful to those who receive it.

The effectiveness of the ministry of the Chaplaincy Services is reflected in the increase each year in the offerings of Service Chapels. This past year our Church Treasurer has received $5,500 as our apportionment of offerings which are distributed annually among the churches represented in the Chaplaincy.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Committees of the General Assembly continue to supply to all Chaplains literature regarding our Church and its work.
2. That the "Presbyterian Record" be sent free to all chaplains.
3. That the sum of fifteen hundred dollars be granted to this Committee to pay for the printing of the "Armour of God" and other expenses of the Committee.

Convener.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The General Assembly of 1958 (A. & P., 1958, page 60) directed the undersigned Joint Clerk of Assembly "to codify legislation as it pertains to the composition and personnel of the various Boards and Committees of the General Assembly". Mr. J. D. C. Jack, Convener, 1958, of Assembly's Committee to Strike Standing Committees, has kindly brought the undersigned's 1953 codification to date that his successor may have the data from which to work for this Assembly. The immediate needs, therefore, that led to the Minute cited in the first sentence have been met, and thanks have been extended to Mr. Jack for his able assistance.

In the larger needs indicated by this Minute, the undersigned believes that the Church should have a complete index of all Acts and Proceedings, 1925 to this date, and, assuming such would be desired, has begun the work. It is the intention to incorporate in addition to that which concerns 'the composition and personnel of the various Boards and Committees' the significant pronouncements of Assemblies in overtures, board and committee reports, etc., with necessary explanatory lines as a clue to the contents. The years will be taken in order, then all will be indexed and, where necessary, cross-indexed. Further, it is the intention to produce this in mimeographed form with a copy for each presbytery clerk, to be presbytery property, and other copies for those desiring to purchase them. The cost will be the cost of mimeographing. As the work is one of very great detail, the presbytery clerks will be asked to send in any suggestions or corrections they may have after reading the first edition. A list of those possessing copies will be kept by the Clerks of Assembly that correction sheets, as necessary, may be sent out, and at stated intervals, say every two or three years, the same work will be done for later Acts and Proceedings and sent to those possessing copies of the first work. In short, both a digest and a codification is contemplated.

It is recommended that general authorization of this plan be now given, and this be received as a progress report.

Respectfully submitted,

L. H. FOWLER,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARTICLES OF FAITH — 1959

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Committee on Articles of Faith has continued its work throughout the past year in the various fields of study which have been outlined in previous reports, giving primary consideration to the specific matters which have been referred to it by the General Assembly.

Its membership consists of: Mr. Scarth Macdonnell, convener; Mr. R. A. Sinclair, secretary; Principal Robert Lennox; Professors Keith Markell, John Wevers, Donald V. Wade, David W. Hay, W. Stanford Reid, A. L. Farris, J. C. McLelland; Drs. Louis J. Shein, David Gowdy, W. Orr Mulligan, J. B. Skene, J. A. MacInnes, C. L. Cowan, D. N. MacMillan, D. K. Perrie; Messrs. G. L. Douglas, L. H. Fowler, J. C. Hay, J. C. Robson, C. G. Boyd, M. DiGangi, John Fleck, Stuart B. Coles, Charles C. Cochrane, H. F. Davidson.

The Committee again expresses its appreciation of the assistance it is receiving from many Presbyteries, through the studies they are carrying on and the comments they are submitting concerning the matters referred to them for consideration.

The detailed report of the Committee's work in each of its present fields of study is as follows:

I. THE CHURCH'S RELATION TO HER STANDARDS

Pursuing the policy outlined in its report to the 1958 Assembly, the Committee has prepared a revised form of Ordination Questions, together with a Preamble and a Conclusion, the whole designed to be incorporated into the Form and Order for the Ordination and Induction of Ministers.

The Committee acknowledges the assistance received from many Presbyteries in this matter, and wishes to make particular reference to certain specific points which some of them have raised:

- A. Several Presbyteries have questioned the use of the word "bishop" in both the Preamble and Question 1, — on the grounds that the word, by reason of the manner of its usage by certain other denominations, possesses connotations that are alien to the belief and practice of our Church.

The Committee strongly favours the retaining of this word. The word "bishop" is itself scriptural. And we would emphasize that this does not mean merely that it is one among several possible English translations of the word "episkopos" in the original Greek; we would point out that it is actually the direct English derivative of the Greek word.

If the word has acquired misleading connotations through the manner of its usage by other denominations, this is no valid reason why our Church should feel constrained to replace the scriptural word by some synonym. On the contrary, if the meaning of the scriptural word has suffered corruption through incorrect usage, we believe that the Church has a responsibility to re-establish the right scriptural meaning of the word by using it rightly.

- B. Several Presbyteries have asked precisely what is meant in Question 5 by the expression "the purity of worship authorized by this Church."

In the judgment of the Committee this expression, which has been retained from the existing form of ordination questions, basically signifies the principles of worship set forth in the Directory of Public Worship in the Westminster Standards, to which our Church adheres in these terms: "The . . . worship of this Church shall be in accordance with the recognized principles and practice of Presbyterian Churches, as laid down generally . . . in the Directory for the Public Worship of God." (Book of Forms, section 406.)

We further note that it has been the practice of Presbyterian Churches to provide books of common order for guides to the understanding of Presbyterian worship.

- C. Several Presbyteries have asked the reason for omitting the Question, "Have you directly or indirectly used any undue means to procure this call?"

The problem of whether or not to include this Question is still under consideration. Meanwhile, its historical antecedents are being investigated.

ORDINATION QUESTIONS, WITH PREAMBLE AND CONCLUSION

Then shall the Moderator proclaim:

The One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church is bound in body and spirit to the one God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Ministry of Christ

The Father sent the Son into the world for its redemption. Though He was the eternal Word by whom the worlds were made, He took flesh for us, that He might overcome sin and death. By the sacrifice of Himself upon the Cross, His resurrection and His ascension to the right hand of the Majesty on High, He exercises an eternal priesthood by which He evermore presents the redeemed creation to the Father. He is the Chief Shepherd and Bishop in the Church, the Minister on earth of the new covenant, wherein He freely offers to all men, upon repentance and faith, the forgiveness of sins, renewal by the Holy Spirit and eternal life.

The Ministry of the Church

By His Holy Spirit Christ gathers unto Himself a people, a world-wide community of men and women born anew by faith. This people, together with their children, is the Church. To be a Christian means to be a member of this body, baptized into its fellowship, nurtured by the Word and sacraments, and sent forth to minister to the world, offering life, gifts and talents a living sacrifice to the glory of God, and to the end that all men may believe, and be converted, and join with the faithful in praise and obedience to our mighty Lord. This Church Christ endues with His own power, offices, mission and ministry so that it, like Him and in Him, may exercise a priestly mission of obedience in the world, and by Him offer up the whole creation to the Father, until He come again.

The Ministry of the Teaching Elder

Our Lord Jesus Christ appoints some in His Church with authority to preach the Gospel, administer the sacraments and exercise pastoral rule in His Name. This ministry of the Word is an historical order continuing from the Apostles, which Christ perpetuates by calling and setting apart others to carry onward the true apostolic succession till the end of the age. By His Spirit He enables and commissions His Church to discern His call, to confirm therein by ordination those whom He has chosen, offering them again in prayer by the laying on of hands, that through their ministry His Church may be edified and equipped for its manifold ministry in the world.

The Authority of Christian Doctrine

The Presbyterian Church in Canada, as part of the Holy Catholic Church, and in historic continuity with the Church in Scotland and the Church Reformed in Europe, acknowledges her antecedents of faith in the ecumenical creeds. We believe that God wrought mightily in the Protestant Reformation to restore purity of doctrine, worship and daily life; we further recognize His work of grace in the Reformed creeds and confessions. Our subordinate standards are the Westminster Confession of Faith, as adopted in 1875 and 1889, the Declaration of Faith concerning Church and Nation of 1954, and such further doctrine as the Church from time to time declares, in fulfilment of its continuing function, under the Word of God and the promised guidance of the Holy Spirit, to discern and formulate the faith once for all delivered to the saints, in agreement with Holy Scripture, of which agreement the Church shall be sole judge on earth, allowing such difference of opinion as she finds to be lawful under Christ.

Therefore in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the King and Head of the Church, and according to the law and usage of the Church, the Presbytery of will now proceed to ordain to the ministry of the Word and Sacraments.

Then the Moderator, addressing the Ordinand, shall say:

N. N., in view of this declaration and to the end that your faith and integrity of purpose may be evident to all, you are required to give answer to the following questions appointed by the Church:

1. Do you believe Jesus Christ to be the eternal Word of God made flesh for us men and for our salvation, Head over all things to His Church, and Bishop of her discipline; and do you bind yourself to teach and preach Christ, incarnate, crucified, risen, ascended and coming again?
2. Do you believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God written, the witness to Jesus Christ the Living Word, the supreme rule of faith and life?
3. Do you believe the Subordinate Standards of this Church to be founded upon and agreeable to the Word of God and do you promise to adhere thereto in all your teachings?
4. Do you believe the government and discipline of the Church by Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods and General Assemblies to be founded upon and agreeable to the Word of God; and do you promise to be subject in the Lord to this Presbytery and to the superior courts of the Church, to follow no divisive course, and to take your due part in the administration of their affairs, maintaining according to your power the unity and peace of the Church?
5. Do you acknowledge the purity of worship authorized by this Church, and do you undertake to conform thereto?
6. Are zeal for the glory of God, love to the Lord Jesus Christ, and a desire for the salvation of men, so far as you know your own heart, your great motives and chief inducements to enter this ministry?
7. Do you engage in the strength and grace of the Lord Jesus Christ to live as becometh His Gospel, to rule well your own house, and faithfully, diligently, and cheerfully to discharge all the duties of your ministry, to the edification of the Body of Christ and the advancement of God's Kingdom?

The questions having been answered satisfactorily, the Moderator shall call upon the Ordinand to sign the formula, saying:

You are now required to sign the appointed formula as a seal of these vows which you have made.

Thereafter the Ordinand shall kneel, and the Moderator (with the Preaching Presbyters) shall by prayer with the laying on of hands, ordain him to the office of the Holy Ministry.

The prayers being ended and the newly ordained minister standing, the Moderator shall say:

N. N., in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I do now declare you ordained to the office of the Holy Ministry, in token whereof we give you the right hand of fellowship.

Here all the members of Presbytery in turn shall join the Moderator. Then, with the newly ordained minister facing the congregation, the Moderator shall say:

Beloved in the Lord, I present to you Mr. N. N. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

II. CONCERNING MATTERS "NOT PROPERLY SPIRITUAL"

In this field the Committee is continuing its studies, but is not yet prepared to submit a definitive statement. The Committee will welcome comments from Presbyteries which have not as yet been able to make reply concerning the statement submitted in the 1958 report.

III. THE SACRAMENTS

In this field the Committee reports progress in the revision of the statement on Church Membership submitted in 1958, and also in the preparation of a statement on the Doctrine of Baptism. In the judgment of the Committee, however, the work on both these statements is not sufficiently advanced to warrant the submitting of them in the present report.

IV. ESCHATOLOGY

In this field the Committee submits for study and comment, in conjunction with the statements previously submitted, the following statement on the Eschatology of the Individual:

INDIVIDUAL ESCHATOLOGY

The doctrine of "last things" as it applies to the destiny of individuals must be approached with great care. There is a temptation to develop details and to produce a systematic theory. But we must remind ourselves of the two principles which guide Reformed theology. First, Scripture alone is our teacher here to which, under the illumination of the Holy Spirit, we must submit our thinking and believing. Second, the central affirmation of Scripture concerns our Lord Jesus Christ — He Himself is the pattern of our belief.

With these principles before us, we should also remember that we speak to comfort rather than to judge. Yet we must affirm the "mystery of iniquity" and the awesome results awaiting those who yield to and serve its power. God's love is made evident to all in Jesus Christ. Since love by its own nature cannot impose itself on any, those who reject that love condemn themselves now to exclusion from it. This separation is in the New Testament called death. This present self-imposed judgment must await the day of the Lord for the full disclosure of its character. While we must acknowledge the reality of this judgment, nevertheless we are called to declare the positive, namely, the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and ours in Him.

The Christian receives from Christ the gift of eternal life, and begins at once to enjoy the privileges of the sons of God. While he lives his life in this world, the Holy Spirit confers upon him the powers of the world to come, qualities of the new manhood of his Lord, the divine life itself. Thus he awaits the fulfilment of his redemption, according to God's promise contained in this present "earnest" of his inheritance.

When Christ returns, He will render final judgment upon all men, beholding the full fruit of every man's life, whether it be good or evil. Since the believer already lives in the forgiveness of sins, his deeds wrought in obedience to the Lord are rewarded with the divine approval. That day of the Lord will mean the fullness of redemption, when our corruptible bodies will be made like unto His own resurrected and glorified body. Thus He will complete the redemption of the whole man through His own work, and present unto the Father a people made entirely in His image, well pleasing in His sight.

Yet there is a "meanwhile" for the Christian who dies before that Day. Since death lies behind every believer, who has already been crucified and resurrected in Christ, there faces him only an episode, an experience already robbed of its sting and of its victory over us. This "death" has no power to end his eternal life, or to separate him from the love of Christ and the communion of the saints. Being joined with Christ in this life, he is judged worthy of continuing in His presence for ever.

The physical body of the believer, being laid in the grave, returns to the dust whence it was created. About the kind of continuing existence "in Christ" which the believer enjoys apart from his body, we can say no more than Scripture itself affirms — that it is an active ongoing life, yet not complete until the final redemption of his body. Christ Himself is therefore the only perfect Man in the present age.

V. REPORT ON OVERTURE

Unprinted Overture "D", Presbytery of Hamilton, 1958, re "Basic Principles of Worship", was referred to this Committee, and also to the Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Order, for report to the Assembly of 1959.

This Committee reports that it believes the Presbytery of Hamilton has placed a wrong interpretation on the particular statement with which it takes issue; and this Committee has asked the Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Order to clarify the matter in its report to the Assembly.

In the matter of the general prayer of the Overture, this Committee reports that, on the basis of previous authorization, it will undertake studies in the principles of worship, and it believes that these studies need not stand in the way of the Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Order in the completion of its work.

We recommend that this report be the Assembly's answer to the Overture.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Revised Ordination Questions, with Preamble and Conclusion, submitted in this report, be sent to Presbyteries for study and report by January 31, 1960.
2. That the statement on "Individual Eschatology" be sent to Presbyteries for study and report by January 31, 1960.
3. That Presbyteries which have not yet reported on the statements on "Principles of Congregational Government" and "Church Membership", submitted in 1958, be asked to do so.
4. That the prayer of Overture "D", 1958, be granted in terms of part V. of this report.
5. That the Committee on Articles of Faith be continued.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SCARTH MACDONNELL,
Convener.

R. A. SINCLAIR,
Secretary.

D. Taylor, The Rev. E. H. Johnson, D.D., The Rev. J. A. Munro, D.D., Miss Margaret MacNaughton, Miss F. E. Matthews, Miss Louise Reith, Miss Marion I. Winton and The Rev. E. A. Thomson, D.D.

The Committee reports progress in its study of the regulations concerning deaconesses and recommends as follows:

Respectfully submitted,

ROSS K. CAMERON,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE OVERTURE 4, 1958, PRESBYTERY OF BROCKVILLE, RE ACTS AND PROCEEDINGS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Overture 4, 1958, Presbytery of Brockville, re Acts and Proceedings (A. & P., 1958, pages 24 and 355), asks that copies of the current Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly be in the hands of the Presbyteries before their meetings in September.

The Clerks of Assembly are most eager to have this brought about, if for no other reason than that it would ease their load of work in preparation for the next Assembly. The Clerks begin immediately after Assembly is dissolved to complete all documents for the printers. The printers work diligently all summer, but the growing volume of printing and the necessary proof-reading make it sometimes impossible to meet the date of September meetings. The financial cost of guaranteeing a date of completion, say by mid-August, would be too great.

The Clerks suggest that Presbyteries desiring to consider remits, etc., at their September meeting instruct their commissioners to prepare Stitched Acts and Proceedings and Printed Minutes with annotations, as may be necessary, for presentation to the September meeting. If the printed Acts and Proceedings do not arrive in time for the September meeting, the commissioners' documents can be the basis of preliminary consideration by Presbytery, the same to be confirmed or reconsidered at the meeting of Presbytery following receipt of Acts and Proceedings.

The Clerks recommend that the prayer of the Overture be answered in the terms of the foregoing paragraph.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. THOMSON

REPORT OF CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE OVERTURE 12, 1958, SYNOD OF ALBERTA, RE CHANGES AFFECTING THE ROLL

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Overture 12, 1958, Synod of Alberta, Re Changes Affecting the Roll (A. & P., 1958, pages 24 and 359), asks "a uniform method of keeping the Roll of Presbytery in Presbytery, Synod, and in the Appendices to the Acts and Proceedings of General Assemblies".

The Overture reflects our perennial difficulties in determining what information in what manner and in how many columns shall be printed in Appendices. Section 276, Book of Forms, which is reported upon by the Clerks in answer to Overture 13, 1958, specifies what information synods shall report to assembly. Section 256 requires the presbyteries to submit to their synod an attested copy of the Presbytery Roll. Section 176 (2), last paragraph, quoted in this Overture 12, indicates how the Roll of Presbytery shall be kept. This paragraph dates from 1907, and may be taken as a clue to what has happened.

Prior to 1907 what was apparently the complete Roll of Presbytery, and all statistics and finances much as we now report them, were reported on one page, or two adjacent pages. Listings in self-sustaining charges were according to the seniority of the minister's length of service in that presbytery. The large disadvantage of this was that from year to year the order of the pastoral charges would be changed in the printing as ministers moved, retired or died.

The regulations were changed in 1907. Two sections were now found in Acts and Proceedings. One section covered statistics and finances, listed alphabetically for congregations in groups of self-sustaining, of augmented charges, and of mission fields. The other section was almost a complete Roll of Presbytery, or, possibly, was complete, and contained the names of ministers in order of appointment or induction, date of ordination, names of pastoral charges served, addresses, representative elders, and appendix to the Roll. This change was covered by the paragraph previously referred to, 176 (2). Implicit in this is that the names of all representative elders shall be given. That the regulation was so understood is indicated by the returns following 1907. The giving of the date of ordination of each minister was an extra item.

A Declaratory Act was passed in 1910 anent the membership of presbytery. Equalizing elders were added in 1917. See A. & P., 1910, Appendices, pages 314; 1911, Minutes, page 25; 1917, Minutes, page 64.

It is obvious that these two sets of listings were found cumbersome and they made expensive printing. Between 1912 and 1915 Appendices reverted to one page, or adjacent pages, for all information. The practice may be examined by examining any copy of Acts and Proceedings between 1915 and 1931. In 1931 our Appendices listed the Clerks of Sessions rather than Representative Elders, and Appendices still list Clerks of Sessions. The title on Appendices, "Presbytery Roll" became inaccurate in 1931, being correct only in the names of ministers on the Roll and on the Appendix to the Roll. Before 1931 it was also inaccurate as a Roll if there were equalizing elders as it lacked these names.

The Book of Forms, Section 276 (c), requires synods to report to Assembly on vital information; this automatically covers the changes concerning ministers on the rolls of presbyteries. This is a separate listing from the section in Appendices entitled "Statistical and Financial Returns"; in 1958 Acts and Proceedings this separate listing is pages 503 to 525. Section 256 requires an exact reporting of the Roll of Presbytery (including Appendix), ministers and all elders of presbytery, to the synods. The Book of Forms does not require a reporting of both ministers and elders to Assembly; it requires particulars concerning ministers, etc., under 276 (c) as before indicated.

This practice has enabled Appendices to show what information is deemed vital and useful without changes in the relevant sections of the Book of Forms, and this information is given under the title, "Statistical and Financial Returns". The clerks of presbyteries fill out the forms for the Clerks of Assembly and attest them by their signature. It is to be noted that the names of ministers on the Roll of each presbytery, in Acts and Proceedings, are taken from the presbytery's returns, not the synod's. Thus the names of ministers in these returns are more accurately placed in relation to presbytery than if the returns were taken from synods; the synod date may be earlier than the presbytery's or too late for Statistical and Financial Returns printing. (In some cases the changes of 276 (c) can be included in the separate listings as pages 503 to 525, A. & P., 1958, though too late for Statistical and Financial Returns). The Clerks of Assembly hold the clerks of presbyteries responsible for the names on Statistical and Financial Returns. If a minister has been translated, say for illustration on June 1st, his name properly belongs to the presbytery to which he has been translated, but that cannot appear in the "Stitched Minutes" as given to commissioners to the General Assembly. If there is a change in the Roll of Presbytery between the time of the Statistical and Financial report and Assembly, and official notification is sent by the clerk of presbytery to the Clerks of Assembly, the change is made in the printing if possible.

In answer to the prayer of the Overture, the Clerks of Assembly recommend:

(1) That under the heading of "Presbytery Roll" in "Statistical and Financial Returns" there be a change to "Presbytery Roll of Ministers", it being understood that the Clerks of Assembly may add or delete names in the final printing under authority of official notice from clerks of presbyteries.

(2) That the paragraph referred to in Section 176 (2), Book of Forms, be now declared how presbytery shall keep its own Roll, which in addition to the names of ministers, shall include the names of all representative elders, what charges they represent, and the names of equalizing elders, if any, with their addresses, and an attested copy of this Roll shall be transmitted to the synod yearly, as required by Section 256, Book of Forms.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE OVERTURE 13, 1958, SYNOD OF ALBERTA, RE CHANGES AFFECTING THE ROLL

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Overture 13, 1958, Synod of Alberta, re Changes Affecting the Roll (A. & P., 1958, pages 24 and 60), affirming that Synods report more items to Assemblies than required under Section 276 (c) Book of Forms to come from Presbyteries, asks that Assembly confirm that 276 (c) represents the complete list or be amended to make the desired list.

An examination of the reports of Synods to Assembly, 1958, indicates that in addition to the items required under 276 (c), the following are also found, classified by Synod and Presbytery Clerks in their returns: Resignations, Appointments, Names Added to Appendix, Names Removed from Appendix, Names Added by Authority of Assembly, Leave of Absence, Retirement, Dedication of New Churches, etc., Laying of Cornerstones, Demissions, Dismissory Letters, Recognitions, and Designations of Deaconesses.

There is confusion in the use of the term 'Demission' and the term 'Dismissory letter'. These are not the same: to demit is to lay down the office, and a 'dismissory letter' is a certificate of standing as distinct from a Presbyterial Certificate. There is also a classification of "Certificates Granted", repeating the names found under "Translations". This is a practice of some Presbyteries who do not consider their Extract of Minutes in the matter of a Call as being automatically the granting of a Certificate, and these Presbyteries issue also a Presbyterial Certificate. The Extract alone is sufficient, and the Certificate is superfluous. The use of the additional terms in the foregoing paragraph is not uniform among the Presbyteries and Synods, but all the items are self-explanatory.

It is evident that at least some of the Presbytery and Synod Clerks perceive the purpose of 276 (c) to be more than the giving of how the Roll of Ministers (which is reported by Presbytery Clerks directly to the Clerks of Assembly) came to be, or more than the arrangement of pastoral charges. They have given what amounts to an historical record of all significant changes by going beyond the strict interpretation of 276 (c).

It seems to us as Clerks of Assembly that there is much virtue in their practice, and we therefore recommend to Assembly that the items in paragraph two and kindred items that may be found in time to come in acts of Presbyteries and Synods be now declared as required under 276 (c), and the Clerks of Presbytery and Synod be directed to list in this manner and report yearly.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE OVERTURE 16, 1958, PRESBYTERY OF KOOTENAY, RE CATECHISTS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Overture 16, 1958, Presbytery of Kootenay, re Catechists (A. & P., 1958, pages 24 and 361, 362), asks that Elders who are Catechists be given 'the privilege of proper membership in the Courts of the Church' because of their appointment to minister to a congregation.

The granting of this prayer would involve changes in Section 176 (2) of the Book of Forms to enable such Catechists to be on the Constituent Roll of Presbytery and changes in Section 278 (5) to enable such Catechists to be Elders in the congregations they serve and thus eligible for a commissionership to Assembly. These changes would have to be under the Barrier Act.

Because of the sympathy we have as Clerks of Assembly with the sentiments expressed in the Overture, we desire to outline the reasons, as we understand them, that have been the grounds for not granting this prayer the many times it has been before Presbyterian Churches.

The membership of Elders on the Presbytery Roll requires that an Elder, either as a representative elder or an equalizing elder, be from a Session within bounds of Presbytery, and that he be an active elder. Section 277 (4), Book of Forms, states that a Presbytery may appoint as an Assembly commissioner an elder from another Presbytery, but he must be an active elder. Neither commissionership nor position on a Constituent Roll of Presbytery contemplates such for an "elder at large".

If a Catechist is to be an active elder, he can only be an active elder in the congregation that he serves. He cannot claim eldership in some distant congregation where he was once active as a basis of qualification. But he cannot both be a member of session as a ruling elder and occupy a position as catechist in the congregation where that session rules. He cannot be subject to the authority of the Session but only to the authority of the Presbytery.

If this prayer were to be granted in some form the immediate result would be a movement to have all catechists who are not elders elected and ordained as elders within the congregations they serve that they might be members of Presbytery and potentially commissioners to Assembly. This would be a radical departure from Presbyterian order.

The Clerks submit that where a Catechist is an elder, his eldership ("at large") is incidental to his position as Catechist. Should he cease to act as a catechist and take his place by election in some session, the Clerks submit that his former position as a catechist has become incidental to his eldership.

The Presbyteries, under present regulations, are able to extend many courtesies to active catechists within bounds. The Clerks of Assembly regret they can see no way to extend these to that which is asked for in the prayer of the Overture, and recommend that the prayer be not granted.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. THOMSON

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE UNPRINTED OVERTURE "E", 1958, SYNOD OF SASKATCHEWAN, RE MEETINGS OF SYNOD

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Unprinted Overture "E", 1958, Synod of Saskatchewan, re Meetings of Synod (A. & P., 1958, pages 24 and 114), asks for co-ordination of Synod meetings of the four Western Synods to allow time to consider Board reports following September Board meetings and a sequence of meetings for the visit of Board representatives.

It is to be noted that Section 261, Book of Forms, gives authority to Assembly to fix, if desired, the time and place of Synod meetings.

The Clerks of Assembly recommend that Boards and Committees of the General Assembly intending to have a representative at these Synod meetings state their mind on the subject to the Clerks of Assembly (and the adoption of this Recommendation be a sufficient notice to the Boards and Committees), and that the Clerks, by correspondence with the Clerks of these Synods, report to Assembly, 1960, on the possibilities that may be found to meet the prayer of this Overture.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

During 1958, as in the last few years, a number of Presbyterian Churches and Christian Education buildings were erected and dedicated to the Glory of God in various areas across the nation. In the new suburban districts of our towns and cities, as well as in some of the established communities, many more new Churches are being planned, and only a lack of sufficient funds prevents an even more rapid building programme.

The contemporary style continues to be most popular, not only because of the modern aesthetic appeal, but also by reason of economy in a period of constantly rising costs.

Your Committee has examined and approved a number of plans for new buildings, some of which, as a result of the Committee's recommendations, were considerably revised and improved.

In addition, your Convener carried on a considerable volume of correspondence with other Congregations planning new Churches and Church Halls.

It would be of great value to the Committee and subsequently to many Congregations throughout the Church, if every Congregation erecting a new building would send pictures, both interior and exterior, to the Convener, so that these may be used for the guidance of every other Congregation planning to build.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all Congregations and Presbyteries be reminded of the rulings of the 1953 and 1957 Assemblies, namely: "in the future, Congregations applying for financial assistance from the funds of The Presbyterian Church in Canada must have their designs submitted to this Committee, and before a grant or loan is made, the report of this Committee must be received by the General Board of Missions and the Presbytery concerned informed".
 2. That the same rule apply also to those Congregations seeking aid from the Synod Corporations of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.
 3. That Congregations who are not receiving financial aid from The Presbyterian Church in Canada be requested to send their plans to this Committee for consideration before final approval of Presbytery. Congregations are reminded that any Church which is built is in the name of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and not simply in the name of the local Congregation.
 4. That all Congregations who have recently erected new Church Schools or Christian Education Buildings be requested to send copies of drawings and pictures, both exterior and interior, to this Committee, so that these may be used for the guidance of other Congregations throughout the Church.
 5. That the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) be allocated to this Committee for 1959, as proposed by the Board of Administration.
- All of which is respectfully submitted.

Convener

REPORT OF ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE RE THE PLACE OF WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Assembly's Committee re The Place of Women in the Church in this first paragraph desires to make an interim report concerning the larger issues of its work, 1958-1959. The "Council Plan", even in its principle of bringing women into the administrative levels of the Church beyond the local congregations, has been so novel that the Committee considers it wisdom to allow more time to elapse for consideration of it in whatever discussion ministers and ruling elders may desire to give it in the courts of the Church or elsewhere. The Committee also considers it wisdom to allow time for further discussion of the points in the Convener's address at the Assembly of 1958. The address, which was distributed to each presbytery in numbers equal to the commissioners from that presbytery, called attention to the changes in the nature and work of presbyteries since the days of the Reformation, and what this Committee believed to be the need to strengthen the presbytery, in particular presenting what the Council Plan could do. Its chief point was, that with so much to do and so much that could be done, presbyteries were failing the superior courts and failing in their oversight of the congregations, and most emphatically our point was that the Church was not availing itself of the resources available in woman-power. Some of the presbyteries have sent in their reflections upon these considerations, and commissioners to this Assembly will be given mimeographed copies of the complete texts of presbytery replies since Assembly, 1958.

We desire to make acknowledgments of encouragement we have received to continue to grapple with the problems assigned to us and the problems that have emerged as we have probed here and there. Previous assemblies have granted us authority and direction for what we have done, and therein we have much yet to do.

In answer to requests for a specific study on the ordination of women to the ministry, this Committee desires to present for the information of Assembly its summary from the documents of the World Council of Churches dealing with women in the ministry. This is as follows:

"The World Council of Churches was asked by the Bishops' Council of Sweden for 'an informative report on the measures which have been taken within the bodies belonging to the World Council of Churches as to the admission of women into the Ministry of the Churches.' It would seem from the information before the Commission appointed to deal with this subject that the Lutheran, Reformed and Anglican Communions had given serious consideration to the subject while other churches may have carried on studies which have not been reported as yet to the World Council of Churches.

The World Council's Commission reported that in the material they received from the Methodist, Congregational, Baptists and other Churches no theological reasons were stated against the full ministry of women. The great majority of those who have studied the matter and reported to the World Council of Churches have reached conclusions favouring the admission of women to the Ministry.

The World Council of Churches has not taken an official position on the question of the ordination of women. In 1955 the Central Committee approved a statement on the cooperation of men and women in Church and Society. It indicates the position which the Churches have reached in their thinking together on the subject in the World Council of Churches.

There are varying conceptions of the Christian Ministry. This is one of the theological issues which is being studied by a number of confessions. In the Netherlands Reformed Church the three ministries, or offices, of pastor, elder and deacon are held to be of equal significance, being three expressions of the one ministry of Jesus Christ, even though elders and deacons are laymen. Admitting women to only one of the ministries, e.g. the diaconate, holds a danger as to the idea of the unity of the ministry, is the opinion of the Netherlands Reformed Church. The Commission realizes that there is no clear theological doctrine of the Ministry in the Netherlands Reformed Church.

The conclusion of the majority of this Commission was "that neither the conception of the minister as representative of Christ with regard to His Church or of God with regard to His people . . . excludes women from the ministry. Women too can act as representatives of Christ. Also it is not possible to derive a detailed order of Church-life from the New Testament. That order is the right one that in a given age serves the edification of the church in accordance with the will of God. . . . As far as church order is concerned the door to the ministries of the church may no longer be closed to women. . . . The majority of the Commission believes that the church would stand in the way of God if it kept closed any longer the way for women to share in the ministerial work of the Church."

In The Presbyterian Church in Canada a Committee of the General Assembly has the matter under study.

"In the Anglican Communion, there is a three-fold ministry of bishops, priests and deacons which is open only to men. In 1935, the Archbishops' Commission on the Ministry of Women in the Church of England reported against admitting women to the Priesthood. The Commission based its refusal primarily on tradition and expediency, rather than upon theological, psychological or physiological reasons."

Varying opinions have been reported from other Communion. In summary, "a number of theologians, of various traditions, seem to be urging the re-thinking of the ministry, so that God the Holy Spirit will not be hindered by the legalism and inflexibility of man-made conceptions of the ministry."

The Orthodox and other Eastern Churches oppose the ordination of women to the priesthood.

An Overall Summary of information received concerning the 168 member Churches of the World Council of Churches reveals the following facts:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 49 Churches admit women to the full ministry | } approximately 38% of those reporting |
| 9 Churches ordain women to a partial or irregular ministry | |
| 90 Churches do not ordain women — or approximately 61% of those reporting. | |
| 21 Churches: no definite information. | |

It should be noted that in the above statistics no account at all has been taken of the size in membership or in parishes of the member Churches.

In considering detailed information about the various Churches one significant fact stands out, that is that the majority of the so-called "Younger" Churches admit women on an equal footing with men to all the ministries of the Church."

Your Committee re The Place of Women in the Church commends a study of the two documents which are summarized above, and offers to obtain free copies (one set) for any presbytery asking the undersigned Convener for the same not later than November 30th, 1959, and additional copies asked by any presbytery at a cost of forty cents each set, requests to be in with payment not later than November 30th, 1959.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee unanimously recommends as follows:

1. That the foregoing paragraph 1 be received as an interim report concerning the Council Plan.

2. That presbyteries be invited to obtain a set or sets of the documents mentioned and on the terms indicated in the final paragraph of the foregoing report.
3. That presbyteries be encouraged to appoint a limited number of lay persons (men and women) on certain standing committees of presbytery.
4. That the Committee be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS H. FOWLER,
Convener.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH WORSHIP

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The General Assembly of 1958 referred "to the Committee on Church Worship in consultation with the Committee on Church History" Overtures 14, and 19, dealing with the 450th Anniversary of the birth of John Calvin on July 10th, 1959, and the 100th Anniversary of the birth of Jonathan Goforth on February 10th, 1959 (A. & P., 1958, p. 24). As the subject matter of both overtures was exclusively of historical concern, the Committee on History has given the necessary leadership and made the required arrangements for the observance of both these significant anniversaries.

In accord with the authorization given your Committee on Church Worship by the General Assembly of 1957 (A. & P., 1957, p. 89), we have continued working with the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Common Order. Although, for reasons of economy, the two Committees did not meet since the 1958 Assembly, there has been considerable work done by correspondence in the revision and circulation of Orders of Services for the Dedication of a Church, of a Christian Education Building, of an Organ, a Memorial, a Cemetery, and for the Laying of a Foundation Stone, for a Preparatory Service, for the Celebration of the Holy Communion in Shorter Form, a Second Order, and for a Second Table; in the revision of prayers for Evening Worship and the circulation of the leaflet, "Forms of Worship and Freedom of the Spirit." It is hoped that as a result of our continued efforts a draft copy of the new Book of Common Order can be ready for the General Assembly of 1960.

Carrying out the instructions of the 1958 General Assembly (A. & P., 1958, p. 43), your Committee has been in constant touch with the Church Hymnary Trust of the Church of Scotland regarding a revision of their Hymnary, or the obtaining of an edition of it suitable for use in our Church. At the 1958 Assembly of the Church of Scotland the vice-convenor of the Committee on Public Worship referred to the possibility that their 1959 Assembly might have to consider the desirability of preparing a new revision of the Church's Hymnary published thirty years ago. Under date of July 30th, 1958, the Hymnary Trust advised your Committee that while the above statement was unofficial, it was an indication that "the day will soon come when the question will be taken up." They were also appreciative of the fact that our Assembly had given unanimous approval to our Committee's recommendation of last year that we keep in touch with the Church Hymnary Trustees in this matter. On February 23rd, 1959, they advised your Committee that no further steps had so far been taken.

The Hymnary of the Church of Scotland contains 728 hymns, 250 of which are not in our Book of Praise. Our book has 221 hymns not in the Scottish book. Theirs was issued in 1927; ours in 1918. By comparing ours with other Canadian books we note that the Hymnary of the United Church of Canada, issued in 1930, has 770 hymns, 196 of which are not in our Book of Praise. The Hymn Book of the Anglican Church of Canada, issued in 1938, has 812 hymns, 400 of which are not in ours. From these figures it will be seen what a large number of hymns have won acceptance in sister communions in the forty-one years since our book was published in 1918. In view of the fact that the present edition of "The Church Hymnary" has been in use now for thirty-two years, we believe a revision will not long be delayed. In view of the additional fact that a book of this type has, since 1927, proved most acceptable to the Presbyterian Churches of Scotland, Ireland, England, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa, your Committee is convinced that our Church should continue negotiations with the Church of Scotland towards having a share in the eventual production of a hymn-book suitable for use by our Church also.

Following the instructions of the 1958 Assembly (A. & P., 1958, p. 43), your Committee has continued its work in preparation for a suitable celebration in 1960 of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation in Scotland. Correspondence has been maintained with similar Committees in the Church of Scotland, the United Free Church of Scotland, and the Free Church of Scotland. Sister Churches in England, Ireland and Wales advised us last year that they had no plans in hand for marking the Quarter-Centenary. We have also been in touch with a Committee of the United Church of Canada under the chairmanship of The Very Reverend Professor James S. Thomson of Montreal who has given us a summary of their plans for the celebration and indicated their desire to share with our Church in some forms of joint celebration if we are so inclined.

The Church of Scotland advises that the focal point of their celebration is to be a special meeting of their General Assembly in October, 1960. To this meeting they are inviting representatives from each of the member Churches of the World Presbyterian Alliance, and representatives from the World Confessional and Ecumenical Bodies. At the same time there is to be a united Act of Witness in which other Reformed Churches in Scotland will join. Robert Kemp, a well-known Scottish dramatist, is writing a Pageant of the Reformation which will be presented in Edinburgh by a professional cast. Copies of the script may be available thereafter for use in Canada if desired. Their Committee on Films is producing a 20-minute sound film of documentary nature which will be available next year. Two film strips of about 25 frames each on John Knox, one in colour drawings for young people and the other in black and white for adults, based largely on contemporary sources will be available for use in Canada. Their Home Board is producing a colour film on the Church of Scotland entitled "Our Heritage" and it is expected that this film will have a Reformation slant. The Jubilee Celebrations Committee of the World Presbyterian Alliance is also issuing this year a 20-minute black and white sound film on John Calvin's influence, entitled "For God's Glory." Particulars of the Scottish productions may be had from their Church Offices at 121 George Street, Edinburgh; and about the Alliance production at their offices at 17 Route de Malagnou, Geneva.

Books on the Reformation, its principles, personalities, and historical events by several of the Church of Scotland's professors, guides for Bible Study, booklets for group discussion by teenagers and young children, and a new printing of Anderson Scott's "Romanism and the Gospel" are all in process of preparation. Professor J. S. McEwen is writing a new book on John Knox, and Dr. Gordon Donaldson of Edinburgh University delivers the Birbeck Lectures this year on the Scottish Reformation.

The United Free Church reports that their plans for the celebration include a public meeting in Usher Hall, Edinburgh, in October, 1960, to be addressed by Principal John A. McKay of Princeton, and Professor d'Espine of Geneva. The present Moderator of their General Assembly, the Reverend James Porter, is their representative on the Joint Committee of Reformed Churches in Scotland on the Quarter-Centenary.

The Free Church's Committee, under the Convenership of Professor A. M. Renwick, are preparing a series of articles to appear in twelve issues of their monthly commencing this coming Autumn. Ministers and Elders are to address public meetings on various aspects of the Reformation in thirty different centres. Visual aids are also in process of preparation and several books, including one by Professor Renwick himself, and pamphlets, are being written for publication within the coming six months.

For the guidance of all who are desirous of careful study of the issues involved in the Scottish Reformation and the significance of such for today we list the following: "A History of the Church in Scotland" (A. R. MacEwen); "The Reformation in Scotland" (D. H. Fleming); "The Scottish Reformation" (A. F.

Mitchell); "The Influence of Letters on the Scottish Reformation" (George Christie); "John Knox" (including the Liturgy) (by David Laing); "History of the Reformation" (Dickinson); "John Knox" (Hume Brown); "Life of John Knox" (Thos. McCrie); "John Knox, the Hero of the Reformation" (Henry Cowan); "John Knox, His Ideas and Ideals" (Jas. Stalker); "John Knox" (Lord Eustace Percy); "Scots Confession, 1560", and "Presbyterianism" (G. D. Henderson); "History and Character of Calvinism" (J. T. McNeill); "The Protestant Tradition" (J. S. Whale); "John Knox's Genevan Service Book" (W. D. Maxwell); "John Knox in Controversy" (Hugh Watt); "The Thundering Scot" (Geddes MacGregor).

Your Committee, therefore, recommends as follows:

1. That the Committee on Church Worship be instructed to keep in touch with the Church Hymnary Trust of the Church of Scotland regarding a revision of the Hymnary, or the obtaining of an edition of it suitable for use by The Presbyterian Church in Canada, and report to the next Assembly.
2. That the General Assembly sanction the appointment of a special sub-committee of the Committee on Church Worship consisting of Professor A. L. Farris of Knox College, Professor H. Keith Markell of Presbyterian College, and Dr. J. A. Johnston of Ottawa, to have the general oversight and direction of our Church's observance of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation in Scotland.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

T. H. B. SOMERS,
Convener.

REPORT OF ST. ANDREW'S HALL, VANCOUVER, B.C.

The Hall opened its doors in September, 1957. Available accommodation was fully taken not only through the regular University terms but during Summer School. The first Fiscal Year ended 31st August, 1958. An audited Balance Sheet and Statement of Accounts was filed with the Secretary of the Board of Administration. The capital cost of the buildings, including the Dean's residence was $308,897.87, and of furniture and furnishings, $19,533.81. Depreciation at 10% was written off the latter item, but none off the former. Operating Account showed a profit of almost $2,000.00.

The Board at its last meeting, decided to increase fees slightly. Miss Annie G. Hill, B.A. of New Westminster, generously donated and had installed a bell for our chapel. Several other gifts have been received which have been much appreciated. The Board feels that the Hall is serving well the purposes for which it was intended, and that the Dean, working tirelessly as he does, in his three capacities as Dean, Chaplain to Presbyterian students on the campus and minister of University Hill Presbyterian Church, is rendering effective service.

Faithfully yours,

A. M. MANSON,
Chairman of the Board.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CLERKS RE TRAINING FOR ELDERS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The task assigned to the Committee of Clerks (A. & P., 1957, pages 241, 98) for the preparation of a Manual for Ruling Elders presented first of all a problem as to its nature. Should this be a syllabus of study, prepared by a committee? Should it be a gathering of pertinent essays, written by specialists in each field? Should it be a text for popular reading, to be supplemented by each minister who might choose to use it as a basis of study with his elders? The last was the choice made, and in accordance with the permission given in A. & P., 1957, page 241, Recommendation 3, it was given to the undersigned convener to write.

The plan was, as indicated in the foregoing, to prepare a brief text for dual purposes. The attempt has been made, first of all, to have a book that would be readable, that could be presented to that often-named but never-identified gentleman, the average elder, with the hope that it would be welcomed and read. The need of such a text is widely recognized. The responses to the draft of this manual hold out much hope that this manual, if printed, will be read. The attempt has been made, secondly, to have a text that could be used by a minister or some other leader as a basis for study, with amplification and other reading as might be desired.

That the text might attempt to meet the desires of the Church a draft was submitted to the presbyteries. The terms of submission implied that the presbyteries were being asked to commit themselves to certain views, emphases or doctrines, and the suggestion that a revision might be submitted added to this impression. Such was not the intention. The thought was to find out what was really wanted, and if the first draft was far astray in arrangement and content, then a second would be submitted. The replies of the presbyteries, 23 in number, indicate far more acceptance than the author hoped for, and a general desire to get publication as speedily as possible.

The point of largest debate in the replies was whether or not the historical sections should be included, and where placed. Some wished these sections cut out completely. Others wished them enlarged considerably. Others wished them enlarged and published separately, to be a popular history of the Christian Church. The majority desired that the historical sections be placed at the end of the book, for supplementary reading, with sundry changes of emphasis and for corrections. This is the decision that has been made. Apart from this matter of place and size of the historical sections, the presbyteries overlapped very little in their comments. All criticisms have been faithfully considered.

In addition to the presbyteries, certain scholars and others with special interests were consulted. Others kindly wrote in because of their great personal interest. The revision based, based on presbytery and individual replies, has been almost completed. It should be made clear now that the Church, the presbyteries nor individuals are not at all committed to this text. Full responsibility, after thanks are expressed in the preface to presbyteries and individuals, will be taken by the undersigned convener as author. The Committee of Clerks will be asked to read the final revision, but the responsibility will remain with the author. The Committee now asks that this Assembly, without approval or disapproval of the contents or form of the Manual, commend it for use in the Church. If this is done, Presbyterian Publications will consider printing without risk to the finances of the Church, and will pay royalties, if any, to the budget funds of the Church.

The Committee of Clerks therefore recommends:

1. That this Assembly, without approval or disapproval of the contents and form of the Manual, commend it to the Church for use.
2. That this Assembly, in accordance with Recommendation 4, 1957 (A. & P., 1957, page 241), now give consideration to ways of making it effective throughout the Church. The Committee recommends in this connection:
 - (a) That attention be called, page 4 of this year's Acts and Proceedings, to inform synods, presbyteries and kirk-sessions of the forth-coming publication,
 - (b) That Presbyterian Publications be asked to use their usual advertising,
 - (c) That the suggestion be made hereby to presbyteries or others conducting Elders' Schools that this Manual be used in their studies,
 - (d) That reports be made to this Committee by presbyteries and others concerning other ways of making the use of the Manual effective throughout the Church, the Committee of Clerks to report to Assembly, 1960.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS H. FOWLER,
Convener.

McBAIN MEMORIAL FUND

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

This Fund, set up to assist aid-receiving congregations in building churches and manses, has been of great assistance when other regular funds have been depleted. No interest is charged on loans made from this Fund, but congregations drawing on it must raise an equivalent amount to the loan from it.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL ACTION REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY — 1959

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Christ has committed to His Church the task of proclaiming the Gospel. Your Board has sought to assist in the furtherance of this work through Evangelism and Social Action. We have endeavoured to carry out the policies and instructions of the General Assembly, and to assist the Courts of the Church to fulfil their part in implementing the Assembly's declarations and enactments. We have studied the problems of evangelism and social action, and on the basis of these studies, provided the Church and her Courts with information helpful to their decisions in these matters.

AREAS OF CONCERN:

The many concerns of your Board are indicated by its several committees; Evangelism; Economic and Social Justice; Marriage and Divorce; Audio-Visual Aids; Presbyterian Men; Rural Life; Christian Burial; the Christian Approach to the Jew; Literature; Healing; the Rehabilitation of former Roman Catholic Priests; the Lord's Day; and Overseas Relief.

The committee on Marriage and Divorce is continuing its study of divorce laws in relation to our Confessional position. The committee on Healing has continued its studies in the Ministry of Healing. It has sent materials to Synod and Presbytery conveners of Evangelism and Social Action for their consideration and reply. Those who have not yet replied should do so at their earliest convenience.

The demand for the Board's literature is continuing, and several suggestions for new pamphlets have been received. A distinctive emblem has been adopted which will be imprinted on all the Board's literature. This symbol is used with the permission of the Division of Evangelism of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and is made up of an archway and torch. It is a fitting symbol for evangelism, representing the light of the Gospel being carried through the door of the Church out into the world.

The Board of E. & S. A. has also continued to share in the work of the Joint Committee on the Laity, the Committee on the Church's Work in the Universities, the Department of Evangelism of the Canadian Council of Churches, and the Christian Social Council of Canada. In co-operation with this last named agency, your Board is dealing with the problem of liquor advertising which circumvents existing laws and so undermines public respect for lawfully constituted authority. The question of obscene literature which was referred to your Board by the last Assembly is being considered in connection with the Christian Social Council. Representatives of our Board attended the first Canadian Conference of the Religious Ministry to the Mentally Ill. We were also represented at the annual meeting of the Canadian Temperance Federation.

Through Dr. J. Alan Munro, Rev. A. J. Gowland and Mr. Roy Hamilton, we have been represented on the Religion-Labour Council of Canada. We are convinced that our representation on this important council is vital in view of the growing interest in the application of Christianity to industrial problems.

In the conduct of the work of the Board, the convener was faithfully assisted by the Rev. A. J. Gowland, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Jean M. Tait, recording secretary. To them, we owe a debt of gratitude.

REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

A. REFUGEE RELIEF AND INTER CHURCH AID:

This committee of the Board under the chairmanship of Dr. William Barclay has once again prosecuted an appeal on behalf of this cause. The Board has made available without charge in connection with this appeal a film entitled, "THE LONG STRIDE". In 1958 the amount received from the congregations for this purpose totalled $12,962.25. Of this amount $6,000 was sent through the Canadian Council of Churches to the World Council of Churches; $4,000 was sent to Dr. Marcel Pradervand, General Secretary of the World Presbyterian Alliance, to be used in aid of reformed groups at his discretion. We, therefore, recommend:

1. That the goal for 1960 for Refugee Relief and Inter-Church Aid be $15,000.
2. That the congregations be encouraged to use the instructive and inspirational film, "The Long Stride" available at no charge through synod conveners, in connection with the Refugee Relief Appeal.

B. EVANGELISM

There has been a growing demand from the congregations and presbyteries for a workable programme of evangelism. It has been suggested that something similar to the Stewardship Sector Plan be devised. To meet the demand of the Church, the Board has undertaken a thorough survey of existing programmes of evangelism. Particular attention was given to the programme of Visitation and Friendship Evangelism of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and we conferred with persons who have had experience with this type of approach. The Board felt that this programme would be most in keeping with our Presbyterian doctrine and form of Church government. This programme, incidentally, also has found acceptance with the Presbyterian Church U.S. (Southern). We, therefore, recommend:

3. That the Programme of Evangelism of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. be adapted for use in The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

C. THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF PRESBYTERIAN MEN:

The following is the report of the National Committee of Presbyterian Men for the year 1958:

The Committee gives thanks to God for the response of men all across Canada to the programme of Presbyterian Men as presented and accepted by last year's General Assembly.

Committee Membership: By action of the Board at the September, 1958, meeting, an appointment was made to the National Committee from the Synod of Saskatchewan. This now provides representation from all synods of the Church. The present active membership is as follows: W. B. Cross, Toronto (Convener); George Fernie, Toronto (Treasurer); R. E. Bisset, St. Catharines (Secretary); Roy A. Hamilton, Toronto (National Director); C. A. Culley, Toronto; Kenneth G. Anderson, Toronto; Frank Whilsmith, Toronto; James G. Laing, Hamilton; Rev. R. P. Carter, Toronto; Rev. S. B. Coles, Toronto.

By Correspondence: T. K. McLellan, Halifax; W. N. Clelland, Montreal; Rev. Dr. J. C. McLellan, Montreal; William Glennie, Sudbury; H. M. Jackson, Simcoe; A. R. Dick, Winnipeg; Jack Wells, Saskatoon; George Dunlap, Calgary; J. J. Grant, Vancouver.

Several of these members have given freely of their time during the year in presenting the concept of Presbyterian Men to presbytery and congregational groups.

Programme Material: The foremost aim of Presbyterian Men as shown on page 257 of the 1958 General Assembly Acts and Proceedings is: "To grow in our knowledge and love of Jesus Christ and in our devotion to His Way for us". To accomplish this aim the committee realized that our men must become actively engaged in the study of the Scriptures. It was considered that one of the main objections men have to Bible Study groups is that in the past they have found them uninteresting, due to the lack of personal participation. The teacher prepared a lecture — the members listened — then they went home. For this reason the committee adopted the "Conference Method" of teaching in which small groups of six to ten men sit around a table and everyone participates. This is sometimes called the "Swedish Method" of Bible Study, having been adapted to the study and discussion of the Scriptures by a minister in Sweden. As far as we know, we are the only denomination specifically training men's group leaders in this method of study and discussion. The acceptance has been most encouraging. Men from all parts of Canada are finding a new and vital interest in the Word of God. They are finding that here God speaks to them in the midst of their every day business, social and family lives. After thorough training at the synod and presbytery council level, the men become "registered holders of leaders' manuals".

The first year's programme material provides: (1) Ten Bible Study and Discussion Topics; (2) Ten sessions of Leadership Training in Effective speaking; (3) Suggested projects and recreation.

Synod Councils of Presbyterian Men: Synod Councils have been formed in each of the eight synods. These consist of two representatives appointed by each presbytery, the synod and presbytery conveners of Evangelism and Social Action and the presbytery council presidents. The two presbytery representatives and the synod convener of Evangelism and Social Action are voting members.

Each synod council held a week-end conference during the year for the purpose of inspiration, fellowship and training in the programme of Presbyterian Men. Representatives were present from all except three or four presbyteries which have not yet selected their representatives for the synod council.

Presbytery Councils of Presbyterian Men: Regular meetings are being held in many presbyteries for the purpose of training leaders from each congregation and for fellowship on the presbytery level. Up to the time of this report 378 leaders have been trained and registered from the various presbyteries. A leader is required for every six to ten men. Upon being registered he receives programme material from the National Committee offices, regardless of where he might move to in Canada. The following is the present list of leaders by presbyteries: Cape Breton 9, Newfoundland 0, Pictou 9, Halifax and Lunenburg 11, Saint John 3, Miramichi 1, P.E.I. 11, Quebec 2, Montreal 6, Glengarry 4, Ottawa 24, Lanark and Renfrew 3, Brockville 10, Kingston 10, Peterborough 6, Lindsay 6, Toronto East 27, Toronto West 21, Barrie 8, Orangeville 0, Temiskaming 11, Algoma and North Bay 7, Saugeen 8, Guelph 2, Hamilton 17, Niagara 5, Paris 15, London 0, Chatham 33, Sarnia 7, Stratford 7, Huron-Maitland 36, Bruce 9, Superior 2, Winnipeg 4, Brandon 2, Assiniboia 3, Prince Albert 2, Saskatoon 5, Peace River 2, Edmonton 4, Red Deer 0, Calgary 5, Macleod 2, Kootenay 3, Kamloops 4, Westminster 9, Victoria 3.

Full-day or week-end conferences at the presbytery level have been held in a few places and more are being planned by other presbytery councils. The presbytery council includes any number of men from each congregation, two of whom are appointed by the session, and who, along with the convener of Evangelism and Social Action, have voting power, plus all ministers in the presbytery.

Congregational Groups: As the representatives on the presbytery council become registered leaders in the Presbyterian Men's programme, they are applying their training in their own congregations. Each registered manual holder is a potential leader of a congregational group.

Orillia Conference: While no National Conference was held in 1958, the National Committee organized a joint conference of the Synods of Toronto-Kingston and Hamilton-London. This was held October 17, 18 and 19, at Big Chief Lodge, near Orillia, Ont., with ninety men in attendance. In addition to the inspirational addresses, study and discussion periods and leadership training sessions, it was possible to hold business sessions for the following groups which were represented: National Committee of Presbyterian Men; Hamilton-London Synod Council of Presbyterian Men; Toronto-Kingston Synod Council of Presbyterian Men; Toronto-Kingston Synod Committee of E. & S. A., and the Hamilton-London Synod Committee of E. & S. A. This conference proved to be a very valuable one, as indicated by the formation of several presbytery councils following the conference.

Lapel Pin: A distinctive emblem has been designed for Presbyterian Men to be used as a lapel pin and on printed literature. This follows the theme of the Flaming Torch representing the Gospel being carried into the world.

Laymen's Sunday: As authorized by General Assembly last year, Laymen's Sunday was observed in many congregations on the third Sunday in October, following the practice of other denominations. Several congregations observed it on a date of their own choice. Excellent reports have been received of the benefits from this observance. Copies of some of the addresses presented by laymen are on file for possible publication. We would encourage a wide observance of this emphasis in our own Church. Therefore, we recommend:

4. That the General Assembly designate the third Sunday in October, 1959, as Laymen's Sunday.

National Conference 1959: The Committee plans to hold the Second National Conference of Presbyterian Men this Fall from September 25 to September 27, at the Canadian Keswick Conference, Ontario. It is intended that all members of the National Committee, plus the synod conveners of E. & S. A. and the executive of the eight synod councils of Presbyterian Men will be present.

Term of appointment to Synod and Presbytery Councils: The Board of E. & S. A. approved that presbytery appoint two councilmen to the synod council for not less than a two-year term; the term of appointment to be staggered after the first two-year period, so that one new councilman may be appointed each year; that the past president of the presbytery council be appointed to the synod council, where such action seems desirable.

The Board of E. & S. A. approved that sessions appoint two councilmen to the presbytery council for not less than a two-year term; that these men be eligible for re-appointment, if desired; that the term of appointment be staggered after the first two-year period, so that one new councilman may be appointed each year.

National Director of Presbyterian Men: The 1957 General Assembly gave recognition to the appointment on an experimental basis of Mr. Roy Hamilton as National Director of Presbyterian Men's work. This appointment was at no charge to the Church, being financed by the liberality of an interested person. The work among Presbyterian Men represents a great potential for the furtherance of evangelism and stewardship in the Church. The experimental phase of this work has now passed, and your Board is convinced that this work should be continued as the full responsibility of the Church. Therefore, we recommend:

5. That the salary and expenses of the Director of Presbyterian Men be met from the budget funds of the Church, beginning in September, 1959, within the allocation of the Board of E. & S. A.
6. That the thanks of the Assembly be extended through the Board, to the person whose initiative and interest have made possible the work among Presbyterian Men since its beginning in 1957.

D. ELDERS' SCHOOLS:

During the past year, under the leadership of Rev. Stuart B. Coles, sixteen Elders' Schools have been held in presbyteries in Ontario and the Maritimes. Reports received indicate that the men have found these schools profitable. The Board has asked Rev. Stuart Coles to continue this work during 1959. Attention will be given to relating the curriculum of these schools to the forthcoming programme of Friendship and Visitation Evangelism. The National Committee of Presbyterian Men will have the task of promoting this work among leaders as part of its leadership training programme. With the appointment of an executive secretary for our Board this work of leadership training will continue as a department under his supervision. Therefore, we recommend:

7. That Elders' Schools be continued on a presbytery basis for the ensuing year, and be extended to the congregational level in the way best suited to the local situation.

E. NOMINATION FOR EXECUTIVE SECRETARY:

Under the authorization of two successive General Assemblies, 1956 and 1957, your Board received nominations from many presbyteries in connection with the position of full time executive secretary. The General Assembly of 1958 referred the matter of an appointment to the Assembly of 1959, and authorized the reception of further nominations. We are now prepared to recommend:

8. That this Assembly appoint an Executive Secretary to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, the appointment to take effect as of September 1, 1959.
9. That the Assembly appoint the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, the Rev. Arthur J. Gowland, to this position.

F. THE REHABILITATION OF FORMER ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIESTS:

In September, 1957, Dr. J. A. Munro addressed the Board of E. & S. A. on the need for helping priests who are leaving the Church of Rome. After hearing Dr. Munro, the Board appointed its executive to represent it until the March meeting; also the Board of Missions and the Board of Education were asked to name representatives to serve on the committee.

The first meeting of this committee was held at the Church offices, 63 St. George Street, on January 24, 1958, with Rev. Mariano Di Gangi, the Chairman of the Board, in the chair; also in attendance from the Board of E. & S. A. were Rev. A. J. Gowland, Calvin Chambers and Sam Kerr. Representatives from the Mission Board present were Dr. Munro, D. T. Evans and Jacques Smith. From the Board of Education, Dr. MacMillan and Principal Glen.

Dr. Munro addressed the meeting and pointed out how urgent is the need for our Church to do something to help the Roman Catholic monks who are leaving the Roman Church, both for their own sakes and for the sake of the Church of Jesus Christ. All these men do not leave the Roman Church for the same reason, and all do not head for the ministry, but all need help, and because that help has not been forthcoming, many have ended up on "skid row".

Jacques Smith, a minister of our Church, who was a priest of the Roman Catholic Church before he became a minister of the Gospel, told the meeting of some of the difficulties that he and others whom he knew had when they left the Roman Catholic Church. This Church looks upon them not merely as heretics, but as apostates, and it does all it can to persecute them, especially along economic lines. Both Dr. Munro and Jacques Smith laid emphasis on the need of these men for fellowship and instruction as well as financial aid.

At this meeting it was agreed that: (1) The Board of E. & S. A. continue to be responsible for this work, but that there be representation on the committee from the Board of Missions, the Board of Education, and that the principals of Knox College and Presbyterian College be asked to serve on the committee. (2) That we proceed slowly and in a small way, giving ourselves time to determine what is the best procedure to follow. (3) Before any definite action is taken we should get the advice of some ministers of the Gospel who had themselves been Roman Catholic priests.

The next meeting of the committee was held on November 14, 1958, at the Church offices, 63 St. George Street. Present from the Board of E. & S. A. were Rev. M. Di Gangi, Rev. Eoin Mackay, Rev. Sam Kerr and Rev. A. J. Gowland. From the Board of Missions, Dr. J. A. Munro and Rev. Jacques Smith, and also a number of presbytery conveners of E. & S. A. We had with us at this meeting, the Rev. Dr. Hugh Farrell, Public Relations Director of Christ's Mission in New York, a former priest of the Roman Catholic Church and a member of the Carmelite Order. At the morning session Dr. Farrell spoke on the subject: "Why Roman Catholic Priests leave the Church of Rome", and at the afternoon session he spoke on "Christ's Mission", and suggested what The Presbyterian Church in Canada might do in this field. His addresses were followed by a most profitable discussion.

The next meeting of the committee was held on February 24, 1959, at the Church offices, 63 St. George Street. Present were: Rev. S. Kerr (convener), Principal Lennox; Rev. Eoin Mackay; Rev. Jacques Smith, Dr. MacMillan; and Rev. A. J. Gowland. The matter of financing this work was discussed at length. We cannot come to grips with this need without money. Also the matter of a suitable contact personnel was discussed at length. We must have suitable persons with whom priests can get in touch when they leave or want to leave the Roman Church. It was felt they should be men who not only have a real sympathy for the priest or ex-priest, but also an accurate knowledge of the Roman Catholic Church, preferably former Roman Catholic priests.

The Board has given approval to the following recommendations:

- (a) That certain ministers of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be asked to be the contact personnel with whom Roman Catholic priests could get in touch for assistance.
 - (b) That Principal Robert Lennox of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and Principal J. Stanley Glen of Knox College, Toronto, be asked to act as consultants in this work.
 - (c) That at this stage we do not think in terms of purchasing a building, but rather an effort be made to find good Christian homes that would receive these men as boarders for a few months, and provide them with the Christian fellowship so necessary at a difficult time in their lives.
 - (d) That opportunities be provided for these men to meet some ministers and the people of our Churches, without the glare of publicity.
 - (e) That an effort be made to secure work for them so that they might become self-supporting.
 - (f) That provided any of these men show an interest in entering the ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, they be interviewed by one or both the principals of our colleges.
- We, therefore, recommend:
10. That the General Assembly authorize the Board of E. & S. A. to proceed with this work of rehabilitation along the lines outlined above.

G. THE LORD'S DAY:

Your Board has been asked to prepare a publication dealing with the Lord's Day. Preparatory to such a publication the Board requested the Rev. Murdo Nicolson to write a paper which is given as follows:

THE LORD'S DAY AND MODERN SOCIETY

REV. MURDO NICOLSON

Introduction

The question of Sunday observance has become for all Christian Communions a common and very crucial concern. It is generally agreed that the encroachments of secularism threaten the very recognition of Sunday as a religious and national institution, so that some effective way of stemming these encroachments must be found. But here we find ourselves beset by difficulties. For one thing, we have to decide whether or not the enforcement of Sabbatical restrictions can have any place within a democratic society, and if so on what grounds. On the other hand, even when free from uneasiness on this score, we may still have to ask ourselves whether certain concessions and adjustments may not have to be made to accommodate the changed and changing circumstances of our modern way of life.

Some hold that the traditional position with regard to Sunday observance is no longer tenable or practicable within the complexities of our contemporary world, and that this fact alone is a sufficient indication that there was something wrong with the traditional position in the first instance. The antithesis of this is to assert that what difficulties exist in relation to Sunday observance have resulted from the baneful and increasing secularism of the age; so that, rather than abandon the traditional position, it becomes the duty of the Churches to hold the line without concession or compromise. Occupying a position intermediate between these two, some would advocate certain necessary modifications with a view to making the demands of Sunday observance less stringent and, therefore, more acceptable to society at large. But, first and foremost, there is the whole question of authority. On what authority does Sunday observance ultimately rest? Obviously our answer to this primary question will by itself decide what our attitude to Sunday observance should be. This, then, is our first concern.

THE PROBLEM OF AUTHORITY

Here again various answers are given:

- (a) At the lowest end of the scale, the designation of Sunday as a day of rest is said to be no more than an established convention, beneficial to human-kind as guaranteeing a necessary remission from toil for various laudable ends, such as worship, recreation, rest, and the strengthening of family ties. Under such circumstances, of course, little or no moral significance can attach to the observance, or non-observance, of Sunday, since the whole arrangement is based purely on utilitarian considerations.
- (b) A position quite widely held is that Sunday observance is important as providing an indispensable condition for the corporate or public worship of God. It recognizes that "The Sabbath was made for man" because of what man is; that is, since man is pre-eminently a spiritual being, adequate provision must be made for his spiritual needs. While this may represent somewhat of an advance over the preceding view, it has merely substituted expediency for utilitarianism. By its very terms, Sunday observance, if now a Christian rather than just a human institution, is still regarded as something conventional since, for the purpose indicated, any other day (or days) would serve equally well.
- (c) The third view is that which insists upon the unchanging authority of the 4th Commandment as requiring the observance of Sunday by Divine enactment. Thus understood, Sunday observance most adequately provides for all the needs mentioned above, but is now defined as a religious duty based upon the revealed will of God and, therefore, binding upon the conscience of every man. Such has been the accepted teaching of Christendom in general, and of the Reformed Churches in particular. In the language of the Westminster Confession: "In His Word, by a positive, moral and perpetual commandment, binding all men in all ages, God has particularly appointed one day in seven for a Sabbath to be kept holy unto Him".

But this raises further difficulties. For the main part these have to do with the question as to whether the 4th Commandment is still regulative under the New Testament. And again, if the Commandment identifies the Sabbath as the seventh day of the week, what relation can there be between it and the Lord's Day as the first day of the week? We shall deal with these in turn.

REFORMED THEOLOGY AND THE PERPETUITY OF THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT

Over against the Westminster Confessional statement just cited, it has been commonly alleged that the 4th Commandment, as essentially a Jewish ordinance, is no longer binding upon the Christian. Historically, this attitude has assumed various forms according to the normative theological milieu and so, if such a view was held by Lutherans, Antinomians and Calvinists, it was held by them in different ways and sometimes for vastly different reasons.

One concern, however, is with this attitude as it obtained within the Calvinistic or Reformed system, that is, as set forth for instance by John Calvin himself in the "Institutes". On the basis of such passages as Romans 14:5, 6; Galatians 4:10, and Colossians 2:16, 17, he holds that the New Testament either explicitly or by necessary inference declares the abrogation of the Sabbatical law. "All that the Commandment contained of a ceremonial nature", he writes, "was without doubt abolished by the advent of the Lord Christ. He is the truth at whose presence all figures disappear, the body at the sight of which all the shadows are relinquished. He is the fulfilment of the Sabbath." In Calvin's view, Christ has effected the redemption of all time, so that to accord a special sanctity to any one day would be contrary to the spirit of the Gospel. "Christians ought to depart from all superstitious observance of days", he concludes.

It has been argued that a careful evaluation of such expressions as "all that it contained of a ceremonial nature", and "all superstitious observance" might reveal that while Calvin insisted upon the abrogation of all Judaistic elements within the commandment, he nevertheless conceded the continuing validity of the commandment itself. (This argument is not without apparent support. With respect to the law in general, he teaches that "the law has suffered no diminution of its authority". "Though the Sabbath is abrogated", he contends, "yet it is still customary among us to assemble on stated days for hearing the word, for breaking the mystic bread and for public prayers—Assemblies of the Church are enjoined in the word. Unless there be stated days appointed for them, how can they be held?" "But", he is careful to add, "the Lord's day is not observed by us upon the principles of Judaism".) But it is more than doubtful if this argument can be sustained in the face of what Calvin says elsewhere in the "Institutes". He denounces the view that only the ceremonial aspects of the 4th Commandment, and not its moral principles, have been abolished.

All in all Calvin's position seems to be that while he pleads for the observance of the Lord's Day as necessary for the well-regulated life of the Church, he insists that the obligation of this observance cannot be based on any other grounds, and certainly not on legal grounds. In this respect his view is very similar to Luther's. Luther, while admitting the moral principles underlying the Jewish Sabbath, vigorously repudiated the continued authority of the ordinance, and declared that "the Church could make Friday her Sunday", if she so chose.

But could she? Nothing can be clearer than that the designation of Sunday as the Christian Sabbath did not happen in any such arbitrary fashion, but was rather sanctioned by apostolic authority, practice and precedent. And, furthermore, it has been a widely held tenet of the Reformed faith that Sunday observance is firmly based upon the 4th Commandment as our Confession declares.

In justification of this, the following considerations are deserving of attention:

- (a) In those passages of the New Testament that declare the abrogation of Jewish rites and observances, the references to "holy days" and "sabbaths" could conceivably relate only to the great festal seasons, peculiar to the Jewish economy, and not to the Sabbath as such. Here, surely the testimony of history ought to be helpful, if not decisive; and that testimony is to the effect that while the observance or non-observance of the Jewish festivals continued to be debated within the early Church for many years, the observance of the Christian Sabbath was a universally acknowledged obligation.
- (b) To define the Sabbath as a Judaistic institution is to obscure the fact that the Sinaitic Law is also the moral law of God. If the 4th Statute of the Decalogue is to be regarded as of merely national and temporal significance, and therefore mutable, then by parity of reason the continued authority of the law as a whole lies open to question. But the perpetuity of the moral law is everywhere acknowledged. As Calvin himself says, "The law has sustained no diminution of its authority". Are we, then, to assume that the Decalogue has somehow been reduced from ten to nine precepts? On the very strongest a priori grounds the balance of probability is utterly against such a theory.

- (c) It is objected that Sabbath observance, when based upon the 4th Commandment, wrongly invests one day of the week with a special sanctity, encourages an unjustified and mischievous distinction as between the sacred and the profane, and negates the fact that for the Christian all time has been redeemed. This objection is baseless. It is a complete non-sequitur. That God should appoint a special day for His worship does not of necessity deny the redemption of all the time for the Christian, nor is the distinction between the spiritual and the secular equivalent to dividing life into two separate and unrelated compartments under the captions of the sacred and the profane.

It is not without significance that in dealing with the question of the Christian Sabbath, Calvin's style lacks his usual cogency, consistency and conviction. Affirming the public worship of God to be everywhere obligatory, and acknowledging the observance of a special day as a necessary condition for this, he nevertheless denies that the observance of such a day is itself obligatory. This involves a patent contradiction, and there is reason to believe that Calvin himself was not unaware of this. In his commentary on "Exodus", in speaking of the 4th Commandment, he adopts a position almost identical with the traditional Reformed doctrine of the Sabbath. "God, in His own way", he writes, "consulting our infirmity, sets apart one day from the rest, and commands it to be kept free from all earthly cares and employments. In this respect the necessity of a Sabbath is common to us with the people of old, that we may be free on one day of the week, and so may be better prepared both for learning and for giving testimony to our faith."

- (d) To say that the Sabbath has been abrogated on the score that it was a typical and ceremonial ordinance of the Mosaic dispensation ignores the fundamental and most significant fact of all, namely, that the institution of the Sabbath was not from Sinai but from Creation. That is to say, it belongs not to the Jew exclusively, but to human-kind universally. As such it must not be classed with the weak and beggarly elements, the shadows and figures of Judaism. "The Sabbath was made for man".

THE JEWISH SABBATH AND THE LORD'S DAY

When we seek to relate the Lord's Day to the 4th Commandment, however a second major difficulty emerges from the fact that by the terms of the Commandment the Sabbath is defined as the Seventh Day of the week, not the first. "From the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ", says the Confession, "the Sabbath was the last day of the week, and from the resurrection of Christ it was changed to the first day of the week, which in Scripture is called the 'Lord's Day' and is to be continued to the end of the world as the Christian Sabbath". But how, it is asked, did this change occur and by what authority? Such a question can be answered only by a study of the historical background of the apostolic and sub-apostolic church.

The Period of Transition: The Christian Church had its roots in Judaism. The Gospel was first preached by the Jews to Jews, and only within the borders of their own nation. Most important of all, it was held that the new faith did not constitute a radical departure from the old, that essentially they were one . . . Judaism the shadow, the embryo, the promise, and Christianity the substance, the consummation, the fulfilment. St. Paul described his own teaching thus: "Saying none other things than those which Moses and the prophets did say should come".

On the other hand, if Judaism was but the shadow and Christianity the substance, it followed that the old order must give place to the new. Thus the beginning of the Christian era should be understood as a period of transition during which the institutions of Judaism were to be superseded by those of Christianity.

But such a transition could be effected only gradually. For one thing, there were no express directives on which the new order could immediately pattern itself. Furthermore, those devout Jews who had embraced Christianity would naturally continue to cherish the institutions and ordinances belonging to their ancient hereditary faith. If these early Christians felt bound to attach a special significance to the first day of the week, we should expect to find them, to a certain extent at least, still honouring the Jewish Sabbath as well. Which is precisely what we do find. Particularly in the Eastern Church where Jewish influence predominated it was customary to observe both days as sacred.

In this respect certain observations of Principal Hetherington in a pamphlet entitled "Historical Notes on the Subject of Sabbath Observance" are worth pondering. "It ought to be constantly borne in mind," he says, "that at the origin of the Christian Church it was quite impossible that the Christian Sabbath could be kept with the same sacred strictness as the Old Testament Sabbath. So long as the Christian Church was confined within the limits of Palestine, and restricted to native Jews and proselytes, as it was for some time, it was necessary for the converts to continue the exact observance of the Jewish Sabbath in compliance with the law of the land. They would observe the Lord's Day as far as might be privately done, but they had no power to make it a universal day of rest".

Internal Tensions: In some respects the transition from the old order to the new, involving of necessity the surrender of deep and ancient loyalties, could not but prove difficult. As a matter of historical record, it marked what Bishop Lightfoot calls "the first great crisis in the history of the Church, on the issue of which was staked her future progress and triumph". When the time came for the Church, emerging from her status of tutelage and dependance as a free and catholic institution, to formulate her beliefs and dogmatic symbols, this gave rise to internal tensions and strife. Attachment to traditional religious practices on the part of Jewish Christians now assumed the form of deeply entrenched prejudices bolstered by nationalistic jealousy. With particular reference to the Sabbatarian principle when the Church in the second canon of the Council of Laodicea (360 A.D.) authoritatively declared the sanctity of the Lord's Day as the Christian Sabbath, many judaistic elements were reluctant to conform.

The Question at Issue: There is no evading the question as to whether the Church had the right, if not to suspend the validity of the 4th Commandment, at least to make it applicable to another day than the seventh. Was she warranted in thus selecting some other day and calling it the Christian Sabbath?

Seventh Day Adventists, insisting on the terms of the Commandment as inviolable and immutable, maintain that the Church's action in decreeing the uniform observance of the first day of the week constituted at once an iniquitous suppression of the truth and imposition of error. And for this they generally apportion the blame between the Emperor Constantine, who had actively promoted the establishment of uniformity throughout the Church, and the Roman See as personified in the new greatly increased influence of the episcopate.

Such a statement is, however, historically and demonstrably false. The observance of Sunday as the Christian Sabbath, so far from being introduced by imperial or ecclesiastical authority, had been universally practised within the Church from the very outset, and the conciliar decrees did no more than recognize this fact.

Besides which, the evidence of the New Testament is quite conclusive. Wherever reference is made to a distinctively Christian assembly, the consistent witness of the New Testament is that it took place on the first day of the week. But perhaps the most significant evidence is supplied by John's allusion to "the Lord's Day". This, in Greek is a proper name . . . just as we speak of the Lord's Supper, or Tuesday or Monday. If it was already a recognized practice in the Church to refer to some particular day as "the Lord's Day" it is important for us to discover which day this was. For this information, and for further evidence bearing on the whole question at issue, we turn to the patristic writings — to Ignatius of Antioch, to the anonymous letter to Diognetus, to the epistle of Barnabas, to Justin Martyr, to Hippolytus and Tertullian. From such sources, we learn the following indubitable facts: that "the Lord's Day" was the first day of the week, the festival of the resurrection; that the Church universally met for worship on this day; and that this day was regarded as the Christian Sabbath. "All things whatever that it was duty to do on the Sabbath" writes Eusebius, "those we have transferred to the Lord's Day. It was given to us in order that on this day we might meet together in worship".

THE PLACE OF CIVIL LEGISLATION

Today the rising tide of secularism, together with the mistaken attitude that equates liberty with anarchy and licence, threatens to sweep away the institution of the Sabbath. The Church in her attempts to halt this tide, finds herself hampered by difficulties, not the least of which is vexatious uncertainty as to whether in such an issue she has the right to enlist the help of civil legislation. Does a matter of this kind, a religious duty, properly come within the province of civil authority at all, some have asked. Is it in line with the principles of democracy to limit freedom of action by such a statute as the Lord's Day Act?

Were we not satisfied as to the Divine authority of the 4th commandment as still effective today, the above question would be admittedly most embarrassing. It is nothing to the purpose to indicate that freedom of action within a democracy is quite often constitutionally subject to limiting enactments. Since Sunday observance, if it is a duty at all, is a religious duty, we must remind ourselves of this all important principle that only the law of God is binding on the conscience. Therefore, to deny the Divine warrant for Sunday observance is to render Sunday legislation, if not ultra vires, improper and oppressive. "We do not assert the perpetual obligation of the Sabbath when an inspired apostle has declared it abrogated", wrote Frederick W. Robertson. "We cannot substitute a statute law for a repealed law of God". We may, of course, but we should not.

On the other hand, if Sunday observance is recognized as primarily and essentially a Divine requirement, then in accordance with our Reformed doctrine of Church and Nation it becomes not only competent, but also quite appropriate, for the State to legislate in consonance with the Divine Law, and all the more so when the State in question professes to be a Christian State. Such is the situation in which we find ourselves in Canada. To quote from the preamble of a Brief submitted by legal counsel to the Private Bills Committee of the Provincial Government of B.C. in March, 1957, "Canada quite properly prides itself on being recognized as a Christian country, and I am sure that the people of the Province of B.C. share that pride. We still address the Queen as the Defender of the Faith, so that the loyal members of this legislature are bound by loyalty and service to the Queen and as representatives of the people of this Province, to approach the principles involved in legislation, as well as its specific provisions from a Christian and not merely from a secular point of view".

On such grounds we justify all legitimate appeals and representations to civil authority for the safeguarding of our heritage of the Lord's Day.

THE CHRISTIAN'S RESPONSIBILITY

It is not enough to assert the continuing obligation of Sunday observance as a general principle. It may be presumed, indeed, that the majority of Canadian citizens acknowledge its validity in some sense or other; hence their refusal to vote for an open Sunday. The questions that are being asked today have to do rather with what Sunday observance entails, how it relates to certain specific things such as employment, recreation, newspaper, radio and T.V. And, admittedly, it is much easier to establish the general principle than to show its application to these particulars.

However, since it is axiomatic that what one assuredly knows should not be affected by what is not so assuredly known, this difficulty may prove helpful in indicating what our method of approach should be.

(a) The General Principle: In general, then, we may confidently insist that it is man's unchanging obligation to remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. And with equal confidence we must resist as evil whatever imperils its sanctity — the selfish materialism which for profit or for pleasure would have the day no different from any other. Here the Church must ever take the initiative and provide leadership. In most instances the Church may fairly count upon the support of the Labour Unions in defense of Sunday as a day of rest, but it should be understood that the two parties may not always be acting from the same motives. And the monetary rewards for Sunday work being high, the Unions concerned have been known to turn a blind eye to the situation. So far as the Church is concerned, the Sabbath is a priceless boon given to man and for man, and safeguarded by all the authority of a Divine Law. As a necessary provision for man's physical, moral and spiritual well-being, it must, therefore, be preserved in the face of all inimical forces. No matter what a man chooses to do with his Sunday, he must have it as his God-given heritage.

(b) The Complex Situation: It is when we seek to relate the general principle to specific situations that the matter becomes more difficult. Here we encounter wide divergencies of opinion, so that instead of making dogmatic statements we ought to recognize the liberty of the individual conscience in the sight of God. However, certain observations may be made with a fair degree of confidence.

We may take it that few, if any, would advocate a return to the straight-laced, legalistic Sabbatarianism of the past. Though, again, it is not enough simply to repudiate it or to ridicule the sophistries so frequently involved in its finicking distinctions as between what was deemed permissible and what forbidden. If we today claim a wider liberty, to what extent is it lawful for us to do so?

Our difficulties are largely the consequences of the admitted complexities of modern society. It was one thing to interpret the 4th Commandment for a more or less homogeneous community, with strong Christian traditions, living under relatively simple and uncomplicated conditions, and with few obvious ways of desecrating the Sabbath by comparison with our own day. It is quite another to set forth the practical aspects of Sunday observances within an increasingly heterogeneous society, jealous of its democratic liberties, of widely diversified traditions, and where the very pattern of life is so largely controlled by such things as mobility, entertainment, newspapers, radio and T.V. And what is the Church to do? Shall it say, "These things are far removed from the worship of God; and therefore on Sunday thou shalt not have excursions, watch a ball game, play golf, read a newspaper or watch T.V."?

Even if such were defensible, how far would it be practicable? May it not be that there are certain things with which, however undesirable, we must learn to live, as the saying is? At least we admit so much in other connections. Terms such as "idealism" or "a counsel of perfection", while denoting things highly desirable, always carry with them a suggestion of unrealism. So, in the present case, we might entertain a conception of the ideal observance of Sunday, visualizing what it could mean, while regretfully conceding that the reality is very different and has little hope of improvement and if someone questions our right to lower the standard to be satisfied with anything less than the best, and to offer an accommodation which appears little removed from an act of capitulation to the prevailing secularism of the age, it might be answered that we have something in the nature of a precedent in what Christ Himself said about marriage and divorce. Referring to the provisions for divorce, He went on, "Nevertheless it was not so at first . . . this was added because of the hardness of your hearts", as though implying that provision had been made to accommodate human infirmity. In more ways than one, it appears, the law is weak through the flesh. And the most we can hope for is the elimination from all such secular pursuits on Sundays of whatever most obnoxiously conflicts with the sanctity of the day.

However disconcerting, such a conclusion should scarcely surprise us. After all, it is only part of the Christian's inescapable dilemma as he strives to promote a Christian order of life within a society which, though nominally Christian, is not actually so.

(c) The Final Word: But having said this, we have arrived at what is, after all, the most important and practical aspect of the question at issue, namely, the Church member's own personal relation and responsibility to the Christian Sabbath.

Negatively, he must be careful never to suggest by his own conduct that his attitude to Sunday observance is one of indifference. With this in mind, he must be prepared even to forego what otherwise he might claim as his right. Positively, he must lend his active support in all lawful endeavours to preserve the institutions from secular encroachments, in the recognition that the heritage of the Lord's Day must belong to all, else it cannot be assured to any.

Above all, it is his responsibility to display before the eyes of all men that Sunday properly observed is not a day of gloom, but a festival of joy. Possibly the Church has erred in limiting herself to negative pronouncements, acting out the role of a watchdog or policeman, and placing embargoes upon this or that other activity on Sundays. After all, if a man chooses not to observe Sunday in a Christian way, it scarcely seems to matter in what particular way he desecrates it.

We must never forget that Sunday observance, however desirable, is not an end in itself. Its importance resides only in the purpose which it is intended to serve and in the great spiritual truths to which it testifies. It is a witness to the essential dignity of a man as a spiritual being. It emphasizes the paramount significance of the spiritual as over against the material, of the eternal as over against the temporal. It calls men to the remembrance of God, and to the serious business of "the making of the soul". And as the perpetual memorial of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, it tells of the life-giving, creative and redemptive activity of the God of all grace. Which is what Christ meant when He said, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath".

On the basis of this paper several recommendations have been presented, namely,

- (a) That we recognize the sanctity of the Lord's Day, and hence, the continuing obligation for its due observance as deriving from the unchanging authority of the principle of the Fourth Commandment.
- (b) That we recognize the transition from the observance of the Seventh day to the First day of the week, as the Christian Sabbath, as based upon apostolic precedent and practice.
- (c) That in virtue of the Christian principles explicitly declared in the constitutional government of this Dominion we acknowledge the propriety of including Sunday legislation within our laws and statutes.
- (d) That, while recognizing a valid distinction as between what is legal and what is expedient in Sunday observance, we believe that in the matter of Christian liberty, it may be necessary for the Christian, in asserting his unequivocal reverence for the Lord's Day and for the sake of others, to willingly forego what otherwise he might claim as his right.

We recommend:

11. That preparatory to the publication of a pamphlet on the Lord's Day, the foregoing material and recommendations be sent down to presbyteries for their study and report to the Board of E. & S. A. not later than February 15, 1960.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH'S WORK IN THE UNIVERSITIES

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

This Committee was set up by the General Assembly of 1956 to study the Church's work in the universities. The Committee presented a report to the 1958 Assembly which was the result of its consultation with the Canadian Council of Churches' Commission on Church and University.

In the past year some of our members continued to participate in person and by correspondence in the forming of the Commission's report. This report was adopted by the Canadian Council of Churches at its meeting in Winnipeg in October, 1958. Members of your Committee participated in a Conference subsequently called by the Canadian Council of Churches at the Guild Inn, March 31st to April 2nd, 1959. We quote here the findings of this Conference.

1. WHEREAS, we have come to a time in the history of the world when there is widespread confusion of thought and belief which has produced perplexity of mind and uncertainty of action; and whereas there is a resultant need for re-interpretation of the reality and power of divine truth and a revitalization of moral and spiritual life; and whereas the universities have a grave and urgent responsibility in their influence on the prevailing culture and thought by their teaching and research; and whereas the universities by the work of their scholars and teachers and by the prospective plane of their students in the life of the world institutions are of cardinal importance, particularly at this present time of continuing crisis in human history; and
2. WHEREAS we believe that the Holy Spirit is calling the Church to strengthen her work and witness in the universities; and
3. WHEREAS the several churches in Canada are already considering steps to develop work among their own students in the University; and
4. WHEREAS the Student Christian Movement has been re-examining its life and task, particularly in regard to the concerns of the churches; and
5. WHEREAS the universities are expressing concern for a strengthened and more unified Christian work amongst their students; and
6. WHEREAS the extended studies of the Canadian Council of Churches Commission on the Church and the University, confirmed by discussions with widely representative groups have led towards recommendation of a responsible ecumenical approach; and
7. WHEREAS we at this Conference have been conscious that God Himself has been compelling us to take decisive and adventurous action at this particular moment;

THEREFORE: we recommend: that the responsible ecumenical approach be accepted as the way in which Christian work on the campus, actual and anticipated, can best be interrelated; and that it is through this approach that a university Christian movement might be brought into being, and its shape be determined.

CHARACTERISTICS OF AN ECUMENICAL APPROACH

- (a) it would be university based. Its agents would be Christian members of the University community, aided by Christian personnel appointed because of their ability to identify themselves with the University and its pursuit of truth and knowledge.

- (b) it would be properly related to the churches. Its ministry must be exercised by those within the University, responsible members of the several churches, who would regard the mission to the University as an integral part of the total mission of the whole Church of Jesus Christ.
- (c) It would be a comprehensive university Christian movement. It would endeavour to manifest the fellowship of concern of all those in the University who believe in Jesus Christ as God and Saviour.
- (d) The various staff members, however appointed, would function as a team;
- (e) Its primary task would be in the power of the Holy Spirit to present Jesus Christ so that men and women may accept Him as God and Saviour and so that, in the fellowship of His Church, they may grow in the worship of God and in the knowledge and service of Him and the world. Its members from the various churches would resolve to do all things together which they can do together in carrying out the task, and only those things separately which they must in all conscience do separately.
- (f) Aspects of this task would include: common worship as far as possible, a concern for the teaching ministry of the Church, pastoral care for individual members of the University, voluntary student participation and direction, a united evangelistic approach to the University.
- (g) It would be an open Christian Movement, eager for the co-operation of every Christian group on the campus, and for the participation of the honest doubter and seeker.

FURTHER STEPS:

Specifically as next steps to be taken for strengthening the Church's witness to the University we recommend:

- I. That the Executive Committee of the Canadian Council of Churches be asked to take the initiative in the organization of a provisional National University Christian Council.
The Council would consist of:
 - (a) three representatives, of which one shall be a student, appointed by each church and organization concerned with student work,
 - (b) six members to be nominated by the Executive Committee of the Canadian Council of Churches to represent special interests, e.g. university chaplains, the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A., church colleges, students, etc.,
 - (c) six representatives of universities. We request the general secretary of the Canadian Council of Churches to communicate with the executive secretary of the National Council of Canadian Universities (NCCCU) seeking advice as to the best method of the selection of these university representatives.
 The Executive Committee is asked to name a convener to call together the provisional National University Christian Council.
- II. THAT the duty of the Provisional Committee shall be to bring into being a permanent National University Christian Council.
- III. THAT the University Christian Council shall attempt to deal with such matters as:
 - (a) to draw together the resources and concerns of the churches and the universities in a responsible ecumenical approach to Christian work in the universities.
 - (b) to foster the development of a 'community of the concerned' in each university.
 - (c) to consider the place and relevance of the Christian heritage in the total life of the University, e.g. encouraging the establishment of departments of religion, the offering of religious knowledge courses, the fostering of research projects, the role of the church colleges in the current university expansion, etc.,

- (d) To encourage the recruitment and training of qualified student workers.
 - (e) To take steps to call conferences, regional and/or national, of those engaged in Christian work in the universities.
 - (f) To uphold the principle that appointment of chaplains and other Christian workers shall be made only after consultation with representatives of Christian groups already at work, and with the university authorities, and with the intention that the appointees consider themselves members of a team of Christian workers in the university concerned at the same time as they have special denominational responsibilities.
 - (g) To maintain liaison with local University Christian Councils.
- IV. THAT the National University Christian Council be established as an autonomous body financed by its member units.
- VI. THAT continued study be made, at the National and local levels of the Report of the Commission on the Church and the University of the Canadian Council of Churches, with special reference to pp. 22 et seq. Sections 4 seg.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Your Committee met to consider the findings of the Conference, and we recommend

- 1. that "the responsible ecumenical approach" as defined in the Conference Report be approved by the General Assembly.
- 2. that we further participate in this ecumenical approach, having in mind specifically Recommendations Ia, IV and VI, under "Further Steps" in the Conference Report.
- 3. that the General Assembly authorize the formation of a permanent Committee of the Board of Christian Education to be called the Committee on Higher Learning, with these terms of reference:
 - (a) to continue study.
 - (b) to appoint representatives to the National University Christian Council.
 - (c) to be referred to in all matters concerning the Church and higher learning prior to action being taken in any local situation.
 and that it consist of twelve members representative of persons involved in and interested in the university community, including theological faculty, ministers in congregations, university faculty, students and university graduates.
- 4. that the General Assembly authorize up to $1,000 to be added to the budget of the Board of Christian Education specifically for the work of this Committee.
- 5. that the present study Committee on the Church's Work in the Universities be discontinued.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

DONALD F. COLLIER,
Convener.

COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE BOOK OF COMMON ORDER

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Order begs leave to present its Sixth Report.

This Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1953 for the following reasons:

- (1) Many ministers are using Books of Common Order other than our own.
- (2) Recent studies on the meaning and practice of Reformed Worship indicate the need of a revision of our present Book, with a view to incorporating the fruits of these studies.
- (3) Despite many virtues, defects are to be found in the present Order (e.g. the Order of Infant Baptism does not include sufficient Scriptural authority for the act, nor has the congregation opportunity of expressing its share in the responsibility.)
- (4) There exists a need for a more complete selection of prayers for special occasions.
- (5) There are not enough rubrics given to ensure co-ordination and dignified services.

The General Assembly of 1953 instructed the Committee to have due regard to:

- (a) The several Reformed traditions of worship included within the membership of our Church.
- (b) The differing needs of urban, rural and mission charges.
- (c) New Services and Orders required by the changed and changing conditions such as Recognition Services, Radio Services and Services for Church Courts.
- (d) The need of a Book of Common Order which shall shape and express the spirit and aspirations of a Church serving in Canada.

The General Assembly of 1953 specifically instructed the Committee "to proceed to complete the work as expeditiously as possible."

Each year your Committee has reported progress. By authority of Assembly new Orders, designed to fulfil the commission laid upon the Committee, have been printed and circulated to all ministers of the Church. Presbyteries were asked to study the Orders, and many have done so with profitable discussion on the various theological and liturgical questions posed by the new Orders. Comments received from all the courts of the Church generally have been favourable; many have expressed satisfaction for being thus allowed to share in the work of the Committee. The teaching pamphlets and rubrics that have accompanied the printed Orders have aroused interest in the whole question of liturgics. Many constructive criticisms have been received, and many questions have been asked. All such criticisms and questions have been considered by your Committee with profit.

To date the Committee on Revision has circulated the following material:

- The Great Service of Word and Sacrament
- Four Orders of Morning Worship
- Two Orders of Evening Worship
- An Order of Vespers
- A Litany of Evening Prayers
- An Order for the Baptisms of Infants
- An Order for the Confirmation of Baptized Persons and for Their Admission to the Lord's Supper

An Order for the Solemnization of Marriage

Notes on Services

Questionnaire on Worship

Basic Principles of Worship and Commentary on the Great Service of Word and Sacrament

Persons and Things in the Service of God.

These Orders, with the necessary changes in prayer structures, will form a large part of the new Book of Common Order.

Your Committee feels that it is unnecessary to circulate any other Orders but proposes to circulate a new teaching pamphlet FORMS OF WORSHIP AND FREEDOM OF THE SPIRIT.

Your Committee is now approaching the point when it may hope to issue a new Book of Common Order. Inquiry has shown that such a book can be printed at no cost to the Church, copies being sold at a reasonable rate to the purchaser and yielding a substantial royalty to the Church. The Revision Committee has been informed that stocks of the present Book of Common Order are exhausted.

It is with regret that your Committee places before Assembly the resignation of Reverend F. Scott Mackenzie, Professor of Systematic Theology, Presbyterian College, Montreal, Quebec. His action has been motivated by his retirement from the College. We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Mackenzie for the untiring labours he expended on the work of the Committee. All of our Orders bear the mark of his scholarship, his conviction of the place of Reformed Worship in Canadian Society, and his love for the rich traditions of the Church he has served so faithfully and well. He will be greatly missed in the editorial work of the new Book of Common Order as it reaches its final stage.

During the year no general meeting of the Committee was held due to the decreased budget. Much of our work has been done by correspondence. It is vital to the work of the Committee that resources be supplied for a general meeting in the Fall to deal with editorial matters and replies from Presbyteries.

UNPRINTED OVERTURE D, Presbytery of Hamilton, 1958, re Basic Principles of Worship, was referred to the Committee on Articles of Faith and to this Committee for report to this Assembly. The two Committees have handled the matter separately. We welcome the finding of the Committee on Articles of Faith that in their opinion "the Presbytery of Hamilton has placed a wrong interpretation on the particular statement with which it takes issue," and gladly accede to their request and the implicit request of the last Assembly that we clarify the matter.

It is hard to see how the statement in Basic Principles could have been taken to mean that "God cannot be adequately worshipped on any given occasion unless Baptism and the Lord's Supper take place" (italics ours). There are many occasions when God is worshipped, for example, at grace before meals, when it would be entirely inappropriate to celebrate sacraments but at which the worship offered is, as to form, completely adequate to the occasion. Basic Principles is concerned with the norm for the Church's fullest worship, and this norm, it asserts, is the service of Word and Sacraments. The term sacrament refers here more particularly to Holy Communion, as a prime mode of worship required of baptised members of Christ. The sacrament of Baptism must necessarily be occasional.

Basic Principles goes on to deal shortly with a consequent problem facing us. Infrequent Communion means that worship on the Lord's Day at which there is not both Word and Sacrament falls short of the norm. The Revision Committee has no power to change the norm, nor has it any freedom to remain silent on the matter in view of the truth that "the acceptable way of worshipping the true God is instituted by Himself."

We welcome very eagerly the promise of the Articles of Faith Committee to undertake studies in the doctrine of worship. We respectfully remind the Assembly that one of the grounds for the appointment of this Committee was that "recent studies on the meaning and practice of Reformed worship indicate the need of a revision of our present Book, with a view of incorporating the fruits of these studies" (see above). The standpoint about the norm that we have just referred to is one of the effects of these studies. The aim of the Committee has been, as it took up its mandate to revise the Book of Common Order, to reveal to the Church the bearing of these studies upon present habits in our worship, and to stimulate a true theological and historical understanding of them, so that unsatisfactory practices might be changed, thoughtless or merely sentimental innovations discountenanced, and truly historic usages honoured in the public worship of God. We trust that the determination of the Committee on Articles of Faith will be vigorously prosecuted, so that our Church may feel that it is receiving continual stimulation and wise guidance in these matters. At the same time, on behalf of the standing Committee on Church Worship, which is co-operating with us in the revision, we respectfully remind the Assembly that the interests and rights of the Committee on Church Worship in the matter of the doctrine of worship should be recognized by its being asked to share in the studies of the Committee on Articles of Faith in this matter.

Among the Recommendations:

That the section of this Report dealing with the matter raised in Unprinted Overture D of the Presbytery of Hamilton be accepted as an answer to that Overture.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- (1) That the Committee be continued.
- (2) That the resignation of Dr. F. Scott Mackenzie from the Committee be accepted and that he be thanked for his services.
- (3) That Dr. J. C. McLelland be appointed to the Committee.
- (4) That the teaching pamphlet FORMS OF WORSHIP AND FREEDOM OF THE SPIRIT be printed and circulated to every minister and kirk session.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

DAVID W. HAY,
Convener.

W. SCOTT DUNCAN,
Secretary.

PENMARVIAN HOUSE COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

On the banks of the Grand River in Paris, Ontario, are the spacious grounds of Penmarvian, devised by Mr. John Penman to The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The main building is large and well-appointed. In addition there are the cottage and the coach house. A fruit and vegetable garden lies to the rear of the buildings.

Mr. Penman also bequeathed the sum of $100,000 to establish a fund; the annual interest to be devoted to the maintenance of Penmarvian. During the intervening years this Fund has been augmented by bequests designated for the work undertaken by Penmarvian.

Miss Mary Watson, a registered nurse, was appointed Superintendent in 1957. To her and her loyal Staff the Committee would express their thanks.

During the year the ladies of the Hamilton and London Synodical of the Women's Missionary Society raised on behalf of Penmarvian a substantial sum of money. By reason of this gracious act the Committee were enabled to renovate the kitchen and install modern equipment. So generous was the gift that the Committee were further able to replace the worn out drapes in the living room with beautiful new ones. The Committee would take this opportunity of bespeaking their gratitude to these kind ladies whose generosity made these improvements possible.

Two ancient elms on the grounds were pronounced in a dangerous condition and had to be removed. Considerable electrical renovation was undertaken and further work requires to be done this summer.

During the year the Committee were informed of two bequests to Penmarvian — one under the will of Mrs. Matilda Mercer of Toronto for $300; and one under the will of Miss Lillian Kerr of Montreal for $9,272.77. For these bequests the Committee return thanks.

A statement of income and expenditure as prepared by the Treasurer's office is appended to this report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

B. M. HANNIGAN,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE RECORD COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your committee would emphasize the importance of the official magazine in the life and work of our Church today. It is the one medium that consistently communicates with a majority of Presbyterian families throughout our widespread country. It endeavours to inform and to inspire, and its influence as an instrument of The Presbyterian Church in Canada can do much to strengthen and enlarge the witness of our Church in the future.

The particular mission of the Church press in the modern world is being recognized in international as well as denominational circles. Dr. Charles Malik, president of the current assembly of the United Nations, indicated that when he addressed editors of the Associated Church Press during their annual meeting this year. Dr. Malik, a great Christian statesman, said in part: "You are, in my opinion, more fundamentally responsible for peace and goodwill in this world than anyone or anything in this building (the United Nations headquarters) . . . This whole house of ours is built upon sand, the only way to have enduring peace is to found it upon the rock of God. As a Christian I would at once add, upon the rock of Christ."

In acknowledgment of the increasing value of a strong and worthy journal, other branches of the Church, in Canada and elsewhere, are subsidizing their official magazines financially to an extent that was never dreamed of in the past.

Through a year of change The Presbyterian Record has endeavoured to function on its usual high level. In its last report, your committee recorded its deep indebtedness to the Rev. Dr. John McNab for his twelve years as editor of The Record. The last General Assembly expressed the appreciation of the Church as a whole by electing Dr. McNab unanimously to the office of Moderator. He continues to devote his gifts to the service of The Record as time permits.

In May, 1958, Miss Eileen J. Thompson, who had served so capably as assistant editor, left the staff of The Record. However, as Mrs. C. A. Best, she continues to contribute articles of high quality. So for the editorial staff this has been a year of change. Miss Helen Proudfoot, as editorial assistant, assumed fuller responsibility last May. She has added a course in layout and design to her other studies in journalism, and the committee notes with approval the resulting changes in the front cover and the inside pages of The Record.

The Rev. DeCourcy H. Rayner assumed office as editor in mid-September, and during the first six months concentrated on the three-fold task to be done at the editor's desk, that of promotion, management and editorial planning and oversight. Then he began to visit presbyteries and synods to make those contacts which are so necessary for one responsible for reporting on the activities of the Church.

The aim of this committee is to see that The Presbyterian Record goes directly into the homes of at least 100,000 Presbyterian families, and for this reason we continue to promote the Every Home Plan. We are pleased to report that circulation at the end of March stood at 86,493, as compared with 81,563 subscribers at the same time in 1958. But only three out of five of our families receive the official Church magazine. Promotion is a matter in which the committee must look for the co-operation of presbyteries and congregations, as well as ministers and sessions.

Your committee is proud of the quality of The Record, and of the high place that it holds among church publications everywhere. Its articles are often reprinted by church journals in other parts of the world. The policy of The Record is to encourage writers and contributors from our own Church as far as possible, and we go outside of our own ranks only when material is not available here. Further improvements are contemplated by the use of more colour inside the magazine, and your committee is now studying the possibility of modernizing The Record in this way.

In a year of growth it should be pointed out that the one thing that has not increased is the subscription price of The Record, although the subsidy from budget funds was cut down to $8,000 last year. Your committee believes that no better value for one dollar is offered anywhere.

The Record Committee would pay tribute to the continued loyalty and efficiency of its staff. Miss Proudfoot, as indicated, has been handling the editorial and secretarial work alone, performing a dual function most capably. Mrs. C. B. Ferguson is the efficient business and advertising assistant, and brought in increased advertising revenue during the year. Miss Isabel Farquhar directs the splendid work of the circulation department, assisted by Miss Marguerite Patterson, Miss Doris Hannigan, and Miss Ruth Reid.

In response to the demand for the booklet, "What Do Presbyterians Believe?" the committee has printed a third edition, which is selling very well.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Every Home Plan which has been approved by past General Assemblies be again heartily endorsed as one of the best means of bringing the work of our Church both at home and abroad to the attention of our people.

2. That this Assembly recommend to each Presbytery the presentation of the Every Home Plan to those congregations not already enrolled, at the annual meeting or at the time of the setting of the congregation's budget. Also, that the congregation report what action has been taken to the Clerk of Presbytery, who will forward the information to the editor.
3. That this Assembly express its thanks to the Garden City Press for its valued courtesy and excellent craftsmanship in printing The Record; to Howlett and Smith for first class engravings; to General Printers for their care in distributing the Church journal, and to Mr. Frank Whilsmith for his helpful direction in preparing advertisements to promote the Every Home Plan.

EDWARD SHORTT,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY AND DEACONESS TRAINING SCHOOL — 1958 - 1959

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training School begs to submit the following report for the year 1958-1959.

It is with much thanksgiving that the Board of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School reviews the past year. In it we have paid tribute to all who have been connected with the School since its founding in 1897; the present has been rich and fruitful; and the future appears to offer unprecedented opportunities.

Twenty-four students have been enrolled at the School during the year. These young women have come to us from the total breadth of the Canadian Church, and two have been students from British Guiana.

In September, 1958, Miss Margaret Webster, B.A., assumed her active duties as Principal of the School. On November 27, a service of Installation of the Principal was held in Knox College Chapel. Dr. James Smart, from Union Theological Seminary, New York, delivered an inspiring address on this occasion. Miss Webster has lectured in Christian Education during the year, and along with her varied duties as Principal, has worked untiringly in the interests of the current campaign for funds.

It has been a great help to us to have Miss Lily Macarthur continue as Acting Dean. It is with much pleasure that we report that Miss Macarthur has acceded to the request of the Board to continue in this capacity until May 31, 1960.

In accordance with the action taken by the General Assembly of 1956, which authorized the appointment of a Dean for the School, the Board plans to appoint a permanent Dean in 1960, and Presbyteries will be invited in the fall of 1959 to submit suggested names for this appointment.

Once again we are indebted to the Principal and Staff of Knox College for their services in lecturing to our students, and to all sessional lecturers who have participated in our curriculum.

Four new Scholarships have been received during the year, and for these we are deeply grateful. These are as follows:

The Leonie Pirch Scholarship of $50.00 to be awarded to a student in the graduating year under appointment by the Women's Missionary Society, W.D., and given through the Women's Missionary Society, W.D.

The Jennie and Bell Hossack Memorial Scholarship of $50.00 to be awarded to the first year student having the highest percentage in practical work, and donated through the Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Presbyterian Church, Embro.

The Ada Major Scholarship of $50.00 to be awarded to the student in first or second year with the highest percentage in Christian Education subjects, and donated by Mrs. W. R. Major.

The Elizabeth Scott McKay Memorial Scholarship of $25.00 to be awarded to the student of any year who is deemed to have made an outstanding contribution to the community life of the School, donated by Mrs. K. D. Taylor.

The present resources available for scholarships are very small, and we would be happy to have more friends express their interest in this way.

The decision of the 1958 General Assembly, granting the Board of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School permission to appeal to the Church for funds for a new building, has caused much of our time during this past year to be devoted to this campaign. We cannot find words which would be adequate to express our gratitude to the host of friends who have joined wholeheartedly in this project. We appreciate also the co-operation which has been shown by Presbyterians across Canada, in promoting the campaign. To the hundreds of loyal Presbyterians who to this date have contributed joyfully and generously, and who have upheld the work by their prayers, we give tribute.

Although our Campaign Treasurer reports a very substantial bank balance at the time of writing, we know that there is still a long way to go before we achieve our objective. There is evidence, however, that congregations are assuming their share of this challenge with seriousness and determination, and we are proceeding with our planning in good faith. We are confident that construction will begin within twelve months, and we feel sure that our campaign objective will be reached.

It has been of particular import for the School that Miss Margaret Webster and the Chairman of the Board have travelled across Canada during the past months, speaking to countless gatherings in churches and homes, and making further extensive contacts through the media of the press, radio and television. Although travelling specifically in the interests of the campaign, these visits have been looked upon as far reaching opportunities for recruitment, and it is our earnest hope that these efforts may yield abundantly in bringing some young women to dedicate their lives to full-time service.

Graduation exercises were held in Knox College Chapel on April 21. Professor Allan Farris, M.A., B.D., M.Th., of the Faculty of Knox College gave a most challenging address to the students of the Graduating class.

The following Diplomas, Certificates and Scholarships were presented:

2. In view of the success of the current $400,000 campaign for a new School building, the Board seeks permission to proceed with the construction of the said building on the property at 156 St. George Street, Toronto, early in 1960.
All of which is respectfully submitted.

MARGARET TAYLOR,
Chairman of the Board.

THE JOSEPH B. ROBERT AND DAME SARAH ROBERT FUND (BENEVOLENT)

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

M. Joseph B. Robert and his wife, Dame Sarah Robert, were of French Huguenot stock. They resided in the city of Montreal, Quebec. Two of their children desiring to "perpetuate the memory" of their father and mother set up in church and charitable circles several funds to this end. It is upon one of these funds that we now report.

The son, Mr. William Henry Robert, bequeathed the income from one-half the residue of his estate to The Presbyterian Church in Canada: one-third of this one-half being "for assistance for needy ministers who have retired."

The daughter, Miss Sarah Mary Robert, set up a Donation in terms similar to those of her brother's last will and testament: one-half of the residue to the Church; one-third of this one-half being "for assistance for needy ministers who have retired."

Under the terms of Mr. Robert's last will and testament and Miss Robert's donation, the Montreal Trust Company of Montreal, Quebec, was appointed trustee of both. Each quarter the Trust Company remits to the Trustee Board of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, the share of income falling to the Church. It is with this especial one-third of this share of income "for assistance to needy ministers who have retired" that this particular report deals.

It is to be noted that this especial one-third is "for assistance to needy ministers who have retired." The terms are therefore quite restrictive. No money from this Fund may be granted to ministers' dependents: it is solely for "assistance for needy ministers who have retired."

This benevolent Fund has brought encouragement and a measure of comfort to a number of our ministers who have been compelled to retire by reason of the infirmities of years or because misfortune has early fallen upon them.

These ministers in particular and The Presbyterian Church in Canada in general express gratitude to God that it was put into the hearts of this son and this daughter to remember His faithful servants who are in need or will find themselves in need.

The Board of Administration have appointed a small Committee to administer this benevolent Fund and will continue so to appoint annually.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

S. W. VANCE,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON HOME RELIGION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee have continued to publish EVERY DAY as an aid to family worship and private devotions. Every year some fifty ministers of The Presbyterian Church in Canada have gratuitously contributed material in the form of meditations and prayers and to each and all of them the Committee would express thanks for this kindly cooperation. Also the Committee would express their appreciation to Thorn Press and Presbyterian Publications who for fourteen years have printed, published and distributed EVERY DAY without profit to themselves.

The Cover designs for EVERY DAY for 1958 were: January - March, Bringing the Offering; April - June, Girl, Boy with horse in the open; July - September, Young Girl standing on hill top with Bible in her hand; October - December, Little Children turning the pages of a picture Bible.

The Circulation was as follows: January - March, 13,155; April - June 13,195; July - September, 12,965; October-December, 13,355; an average of 13,187 per quarter compared with an average of 13,066 in 1957 and an average of 11,557 in 1956.

Again the Stewardship and Budget Committee were good enough to publish a Church Calendar emphasizing the need of the deepening of religion in the home. The article was written by our Convener, The Rev. John Forbes, M.A., of Agincourt. We are indebted to Dr. A. Neil Miller and Miss Jean Brown, B.A., for this fine assistance. The Board of Christian Education have given EVERY DAY free advertising space in their two publications "The Teacher" and "Victory".

For this generous cooperation on the part of the Stewardship and Budget Committee and the Board of Christian Education the Committee would say "Thank you."

The Committee continues to seek the blessing of God upon all efforts put forth to glorify His great and holy Name.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee crave leave to renew the four recommendations as passed by the General Assembly of 1958:

1. That in view of the concern for the welfare of the home, the Church and the Nation in these times and the need for deepening the spiritual life of our people, each Kirk-Session of the Church which has not already done so be urged to appoint one of its members or other interested person to promote the use of EVERY DAY within the congregation.
2. That the Congregations of the Church be urged to consider placing copies of EVERY DAY in Hospitals, Homes and other institutions within the bounds for the use of patients and others.
3. That Kirk-Sessions be requested to present a copy of EVERY DAY to each person uniting with the Church on profession of faith or by certificate; and on such other occasions as baptism (to the parents) and marriage (to the young couple about to establish a home) and to make it available by way of a rack or otherwise in the vestibule of the Church for the members and adherents of the congregation.
4. That this Assembly urge the Presbyteries of the Church to set aside a period of time at one of their meetings during the year for the purpose of discussing and instituting methods of promoting the use of EVERY DAY as a devotional guide among the congregations within their bounds.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. FORBES,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON THE RETIREMENT FUND FOR CHURCH EMPLOYEES

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

By action of the General Assembly of 1952 The Retirement Fund for Church Employees was established. The Committee charged with its oversight and operation was constituted as follows: the members of the Executive of the Church's Pension Board, the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Administration, the Secretary for Home Missions of the General Board of Missions, and the Treasurer of the Church. The Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Administration were elected respectively Chairman and Secretary of the Committee. Regulations were drawn up in consultation with the General Counsel of the Church, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C.

The Fund has been approved by the Department of National Revenue — Taxation Division as an employees' or pension fund or plan for the purposes of the Income Tax Act effective as of January 15, 1953. Thus, contributors may deduct the sum of their annual contributions to the Fund from their salaries before estimating their income tax for the year.

Contributors to the Fund are classified as follows: 25 members of the Head Office Staff, seven catechists; eight others serving with the General Board of Missions; one member of the Staff of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School; three members of the Office Staff of Knox College, Toronto; four deaconesses serving with the W.M.S. (E.D.) and two deaconesses serving with congregations — Knox Church, Goderich, Ont. and the Presbyterian Church, Leaside, Ont. — a total of 50 compared with 55 a year ago, 53 two years ago, and 40 three years ago.

By action of the General Assembly of 1957, the Regulations governing the Fund were amended to permit Deaconesses who are employed as such by congregations of The Presbyterian Church in Canada to become contributors to the Fund. In the Regulations the term "deaconess" is specifically defined. It is to be regretted that only two congregations have to date availed themselves of the opportunity presented by the Church to afford this measure of security to those who are serving them so well. However, many congregations may have retirement funds of their own. The Committee has no knowledge of these.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES DUTTON,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

THE BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Administration beg leave to report on matters with which they have dealt during the year.

THE PRESBYTERIAN RESIDENCE SASKATOON

Reports received from the Western Committee indicate that the academic year 1958-1959 was a satisfactory year in the life and work of this institution. Some problems were encountered but these have been resolved. For most of the year the building was filled with students among whom there were two students in arts preparing for the ministry of the Church. Several improvements were undertaken. Among these was the much-needed remodelling of the kitchen.

Toward the end of February, the Rev. George McMichen, M.A., resigned as dean in order to accept a call to Rosetown Presbyterian Church. Since that date the Rev. L. S. vanMossel, the Chairman of the Western Committee, has been acting as dean. An appointment as successor to Mr. McMichen has not as yet been made. The Board would record their thanks to Mr. McMichen for the loyal services he rendered the Church as Dean of Students in Saskatoon. To Mrs. A. P. Kerns, the matron of the Residence, the gratitude of the Board is also expressed.

RE NEW HEADQUARTERS

As directed by the General Assembly of 1958, the Board continued to deal with the matter of new headquarters. Although much time and thought were given throughout the year, and although many avenues were explored, the Board are not prepared to present definite proposals to this Assembly as it was hoped. However, the matter will not be lost sight of and the Board will continue to deal with the question. A recommendation will be presented to this Assembly.

OVERTURE 9: PRESBYTERY OF PARIS RE CONFERENCE CENTRE

The Overture is as follows:

"WHEREAS, there is an increasing need for a Conference centre conveniently situated in Canada, for the use of the various boards and committees of the Church, and

"WHEREAS, the buildings and property in connection with the Maclean Estate might well be developed, so as to provide an answer to this need.

"THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Paris humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to instruct the Board of Administration to investigate this possibility, and to report to the Assembly of 1959, or to take action toward this end, as the General Assembly in its wisdom may deem best."

This Overture was referred to the Board in consultation with the Board of Christian Education. Representatives of the two Boards met and considered the question involved and a report dealing with the present situation was presented. To two of the larger houses life tenancy is attached. The other three houses scattered over two hundred and fifty acres of land are not large. Though the present houses are not adequate for the purpose of a conference, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C., the General Counsel of the Church, is of the opinion that there is nothing in the will to prevent the Church erecting a building on the estate. The opinion was expressed that were the Church to erect a conference centre it would probably choose some place on lake or river. The Board of Christian Education appeared to be satisfied with this position and the Board so reports.

RE UNPRINTED OVERTURE A, PRESBYTERY OF EDMONTON RE "COSTS OF TRAVEL"

The first two sections of the prayer of the Overture were referred to the Board for study and report.

The two Sections are as follows:

Part I—To recognize that costs of travel or vehicle operation and maintenance in the service of the Church have no relationship to a minister's stipend;

Part II—To instruct Presbyteries and congregations that such costs should be included as an item separate from stipend in the congregations Budget along with all other costs.

These sections were given careful consideration by a committee of the Board and by the Executive. It was agreed to recommend that the prayers of Part I and Part II of the Overture be granted but no change be made in what is required in the Statistical and Financial Returns as gross stipend.

RE FISCAL YEAR

The last General Assembly authorized the Board to terminate the last fiscal year on December 31, 1958. This seemed to be out of the question as by September the year was well on the way. In the meantime Dr. A. Neil Miller made a study of the matter and on his report the Board will present a recommendation herewith.

RE SALARIES AND RETIRING ALLOWANCES

On instructions of the last Assembly, the Board studied the question of salaries for professors and general secretaries and the matter of retiring allowances and are prepared with three recommendations to cover these matters.

RE SPRINGHILL DISASTER

During the year the mine disaster which so affected our congregation in Springhill, Nova Scotia, and the whole community of Springhill, called forth a great deal of sympathetic action throughout Canada. The Committee on Emergency Appeals issued a call to the Church for funds to help Springhill and as a result an amount of $30,308.67 was subscribed and forwarded to the stricken area. Premier R. L. Stanfield of Nova Scotia has expressed the thanks of the Province for the financial assistance given by our Church and has explained the care exercised in the disbursement of the Fund. Many congregations and individuals in the Church gave through banks and other agencies to help in this emergency.

RE L. D. W. MAGIE MEMORIAL FUND

Through the efforts of the Chairman of the Board, the late Mr. L. D. W. Magie of Peterborough placed in his will a bequest as follows:

"To the Board of Administration of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars to set up a trust Fund to be known as the 'L. D. W. Magie Memorial Fund' the income from which is to be used for the relief of widows of clergy. It is my understanding that the Trustee Board of The Presbyterian Church in Canada is empowered to receive such funds and I direct that they be so received and that they be administered by The Board of Administration of The Presbyterian Church in Canada". The money has been received and the Trust established.

RE RESIGNATION DR. A. NEIL MILLER

Dr. A. Neil Miller presented his resignation as Field Secretary of Stewardship and Budget to the Executive of the Board meeting in November 1958, the resignation to take effect January 31, 1959.

At the time it was pointed out that ordinarily the resignation should be addressed to this Assembly as it was the 1949 Assembly which appointed Dr. Miller as Field Secretary of Stewardship and Budget. However, as Dr. Miller expressed the wish to terminate his engagement before the opening of Assembly, the Executive proceeded to deal with it. At the meeting of the Board in the Spring, the matter of Dr. Miller's resignation was again dealt with at great length. Even though the Board desires to relieve Dr. Miller of certain duties, they are loath to lose his active and efficient leadership in the field of Stewardship and Budget. To this end the Board are presenting to this Assembly two recommendations dealing with his resignation.

RE AUTHORIZED EXPENDITURES 1959 AND 1960

The General Assembly approved in principle the practice of holding expenditures for any one year to the level of the previous year's actual revenue from congregations and referred the question back to the Board of Administration for study and report. The Board report to the effect that the principle should be applied forthwith and to this end present a recommendation covering the Authorized Expenditures for 1959.

Due to the great difficulty of arriving at a decision as to the Authorized Expenditures for 1960, the Board crave leave to determine these when the revenue of 1959 has been reasonably ascertained and after consultation with the heads of the Boards known as "the spending boards".

RE RECOMMENDATIONS 3(D) AND (E) 1958

By action of the General Assembly of 1958 Recommendation 3 subsections (d) and (e) were referred to this Assembly and are so placed in this report as Recommendations 13 and 14.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Matters Referred by Last Assembly

1. That having endeavoured to make progress and having investigated every avenue of approach to the subject suggested, and finding ourselves unable to report any definite procedure, we recommend that further consideration of the matter of new headquarters be deferred.
2. That the salary of each professor of both colleges be $8,000 per annum and the salary of each principal be $9,500 per annum and that these figures be reached by annual increases of $500; $500; and $400; commencing October 1, 1959.
3. That the salary of each Secretary of a Board appointed by Assembly in terms of Section 176 (1) of the Book of Forms be $8,000 per annum and that this figure be reached by annual increases of $500; $500; and $400; commencing October 1, 1959.
4. That inasmuch as the cost of providing 40% of the salary of a professor or secretary as a retiring allowance over and above his Church pension would mean a payment of a premium of $110,000, no such retiring allowance be approved. Further, doubt exists as to the propriety of perpetuating such a division among the servants of the Church — parish ministers on the one hand and professors and secretaries on the other.
5. That the fiscal year of the Church end December 31st; commencing with the year 1959.

Other Matters

6. That having studied the matter, the Board recommend that this Assembly now approve the principle of spending in the succeeding year the amount of money received for the Budget during the preceding year, but for 1959 and 1960, the General Board of Missions be permitted to draw on their resources, if necessary, the amount to bring their expenditures to $986,500 in 1959 from the Authorized Expenditure of $888,200; any amount received in excess of $1,500,000 in 1959 for the Budget up to the amount withdrawn from the mission reserves to be credited to the General Board of Missions to relieve the withdrawal of mission reserves.

7. That this General Assembly approve the Authorized Expenditures to Boards, etc. for 1959 as set forth in the above table subject to the final approval of the Board.
8. That should Dr. A. Neil Miller submit to this Assembly his resignation as field-secretary of Stewardship and Budget, the Board recommend that the resignation be accepted.
9. That should Dr. A. Neil Miller's resignation as field-secretary of Stewardship and Budget be accepted by this Assembly the Board recommend that a re-organization of the Committee of Stewardship and Budget become effective and Dr. Miller's appointment as Secretary of the Stewardship and Budget Committee be confirmed.
10. That the Budget objective for 1960 be $1,800,000.
11. That this Assembly appoint a special committee to study the place of college professors and Board secretaries within the Church in relation to the Church's concept of the ministry with instructions to report to the next General Assembly.
12. That the firm of Messrs. Henry Barber, Mapp and Mapp, be continued as auditors of the Church accounts.

Re-submitted by direction of last Assembly

13. That the Stewardship and Budget Committee be instructed to prepare and carry out a programme of instruction for Office Bearers (elders and managers) to assure full understanding of the general work of the Church and the means by which increasing financial support can be assured.
14. That the Presbyteries be instructed to co-operate with the Stewardship and Budget Committee in securing presentation of this programme before each congregation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES DUTTON,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

As the name implies, this committee makes and maintains the contacts of our Church with other communions, and is responsible for representation on those inter-church bodies with which we join in function and fellowship. The committee has met twice since last General Assembly.

World Presbyterian Alliance

Some 40 million people holding to the Presbyterian belief will be represented at Sao Paulo, Brazil, from July 27 to August 8 of this year, when the general council of the World Presbyterian Alliance meets. At the same time the Presbyterian Church in Brazil will celebrate its centenary.

Although The Presbyterian Church in Canada is entitled to thirteen delegates, the last General Assembly appointed two only. We are happy that Principal J. Stanley Glen is able to go on behalf of the Church. The other delegate named, Mr. Clarence M. Pitts, is unable to represent us in Brazil at that time.

Your committee appealed for delegates from our Church who are able to travel at their own expense. It is probable that six or more may go, and applications have been carefully considered in order to ensure qualified representation. It is hoped that a missionary and a lay delegate from British Guiana may be sent as well.

Meanwhile as a church we are responsible for a substantial contribution to the travel pool to enable representation at the council meetings from all parts of the world, and your committee strongly urges this General Assembly to meet that financial responsibility.

Reformation Anniversaries

In 1959 and 1960 a number of reformed churches are celebrating the beginnings of the Reformation, and your committee is taking steps to join in the observance wherever possible. The Reformed Church of France celebrated its 400th anniversary in May, and the Rev. Dr. James S. Clarke attended the meetings in Paris. It is hoped that a representative from that church may be brought to Canada this year to share the observance with us.

Your committee is consulting with representatives of the United Church of Canada on proposals for joint celebration of the anniversary of the Scottish Reformation in 1960.

Integration of World Council and International Missionary Council

A scheme for integration of the mission work of these two bodies has been before all denominations concerned, and will be dealt with at the meeting of the World Council of Churches in Ceylon in 1961. The Rev. Dr. E. H. Johnson is the only Canadian on the joint committee of the two bodies. Your committee considered the matter carefully and is recommending that our Church express itself in favour of the principle of integration and that further steps be taken towards this goal.

The Canadian Council of Churches

Eleven Presbyterians represented us at the meeting of the Canadian Council of Churches in Winnipeg, October 27-31, 1958. Professor David W. Hay and Professor Allan Farris made important contributions to the programme. A special report on "The Church and the University" was presented on behalf of a commission of 34 members and consultants which had studied this subject. It advocated the development of a responsible ecumenical approach to the task of the church in Canadian universities, in which all those involved would function as a team. The special committee on this theme reports separately.

Under the sponsorship of the Canadian Council a Churchmen's Seminar on International Affairs was again held in Ottawa in February. The Presbyterian Church was represented by nine men and two women, who profited by the leadership and discussion in this important field.

We are pleased to report that Professor Allan L. Farris, who is chairman of the social relations department of the Canadian Council of Churches, will travel to Thessalonica, Greece, this summer to represent Canada on the World Council of Churches study committee on the church in areas of rapid social change.

North American Meeting in Toronto, 1960

It should be noted that the North American Area of the World Presbyterian Alliance will meet in Toronto in January, 1960. This committee has appointed the Rev. Dr. John McNab and Principal J. Stanley Glen to a committee on arrangements.

Fraternal Relations

Your committee has invited the acting primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, the president of the Baptist federation, and the moderator of the general council of the United Church of Canada, to bring fraternal greetings to the General Assembly. It hopes that the president of the Canadian Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. George Dorey, may be heard when the part of the report relating to the Council is considered.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That Dr. E. H. Johnson be heard in connection with recommendation No. 2.
2. Whereas the mission of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ belongs at the heart of the church's life and should be the central emphasis of the church's purpose and programme, and

Whereas the general board of missions of our Church, the department of overseas missions of the Canadian Council of Churches, and the International Missionary Council at its Ghana meeting, have taken steps to support the integration of the missionary movement with the World Council of Churches,

Therefore, we recommend that this General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada express itself as being in favour in principle of the integration of the International Missionary Council and the World Council of Churches, desiring that further steps be taken towards this goal.

3. That the Rev. Dr. George Dorey, as president of the Canadian Council of Churches, be heard at a stated time.
4. That The Presbyterian Church in Canada make a contribution of $1,280 towards the travel pool of the 18th General Council Meeting of the World Presbyterian Alliance in Brazil, as our share towards the cost of those attending from a greater distance than Canada.
5. That General Assembly set up a committee on international affairs, and that it be related to an existing board or committee of the Church.
6. In view of the 400th anniversary of the Scottish Reformation in 1960, that this Church invite the Church of Scotland to send an official representative to our General Assembly, and that The Presbyterian Church in Canada plan to send an official visitor to the Church of Scotland general assembly and possibly to such other assemblies in the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland that may be held at that time.

H. M. JACKSON,
Convener.

DECOURCY H. RAYNER,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP AND BUDGET COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

We are happy to report substantial progress in the financial support of the Church's work in 1958. Normal Budget Revenue, at $1,479,776, showed an increase of 12.4%. Total Normal Revenue has increased approximately 300% in the past twelve years.

In addition to Normal Budget Revenue, $64,000 was contributed to the Special Appeal for Debt Reduction and $30,000 to the Springhill Disaster Fund.

The Committee would express appreciation of the work of ministers, office-bearers and other members in making this report possible.

SECTOR PROJECTS

One hundred Presbyterian congregations participated in the 1958 Sector Projects, about one-third of them for the first time.

In the past three years 134 Presbyterian congregations have participated in one or more Sector Projects. The following is a summary of the three-year change in their Budget contributions:

THREE YEAR SUMMARY
Group	No. Congre.	Aver- age %	1955 Givings	1958 Givings	Change Givings
New Congregations	8		nil	$ 4,332.41	$ 4,332.41
Budget Increase 100% and more	41	160.1%	$ 38,809.51	100,952.42	62,142.91
Budget Increase 50% to 100%	48	69.8%	130,103.61	220,943.43	90,839.82
Budget Increase under 50%	30	29.2%	91,202.94	117,616.59	26,413.65
Budget contribution decreased	7	14.6%	10,364.74	8,847.32	-1,517.42
TOTALS for Group	134	67.3%	270,480.80	452,692.17	182,211.37
All other congregations	?	39.5%	735,904.00	1,027,084.00	291,180.00

The Total Increase for the three years was $473,391.00.

38.4% — nearly two-fifths — came from the 134 congregations that participated in Sector Projects.

Even more striking — $152,982.00 of this increase —

32.3% — nearly one-third — came from 89 congregations.

We are disappointed in the response of our larger congregations: the impression seems to exist in our denomination that Sector Projects are designed for Church-Extension congregations . . . for smaller urban charges in general. This notion does not exist to the same extent in other communions: in consequence, the reports of the total Sector effort for 1958 indicate that less than 10% of the total increase occurs in Presbyterian congregations.

GENERAL CANVASSING

Orders for materials for the Every Person Canvass indicate that less than 20% of our congregations have a regular, annual, Every Person Canvass — and that the number having an efficient canvass is smaller still.

WEEKLY CHURCH CALENDARS

The most effective and popular promotional effort continues to be the Weekly Church Calendar. Production exceeded 2,000,000 in 1958. These Calendars are purchased by the self-supporting congregations at 80 cents per 100: aid-receiving charges are supplied free-of-charge on assurance that provision is made for their effective use.

CANVASS SUPPLIES

A full line of materials for the Every Person Canvass was offered to congregations in 1958. Sales of this material exceeded $8,000.00.

COMMENT

A few years ago, all promotional material was supplied free-of-charge to all congregations. In 1958, in addition to a generous supply of "free" materials, congregations purchased nearly $15,000 worth of weekly calendars and $8,000 worth of general canvass supplies. This is some indication of the promotional effort carried on in the Church, in addition to that maintained by the allotment from Budget Funds.

PROBLEM

The reluctance of adequate numbers of Presbyterian congregations to enter Sector Projects and to follow the whole programme, creates a problem for the Committee.

The production of materials can be a very expensive business if it be undertaken to meet only a small demand. For the past two or three years we have been able to meet this undertaking because we sold some materials to other denominations. Now these denominations have their own materials.

With the quality of materials improving each year — so that we have to keep pace — it is apparent that, unless more congregations participate in Sector Projects, we shall have to choose between —

- a much higher price for our materials;
- a heavier subsidy for Budget promotion;
- or abandoning production of our own materials and leaving our interested congregations to secure Canvass supplies from other sources.

STAFF

Matters relating to the staff of the Committee will be dealt with in the Report of the Board of Administration.

Respectfully submitted.

A. G. MACKENZIE,
Chairman.

A. NEIL MILLER,
Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the General Assembly, recognizing the need for long-term planning in the work of this Committee, authorize the Stewardship and Budget Committee to develop and initiate a four-year programme for the promotion of Christian stewardship and the financial support of the work of the Church.
2. That this effort be related to the observance of the 400th anniversaries in the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches: 1559-64: 1959-64.
3. That use be made of the promotional materials available from the World Presbyterian Alliance and the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. — and others — adapting content to the special needs of our situation.
4. That this project be titled, "The Years of Jubilee".

BUDGET GIVINGS 1958

[illegible]

5. That the S. & B. Committee be instructed to seek the co-operation of the Committee on History, the Committee of Worship, and of the major Boards of the General Assembly in developing material for this effort.
6. That the long-term Budget Objective be: An Annual Budget Revenue of $2,000,000 by 1964.
7. That the General Assembly renew to Presbyteries and congregations its recommendation of the Sector Projects, the Annual Every Person Canvass, the use of the duplex envelope, the monthly remittance of Budget contributions, and the graded allocations directed toward the achievement of self-allocation in every congregation.
8. That the Stewardship and Budget Committee be authorized to prepare allocations to the Synods on the basis of the Budget Objective for 1960 as authorized by this Assembly; and that the data developed in making the allocations to Synods be supplied to the Presbyteries as "Suggested Allocations" for the congregations.
9. That the General Assembly record its appreciation of the work done by leaders in Sector Projects, and by ministers, office-bearers and members throughout the Church in promoting interest in, and support of, the General Assembly's Budget.

Respectfully submitted.

A. G. MACKENZIE,
Chairman.

A. NEIL MILLER,
Field-secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HISTORY

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee on history held two meetings during the year, in September and April. Reports were received from the Synods of the Maritime Provinces, Toronto and Kingston, Hamilton and London, and British Columbia. We would commend, most heartily, the Synod of the Maritime Provinces for the success in collecting information concerning the history of the Congregations within its bounds. Material collected has been forwarded to the archives.

Two overtures were referred by the General Assembly, 1958, jointly to the Committee on Church Worship and the Committee on History. On the request of the Committee on Church Worship, the Committee on History agreed to implement the prayer of the overtures. Concerning Overture 19, arrangements were made for suitable articles to be published in the Glad Tidings and the Presbyterian Record, and a calendar issued by the Stewardship and Budget Committee, using materials prepared by the Synod of Hamilton and London. Concerning Overture 14, arrangements have been made for suitable articles to be published in the Presbyterian Record, for a Church Calendar to be issued by the Stewardship and Budget Committee, and for a central Service of Commemoration by the General Assembly on the evening of Assembly Sunday, June 7th. It is hoped that special Services by the Congregation will mark this Historic occasion throughout our Church.

Microfilming of Municipal Historical Documents and Church Records is still proceeding. Approximately 2100 ft. of film has already been placed in the Archives. It is expected that work will continue within the bounds of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston. This project, carried on under the auspices of the Ontario Historical Society, is commended to the churches concerned.

A request has been made through the Presbyterian Record for information regarding the services of Presbyterian personnel in either of the World Wars. It is urgent that a record of this notable service be compiled and preserved before the passing years has obliterated it from memory.

The Historical Society "Newsletter" has continued publication under the editorship of Dr. J. A. Johnston, and has met with a most favourable response. A small cash prize has been offered again as recognition for commendable work in compiling for publication, material relating to the History of the Church.

Your Committee would call the attention of the Church to the 400th Anniversary of the Scottish Reformation of 1560. Plans for the observance of this historic Anniversary have been considered by this Committee, and we would suggest that articles relating to this event be published in the Presbyterian Record and other Church Publications, that calendars be made available for the use of church services on Reformation Sunday, or other suitable occasion; that a special service to be held at the meeting of Assembly; and that a small sub-committee be named to make preparations for the observance of this Anniversary.

During the year the following items were added to the collection of Historical material in the archives:

Presbytery Records: Presbytery of Barrie, Minutes, 1875 — 1941.

Congregation Records: Records and Documents, First Presbyterian Church, Louth, Ontario.

Historical brochures and reports of Congregational activities:

Aldershot, Avonton, Beauharnois, Quebec, Blythe, West Flamboro Hamilton; Eastmont, Roxborough Park, St. Columba, South Gate; Hamilton; Harrington; Hensall; Kincardine; Listowel; MacVicar Memorial, Montreal; Meaford Port Perry; Seaforth; South Kinloss; Spencerville; Toronto: Emmanuel, Record of Extension Work, 1950-1957, St. John's; Waterloo; Whitby; Winchester; Robertson, Vancouver.

It will be noted that most of the historical brochures and reports have come from the central Synods and churches.

Other items received include a collection of letters addressed to the Reverend Thomas Henry, Lachute, Quebec, between the years 1844 and 1855; also letters of the Reverend William Jenkins, pioneer minister of Scarborough and Richmond Hill, compiled and copied by his granddaughter, Miss Muriel Jenkins.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the General Assembly express its appreciation of the competence and diligence of the Reverend Neil G. Smith, Church Archivist.
2. That Presbyteries and Congregations be urged to appoint Committees on History, if such do not exist, and instruct them to gather all matters and documents of historical interest for safe keeping, and report them to this Committee for the purposes of record.
3. That the General Assembly again remind congregations of the importance of forwarding items of historical value to the Archives of the Church for safe keeping, and where they may be available for historical research.
4. That preparations be made for the observance of the 400th Anniversary of the Scottish Reformation of 1560, and a small Committee be named to complete and implement arrangements.
5. That information regarding war services be made available to the Committee on History that a record may be compiled.
6. That the General Assembly authorize an allocation of $500.00 be made available to the Committee on History to enable it to continue the present projects and hold meetings during the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

D. MCQUEEN,
Convener.

NEIL G. SMITH,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE RADIO-AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY - 1958

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The latter half of 1958 was the first time that the Church's Audio-Visual development was the primary concern of a Committee directly responsible to the General Assembly. New audio-visual concepts were seeded in the transition year of 1957 and the Radio-Audio Visual Committee emerged as a Committee of the General Assembly. Members of this Committee are nominees of the Boards, Committees and groups designated by the 1958 General Assembly.

The year 1958 began to bring form to the new concepts and, in October, Mr. Kenneth G. Anderson accepted the Convenership with Jim Coulter continuing as Executive Director and Secretary of the Committee.

Monthly Executive meetings explored the audio-visual problems and needs of our Church and recommended broad policies which were adopted by the Committee:

- (1) A comprehensive promotional programme to inform the Church's Boards, Committees, groups and congregations of the value of audio-visuals as aids in the witness of the Church, both inside and outside.
- (2) All phases of the Committee's work to move towards a revenue-producing basis in an effort to make the work and services of the Committee more self-supporting.
- (3) An adequate staff establishment commensurate with the specialized nature of the Committee's responsibilities.
- (4) An adequate budget to implement these policies.

As the Committee worked out basic policies, the new staff of two under the Director, overhauled the Audio-Visual Department and prepared for expansion in its various fields of responsibility — Office, Rental Library, Counselling, and Production services.

OFFICE

A new accounting system was initiated.

RENTAL AND FREE LIBRARY

A new rentals booking system was initiated and the Library overhauled. Rentals' circulation increased more than 15% over 1957. Items circulated were: Films 429; Film-strips 1300; Slides 394 (Sets).

A new Audio-Visual catalogue was produced with the participating Boards and Committees accepting the responsibility for the A-V materials listed under their particular section. A free copy was distributed to all congregations. Extra copies are sold at the rate of about 75 per month. Congregations are kept informed on new materials available through the courtesy of the Presbyterian "Record" and catalogues may be kept up-to-date by these clippings being attached to the appropriate section of the catalogue.

The buying of films directly from the producers at trade discounts was initiated this year and a franchise accepted for sound film-strips.

COUNSELLING

The Committee informs Boards, groups and congregations on new developments and materials available in various fields and explores possibilities in custom production for our own Church's needs.

The Board of Evangelism and Social Action has used these counselling services more than any other Board or group and a considerable part of the Board's current development throughout Canada is geared to audio-visual presentation.

For the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY (Eastern Division) the Committee initiated the idea of a sound film-strip series "ATLANTIC JOURNEY" to show the Church as a whole the beginnings of our rich Presbyterian heritage in the four Atlantic provinces. The Eastern Division initiated a canvass of eastern congregations for historical material and basic lore.

The WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY (Western Division) was also counselled towards the use of National Film Board films.

The Committee counselled the Board of Christian Education members on the A-V Committee to initiate the integration of audio-visual aids at the curricula planning stage and the A-V Director was placed at the disposal of the Board's Editorial Committee for this purpose.

The A-V Director assisted Knox College lecturers in A-V counselling. First year students in Christian Education Methodology and second year Homiletics' students passed through the Committee's combined screening-recording studio under simulated broadcasting studio conditions. The Director assisted Prof. Allan Farris in group criticism of these recorded programmes.

At the request of the Brockville radio station General Manager, Mr. Jack Radford, the Director conducted a successful radio clinic for the Brockville and District Ministerial Association.

Allied to the field of A-V counselling, the Committee fostered a general use of audio-visual aids by Boards and Committees and placed tape-recorders and projectors at the disposal of all.

AUDIO-VISUAL PRODUCTIONS

Where the audio-visual needs of Boards, Committees and groups are not available elsewhere, the A-V Committee is equipped to produce A-V custom material at an estimated two-thirds of commercial costs. The Committee offers counsel from the expression of the need, through the idea required to meet that need, the script, to the finished production. The Committee also initiates ideas where it sees an opportunity for more effective witness through audio-visuals.

Productions For The General Board Of Missions — Armagh

Miss Gwen Davenport, superintendent at Armagh prepared a story for a sound film-strip in co-operation with the Director. This was accepted and authorized for production by the Secretary of Home Missions. Mr. Leonard Crainford, President of the Christian Drama Council, found three competent university actresses and offered to take the responsibility of Director. Photography at ARMAGH was completed before Christmas. Sound awaits completion of university examinations.

Work Among the Indian Canadians

Rev. Walter Donovan agreed to correlate some of his own transparencies with Committee slides and a story. From this, the Director prepared a 70-frame slide set, incorporating an original 1957 script by Miss Laura Pelton. Four slide sets were placed in distribution to meet the constant demand for Missions material.

Formosan Record

Miss Isabel Taylor and Mrs. Donald Wade are working on a Formosan record for W.M.S. meetings.

Formosan Aborigines

Dr. and Mrs. Moore Gordon gave of their time to arrange a slide set on the Formosan aborigines' work.

A-V Productions for the Committee of Presbyterian Men of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action

A RECORD ALBUM of the FIRST NATIONAL CONFERENCE of Presbyterian men was produced by the A-V Committee. It contained three 12" long-playing records. Sixty albums were sold at $8.50 each.

Records for the Deaconess Training School Choir — Personnel

The Director recorded the Westminster House Choir of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School, directed by Henry Rosevear, and produced 100 pressed 12" long-playing records at no direct cost to the A-V Committee.

PRODUCTION OF WEEKLY RECORDED RADIO PROGRAMME "FAITH FOR TODAY"

The Convener of the Sub-Committee on Broadcasting, Rev. Geo. Cunningham, and the Executive Director co-operated with Dr. William Fitch and Knox Church, Toronto, in initiating a 15-minute weekly edition of Dr. Fitch's popular 30-minute weekly radio programme on CFRB Toronto, "FAITH FOR TODAY". A pilot programme was produced and auditioned by the Committee. It is hoped that a programme will be worked out with Dr. Fitch which can be offered for distribution throughout Canada as soon as possible.

"SO YOU'RE GOING ON THE AIR?"

Further bulk sales to New York point to a promotion to broadcasting stations and theological colleges in the U.S.A. similar to the successful Canadian promotion last year.

CONCLUSION

The Committee feels that 1958 saw a good start toward the merging of various audio-visual interests in our Church life. The Committee's "new vigour" and its "active programme" were noted in the recent Price Waterhouse report.

Plans are in progress that will fulfil the present needs and future vision of the Church's audio-visual activity. That this activity is vital to the Church's witness is noted in the inside cover of the Audio-Visual Catalogue:

"Today's audio-visuals are changing communications as significantly as yesterday's printing-press."

(Dr. John Bachman, A-V Director, Union Theological Seminary)

RECOMMENDATIONS

Your Committee respectfully submits the following recommendations:

- (1) Whereas, radio and television broadcasting are included or inferred, in the expression "audio-visual" we recommend that the word "radio" be deleted and the name of the Committee be simply: THE AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.
- (2) Inasmuch as several designs of the "Burning Bush" emblem are being used by various bodies of the Church, the Committee recommends that the General Assembly refer to the Board of Administration the question whether it is advisable for publicity purposes:
 - (a) To adopt one type of Burning Bush design as the official emblem;
 - (b) To adopt several such designs for varied uses; or
 - (c) To have no officially recognized design or designs.

KENNETH G. ANDERSON,
Convener.

J. COULTER,
Executive Director.

THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE LAITY

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Joint Committee desires to report a measure both of difficulty and of encouragement in the work.

The difficulty arises from the tension between a clergy-laity notion of the Church and the biblical teaching on the anatomy of the Church. The Laity is the Body of Christ, having through the grace of God in its members manifold gifts and ministries (Romans 12, 1 Corinthians 12, Ephesians 4). "Thus the Church is not a pail of water or a box of sand, in which each drop or grain is identical with every other, and each exchangeable for any other. It is a body having many members which, in their manifoldness, are indispensable for the whole." (Markus Barth, The Broken Wall, p 204).

Our encouragement arises from the inspiration received in the fellowship of struggling together to discern what God thinks and what He wants concerning His people in the world today.

The Vocabulary of Reformation and Renewal

Last year's report to Assembly offered some results of our struggle to find a right meaning for such words as "Laity", "Ministry", "Theology", etc. The substance of this thinking has been issued in two study pamphlets, The Ministry of the Laity and The Training of the Laity. General Assembly remitted our report to the Presbyteries for study. Replies have come to hand from some Presbyteries, and we are encouraged by the response of these courts. But, it appears that this reference from Assembly must be reiterated before all will begin to wrestle with the above matters. This involves, in the first instance, a struggle to recover biblical accuracy in the meaning of key words in the vocabulary of the Christian faith. We are convinced that this is a necessary and urgent step toward recovering the quality of a truly Reformed Church, which means a Church ever re-forming by the Word and Spirit of her Living Lord.

"The Servant Lord and His Servant People" has been an important item of diet this year in our work. This is the bible study booklet produced by the Presbyterian World Alliance as part of the celebration marking the quadricentenary of great Reformation events in France and Scotland during the years 1559-60. Other books of prime significance published in 1958 include Hendrik Kraemer's A Theology of the Laity and Markus Barth's The Broken Wall. The latter is a commentary on the Epistle to the Ephesians, designed as a basic text book in Evangelism.

Function and Structure of the Joint Committee

One of the Joint Committee's problems has been lack of knowledge as to its continuance on a permanent basis. This has given our work an element of improvisation and uncertainty. The Joint Committee is basically a consultative agency in which all the program-producing boards and teaching faculties can find a means of joint thinking and such program correlation as that thinking may indicate.

The Board of Christian Education has so far accepted budgetary responsibility for our secretariat and for the requisite office facilities. Dr. James Clarke served as Secretary for the Joint Committee from its beginning in 1955 until September 1958. At that time the Board of Christian Education gave him leave of absence from his work as their General Secretary, partly in order to visit significant Lay Centre experiments in Europe, partly in order to take post graduate work in the World Council's Ecumenical Institute at Bossey, Switzerland. Bossey, ever since its inception under Hendrik Kraemer, has been a nerve-centre of study and research in the whole dynamic question of the Church's nature and mission in the world in our time.

Mr. Coles, on the staff of the Board of Christian Education as Secretary of Lay Studies, was made available to the Joint Committee as its secretary. A great deal of his time and effort since September has gone into the task of establishing and directing an experimental Lay Centre.

Last Assembly authorized us to proceed with establishment of a Foundation in order to develop a Lay Centre, or Lay Centres. This action tied in closely with its instruction to the Board of Christian Education concerning re-location of the Presbyterian Training School. The School should be conceived as a special department or aspect of the comprehensive functions of a Lay Centre.

For these reasons, we have agreed to ask that we become a committee of the Board of Christian Education, but with such provisions as will safeguard and if possible strengthen the consultative genius of the Joint Committee. As the departmental programs of the church develop, because of the increase of vigor in our organizations, the need for consultation becomes critical. This applies not only on the level of administration, but on the deeper level of thinking and research. If we fail here, the very increase of vigor in parish programs must breed a concomitant increase in the distraction of Christians, and distortion of the Body of Christ. Wholeness is essential to the Church's true Gospel, and co-ordinated action is essential to her fruitfulness therein.

Study Material

Our sub-committee on Studies and Editorial has drafted a schedule for circulating study materials in the Church. Reference has already been made to the two pamphlets "The Ministry of the Laity" and "The Training of the Laity". Future items scheduled for distribution include a W.C.C. pamphlet "The Ministry of the Laity in the World"; "How to Hear the Gospel" (an address by Joseph Haroutunian, published co-operatively with Knox College); an annotated bibliography, giving news of books and journals in the field of our concern.

The E. W. McNeill Foundation

The General Assembly a year ago gave permission for the establishment of a Lay Centre in the central area, with the following understandings:

- That a corporation will be established to accept full legal and financial responsibility for the purchase, maintenance and operation of the property to the satisfaction of the Trustee Board and The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
- That authorization be given to raise funds by non-budget, special gifts from interested individuals and other sources, with no congregational appeals to be made,
- That The Presbyterian Church in Canada have the opportunity to acquire, either by purchase or otherwise, this property within five years,
- That the programme of the Centre shall be planned and operated by the Joint Committee on the Laity in co-operation with the corporation.

Through the work of Mr. Harold M. Jackson, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C., and his associate, Mr. F. D. Gibson, a charter has been secured establishing "The E. W. McNeill Foundation" as a non-profit corporation. Objects of the Foundation are stated in the following terms:-

- To provide lay centres as facilities for meetings, conferences and training courses for members of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, to which other men and women may be invited, for purposes of study, research and meditation, with a view to furthering the spiritual welfare of those attending and the work of the Christian Church in Canada and throughout the world;
- To co-operate with the Joint Committee on the Laity of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and/or other bodies of the said church, in arranging programmes for the said lay centres;

- To solicit and receive gifts, donations, bequests and devises and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The Board of Directors for the Foundation was constituted from the members of our Finance and Property sub-committee. Hereafter the Directors will be elected by the membership of the Foundation; but it is envisaged that they will continue also to serve as the Finance and Property sub-committee of the Joint Committee on the Laity, thus securing the necessary liaison with the General Assembly.

A special "Lay Centre Fund" was opened last October, to receive donations toward a Lay Centre and to pay its expenses pending the establishment of the Foundation. The assets and liabilities of this Fund have been transferred to the care of the Foundation as of March 31, 1959. Contributions from individual donors up to that date were $2,560.80, and accommodation fees, after deduction of catering expenses, netted $157.00. Of this, $2,099.86 was invested in furniture and fixtures. Operating expenses were $676.23.

Regarding its expenditures from General Assembly's budget funds, the Joint Committee was assigned a 1958 allocation of $500.00 by the Board of Administration. We hope it was as pleasant a surprise to them as it was to us, when the accounts were added up at the end of the church year, to discover that our bills totalled $500.07.

Caledon Hills Lay Centre

Beginning November 1958, the Jepson Farm, Caledon Township, Ontario, was sub-leased by the Joint Committee on a monthly basis. We have provided accommodation for 24 persons. The tenants of the farm, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Petersen, have treated us with the most generous kindness and assistance in every regard. We find it astonishing to look back over the past few months and to see how the way has been opened for us as we went along. More than 200 men, women and youth have shared in the spiritual adventure of weekend conferences, etc. in the first seven months of the enterprise. Youth groups attending have included the Toronto and Kingston Synod Y.P.S. Executive, the Canadian Council of Churches National Committee on Youth Work, Y.P. groups from Willowdale and Alderwood, Teenage groups from Glebe, Knox, St. Giles, Evangel Hall, Toronto, plus Thornhill and Wexford. Kirk sessions and other men's groups have included Rosedale, St. Giles, Coldstream, Toronto; St. Andrew's, Welland; the Men's Councils for East Toronto and West Toronto. These two presbyteries also sponsored a Conference on Evangelism, and the Presbytery of Orangeville came to the Centre for one of its stated meetings. Markham is pioneering with a "Congregational Cross-Section" type of weekend conference. A large New Year's Study Conference and a small Easter Seminar were the major experiments sponsored by the Joint Committee. Here is an excerpt from the conference appraisal which was tape-recorded at the close of the New Year's weekend:-

Re barriers between clergy and other laity, one said it was good to see preachers in their bush shirts. Another claimed that the barrier lies in pulpit terminology, theological jargon... and singled out the word 'existential' as an example; but according to the tape-recorded proceedings, the only use of the word was by a non-cleric! Thinking, and the language of thinking, requires hard work, love, and the urgency of the Holy Spirit, on the part of both clerical Christians and all the rest of the Fellowship. One stated, "This is the only way we can roll up our sleeves and get at it." Another noted that what this kind of Christian conference was trying to do was exactly the same thing as should happen in Church worship, but too often failed to happen... our task was to bring the pulpit and the pew into closer relationship, into effective teaching-learning communication.

One of the members, experienced in Asian Lay Centre experiments, recommended that the clergy seek the role of listener and consultant; seek to develop in the other Christians the sense of initiative in Christian study, and significant participation in conference program.

There was unanimous affirmation that the Committee must be continued; its work, preliminary and tentative as it is, is vital... experiences such as the New Year Conference are necessary and urgent... the group used phrases like "wonderful", "very helpful", etc.

Lay Centre Program

A sub-committee on program was given the task of analyzing needs and proposing avenues of usefulness for the Centre. Its first axiom has to do with the desirability of nurturing together, rather than segregating the several groups in a Congregation. Therefore we encourage cross-section groups from congregations as a first priority in our program. Second, conferences and retreats of organized church groups such as kirk session, board of managers, church school staff, Y.P.S., W.M.S., presbyterial, presbytery, synod or assembly committees, etc. Third, occupational groupings of Christian people, e.g., farmers, physicians, school teachers, office workers, lawyers, clergy. Fourth, encounter groups (i.e. Christians and others). Family camps and other experimental programs are now in process of development for the summer.

In connection with the work of the program sub-committee, we wish to place on record our indebtedness to its convener, Miss Eleanor French, who leaves the National staff of the Y.W.C.A. in Canada this summer returning to the United States for a major appointment with the N.C.C.

We were greatly pleased and helped also by the participation of the Rev. Donald H. Powell in our work during his furlough year; he brought back good news, wise counsel and lively challenge from his work with the Lay Centre movement in Osaka and in other Japanese communities of the Church.

THE DR. EPHRAIM SCOTT BENEVOLENT FUND

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Fund was established in 1932 in the form of a Trust under the Will of the late Dr. Ephraim Scott, Moderator of the 1925 General Assembly, "to be used to relieve cases of distress and misfortune happening to ministers of The Presbyterian Church in Canada or their families through ill-health or misfortune especially in cases where the amounts available from other funds of the said Church are insufficient to provide adequate relief, or are not available."

Dr. Scott placed the Fund under the direction of the Board of Administration who annually appoint a Committee to administer the Fund.

Amounts from this Fund are paid monthly to several beneficiaries. Though not large, these benefits have brought comfort and assistance to these faithful servants of the Church whose circumstances are quite straightened. The Board of Administration has been good enough to set aside a small Authorized Expenditure which has assured the Committee of a support beyond the income derived from the Trust. We are grateful to those ladies and gentlemen who through their gifts in their life time or through their wills have shown their interest in the great work of mercy which is continually being carried forward through the operation of this Fund.

The statement of receipts and expenditures as prepared by the Treasurer's office is appended.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

S. W. VANCE,
Chairman.

Secretary.

THE MORGAN MEMORIAL HOME

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Morgan Memorial Home is situated in Markham, Ontario. It is so named in memory of Mrs. Mary Morgan who devised the building and grounds to The Presbyterian Church in Canada for the use of retired ministers and missionaries. Mrs. Morgan also bequeathed a considerable sum of money so that the premises may be maintained without being a charge on the general funds of the Church.

The house is divided into four apartments, two upstairs and two downstairs. The Committee has endeavoured to keep everything in a good state of repair and to see that the welfare of our tenants is the first consideration. The Home is maintained by rentals and income derived from the Trust.

The statement of receipts and expenditures as prepared by the Treasurer's office is appended.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION FUND AND THE CHURCH AND MANSE FUND

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Church Extension Fund was established to assist congregations and mission fields in the erection of churches, church halls and manses. Help is extended by way of loans secured by mortgages usually interest free for a few years and then at a low rate of interest. The maximum obtainable from this Fund by any one congregation for any one purpose is $5,000. It is kept as a revolving fund; as the money is returned, it goes out to help others. No grants may be made from this Fund. All applications must be approved by the Presbytery of the bounds and by the General Board of Missions before being considered though the Board, if it deem advisable, may take independent action.

KNOX COLLEGE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of Knox College beg leave to submit their one hundred and fifteenth annual report.

We give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings He has conferred upon the work of the College during the past year.

Again we are happy to report that the residence of the College was filled to capacity throughout the session. During the year just closed the College benefited from the readjustment in the rates charged to students in residence, as reported in our statement to the General Assembly last year. Your Board is hopeful that it will not be necessary to increase the rates during the coming session. We would point out however, that operational costs still remain at a high level, and that as a result deficits still continue. All essential repairs have been made during the year, but every year brings its own peculiar problems and your Board endeavours to keep pace with these problems as they arise. During the coming summer extensive work to the outside walls will have to be done, tuck-pointing, caulking and waterproofing. Painting and general repair work inside the building is being kept up and we feel that there is an improvement in the overall condition of the residence, halls and class rooms. But much remains to be done, the lighting in the Chapel and Library is in need of a complete renovation, and the wiring throughout the building will require attention as soon as possible.

We again express our sincere thanks to those who year by year are making gifts to the various funds of the College:

The Board would also express its gratitude for the gift of a piano for use in the College from Mrs. J. D. Hamlyn, of Toronto.

We commend this way of assisting in the work of the College and take this opportunity to encourage participation in this a most worthy and rewarding function.

The Board has approved the recommendation of the Senate of the College in the appointment of a Dean of Students, whose duties will include the oversight of Students in Arts in preparation for theology, recruitment, public relations, and publicity, as well as a limited teaching responsibility in the field of Practical Theology. He will be responsible to a joint committee of the Board and Senate of which the principal will be chairman.

The Board of Knox College commends to the General Assembly the excellent work of the faculty under the able leadership of Principal J. S. Glen. Words cannot adequately express the feeling of appreciation which members of the Board have for the services rendered to the College, and to the Church by our Professors.

The Board of Knox College deeply regrets the passing at the beginning of the year, of Mr. Albert Godbehere, for over fourteen years superintendent of the College. We express to his widow and family our heartfelt sympathy in their sad loss of a husband and father.

The Board would also report that Mrs. H. Bradley was engaged as Matron to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gould. The vacancy caused by the death of Mr. A. Godbehere has been filled by the appointment of Mr. A. Rough.

The Board of Knox College records with deep regret the passing of the Reverend Thomas Eakin, Ph.D., D.D. Dr. Eakin was a man of outstanding ability, his service both to the Presbyterian Church, and to the Colleges was marked with deep degree of devotion, a great churchman, scholar and administrator, he had the unusual distinction of being a graduate in law of Osgoode Hall, Toronto. In recording this recognition of his distinguished services the Board extend their sympathy to Mrs. Eakin and to his relatives and friends.

The Board of Knox College would recommend:

- (1) That the General Assembly grant permission to fill the Chair of Practical Theology.
- (2) That permission be granted for the Chair to be renamed, — "Chair of Homiletics, Evangelism and Church Administration.
- (3) That permission be granted to call for nominations.
- (4) That an additional appropriation be provided to cover the salary of the new Professor when appointed.
- (5) That an interim appropriation be provided for a lecturer in the field of Homiletics, Evangelism and Church Administration, comparable to the amount a professor would receive.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. W. R. ADAIR,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF KNOX COLLEGE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Senate of Knox College begs to submit its 115th Annual Report.

During the academic session of 1958-1959 there were forty-nine students enrolled in the undergraduate department, twenty-one of whom also completed electives towards the B.D. degree. There were eighteen students enrolled in the post-graduate department, seven of whom worked towards the B.D. degree, eleven towards the Th.M. degree.

It will be of interest to report that out of the undergraduate enrolment of forty-nine students, twenty-five are married, of whom ten are in charge of small congregations and five have student assistantships in Toronto. Tribute must be paid to our married students for their commendable academic record, and to the self-sacrificing devotion of their wives, who in a number of instances work to provide them with necessary financial assistance.

The Centenary of the Granting of the Charter was marked by appropriate celebrations September 24-26, in co-operation with the Synod of Toronto and Kingston and the Alumni Society. A special convocation was held in Knox Church, Toronto, Wednesday, September 24th, at which honorary degrees were conferred on the Reverend Kenneth Cousland, M.A., D.D., Principal of Emmanuel College, Toronto; Reverend Joseph Haroutunian, M.A., Ph.D., Professor of Systematic Theology, McCormick Seminary, Chicago; Reverend Daniel Jenkins, M.A., B.D., minister of King's Weigh House Church, London, England, and Reverend James McCord, M.A., D.D., Dean of Austin Presbyterian Seminary, Austin, Texas, and President of the North American Area Presbyterian Alliance. Dr. McCord addressed the Alumni on "The Present Status of Calvin Research". Dr. Haroutunian addressed Convocation on "How to Hear the Gospel" and delivered the two centenary lectures arranged by the Alumni. Dr. Jenkins delivered the Laidlaw Lectures on the intriguing subject "Beyond Religion: The Truth and Error of Religionless Christianity".

A new phase in the history of the library has begun with the establishment of a micro-film section in memory of the Rev. T. E. Black of the graduating class of 1952 and minister of Parkdale Church, Toronto. This has been made possible by a gift of $3,200 from the Parkdale congregation, which has been augmented by a gift from the class of 1952. The significance of this new section will be evident when it is pointed out that it now makes available to our library valuable source material from the best libraries of Europe, which is being microfilmed on a large scale.

In December a distinguished servant of the College rested from his labours in the person of the Reverend Principal Thomas Eakin, M.A., Ph.D., D.D. For nearly twenty years he served as Principal, Professor of Old Testament and Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. Prior to this time he had been Professor in the Department of Oriental Languages in the University of Toronto, and minister of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto and Guelph. Among his qualifications as a scholar, churchman and administrator he had the unusual distinction of being a graduate in law from Osgoode Hall.

Grateful acknowledgment must be made of the work of the sessional lecturers and tutors: The Rev. A. E. Bailey, M.A., who lectured in Christian Education; Mr. Henry Rosevear, F.C.C.O., F.T.C.L., who lectured in Church Music and directed the College Choir; the Rev. Neil Smith, M.A., who taught First Year Homiletics; the Rev. Donald Warne, B.A., who tutored in Hebrew; the Rev. Matthew Bailie, B.D., who tutored in Greek; Dr. E. H. Johnson, who gave a course in Missions; Dr. E. A. Thomson and Dr. Neil Miller, who jointly gave a course in Church Government and Administration.

The names of those who were graduated and given the diploma of the College were: A. M. Beaton, B.A., J. C. Boyne, B.A., W. F. Caloren, B.A., M. L. Garvin, B.A., G. E. Graham, B.A., J. J. Hibbs, B.A., D. G. Kemble, B.A., A. M. McCombie, B.A., D. W. Miles, B.A., W. M. Moncrieff, B.A., G. Rennie, B.A., D. C. Smith, B.A., R. F. Swann, B.A., B. V. Will, B.A., R. Witt, B.A.

A certificate showing that he had completed the courses prescribed for him by the General Assembly was given to J. Posno. A certificate showing he had completed certain special courses arranged for him through the Board of Overseas Missions was given to the Rev. N. Eme, from Nigeria.

The Degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred on the following: J. C. Boyne, B.A., J. J. Hibbs, B.A., Rev. Donald Powell, M.A., D. C. Smith, B.A., B. C. Will, B.A., W. Klempa, M.A. (in absentia).

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL, 1958 - 1959

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, begs to submit the following report for the year 1958-59.

We are grateful to Almighty God for all the indications of His favour during the year just ended.

The year began with an enrolment of twenty-five students in Theology; but we regret that this number was reduced by four during the first term. We especially regret that one student of great promise was a victim, together with his wife, of the tragic fire which occurred in the apartment building in which they were living. In addition to the students mentioned, twenty-six students were enrolled in the B.D. course and, of this number, nine were pursuing these studies intramurally. We are further encouraged by the fact that twenty-eight students in Arts have been certified to the Senate of the College.

We wish to record again our gratitude to Dean Stanley B. Frost of the Faculty of Divinity of McGill University, through whose co-operation our students have been permitted again this year to attend the classes of Principal George B. Caird in New Testament. In order to fulfill the requirements of our Church, Principal Caird has been assisted this year by the Reverend J. Charles Hay, M.A., B.D., who has served the College as Sessional Lecturer in New Testament Exegesis. We are also pleased to report our great satisfaction at the appointment of the Reverend Joseph C. McLelland, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., by your venerable body last year, to the Robert Chair of Philosophy of Religion and Christian Ethics. Dr. McLelland's competence in this field has also been recognized by McGill University and they have appointed him, with the consent of your Board, as Associate Professor of Philosophy of Religion in the Faculty of Divinity of the University.

We record with deep appreciation the gifts which we have received this year which mean so much to the life and work of the College: The MacVicar Prize in Homiletics — fifty dollars; and also for prizes in Homiletics — Mr. Neil C. Polson, fifty dollars; Dr. Fred Sass, fifty dollars; Mr. Raymond T. Nettleship, fifty dollars; and the Dr. J. Logan-Veneta Scholarship, one hundred dollars. For various other purposes — The Order of the Eastern Star, one hundred and fifty dollars; the Young People's Societies of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, one hundred dollars; Miss Mima Arnold, one hundred dollars; Miss Mary I. Campbell Bequest, five hundred dollars; the Reverend J. S. McBride Prize, twenty-five dollars; and the Reverend A. I. Burnett Bursary of twenty-five dollars.

Every effort has been made by your Board to deal with the continuing needs of the College building and, as the Treasurer's Report will indicate, this has been done insofar as has been possible without creating a large deficit, for which we are indebted to the wisdom and competence of those whom you have appointed to the College Board of Management. We have been encouraged by the fact that during the past year, several of our Congregations in this area have made substantial contributions to our Joint Colleges Fund, so that we are still hopeful that in the very near future we may be able to proceed with our much needed renovations.

We wish again to express our appreciation of the work of the Principal and Faculty during the year, in the training and guidance of our students. We have been particularly pleased that Principal Emeritus Dr. F. Scott Mackenzie has been with us this past year as Sessional Lecturer in Systematic Theology.

As intimated in our report to your venerable body last year, we have explored the field thoroughly for a Professor of Systematic Theology and, in the light of nominations which have been submitted by the Presbyteries across the Church, we recommend that the Reverend D. N. MacMillan, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., be appointed to the Chair of Systematic Theology in this College.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN HUGHES,
Chairman.

JOHN R. MCCALLUM,
Hon. Secretary.

THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31st JANUARY 1959

To the Finance Committee,
The Presbyterian College, Montreal,
Montreal, Quebec.

We have examined the books and accounts of The Presbyterian College, Montreal, for the year ended 31st January 1959 and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

We verified the cash on deposit, investment in mortgage loans and securities by certificate from the Montreal Trust Company.

In accordance with a resolution of the Board of Management, the statements have been compiled by treating revenue on a cash received basis and the expenditure on an accrued basis. This basis is consistent with that of the preceding year.

The revenues from mortgages and securities during the year under review have been pro rated according to the capital amounts of the various endowments, including scholarships.

Our examination of the records maintained at the College consisted of a reconciliation of the cash received for students' room rent, board and caution money as shown by the cash book with the total amounts paid to the Montreal Trust Company, the College's fiscal agent.

No provision has been made in the accounts for depreciation on the buildings and equipment.

Subject to the above, in our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and the related statement of income and expenditure are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the College as at 31st January 1959 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the College.

(Signed) RIDDELL, STÉAD, GRAHAM & HUTCHISON, Auditors.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Board begs leave to submit the annual report of its stewardship in the field of Christian Education. We are grateful to God the Holy Spirit for the exercise of spiritual gifts in the work in the local congregations done by teachers, superintendents, leaders and ministers; also for the work done by Presbytery and Synod Conveners; by Regional Secretaries who serve your Board through the co-operation of the Women's Missionary Society, W.D. and the Woman's Missionary Society, E.D.; and by Superintendents of Missions who assist in the field work through the co-operation of the Board of Missions. Without the devotion of all these people, the work done by the Board and its Staff would fail to accomplish its purpose.

ENCOURAGING GROWTH OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

In reporting on Christian Education for this 1958 season, the Board wishes to call the attention of the commissioners and the church at large to the statistical summary of Christian Education work, appended to this report. These figures show some encouraging signs of growth in comparison with the previous year. Church School enrolments are up by 2% and there is a substantial increase in the number of Church School pupils received into Communicant Membership. The 31% increase in the number of classes of instruction for new communicants is most heartening.

The number of Vacation Church Schools is up by 30% with large increased enrolments in the Kindergarten and Intermediate departments. A small increase in the number of C.O.C. and Explorer groups for children is reported. There were 107 new C.G.I.T. groups reported, an increase of 37%. Increases of 67% in the number of Senior-High Fellowships, and 40% in adult groups having a study programme are reported.

There continues to be a strong demand from various parts of the Church for increased field work, more study materials prepared and published by our own church, and more opportunities for leadership training. These demands come because of a new interest in Christian Education, both in the increasing number of new youthful congregations and in older congregations, many of which are erecting new buildings for the educational programme. We rejoice at this growing realization of the place of Christian Education in the life and work of Christ's Church. We lament the fact that limited funds and personnel are making it very difficult for this board to serve the Church's many requests and needs in Christian Education.

DR. CLARKE'S LEAVE OF ABSENCE

After ten years as General Secretary, during which time great strides were made in the work of Christian Education, both in programming and in staff, Dr. J. S. Clarke was given leave of absence by the Board for the purpose of undertaking studies on the Continent. Leaving in September 1958, Dr. and Mrs. Clarke sailed for the Continent where he enrolled in the Institute for Ecumenical Studies at the Chateau de Bossey in Switzerland, a school with a selected and limited enrollment. The Board was happy to receive from the Dean a letter of appreciation of Dr. Clarke as a student, and also as group leader. At the close of the six months study, Dr. Clarke proceeded to visit Lay Centres in Europe for the purpose of observation and study until his return to Canada this month. The Board feels that on his return, Dr. Clarke will be enabled to bring to our Church a wealth of information and insight concerning this very significant lay movement in the churches of Britain and Europe. Since in the mission of the Church, the real work rests on the exercise of a mature Christian discipleship among our Church members, your Board is anxious to develop this area of study. For this purpose Dr. Clarke's contribution gained as a result of this leave of absence, will be of great value.

Dr. Clarke's leave of absence made necessary a temporary rearrangement of the work of the staff. The Board would commend the staff for their willing acceptance of these temporary shifts in duties and for their faithful discharge of their tasks. In particular the Assistant Secretary, Rev. R. P. Carter, who carried executive responsibility for the work, has earned the gratitude of the Board for his fine work during the year.

THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE LAITY

This Board in common with others is represented on this Committee of Assembly. The matter of lay training is a central concern in the work of Christian Education, and this Board has had a vital interest in the significant study and consultative work of the Joint Committee. The convener, Mr. Seaton, made a courtesy report to the Board of Christian Education at its annual meeting which the Board heard with great interest. The Board concurs in the recommendations which the Joint Committee has prepared for presentation to this Assembly.

THE PRESBYTERIAN TRAINING SCHOOL

In supporting these recommendations of The Joint Committee on the Laity, the Board is also carrying forward its own policy with respect to The Presbyterian Training School. This School was established in 1949 at Medicine Hat, Alberta. It was closed on recommendation of this Board to General Assembly in 1958. At that time the Assembly instructed the Board to study the matter of a more suitable location for the School.

The Dean of the School, Rev. S. B. Coles, was retained on the staff of the Board of Christian Education and, in conjunction with Synods, Presbyteries and local congregations, was instructed to study the function of The Presbyterian Training School; to study the purpose of lay training and to carry out experiments in various types of lay training programmes; to confer with the General Assembly Boards and the Women's Missionary Societies (W.D. and E.D.) which are involved in lay training; to canvass the Synods of the Church to secure information about their desires for lay training; and to explore the possibilities for a new location for The Presbyterian Training School.

After a year's study and experimentation with different forms of training in different areas, Mr. Coles reported to the Board. In the light of his report, the Board agreed to concur in the recommendation of the Joint Committee on the Laity that "the Board of Christian Education work consultatively with the Joint Committee on the Laity to establish in one location a Presbyterian Training School and a Lay Centre."

THE CHURCH'S WORK IN UNIVERSITIES

This Committee, a joint one under the Boards of Evangelism and Christian Education, reported to your Board through its Chairman, Rev. Donald Collier. Here is a special area of the Mission of the Church both in evangelism and nurture. Effective ways must be found for our Church to witness in the Universities. This can be done in a limited way by a denominational approach. This method is being tried by some denominations in some Universities. However through the Canadian Council of Churches and our own committee, an ecumenical approach is being suggested. The question, and it is a live one, is "not whether University Students will be Presbyterians, or some other denomination, but whether they will be Christians." Your Board believes that this method of approach should be tried by our Church and concurs in the report of the Committee on the Church's Work in Universities.

A RE-STUDY OF STAFF DUTIES

In its brief to the Committee on Administration and the Management Consultants, which was prepared by the Convener and members of the staff, your Board sought to define its aims and objectives. Christian Education involves evangelism, nurture, and training in discipleship. It is to serve not only children but adults. Such a definition is somewhat removed from the concept which lay behind your Board's former title "The Board of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies." Since that time more aspects of the work have been revealed and developed. In order to do its work more effectively with a limited number of staff persons, the Board feels that a new analysis of each secretary's work must be done, and has appointed a committee to carry out this task. This concern to re-study staff duties is an indication that this Board is seeking continually to re-define its task. The Assembly may also be interested to hear that the members of this Board, at their annual meeting, continue to set aside part of the time of the meeting to study the principles and objectives of various phases of the work of the Board. This year, the Board studied three matters: (1) the brief prepared for the Committee on Administrative and Financial Structure; (2) the relationships of Christian Education to Evangelism; (3) the relationships between Christian Education and the work of the theological colleges. In its study of this third area of interest, the Board heard a stimulating and disturbing address by the Rev. J. Stanley Glen, Principal of Knox College, on "The Subordination of the Teaching Ministry."

CHILDREN'S WORK

A general increase in the number of weekday groups for children (C.O.C. and Explorers) is encouraging, although total enrollment in C.O.C. has apparently remained static. There is need however of more information about these programmes on the part of ministers and leaders in congregations if the programmes are to become more widely beneficial and effective in the Church's ministry to children. The Board hopes that a good deal of publicity, interpretation and training may take place throughout the Church in connection with children's work, and the C.O.C. and Explorer programmes.

The Board continues to have concern for other programmes for boys and girls used in our Church, and has asked both the Children's Work Committee and the Synod Committees of Christian Education to give further study to these other programmes, especially the Cubs and Brownies, and to the means by which they may become more fully and effectively a part of the educational ministry of the Church to children.

EDITORIAL CONCERNS

The Board suggested to the Missionary Education Committee of the General Board of Missions that there was a need to review the place of missionary education in the Church School curriculum. Mrs. H. S. Stewart made preliminary studies of a policy of integrating such education in the curriculum of the Presbyterian Uniform Lessons. Sub-committees of the Editorial Committee and of the Missionary Education Committee prepared a paper setting forth in detail how this integration may be accomplished. The Board approved of this policy statement and that it become effective in the Fall publications this year.

A demand has arisen from different parts of the Church for the Board to produce additional lesson material. For example, the Synods of the Maritimes and Saskatchewan have requested a separate magazine for teachers of junior classes. In this connection, the Curriculum Study Committee of the Board sees the necessity for producing a graded course which is particularly for our junior pupils. This would require a new Junior Teacher and Pupil Work sheets.

Moreover, the Board foresees a situation arising in the near future which may require the Board to produce Primary Department material.

The whole field of curriculum design is now being intensively studied by the major Protestant Churches on this continent. Your Board is sharing in this study.

Already we are made aware that our Church School curriculum can be improved and should be enlarged.

To include the Primary Department in the Presbyterian Uniform Lessons, or to devise and produce graded materials for Junior classes and Primary, will require an additional editor on the staff of the Board.

It will not be many years before the Church must face the responsibility for abandoning the production of its own curriculum material, or to allocate to the Board a larger proportion of budget revenues.

OVERTURE No. 29, 1958

This Overture requested the 1958 General Assembly "to initiate a thorough review of our practices with a view to effecting economies by considering the use of materials already available from the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A." The word "material" is defined in the second reason as "materials used in the work of Christian education throughout our Church."

The study requested in the Overture was carried out by your Board which reports as follows:

In the interests of economy we are now using the following material produced by the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. (the former Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. having joined with the United Presbyterian Church of North America under the above name):

- (a) Literature for the Nursery Home Department (1—2 years of age)
- (b) Graded teacher and pupil materials for the Nursery, Kindergarten and Primary Classes of the Church School (Christian Faith and Life curriculum)
- (c) The reading books for all age groups in the Church School
- (d) Literature for Communicant Classes
- (e) Leadership training materials
- (f) Vacation Church School materials

The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. does not organize its work into weekday programmes as we do and has not produced comparable literature which we might use in these areas, except for mixed groups of senior-high age.

Further economies, therefore, can be effected only by abandoning the production of the recently inaugurated Senior-High Programme and the long established Presbyterian Uniform Lessons. The Board does not favour this policy for these reasons:

1. A concern that our own Church's faith, doctrine and mission be communicated to our youth and adults led our General Assembly some years ago to direct production of a Church School curriculum for these ages. This is the only Church School curriculum that we produce.
2. Our Church should produce its entire curriculum, if possible; it should produce as much of its curriculum as it can. Only if its resources do not allow this should the Church use another curriculum produced by a sister denomination in Canada or in the United States. To cease producing the Presbyterian Uniform Lessons, which would save possibly 8 or 9 thousand dollars, would be at the cost of abandoning our responsibility as a Church to confess our own faith to those being nurtured in our fellowship, and would be a backward step for our Church.

FINANCES

In an awakening and growing Church, aware of its opportunities and responsibilities, the demands are bound to outrun the resources. This is not a sign of defeat, nor a reason for discouragement, but rather a sign of hope and a reason for rejoicing. We should mourn if by failing to do the work committed to it the Church balances its budget.

It was with a great deal of concern that your Board found its authorized expenditures drastically cut by action of the 1958 General Assembly. Commitments had already been made, as well as expenditures. However the Assembly showed its concern and an increased apportionment was given, so that this Board did not have to return to a 1955 level of expenditure and programme as at first appeared likely. But curtailment of field work in leadership training, in Synod projects, and conferences for training lesson writers had to be made.

Because of the greater awareness in local congregations of the importance of Christian education in the life of the Church, and the consequent demands upon the staff as resource personnel, and the Board for curricula and programme, your Board would respectfully draw to the attention of the Church its need for a larger portion of the Church's budget if it is to do its work adequately as the Church demands through congregations, Presbyteries and Synods. In presenting its requests to the Conference of the Spending Boards as presently constituted, this Board does so on the basis of well-defined needs, rather than on the basis of the amount needed merely to carry on what is presently being done.

Your Board was happy with the measure of consultation which was developed this year through action of the 1958 General Assembly in making Chairmen of Boards members of the Board of Administration. In view of the inter-relation of the work of different Boards, and the necessity of sacrifice, in the face of a limited budget, the Church as represented in the Boards must learn to share, not because of the imposition of authority by law, but in love and concern for the whole work of the Church. This can only be done by the conferring together of the brethren in Christ's spirit. This year a real beginning was made in the achieving of such a spirit, both in the Board of Administration and in the Conference of Spending Boards. This Board is most desirous that such forms of conferring and consultation be continued and enlarged.

Your Board feels that, as the method of conference grows in the mind of the Church, there may come a deepened reciprocity between the Boards concerning their needs each year. Thus, if financial limitations make it necessary, some Boards in a given year might forego expansion of their work to permit one Board to overtake some of the work which is demanded of it.

However, your Board is also of the opinion that our people should be challenged continually with the pressing needs of the work of the Church as carried on by the various Boards through the Budget of the General Assembly. We believe that when the needs are adequately understood our people will respond with the needed support.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. BARR,
Convener

R. P. CARTER,
Assistant Secretary

COMMITTEE ON SYNOD CORPORATIONS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The General Assembly of 1957 approved the establishment of Synod Corporations in order the better to finance the work of Church Extension throughout the Church. The same General Assembly approved the appointment of a committee to be known as "The Committee on Synod Corporations of The Presbyterian Church in Canada". It is this Committee which now reports to Assembly.

The Committee have striven to protect the good name of The Presbyterian Church in Canada throughout the country and in this they have enjoyed the cordial cooperation of the various Synods. The declaration of the first report has served as a directive to the Committee's endeavours. "An over-all organization must be set up to provide liason between Synod Corporations and uniformity in their organization and operation and to prevent destructive competition for funds by the various Synod Corporations". It is the expectation of the Committee that the various Synod Corporations will agree to establish a National Syndicate of Investment Dealers headed by a widely known firm which will undertake financing at specific times for all Synod Corporations concerned. The path of wisdom is to do the work together for the good of all and the good of each.

REPORT ON THE SYNODS

Prior to the Assembly of 1957 the Synod of Alberta pioneered in the field of Synod Corporations. Their action was soon followed by the establishment of The Presbyterian Extension Fund (B.C.) Limited. The latter acts as a guaranteeing agency.

Since the General Assembly of 1957 granted permission, the Synods of the Church have dealt with the subject and each one has either established a corporation or is proceeding to that end. The Synod of the Maritime Provinces have incorporated under the name "The Presbyterian Extension Fund (Atlantic) Limited". The Corporation is a guaranteeing agency. The Synod of Montreal and Ottawa presented the problem of a Synod covering parts of two provinces each with its own peculiar procedures. After studying the question under able leadership, the Synod decided that the interests of the work could best be served by the establishment of a Corporation for the Presbytery of Ottawa and one for the Presbytery of Montreal. The Corporation of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston have all procedures in order and are coming to the market with their first issue. The Corporation of the Synod of Hamilton and London are making good progress and will soon be operating. The Synod of Manitoba aware that the last session of the legislature would probably be of short duration wisely postponed seeking incorporation. The Synod of Saskatchewan are making progress toward incorporation.

Thus this instrument which was devised to raise money to assist in Church Extension in a rapidly expanding population is being used or will be used in every Synod of the Church. Your Committee are prepared to advise the various Synods. They are in a position to bring to bear upon the problems the considered judgement of men who are expert in the field of investment. Our hope is that especially in the initial stages the Synods will hold together and follow a pattern which will be for the good of one and all.

As has already been indicated in this report, two of the Presbyteries of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, that is, the Presbytery of Montreal and the Presbytery of Ottawa are situated, the former in the Province of Quebec and the latter almost wholly in the Province of Ontario, thus making it difficult to incorporate as a Synod. A study by Mr. W. F. Macklaier, Q.C. and his associates resulted in the recommendation adopted by the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa to the effect that the two named Presbyteries be granted permission to incorporate. Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C., the General Counsel of the Church, gave it as his opinion that there is no reason why a Presbytery of the strength of either Presbytery should not proceed to incorporate.

Supported by the opinions of these two eminent solicitors and by the resolution of the Synod, the Executive of the Board of Administration meeting in November of 1958 approved the application of the Presbytery of Ottawa to seek incorporation on the understanding that the Presbytery's Corporation will be subject to the supervision of the General Assembly's Committee on Synod Corporations and be treated as if it were a Synod Corporation and that similar permission be granted the Presbytery of Montreal as and when requested and on the same terms.

RECOMMENDATION

That, inasmuch as permission has been granted to the two Presbyteries to incorporate and inasmuch as Mr. W. J. Hyde already represents the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa and will represent the Presbytery of Montreal, the membership of the Committee be increased from 15 to 16 to the end that the Presbytery of Ottawa have representation on the Committee and further that Mr. C. M. Pitts of Ottawa be the representative of the said Presbytery.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Chairman.

COMMITTEE RE RECOMMENDATION 2, CHAIRMEN AND SECRETARIES 1957

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee appointed to consider and report on Recommendation 2—Report of the Committee of Chairmen and Secretaries (see A. & P. G. A. 1957) held two meetings and did considerable work upon the matter between meetings. Representations were invited from the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly. Your Committee considered (a) Methods of procedure whereby the business of the General Assembly might be accelerated and shared in more fully by the commissioners; (b) the form of reports by the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly and the manner of their distribution to the commissioners prior to the General Assembly; (c) review of the standing orders of the General Assembly and (d) the establishment of a clear distinction between the legislative and administrative authority of the General Assembly and its Boards and Committees.

Many suggestions were offered.

1. It was felt that there should be a regulation which would prevent standing boards of Assembly from presenting recommendations which have not already been printed in the stitched Minutes in connection with the report of the board. Exceptional instances will no doubt occur and provision will have to be made for them but in the main it is only fair to the commissioners to have before them the recommendations upon which they are to vote.
2. The problem presented by the unprinted overture was discussed. The feeling of the Committee was that the growing practice of introducing overtures from the courts of the Church which have not been printed in the Stitched Minutes should be discouraged for obvious reasons. Individual commissioners cannot be prevented from introducing overtures on their own behalf provided they are in printed or mimeographed form but the Courts of the Church should have their overtures in the hands of the Clerks of Assembly in time for printing in the Stitched Minutes.
3. The suggestion was made that the reports of the Boards and Committees of the Church should be printed and placed in the hands of the Commissioners one week before the General Assembly opens. Considerable attention was given to this suggestion involving, as per the minutes of the 1957 Assembly, pages 201-383. It was considered to be a very desirable procedure. Conference was held with those whose duty it is to prepare the Stitched Minutes and a representative of the printers. As it takes a considerable time for mail to reach the commissioners of the Maritime Provinces and the Western Provinces, all the work would need to be completed and in the hands of the printers not later than April 15th of each year. A study of past experience showed that it was impossible to have the reports of all the Boards and Committees in the hands of the Clerks of Assembly prior to the end of April and that after that printing and proof reading and binding would have to be effected. It was with considerable regret that the Committee concluded that it would be impossible to have the Stitched Minutes in the hands of the commissioners at a date earlier than that upon which Assembly opens.
4. Your Committee further studied the procedure followed in the last two Assemblies whereby the Chairman of each of the standing boards and committees of the Church was given one-half hour of the first days of the Assembly for the presentation of the principal matters of his report and to move further consideration at a later date. This gave the commissioners all the benefit which would be conferred if the commissioners had the reports in their hands one week before the opening of Assembly. The Committee considered this practice proved itself to be very helpful to the Commissioners and would recommend that it be continued.

5. Your committee has reviewed the other standing orders of Assembly and feel that no revision is necessary
6. Your committee gave a great deal of time and thought to question (d) "The legislative and administrative authority of the General Assembly and its Boards and Committees," but could not reach any general agreement on the subject and have no recommendation to make.
7. Your committee studied the matter of the so-called "open nights of Assembly" — Thursday, Friday and Monday. The Committee were of the opinion that they should not be discontinued but that in some years the privilege should be shared by the General Board of Missions and the Board of Christian Education with other Boards of the Church, and that this should be mutually arranged by the Board with the Assembly's Committee on Business, it being understood that the Committee on Business have the final word on the matter.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Your committee therefore beg to present recommendations as follows:

1. That this Assembly continue the instruction to the Committee on Business of Assembly to arrange the docket of Assembly so that the various boards present their reports in sequence of one-half hour intervals each; and at the end of the half-hour if Assembly should not be prepared to adopt the report there and then, to move its reception and deferment of further consideration to a later sederunt.
2. That this Assembly instruct the Committee on Business of the General Assembly to arrange that ordinarily "open nights" be for the presentation of the reports (including the recommendations) and work of boards as follows: Thursday evening for Overseas Missions; Friday evening for Home Missions; and Monday evening for Christian Education; and that this privilege on occasion be shared by other boards as arranged by the Committee on Business of Assembly.
3. That this Assembly enact that, except by special permission or direction of Assembly, the standing boards of the Church present only the recommendations of their Boards as printed in the Stitched Minutes.
4. That, while in no way preventing individual commissioners from presenting overtures on their own behalf provided the said overtures are in printed or mimeographed form, this Assembly enact that the Courts of the Church be permitted to present only those overtures which are printed in the Stitched Minutes of Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. GREIG,
Convener

ADDITIONAL REPORT 1959

The General Assembly of 1958 received the report of the Special Committee re Recommendation 2, Chairman and Secretaries 1957 and as the hour was late when the report was presented directed (1) that the report be sent down to Presbyteries for study and (2) that the report be placed in the Stitched Minutes as a report to the General Assembly of 1959.

Eight Presbyteries have sent in suggestions. On examining these your Committee find that many of the suggestions are implicit in one or more of the recommendations and that others are impracticable. In one instance however, your Committee feel that amendment should be offered this Assembly and therefore recommend that Recommendation 3 should now read:

"That this Assembly enact that except by special permission or direction of Assembly, the standing boards and committees of the Church present only the recommendations of their Boards or Committees as printed in the Stitched Minutes and if such permission be given the recommendation or recommendations be mimeographed and considered at a later Sederunt."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. R. GREIG,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE PENSION BOARD FOR 1959

To the Venerable the General Assembly

Once again we are permitted to present a report of progress and offer our grateful thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for the continued blessings which have rewarded the service of the past year. In many ways it has been a difficult and anxious time in our Church with many urgent demands on the financial resources of the whole Church to meet the growing needs of the ever extending horizons of service to the Master and His children, both at home and abroad. The extensions of His Kingdom right at our own threshold in the requirements for new places of worship in suburban areas of our cities has brought new financial problems, so that the urgent call on the Board for further advances in the relief of our retired servants and their dependants has had to be content with holding its ground in the sharing of available funds, rather than to institute at this moment a more adequate scale of support than at present provided by our Pension Fund. Despite the assistance from Government "old age pensions" and increased social services made available by government Agencies, the financial position of retired ministers and their widows in our Church still is a matter of great concern of your Board and should be in the heart and conscience of the whole Church. Living costs continue to increase. A minister on retirement loses the provision of the Manse, as does the widow of a minister who dies in active service, and the income for the family subsistence is drastically reduced from the basic stipend level and allowances he formerly received, while the expense of living from the immediately proceeding years is not greatly changed. There is also the added liability arising from uncertain health which comes with advanced age, and its attendant need for additional care by others, and today this generally means added expense. Just as soon as the necessary assets are available, your Board will recommend a further increase in pension allowances, but for the present year this would not be prudent, in view of the Actuary's Report presented last year which estimated that $217,700.00 increase in actuarial assets are presently necessary to increase our pensions by one fifteenth (maximum raise of $50.00 per annum), or increasing benefits for each year of service with a maximum of 40 years from $18.75 to $20.00. If the increase in assets came from the Budget of the Church, it would mean an increased contribution of $21,770.00 per annum or a total of $146,770.00. We trust that money from gifts and bequests and other sources may be made available to the Pension Fund to add to the Budget funds of $125,000. presently being paid and so advance the day of further relief to our recipients of pensions.

Two meetings of the Board have been held since last Assembly, on September 30th, 1958 and April 23rd, 1959, and one meeting of the Executive on January 16th, 1959. In addition to these meetings there have been three meetings with the Spending Boards' Conference in the Church offices, meetings with the Actuary, and the Special Committee of Assembly on the Administrative and Financial Structure of the Church, the Management Consultants, the Board of Administration and the Treasurer's Department. Through correspondence, contact has been maintained with Presbytery Clerks, and Presbytery Pension Committee Conveners and grateful acknowledgement is made of the ready co-operation extended by all concerned. It has been a great pleasure to receive a great many letters of appreciation of the service rendered by the Pension Fund.

We wish to express our great appreciation to all throughout the Church who have been helpful in the work of the Pension Fund and particularly to the other Boards of the Church for their sympathetic co-operation in the problems which have faced all during the past year.

We have just learned with profound regret of the passing of Mr. Harry L. Guy on April 28th, 1959 in Waterloo, Ontario, where he occupied the position of President of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada. He has been for many years a most valuable member of the Pension Board, a valuable consultant on church finances, a true friend and Christian gentleman. He will be greatly missed in the work of our Church. We extend to his widow, and dear ones, our sincerest sympathy.

We regret to report the passing of 17 annuitants (11 ministers and 6 widows) and seven rate paying ministers.

Children on Fund — 12

These figures show that there are 8 more ministers on the Fund than last year (591 against 583). There are 69 ministers on the Constituent Rolls who are not on the Pension Fund, last year there were 72, 85 the year before and 106 the year before that. This shows that the Pension Fund is reaching more closely to its objective of including all the active ministers of the Church, but there is still room for Presbyteries to bring the regulations of the Church and the advantages of the Fund to the attention of the ministers within the bounds who have not yet complied. This will be a service not only to the Church but to the individual ministers concerned and particularly to their dependants. Annuitants at the year end number 75 compared with 81 or a reduction of 6. The number of widow annuitants 146, shows a decrease of 8. The children participating number 12 an increase of 5.

The creation last year of an additional category of "Extra" Ratepayers, has attracted only one participant during the year. As previously explained, a minister can now make systematic provision for a larger pension both for himself and for his widow by purchasing additional annuities through the Pension Fund.

The Group Insurance Plan 111 is now in effect without any increase in the premium paid by the ministers who participate. Our mortality record however has continued to cause us serious concern as the early death of so many of our younger ministers in active service has proved a great drain on the equities in the Group Insurance Plan, but the payments have proved of exceedingly great financial assistance to the widows who have been the beneficiaries. Some study of the causes of this abnormal trend in our mortality rate among our ministers as compared with other denominations might be useful.

The Pension Assistance Fund administered by a Committee of the Board has continued to prove of great value in emergencies to maintain the equities of certain ministers on the Fund, tiding over difficult times. $548.07 was expended during the past twelve months and with special contributions received during the period the total now available is $2,141.33.

An analysis of our Financial Statement for 1958 indicates an increase in the total assets of the Fund of $242,841.19. The increase last year was $208,104.46. The total received from Gifts and Legacies amounted to $5,293.05, an increase of $1,578.10. The amount received from Ministers Rates was $34,437.92, an increase of $3040.35. There were refunds to Ministers leaving the service of the Church during the year of $171.24. While last year showed a loss on the adjustment on the sale or purchase of investments of $5,746.95, this year shows a profit of $5,844.53.

The total interest on investments, bank interest and interest on arrears of ministers Rates amounts to $89,621.48, an increase of $9,947.84 over last year. This reflects the excellent work done by Mr. Bamber M. Hannigan and the special investment committee in investing and reinvesting the funds available, and to them all we convey our most sincere appreciation.

The amount received from the Budget of the Church was $125,000. the same as last year, which has been received in regular instalments. Boards of congregational Rates including Cognate Work totalled $113,589.18 an increase of $13,955.52

The total amount of Annuities paid was $127,414.16 a decrease of $849.62. This is caused by the decrease in the number of annuitants, but in the next ten years will greatly increase as shown by the Actuary in his valuation last year, as the ministers eligible for retirement take advantage of their privilege. The expenses of operating the Fund were $3,359.27, an increase of $259.79. We would again point out that the cost of operating the Fund is kept at this low figure only through the ready and efficient co-operation in the Church Offices.

Reviewing the congregational Rates for the year to January 31st, 1959, there were the following cancellations: due to exemptions of assessments being made on mortgage payments $5,271.87; errors in reporting congregational receipts, $390.64; on Capital Expenditures received by Congregations for building new Church or Manse facilities, $3,213.33; for cancelling arrears of rates for special reason, approved by the Presbyteries concerned, $5,992.14; for preaching points closed $92.04, a total of $14,960.02 and a decrease of $4,912.17. The Congregational Rates in arrears on January 31st, 1959 were $51,092.88 an increase of $3,952.30 over last year. The amount of Ministers' Rates in arrears was $44,028.78 a decrease of 448.01 from last year which is a happy reversal in the previous trend.

The Chairman again represented our Pension Board at the Church Pension Conference in New York, December 4th and 5th, 1958, where reports were received from the 25 participating Funds covering 153,558 ministers, representing 42,190,193 members, with 49,941 beneficiaries paying total benefits of $39,555,928. having total funds of $715,462,851. and total receipts for the year of $98,569,243. It will be seen that our Pension Fund is but a small part of this Conference but consideration of the many problems of organization, operation, and investment policy, with the expert examination of current trends is most enlightening. Your Board recommends our continued attendance at this Conference. We note with great regret the death of the Conference statistician, Mr. William M. Huggins, who passed away only a few days after the close of the Conference. He and his father, Dr. George A. Huggins, Actuary, who began this Conference 44 years ago, have been of wonderful assistance in the conduct and direction of this work.

What appears to be a hardship to certain of our ministers on the Pension Fund who have joined the service of our Church late in life, has been the fact that if their years of service were less than thirteen years their pension on retirement after reaching the age 70, would be less than their widows would receive in the event of their husbands' death. The regulations now require every minister joining the service of our Church to connect with the Pension Fund while it is optional with him as to whether he takes advantage of the Group Insurance Plan. Many other Church Pension Plans have met this difficulty by a special regulation providing that the pension of ministers under these conditions shall not be less than their widows would receive in the event of their death, and your Board recommends the addition of a similar provision in our regulations.

Your Chairman was welcomed by the Principals of both our Theological colleges and invited to address the Graduating Classes and their theological students on the benefits of the Pension Fund and the Group Insurance Plan. The meeting at Knox College was held March 2nd and at Presbyterian College, Montreal, on March 24th, 1959. The Board is grateful for this co-operation extended by our Colleges.

We have had correspondence with the Board of Pensions of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. regarding the status of the Comity agreement which we had with the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and have been assured that their coming General Assembly will fully implement our Comity Agreement with the new Church.

In order to assure continuity in the work, the Board has appointed Mr. J. Elwyn Smart of Toronto to act as Vice-Chairman of the Board to insure continuity of direction in case of the absence of the Chairman.

Rev. E. A. Thomson, D.D., Clerk of the Assembly and Secretary of the Board of Administration and Trustee Board has continued to act throughout the year as Secretary of the Pension Board and has rendered invaluable service, in the careful preparation of the Minutes of our meetings and by being always available for counsel and advice. To him and to Mr. H. S. Reid of the Treasurer's Office and to Mr. W. S. Walton, Q.C., the Treasurer, and the Staffs of their respective offices, we owe a great debt of gratitude. We also are pleased to record the continued faithful and efficient services of Miss G. S. Welsh, who acts as Clerk-Secretary in the Church Office for our Board, and cares for an immense amount of detailed correspondence and care of the records of the Board throughout the year.

We are also indebted to Mr. James Dutton, Chairman of the Board of Administration and to that Board for the co-operation extended and the appreciation shown towards the particular problems of making adequate provision throughout the years for the care of our ministers and their dependents.

Our report would not be complete without a special reference and expression of appreciation and warmest regards for the services of our Actuary, Professor N. E. Sheppard, M.A., F.I.A. of the Faculty of Toronto University, for all his kindness, courtesy, and professional assistance in the technical problems of our Board, and for his personal interest in the welfare of our Pension Fund and its beneficiaries. Always available and willing to help without any tangible reward, Professor Sheppard has earned the lasting gratitude of our ministers and their dependants and of your Board.

THE TRUSTEE BOARD

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Trustee Board of The Presbyterian Church in Canada is incorporated by Dominion of Canada Statute and by ancillary legislation in every province of Canada.

Necessary discharges, postponements, leases, title deeds and releases have been executed under the seal of the Board for the benefit of the various departments of the Church's work.

The Treasurer's report shows that $78,389.04 were received from bequests in cash, mortgages, bonds and other securities. A list of these bequests and the purpose for which each was designated will be found elsewhere within the Acts and Proceedings.

The Board would express their thanks to three business men — Dr. E. C. Gill, Mr. H. L. Guy and Mr. A. McBain — who from their broad experience and because of their deep interest in the Church have advised the Board on matters of investment. These gentlemen have never hesitated to come to the Board's assistance and indeed have often inconvenienced themselves a great deal to give necessary information.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of Incorporation the Board submit the list of securities which have been received or purchased during the year and the list of securities which have matured or have been sold during the year and held by the Board in behalf of the several funds indicated.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

B. M. HANNIGAN,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

OVERTURES

No. 1 — SYNOD OF MONTREAL AND OTTAWA

Re APPOINTMENT OF ASSISTANT SECRETARIES*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, our Church is going through a period of increasing expansion, and
 WHEREAS, this expansion will necessitate further increases in the staffs of our various boards, and

WHEREAS, the practice has become established of Boards and Committees making their own appointments of assistant secretaries and other full-time workers, and

WHEREAS, this policy, if continued, will result in a large staff placed in responsible positions in the Church without reference to the General Assembly,

THEREFORE, we the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa humbly overture the General Assembly to take such action as will regularize the procedures in such staff appointments in order that the General Assembly may be able to consider the need for additional staff and to make the necessary appointments.

Extracted from the records of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa.

Montreal, Que.,
 January 2, 1959.

WILLIAM MCLEAN,
Synod Clerk.

No. 2 — PRESBYTERY OF HALIFAX AND LUNENBURG

Re THE APPOINTMENT OF SECRETARIES AND THEIR ASSISTANTS*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, there seems to be a growing tendency on the part of the Boards of our Church to appoint assistants to the full-time secretaries, and,

WHEREAS, these appointees are usually ministers in the active Parish work, or capable of being there, with a corresponding aggravation of the existing shortage of Ministers, and

WHEREAS, the Church at large is thus presented with the accomplished fact without an opportunity being given to voice an opinion in any way, and

WHEREAS, we as a Presbytery are disturbed by this tendency which we regard as both short-sighted and harmful, as it leads to the danger of Coadjutors to the Secretariate, and feel that this tendency on the part of our Boards to promote such a movement come to an immediate end,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to amend the Book of Forms to the end that no additional assistants to the Secretaries be appointed without the approval of the General Assembly, and that the Boards be required to recommend such assistants to the General Assembly before asking them to undertake such work even on a temporary basis.

No. 3 — PRESBYTERY OF MONTREAL

Re SALARIES OF MINISTERS IN AID-RECEIVING CHARGES*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, it is in the vital interest of aid-receiving Churches that they have a continuing Ministry, and

WHEREAS, many of our Ministers feel an obligation to remain with their aid-receiving congregations after the first year's appointment even though it might be to their financial interests to accept Calls to other Churches, and

WHEREAS, it is impossible for these aid-receiving congregations to give their Ministers more than the minimum salaries so long as they are receiving aid,

THEREFORE, we, the Presbytery of Montreal, do humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to make some provision whereby aid-receiving congregations may be permitted to increase the salary of their ministers by a sum not greater than one-half of the amount by which they reduce their annual grant from the Board of Missions, up to a maximum of $3,900, which sum has been recognized by the General Assembly as that which should be the minimum salary in our Church.

It was moved by the Rev. J. D. Wilkie, seconded by the Rev. Chas. C. Cochran, and agreed, that the Overture be approved and forwarded to the General Assembly.

No. 4 — SYNOD OF SASKATCHEWAN

Re PRESBYTERIAN RESIDENCE, SASKATOON*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Residence, Saskatoon, has been operated by the Board of Administration through its Western Residence Committee, and

WHEREAS, there has not been an adequate system of maintaining the strength of the Committee, and

WHEREAS, it is highly desirable that there should be uniformity in the operation of institutions of the Church similar in purpose, such as Presbyterian Residence, Saskatoon, and St. Andrew's Hall, Vancouver, and

WHEREAS, a re-organization of the committee to revitalize the work is highly desirable,

THEREFORE, the Synod of Saskatchewan humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to set up a Board of Administration of the Presbyterian Residence, Saskatoon, a Third of which shall retire annually, to be appointed or reappointed by the GENERAL ASSEMBLY from nominations made by Presbyteries.

Re SERVICES OF DEDICATIONTo the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, at present there is no enactment of our Church as to place of Dedication Services in connection with individual Congregations, and

WHEREAS, confusion thereby is caused at times both as to the necessity of the attendance of Presbytery at Dedication Services and of its part in these services,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of East Toronto humbly petitions the Venerable the General Assembly to enact as follows:

- a. The Dedication of Church Buildings is the work of the Presbytery in whose bounds the building is erected. Consultation should be held by Presbytery with the minister and session of the congregation whose building is being dedicated,
- b. All other dedications, such as 'Laying of Corner Stones'; etc., are the work of the minister and/or session of congregation concerned, where these exist; otherwise Presbytery shall make due arrangements,
- c. Or that General Assembly do as in its wisdom it deems best.

No. 6 — PRESBYTERY OF LONDON

Re PERMANENT OFFICES IN THE CHURCHTo the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, it has become the practice of some Boards and Committees of the General Assembly to create permanent offices within the Board or Committee, and to engage men for these offices without reference to the General Assembly, and

WHEREAS, in making such appointments, certain Boards and Committees have acted contrary to the instruction of the General Assembly of 1930, namely, "It was agreed to instruct all Boards of the Church before making appointments of salaried representatives, that they advise Presbyteries of the proposed appointments, with the request that Presbyteries send in the names of any they deem specially qualified for the work". (Minutes of 1930 General Assembly, p. 29), and

WHEREAS, there is a growing unrest within the church that these appointments may lead to an unbalanced office staff in relation to the size of our church, and an unnecessary financial burden, and

WHEREAS, this practice has resulted in the General Assembly of 1958 and at least one Board being at apparent cross purposes with respect to matters of economy,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of London humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to request its Boards and Committees to refrain from (1) creating any office within the Board or Committee without first securing the approval of the General Assembly, and (2) from making appointments to any such office without first notifying the Presbyteries of their intention and requesting them to send in nominations of any whom they deem specially qualified for the work; or to take action toward this end as the General Assembly in its wisdom may deem best.

No. 7 — PRESBYTERY OF PARIS

Re USE OF DUPLEX ENVELOPESTo the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the usual method for receiving the offerings of our people is by Duplex envelope, and

WHEREAS, it is generally considered that money received in one-half of the Duplex envelope is for the support of the local church, and the money received in the other half is for the support of the work prescribed in the Budget of the General Assembly, and

WHEREAS, there are other needs than may ordinarily be considered under these two divisions — such as Presbytery Extension Funds, Synod Camp Funds, Synod Incorporations, Session Charity Funds, etc., and

WHEREAS, there is doubt in the mind of some as to whether a congregation or session may use money received in envelopes marked for 'The General Assembly's Budget' for these special needs, and

WHEREAS, it is not always thought desirable to have special, or additional appeals for these needs,

THEREFORE, we, the Presbytery of Paris, humbly overture the Venerable, the General Assembly, to ask the Stewardship and Budget committee of the General Assembly to study this matter, and report, so that the General Assembly may give helpful direction to the congregations of our Church, or do otherwise for this matter what, to its wisdom, may seem best.

Re INSTRUCTION OF THEOLOGICAL STUDENTSTo the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the address of the General Assembly's convener of the Committee on the Place of Women in the Church points to a real problem in the failure of church courts to function adequately, and

WHEREAS, this Presbytery does not consider the proposed remedy of setting up enlarged councils to be effective, and

WHEREAS, this Presbytery does consider the proper remedy to lie in a better appreciation by the members of church courts of their duties and responsibilities,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of London humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to take steps to provide more adequate instruction for theological students in its colleges in the principles and practices of government by courts in the Church.

Re FULL-TIME SECRETARY, BOARD OF EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL ACTION*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, nominations were requested from the Presbyteries for the post of Full-time Secretary to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, and

WHEREAS, the request was accompanied by a letter setting forth the anticipated duties of this office such as: In charge of the office, represent the Board at meetings, run Elders Schools, conduct Preaching Missions, produce literature and other things, and

WHEREAS, the accompanying letter does not mention Social Action, does not suggest that such a Nominee know about Slum Clearance, the Drink Traffic, Crime, Rehabilitation, Unemployment, Industrial Relations and Prison Reform, nor does express the wish that he be able to guide the thinking of the Church on these important matters,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to clarify the terms of appointment, to require and examine the nature and extent of the studies taken by such a Nominee, with particular attention being paid to his studies in Sociology, Psychology, and Economics and the whole field of Social Action generally, or to do whatever in its wisdom it deems best.

WHEREAS, Presbyteries and others interested might render assistance if information were available,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Westminster humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to direct the Church Extension and the Church and Manse Boards to include annually in their reports a full statement of all loans outstanding, showing opposite the name of the debtor the date of the loan, balance of principal unpaid and the status of interest if any owing.

Re NEW HEADQUARTERS BUILDING*To the Venerable the General Assembly:*

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1958 authorized the investigation of the cost of a new church headquarters' building, and

WHEREAS, it is not essential that such a building be located in Toronto, and

WHEREAS, there are communities within a radius of one hundred miles of Toronto where the cost of land and building is less than in the metropolitan area of Toronto, and

WHEREAS, the present building within the expanding campus of the University of Toronto has an historic tie with Knox College, and

WHEREAS, the present building is needed by Knox College to supply living quarters for married students,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Lindsay humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to instruct those responsible to report the estimated cost of locating the new church headquarters' building outside the metropolitan area of Toronto; and that steps be taken to secure the present building to serve as living quarters for married students attending Knox College.

Re CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Mr. Henderson asked permission to address the court on the subject of "capital punishment" which permission was granted by the Moderator. After the address Mr. Henderson presented the following overture:

WHEREAS, a report on capital punishment was presented to the General Assembly in 1954, and

WHEREAS, a copy of this report was forwarded to the parliamentary committee then studying the question, and

WHEREAS, the general tenor of the report was to the effect that The Presbyterian Church in Canada supported the continuance of capital punishment, and

WHEREAS, more than thirty countries now have abolished capital punishment, not only as a means of punishing offenders but also as a deterrent to possible future offenders, and

WHEREAS, the record of history has shown that the abolishing of capital punishment has resulted in a decrease in such crimes as murder, (a notable example, the case of Norway where the incidence of murder has decreased from .122 per 100,000 population in 1905 to .03 in the late 1940's), and

WHEREAS, there have been many cases where innocent persons, by error, have been found guilty and have been sentenced to death (rep'd by Mr. J. V. McCree (22/1/36) in England, three persons — a mother and two sons, were hanged for the murder of a man who two years later turned up and who all the while was unaware of the crime),

THEREFORE, the Reverend the Presbytery of Brandon humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada to take such action as will commit The Presbyterian Church in Canada as being in favour of the abolition of capital punishment as a means of deterring criminals or punishing evil doers. Or that they do otherwise for this object what to their wisdom may seem best.

The above was moved by Henderson and Crump and defeated as the will of the court. On motion of Henderson and McDonald it was agreed to send the overture to the General Assembly simpliciter.

Re INDUCTION, ETC.To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, there is doubt in the courts of the Church as to the doctrine and procedure proper to sundry Church appointments, and

WHEREAS, Presbyteries, Ministers and others concerned find in consequence that their authority, rights, and standing are jeopardized and their duties rendered unclear, and

WHEREAS, the expression Minister of Word and Sacraments is not to be narrowly interpreted as implying that only those are ministers who are engaged in preaching and the dispensing of the sacraments but, on the contrary, the expression includes as Ministers of Christ in the fullest sense those also whose labours are an exercise of other functions of the Holy Ministry, and

WHEREAS, the Church makes provision for the public exercise of other gifts of ministry with which Christ endows His members,

THEREFORE, it is humbly overtured by the Presbytery of East Toronto that the General Assembly shall enact as follows, or do otherwise as in their wisdom they deem best:

1. Induction shall be the act of a Court of the Church by which a minister is given an appointment ad vitam aut culpam; elders shall be admitted to office in a particular congregation.
2. When the General Assembly appoints a minister to an executive position with a Board or Committee, he shall be regarded as exercising a ministry under divine call through the General Assembly and his status shall be that of an executive of the General Assembly as well as of the board or committee; but forasmuch as his appointment is not ad vitam aut culpam he shall be installed by the appropriate Presbytery, which shall require him to repeat the vows of ordination and to sign the formula; and shall inscribe his name on the constituent roll of Presbytery.
3. A Board or Committee that has power, by virtue of the nature of the charge laid on it by the General Assembly, to engage additional ministerial staff shall be regarded, when it does so, as issuing a call to the minister concerned in the name of the Assembly; but his responsibility shall be to the board or committee according to the terms of his appointment when made. He shall be installed by the appropriate Presbytery, which shall require him to repeat the vows of ordination and to sign the formula; but in order that Presbyteries may retain due control in their own spheres, it shall not inscribe his name on its constituent Roll save after petition to the General Assembly made and granted.
4. Ministers or Licentiates contemplating a ministry overseas in parts where there is an organized Presbytery shall take up their work only after a due process of Call and Settlement, arranged as may be necessary by the mediation of the General Board of Missions.
5. Ministers or Licentiates contemplating a ministry overseas in parts where there is no organized Presbytery shall be formally called by the General Board of Missions in the exercise of its accredited power to issue calls as the agent of the General Assembly. Such ministers and licentiates (the latter being at the same time, first ordained) shall be COMMISSIONED to their new work by the appropriate Presbytery.
6. Principals of theological colleges, not being appointed ad vitam aut culpam shall be INSTALLED in office by the appropriate Presbytery.
7. The Principal of the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training School, not being an ordained person nor appointed ad vitam aut culpam, shall be INAUGURATED into office by the Presbytery concerned.
8. The term DESIGNATION shall be restricted to the admission by a Presbytery to the Order of Deaconesses of women qualified for admission according to the Regulations of the General Assembly.
9. The ceremony by which ordained missionaries, catechists, and unordained missionaries are appointed in a particular place shall be denominated RECOGNITION.
10. Other Church workers (for example, Sunday School Teachers, officers of the W.M.S.; W.A.; or Y.P.S.) shall, as may be deemed desirable by the Kirk Session or other organization, be DEDICATED by the minister of the Congregation.

THEREFOR, we, the Presbytery of Westminster, humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to extend an invitation to the Reformed Church in America to enter into conversations with The Presbyterian Church in Canada with a view to:

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, under the will of the late John Penman, his home in Paris, Ontario, and the income from a capital sum of one hundred thousand dollars was left to The Presbyterian Church in Canada, in order to establish a home for retired ministers and their wives, and for retired missionaries and their wives, the said home to be administered by the Board of Administration, and

WHEREAS, this home has now been operated under the terms of the will for many years, and

WHEREAS, the present occupants of the home now number only four persons, and

WHEREAS, the home requires a permanent staff of three persons and a part time staff of two additional persons, with what would appear to be a disproportionate drain on the Budget Funds of the Church in view of the results achieved,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Paris humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to set up a committee to investigate how the facilities of this home may be extended under the provisions of the Provincial Acts, giving assistance to those who would establish homes for the aged, or to recommend that the home be closed forthwith, making what provision may be possible for the care of the present guests in the home, or to do what in its wisdom the Assembly may see fit.

Re APPOINTMENTS OF SECRETARIES, ASSISTANTS ET AL

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1958 regretfully referred the appointment of a Secretary for the Board of Evangelism and Social Action to the 1959 Assembly, and

WHEREAS, we view with concern the appointment or proposed appointment of assistants or field secretaries by Boards and Committees of the General Assembly since the decision of the 1958 Assembly, and

WHEREAS, we believe that only the General Assembly is competent to make the decision as to how best to divide the resources of men and money available for the needs of the several Boards and Committees of the General Assembly,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Saugeen humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to direct that all Boards and Committees of the General Assembly must have approval of Assembly, after due notice to the presbyteries, for the creation of new position under any title such as associate, assistant, or field secretary, and that the usual procedure of calling for nominations from the presbyteries be followed when such new position is approved, or that they do otherwise for this object what to their wisdom may seem best.

Re OPEN MEETINGS AT ASSEMBLIES

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, it is the custom at General Assemblies to hold during the early days of the Assembly what are known as "popular" or "general" meetings to present the work of such Boards as General Missions and Christian Education, and

WHEREAS, such meetings occupy two or even three evenings of the early part of the General Assembly, and

WHEREAS, by this practice business of the General Assembly is delayed, and

WHEREAS, relatively few people of the Church are able to attend these meetings because of the locality in which they are held, and

WHEREAS, for this reason such meetings actually appear to accomplish very little either for the General Assembly or for the Church at large, and tend rather to prolong the meeting of the Assembly,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Montreal of The Presbyterian Church in Canada humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly that it shall take action to abolish such meetings in order that business may be carried on at the evening sederunts of the Court, that such "popular" meetings be relegated to the Sunday afternoon and/or evening services of the Assembly, or that the General Assembly shall take such other action to accomplish this end as it, in its wisdom, may devise.

Re BASIC STIPEND

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1956 agreed that ministers of our non-English-speaking congregations should be paid annual increments according to their years of experience up to a maximum of $4,000 plus manse, and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1957 agreed "That for high potential extension charges the Board (of Missions) be empowered upon request of Presbytery to appoint an experienced minister at a salary parallel with the schedules for workers in non-Anglo-Saxon work, taking into account years of experience in the Church", and

WHEREAS, both the General Assembly of 1957 and the General Assembly of 1958 set the basic stipend at $2,800 plus manse plus $200 travel allowance, a total of only $3,000 plus manse for ministers serving in a one-point pastoral charge, together with a car allowance of $100 to $300 for ministers serving in charges consisting of more than one congregation, without making any provision for annual increments for these ministers, and

WHEREAS, we are now confronted with a situation in which some ministers in aid-receiving charges are receiving $4,000 plus manse while the great majority in such charges are receiving only the basic stipend, and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1958 agreed that $3,000 plus manse was very inadequate when it affirmed "that the proper stipend under present economic conditions should be $3,900 plus manse, plus travel, etc.", and

WHEREAS, 120 ministers on the basic stipend could be given an increase of $300 each for approximately the same amount as it would cost to begin seven high potential extension charges at $5,000 each for the first year,

THEREFORE, we the Presbytery of Hamilton humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to take action as follows:

- (1) To increase the basic stipend by at least $300 per annum not later than February 1, 1960, even if it becomes necessary for the General Board of Missions to restrict the number of new congregations which can be begun next year,
- (2) To instruct the General Board of Missions to recommend to the General Assembly each year an increase in the basic stipend until a stipend of $3,900 plus manse plus an adequate travel allowance is reached,
- (3) To direct Presbyteries to see that self-sustaining charges within their bounds pay their ministers at least the new basic stipend from the time it becomes effective and that they do so without the aid of mission funds wherever possible,
- (4) To direct Presbyteries to join weak congregations not paying an adequate stipend in one pastoral charge wherever they could be served by one minister.

RESOLVED (Bryan, Di Gangi): That this Overture be forwarded to the General Assembly with the approval of Presbytery and that the Commissioners to the General Assembly be instructed to support this Overture most strongly.

WHEREAS, the total enrollment for Knox College and Presbyterian College, Montreal, was seventy-five students in 1957, and

WHEREAS, to train these students a staff of nine full-time professors and nine additional lecturers was engaged at salaries totaling over $65,000, and

WHEREAS, the contribution from the Budget Funds of the General Assembly to the colleges was $108,000, and in spite of this and revenue from endowments, there was a deficit in 1957 of over $40,000, requiring constant encroachment upon capital funds, and

WHEREAS, both colleges are faced with the problem of rising operational costs and heavy capital expenditures upon their buildings, and

WHEREAS, the two colleges are being used to do a task that one college and one staff could do more effectively and more efficiently, and

WHEREAS, during war years both colleges functioned satisfactorily as one,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Guelph humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to take steps to remedy this situation apart from sentiment and provincial feelings, and to effect by the amalgamation of the two Theological Colleges an increase in the efficiency in the training of our ministers and in the economy of our operations.

Synod of Toronto and Kingston

REV. DONALD H. CURRIE

The Rev. Donald H. Currie entered into rest on Monday, September 1, 1958 at the age of 94 years. Born in Nottawasaga Township on January 8, 1864, he was the eldest son of John Currie, whose family settled in the township in 1832, and Flora McAllister, daughter of the pioneer McAllister family of Nottawasaga.

For a number of years Mr. Currie operated a store in Nottawa village and in Rosemount, but on hearing the call to the ministry, he entered the University of Toronto, and then Knox College, whence he was graduated with his testamur in theology.

He was one of four clergymen brothers; the others being the Rev. A. M. Currie, the Rev. John W. Currie, and the Rev. Lachlan Currie. His wife was the former Jessie McBride who passed away in June, 1956.

Throughout his entire ministry Mr. Currie was a faithful pastor. He showed great initiative and zeal in the work of the church, and he was much beloved by the congregations he served. His pastorates included Hillsdale, Omemee, Wiarton, Ancaster, Cardinal, Victoria Harbour, Smithville and Port Dover. He retired from the pastoral charge of Port Dover in 1943 to live in Stayner.

The funeral service for Mr. Currie was held in Jubilee Presbyterian Church, Stayner on Wednesday, September 3, and was conducted by the Rev. J. Herbison of Huntsville, Moderator of the Presbytery of Barrie, assisted by the Rev. J. L. Burgess of Alliston, who read the Scripture Lesson, and the Rev. James Ferguson of Barrie, who gave the address. Interment was in Stayner Union Cemetery.

The Presbytery of Barrie extends to the family its deepest sympathies.

REV. MacFARLANE BELL DAVIDSON, M.A., D.D.

It is with a deep sense of loss that the Presbytery of Guelph records the passing of one of its beloved and valued ministers, the Reverend M. B. Davidson, M.A., D.D. For over 44 years his name was on the roll of this presbytery, 38 years of which he served as the minister of Central Presbyterian Church, Galt.

He was loved as a pastor for the gentler virtues of kindness and sympathetic concern for others, and for a generosity of spirit and substance that often was only known to God and those he helped. As a preacher he was considered among the outstanding of his generation in our Presbyterian Church. He was endowed with a keen literary taste, and from his wide reading he conducted a thoughtful and evangelical pulpit ministry.

Besides attending to the claims of his own congregation, Dr. Davidson also gave of his talented services for some years in the preparation of "The Teacher" for the Board of Christian Education. He contributed monthly under the caption "Linking the Lesson to Life". He was also for some years a devoted member of the General Assembly's Committee on Home Religion, and served on the Senate of Knox College. For many years he was chairman of the Board of Sunday School and Young People's Societies (now known as the Board of Christian Education).

Dr. Davidson was born in Ottawa and received his college education at McGill University where he graduated Master of Arts in the Department of English and History. His theological training was received at the Presbyterian College, Montreal, which institution later conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

After graduation in 1907, he was appointed as assistant minister in Westminster Presbyterian Church, Toronto, where he served until 1914. Following this he was called in August, 1914, to Central Church, Galt, where he ministered until 1952 at which time the General Assembly granted his retirement. Since then his health had been failing but he continued to inspire all who knew him with his keen interest in the work of our Church, and in his unflagging zeal for Christ.

After many months of hospitalization, Dr. Davidson passed to his reward on January 12, 1959. He is survived by his wife, the former Constance Alexander; one son, William, of Connecticut, U.S.A.; one daughter, Margaret, wife of the Reverend Scarth Macdonnell, minister of Riverside Presbyterian Church, Windsor, Ontario. There are also three grandchildren.

The funeral for Dr. Davidson was held in the church where he ministered for so many years, Central, Galt. Rev. A. H. Vair, Moderator of Guelph Presbytery, conducted the service and the memorial message was delivered by Dr. Gowdy, the successor of Dr. Davidson. The Rev. C. D. Farris, Dr. F. G. Stewart, and Rev. R. A. Jackson also took part in the service. Interment was in Galt.

REV. THOMAS EAKIN, M.A., Ph.D., D.D.

On December 11, 1958, the death occurred in Toronto of the Reverend Dr. Thomas Eakin, lecturer, professor, pastor, college principal and lawyer. He was in his eighty-eighth year.

Thomas Eakin was born at Magherafelt, Northern Ireland, and received his early education there. In 1891 he came to Canada, largely under the influence of his cousin, the late Reverend Dr. William Patterson of Cooke's Church, Toronto.

He received the Master of Arts degree from the University of Toronto in 1897, and was licensed and ordained by the Presbytery of Toronto in the same year.

His first charge was St. Andrew's, Guelph, Ontario, where he served for six years. In 1905 he became lecturer in Semitic Languages at University College, Toronto, having obtained a Ph.D. in that subject. He became full professor in 1908, but resigned in 1912 to enter Osgoode Hall. He was called to the bar of Ontario in 1915.

In the same year, Dr. Eakin was called to the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, where he had already for nine years been serving as assistant to the minister. In St. Andrew's and beyond he received widespread recognition as a master preacher. In 1918 he was given leave of absence to teach overseas with the Khaki University under the Y.M.C.A., and in 1920 resigned from St. Andrew's to become Professor of Homiletics in Presbyterian College, Montreal, filling the chair for five years. From 1912 to 1925 he was a member of the Senate of the University of Toronto. In 1920 Queen's University conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity honoris causa.

As a founder of the Presbyterian Association, Dr. Eakin championed the Presbyterian cause in the critical years before church union and was a member of the parliamentary royal commission to settle the division of property between 1925 and 1927.

In 1926, Dr. Eakin was appointed Principal of Knox College, a position which he held in 1944, when he retired. While serving as Principal, he was also Pro-essor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis and lecturer in Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. In this triple capacity his great gifts and his devotion to the Church earned the esteem and gratitude of scores of students who are now in the ministry.

The funeral service in St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, on December 13, 1958, was conducted by the minister, the Reverend J. C. P. Stirling. The interment took place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto. Dr. Eakin is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Elizabeth Eakin (formerly Kinnear).

REV. C. H. BOWMAN, B.A.

The Reverend C. H. Bowman, B.A., died at Niagara Falls, Ontario, on February 23, 1959. Born in Niagara Falls in 1885, he attended public and secondary schools there. He worked for a few years in that city, and then, deciding to enter the ministry, he proceeded to the University of Toronto and Knox College, graduating in 1916. He took charge of the mission station of Crowland and Port Robinson upon graduation, and when this field was raised to the status of an ordained charge in 1918, Mr. Bowman was called, ordained and inducted. Early in 1925 he removed to the charge of Maple and St. Paul's Vaughan in the Presbytery of Toronto. He remained as minister there for the next 33 years, retiring from the active ministry in September, 1958. Upon his retirement, a very large number of people from the congregation and Presbytery gathered to show their esteem and affection for his faithful service. He and Mrs. Bowman retired to live in Niagara Falls, not far from his birthplace.

Mr. Bowman was a selfless and devoted pastor and preacher. He won the confidence and friendship of all who knew him, and gave to them the benefit of an understanding heart and a truly consecrated Christian spirit.

The funeral service was held in Niagara Falls. It was conducted by the Rev. W. J. McKeown of Drummond Hill Presbyterian Church and the sermon was preached by Dr. E. A. Thomson, Clerk of the General Assembly.

REV. H. N. KONKLE

Rev. H. N. Konkle was born in Campden, Ontario, in 1876, and died in Toronto on November 4, 1958. He graduated from Knox College, Toronto, in 1903. He then went on Mission work at Utterson, Port Sydney and Allensville. After that he accepted Pastorates at Port Credit, Dixie and Sonya.

In 1913 he was appointed as Evangelist in the Presbyterian Church and remained in that work until 1918. He then went to Guelph as a supply to Chalmers Church while the minister was overseas, and remained there for one year. Following that he accepted a call to Knox Church, Palmerston, and remained there for three years.

In 1922 he was appointed as General Secretary to the Mission to Lepers for Canada where he remained until he retired in 1947.

Mr. Konkle was married twice and is survived by his second wife.

He was a member of the Kirk Session in Cookes Church, Toronto, for many years.

REV. JOHN HERBISON

The Presbytery of Barrie records with deep regret the sudden death of its much beloved fellow Presbyter, the Reverend John Herbison, on January 24, 1959.

Mr. Herbison was born on June 5, 1898 in Northern Ireland. At an early age he moved with his parents to Clydebank, Scotland, where he received his early education. Mr. Herbison served his apprenticeship as a patternmaker in the famous Brown's Shipyard and from these years he gained that intimate understanding of the common man that enabled him to appreciate their problems. His relations with people were always relaxed and natural and he was much beloved by all wherever he went. Mr. Herbison came to Canada in 1922 and for some years worked in many jobs. Hearing the call of God to the Christian Ministry, he entered upon his studies in the University of British Columbia in Vancouver and upon his graduation entered upon the study of theology at Presbyterian College, Montreal from which he graduated in 1942. He served as Ordained Missionary at Ross, Ontario and then entered the armed services wherein he served as Chaplain to the Prisoner of War Camp at Medicine Hat, Alberta. After the war he served in Strathcona Presbyterian Church, Edmonton; St. Paul's, Englehart, and St. Andrew's, Streetsville. While in the latter charge he suffered a mild heart attack and shortly thereafter took up new duties in St. Andrew's, Huntsville, where he died three years later.

Although only the Minister of St. Andrew's, Huntsville for a short time, he became the friend of all. His fellow Presbyters will miss his jovial spirit and his devotion to the task of the Church which constantly upheld them. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to his widow, the former Gwladwen Williams and to the congregation of St. Andrew's, Huntsville in the great loss they have sustained.

Synod of Hamilton and London

REV. JOHN LLOYD HUGHES

His many friends, East and West, were saddened by the death of Rev. John Lloyd Hughes, in his 75th year, at St. Catharines General Hospital on July 4, 1958.

Mr. Hughes was born in Llanberis, Wales, in 1883, and emigrated to Canada in 1907. He studied for the Presbyterian ministry in Vancouver and Edmonton, graduating in 1918. Following his ordination he worked on Mission fields in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Quebec. In May 1942 he was inducted into St. Andrew's, Niagara-on-the-Lake, where he enjoyed a very active ministry until his retirement in August, 1956. His quiet dignity, steadfastness of purpose and fondness for good music won him many friends.

During his 38 years of active ministry he served with distinction on many Boards of the General Assembly. He was honoured as Moderator of the Synods of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Montreal and Ottawa, and Hamilton and London. He served as Moderator of the Presbyteries of Red Deer, Prince Albert, Saskatoon, Quebec and Niagara. His manse was known for its kindly and gracious hospitality.

With many members of the Presbytery of Niagara present, Rev. William Skelly, Moderator, conducted the funeral service in Niagara-on-the-Lake, assisted by Rev. J. C. Graham and Rev. J. W. Williams. He was laid to rest beside his former wife, Annie P. Jones, who predeceased him in 1956. He is survived by two sons, three daughters and six grandchildren.

REV. ROBERT G. McKAY, M.A., D.D.

Dr. Robert G. McKay passed away in the Belleville General Hospital on Tuesday, December 2, 1958, after a brief illness. He was born in Kintore, Ontario, on June 16, 1877. Following his primary and secondary education at East Nissouri and Ingersoll Collegiate he entered University College, University of Toronto, in 1898. He graduated with the B.A. degree in 1903 and obtained his M.A. in 1904.

A very significant year in the life of Dr. McKay was 1896-7, during which year he taught school at the Indian Residential School at Round Lake, Saskatchewan. He never lost the missionary zeal and emphasis all through his ministry. This ministry was felt in the following places where he served with distinction—Toronto, Cromarty, Alvinston, Dresden, Walkerton, Prince Albert, Woodbridge and Tiverton. From 1937-42 he also served as Protestant Chaplain in the Federal Penitentiary at Prince Albert.

His many talents in the ministry were always freely given in the courts of our church and on the Boards of the General Assembly. Knox College, Toronto, from which he graduated in 1905, honoured this distinguished alumnus by conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1949. One word which, above all others, would characterize his ministry, is kindness. For it was his kindness all along the way that showed forth the Lord Whom he sought to serve.

The funeral service, conducted by the Presbytery of Paris, was held in St. Paul's Church, Ingersoll, with interment at Staffa cemetery.

He was indeed a faithful servant of the Lord.

REV. ROBERT KEY PECK

The Reverend Robert Key Peck passed away in Edmonton, December 26, 1958, in his 86th year. He had been in failing health for some time. A lay preacher of the Methodist Church in his native England at 16, he undertook in 1892, at the appointment of his church, mission work in Newfoundland and Labrador. He studied in Sackville College and after moving to Manitoba was ordained in Winnipeg in 1898, where he was married on the arrival of Mildred Hallet from England. In 1904 he was posted to the extensive mission charge of Claresholm in Alberta. In 1910 Mr. Peck resigned and went farming, subsequently being active in the U.F.A. movement, before becoming business manager and editor of the Claresholm Review-Advertiser. He was also for a short time associate secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform Movement. He suffered the loss of his wife in 1913 and was married again in 1919 to Jane Ann Mills in Calgary.

In 1921, Mr. Peck moved to Edmonton, being employed as secretary and organizer of several mining and industrial concerns.

He was received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1933, and served in Rocky Mountain House until his retirement to Edmonton in May 1945. Among his other activities, Mr. Peck toured England in 1926-27 as Alberta representative of the Canadian National Colonization organization.

Mr. Peck is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. H. R. Rice and Mrs. W. S. Murray, Edmonton; Mrs. T. W. Campbell in Calgary; and one son, R. W. Hallett Peck, also of Calgary; as well as a brother and sister in England, and a sister in the U.S.A.

A gracious and kindly man, he is widely mourned by his brethren in the ministry and by many business associates, as well as by a host of friends. His funeral was conducted by his minister of recent years, Reverend Ian MacSween of Strathcona Presbyterian Church, Edmonton, assisted by Dr. E. J. White, Moderator of the Presbytery of Edmonton. He was laid to rest in Evergreen Gardens, Edmonton, December 30, 1958.

REV. T. E. ROULSTON, B.A.

Thomas Edwin Roulston passed away suddenly, February 18th, 1959, at the age of fifty-three years, while visiting a home in Carstairs, Alberta.

Mr. Roulston was born in Toronto and completed his high school education there. Later, he attended the University of Toronto and Knox College from which he graduated in the spring of 1936. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Toronto and ordained by the Presbytery of Edmonton in Strathcona Church (old) in April of the same year. The Home Mission Board had appointed him to Vegreville where he served until he moved to British Columbia. He was minister of St. Aidan's, New Westminster, from 1937 to 1941 at which time he was called to Cranbrook where he spent the next ten years. He was Clerk of Presbytery, Moderator of the Synod of British Columbia, and Moderator of the Presbytery of Kootenay.

He left Cranbrook in 1951 and came to Sylvan Lake, Alberta. Beside his regular parish work, he took an active part in the Camp Kannawin's Program. He was called to Olds-Carstairs in 1955. During his ministry, the old church was destroyed by fire and under his leadership, plans were laid for the erection of a new church which was dedicated last year.

The funeral service was conducted by the Presbytery of Red Deer in St. Andrew's, Olds, on February 18th. He is survived by his widow, Helen, her family in New Westminster, and his family in Toronto.

Synod of British Columbia

REV. JAMES M. YOUNG, B.A.

The Presbytery of Kootenay records with deep regret the death of the Rev. James M. Young on August 29, 1958.

Mr. Young was born in Glasgow, Scotland, coming to the United States and Canada as a lad of 17. Here, he worked for a few years before returning to High School studies which he completed in Coburg, Ontario. He then went to the University of Toronto and Knox College graduating in 1938. He was ordained to the ministry in May 1938 at Lakefield, Ontario, and was married in August of that year to Miss Ethel Pittuck, a school teacher at Coburg. Later he became minister of Parkview Presbyterian Church, Saskatoon, where he served from 1941 to 1953. From there he came to First Church, Trail, B.C., where he laboured faithfully until his passing.

The Presbytery has suffered a deep loss, for the Rev. James M. Young was a faithful servant of his Master, a faithful pastor over his flock and a sincere Presbyter. His ministry was characterized by the many visits made to the sick, the shut in and the stranger within the gate. This genuine interest in others he maintained right to the end. Perhaps his greatest ministry was in the last few weeks in hospital where his cheerfulness, courage, calmness and evident trust in God was a mighty witness to His Lord.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter Jean and a son David. The funeral service was held from First Church, Trail on September 2nd and was conducted by the Presbytery. The Rev. R. M. Pollock of Creston conducted the service, the Rev. G. A. Johnston of Cranbrook gave the address and the scriptures were read by the Rev. J. Taylor of Knox United Church representing the Ministerial Association.

The Presbytery of Kootenay extends its deep sympathy to Rev. James Young's family and relatives.

REV. MALCOLM NORMAN McDONALD

The Rev. Malcolm Norman McDonald died at Big Bras d'Or, Nova Scotia, on the 30th day of August, 1958, in the home to which he had recently retired at the close of his ministry, and among his friends of the Boulardarie congregation where he had spent more than ten years of his active ministry.

Though not at the time of his death a member of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, Mr. McDonald began his ministry within the bounds of this Synod, having been ordained at Bristol, Quebec, and inducted into that pastoral charge in 1926. He also held pastorates within the bounds of the Synod at Avonmore, Kemptville and Kinburn. All who were associated with him in the Synod during those years remember him with deep regard and affection as a loyal friend and a faithful and devoted servant of Christ.

The Synod would place on record its sorrow and sense of loss in the death of Mr. McDonald, and extend its warmest sympathy to his widow and the members of his family.

SYNOD OF TORONTO AND KINGSTON

REV. JOHN WILKES MACDONALD, B.A.

Rev. John Wilkes MacDonald, B.A., Clerk of the Presbytery of Kingston, and for the past 12 years minister of the congregations of St. John's, Pittsburgh, and Sandhill, was suddenly called from us on November 19th, 1958.

Mr. MacDonald was a native of Nova Scotia, and received his early education there. After graduating from McGill University, he enrolled in theology at Presbyterian College, and received the testamur of that College in 1930, being Class Valedictorian and winner of the gold medal for highest proficiency in the study of Church History. Mr. MacDonald was ordained at St. Paul's Church, East River, Nova Scotia, and was minister there, and at Bass River in the Province of New Brunswick until 1936. Moving to Ontario in that year, he served in two charges within the bounds of the Presbytery of Kingston—at Foxboro etc. 1936-46, and at Pittsburgh and Sandhill 1946 until his death.

The Presbytery of Kingston wishes to place on record its deep sense of loss. Mr. MacDonald had, for a period of 22 years, given faithful service within the bounds of the Presbytery, and had, during most of that time, assumed the duties of Presbytery Clerk. He was a conscientious minister, a faithful Presbyter and a loyal friend, one who was ever zealous for the welfare and advancement of the Church he loved so dearly.

Mr. MacDonald is survived by his wife, the former Edith Victoria Love, a daughter Helen, and a son Bruce.

REV. ERIC LARSEN

The Reverend Eric Larsen was born in Denmark on May 19th, 1901. Among the many influences of his youth directing him towards the Christian Ministry were those of the Y.M.C.A. He came to Canada in 1924. He was graduated from the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and from Knox College, Toronto. As a Minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada he served at Creston, B.C., Trail, B.C., Madoc and Tweed, Ont., Markham and Stouffville, Ont., South Mountain and Mountain Station, Ont., and Drayton, Moorefield and Rothsay, Ont. At the time of his death, February 25th, 1959, he was under call to Cannington in the Presbytery of Lindsay. Mr. Larsen is survived in Canada by his widow, formerly Margaret Elizabeth Hansen, and one son, James, and in Denmark by his mother, one sister and one brother.

The funeral service in Knox Church, Drayton, on Saturday, February 28th, was under the direction of the Presbytery of Saugeen. The Minister of the Drayton United Church and the Minister of the Drayton Christian Reformed Church assisted in the service. There was a large attendance of neighbouring clergy of all churches, elders, and members of the three congregations of the pastoral charge. Pallbearers were three of his elders and three ministers of the Presbytery. He was laid to rest in the Drayton cemetery.

Mr. Larsen was a minister of many interests. He was a philatelist, a hobbyist in wood and in painting in oils. His proficiency in German and Greek was outstanding. He had a particular love for the work of the British and Foreign Bible Society, to which, by request of his widow, in memoriam gifts have been sent. Mr. Larsen will be remembered as a preacher of expository sermons and for his quiet, devout life. He was a faithful presbyter, and his great qualities of heart were always evident to the fathers and brethren. Most worthy of note was the awareness of God that was implicitly seen in his conduct of public worship, and his sympathy and understanding wherever he laboured. The many who knew him will cherish the memory they have of a good man, filled with the Holy Ghost.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE FINANCIAL STRUCTURE AND ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA

Your Committee, consisting of Rev. C. Ritchie Bell, Convener, Rev. George Douglas, Rev. R. G. MacMillan, Ministers, and Messrs. Douglas Berlis, E. C. Gill, H. L. Guy, H. M. Jackson and W. Stanford Reid, Elders, was appointed by the 84th General Assembly in response to a number of overtures from various Presbyteries throughout Canada.

The following are its terms of reference:

"That this General Assembly appoint a Special Committee of Assembly with the authority to:

(a) Engage a firm of business consultants to examine the financial structure and the administrative organization and administrative procedures of the Assembly Boards and Committees; that all books, records, and necessary information be made available to the said firm which will report to this Special Committee as soon as practicable.

(b) Receive and consider this report and have power for an interim period until the next Assembly to implement within the constitution of the Church such portions of the report as they see fit, after consultation with the Board of Administration and the other spending boards, either individually or collectively.

(c) Make such other investigations of the boards and committees of the Church and the Treasurer's office as they deem advisable for the welfare of the Church.

(d) Report and make recommendations to the next General Assembly." The Committee has met nine times during the past year and begs to report as follows:

At the Committee's first meeting on June 26, 1958, it discussed the method of obtaining the most effective analysis of the financial structure and administrative organization and procedures of the Church in order to obtain maximum efficiency of operation. It was felt by the Committee that business principles should be applied in order to eliminate waste, inefficiency and lack of oversight. The employment of a firm of business consultants was considered. Representatives of three such firms were interviewed and were asked to make submissions to the Committee before its next meeting in September.

The second meeting of the Committee was held on September 18, 1958, at which it was decided to employ Messrs. Price Waterhouse & Co., one of the firms which had made submissions, to carry out a survey and to report to the Committee on the organization, financial structure, administrative procedures and accounting practices of the Church and the respective Boards and Committees of the General Assembly. At the same time invitations were issued to all spending boards of the Church to submit briefs to the Committee relating to their respective branches of the Church's activity.

Eight briefs were received from the following:

1. The Board of Administration
2. The Board of Christian Education
3. The Board of Evangelism and Social Action

4. Knox College
5. The Board of Missionary and Deaconess Training School
6. The General Board of Missions
7. The Presbyterian College, Montreal
8. Presbyterian Record Committee

A brief was also received from the Reverend Stuart Coles. These briefs were all studied by the Committee and copies were delivered to the representative of Price Waterhouse & Co. Concurrently, with the assistance of Dr. E. A. Thomson, Mr. Harry S. Reid and other members of the staff in the Church Offices, Price Waterhouse & Co. did a complete survey of the office procedures, financial structure and accounting practices.

Price Waterhouse & Co. submitted to the meeting of the Committee on November 27, 1958, a lengthy interim report which included certain recommendations for immediate changes in accounting and office procedures. In accordance with the terms of reference from the General Assembly, the Committee took immediate steps to have the last-mentioned recommendations implemented insofar as possible. While all suggestions could not be carried into effect immediately, many improvements have been introduced which should have the result of saving considerable expense and time on the part of the staff at the Church Offices.

Subsequently, after numerous discussions with the representatives of Price Waterhouse & Co., a final report was received from them, a copy of which is attached to this report as Schedule A. Copies of the report were forwarded to the following boards and committees, all of whom subsequently sent representatives to meet with the Committee in order to express their views and suggestions:

1. The Board of Administration
2. The Board of Christian Education
3. The Board of Evangelism and Social Action
4. Knox College
5. Board of the Missionary and Deaconess Training School
6. The General Board of Missions
7. Presbyterian College, Montreal
8. The Audio Visual Aids Committee
9. The Presbyterian Record Committee
10. The Committee on Presbyterian Men

The suggestions received from the boards and committees were carefully considered by the Committee in connection with the preparation of this present report. Following these consultations, the Joint Clerks of the General Assembly and Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C., were invited to attend before the Committee and to give their views concerning the legal steps required to be taken in order to implement the report of Price Waterhouse & Co.

The Committee is convinced that a state of emergency exists which fully justifies the passage by the 85th General Assembly of an Interim Act to become effective forthwith and to be sent down under The Barrier Act to the Presbyteries so that they may report their judgment upon it to the next General Assembly. The following matters have influenced the Committee in its decision in this regard:

- (a) The number of overtures presented to the 84th General Assembly and to previous General Assemblies from various Presbyteries throughout Canada which evidenced growing concern with the financial and administrative organization and procedures;
- (b) The defects in organization and procedures revealed by the Price Waterhouse report;
- (c) The clear evidence that the permanent staff at Church Office is unable

- under the present organization and procedures to carry out with full efficiency the duties delegated to it by the General Assembly;
- (d) Lack of suitable organizational procedures for the co-ordination and preparation of a balanced budget and a lack of adequate controls to ensure that budget allocations are being adhered to from month to month;
- (e) The inability under the present administrative organization to distinguish in a businesslike manner between capital funds, reserves and budget allocations and the lack of understanding of the true meaning of such terms;
- (f) The apparent confusion relating to certain reserves and the necessity of establishing clearly defined policies as to:
 - (i) Whether reserves should be strengthened in order to establish security, or
 - (ii) Whether reserves should be built up to assure capital from which income may be used to meet current expenses, or
 - (iii) Whether reserves should be expended in order to meet urgent needs and opportunities, or
 - (iv) Whether reserves should be expended to assure continuity of effort, or
 - (v) Whether reserves should be expended to restore excess expenditures from previous years.
- (g) The recurring deficits from year to year and the disturbing increase in the bank indebtedness during recent years with attendant interest expense which might be partially offset by re-allocation and combination of certain accounts.

The Committee feels that in view of the overtures to and actions of the last General Assembly, and as a result of its consultation with a large and representative group of members of boards and committees, that the Church expects immediate and decisive action. During the past year, the Committee has implemented, to the best of its ability, such portions of the Price Waterhouse report as it was empowered to put into effect under its terms of reference. Reference is made to pages 4, 5, and 6 of Schedule A for details of the action which has been taken. The Committee feels, moreover, that immediate action should be taken by the General Assembly to implement the report further while it is still current.

The Interim Act recommended by this Committee and attached as Schedule B to this report implements what the Committee feels is one of the most essential portions of the Price Waterhouse report, namely, the creation of a Church Council together with a substantial revision of the powers and responsibilities of the Board of Administration in view of the creation of such Church Council. It is felt that further study is required with regard to the formation of and duties and responsibilities of the departments recommended in the Price Waterhouse report and the correlation of the duties and responsibilities of the existing boards and committees of the Church with such departments. There are other matters referred to in the report, such as the question of the biennial Assembly, the references to the Moderator and the Advisory Council of Former Moderators, which the Committee has not yet considered and is therefore not sponsoring at the present time. If the Committee's recommendations are approved and it is continued for the coming year, the Committee expects in consultation with the Church Council to complete such studies as are required in order to make a full report to the General Assembly of 1960 with a view to completing the implementation of such portions of the Price Waterhouse report as may be recommended. The Committee feels that the basic plan set forth in the report of Price Waterhouse & Co. is sufficiently flexible to grow with the anticipated growth of the Church.

The Committee has noted with pleasure certain improvements in the accounting procedures at the Church Office together with the financial results of the year ended on January 31, 1959, as reflected in the financial statements being presented to the 85th General Assembly.

The Committee regrets that owing to the pressure of matters which were of immediate concern, it was unable to confer with representatives of the Women's Missionary Society. If the Committee is continued it will propose such conferences.

In submitting this report the Committee wishes to record its sincere appreciation of the work of the representatives of Price Waterhouse & Co. whose diligence and sympathetic understanding of the needs of the Church have made the work of the Committee far easier than it might otherwise have been. The Committee also wishes to express its thanks to Dr. E. A. Thomson and the other members of the staff in the Church Offices for the co-operation and help extended by them during the past year.

The Committee records with regret the death of one of its members, Mr. H. L. Guy.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee would therefore recommend

1. That the General Assembly approve the actions of the Committee in implementing such portions of the report of Price Waterhouse & Co. as the Committee found necessary and as are detailed in the said report.
2. That the General Assembly continue the Committee for a further year and add to its members a replacement for the late Mr. Guy and two additional members, one a Minister and one a layman.
3. That the provisions of Schedule B hereto go down under The Barrier Act and be now an Interim Act of Assembly.
4. That the Reverend Dr. E. A. Thomson be appointed Secretary of the Church Council.
5. That the Committee be given power and authorized to appoint for one year a full-time special assistant to the Committee to assist the Committee in formulating a complete plan of implementation of the Price Waterhouse report, to assist in the co-ordination of the accounts and budgets of the respective boards and committees of the Church, and to assist in the liaison between the Committee and the Church Council, thereby decreasing the time which would otherwise require to be spent by the business consultants in preparing detailed surveys required for full implementation of the said report.
6. That the Committee have power to continue to utilize the services of Price Waterhouse & Co. in connection with the implementation of their report as such services may be required.
7. That the Committee be given power and authorized to publish in the Presbyterian Record such articles as it may see fit in order to familiarize all members of the Church throughout Canada with the details of the report of Price Waterhouse & Co. and the recommendations of the Committee with respect thereto.
8. That the Committee report and make recommendations to the next General Assembly with respect to further implementation of such parts of the report of Price Waterhouse & Co. as the Committee deems advisable.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Ritchie Bell,
Chairman.

W. Stanford Reid,
Secretary.

11. If, in the opinion of the Church Council the amounts received from time to time by the Treasurer for what is known as the Budget, together with moneys which the Church Council think may be received during the remainder of the then current year, will not be sufficient to warrant the expenditure by the various departments, boards or committees of the amounts allocated to them by the General Assembly, the Church Council is hereby authorized to make such changes

REPORT ON A SURVEY OF ORGANIZATION, FINANCIAL STRUCTURE, ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE AND ACCOUNTING PRACTICES MARCH 1959

PRICE WATERHOUSE & Co.

55 Yonge Street
Toronto 1
March 31, 1959.

Rev. Dr. C. Ritchie Bell,
Convener, and Member of the Special Committee on the Financial Structure, Administrative Organization and Procedures of
The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
63 St. George Street,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Sirs:

As directed by your committee, we submit herewith our report on a survey of the organization, financial structure, administrative procedures and accounting practices of the Church. In this connection we have reviewed the activities and purposes of the major boards and committees and have met with board chairmen and secretaries, and other Church officers.

We believe that this report sets forth a plan of an organization structure and financial reporting system which will meet the future needs of the Church for some years to come. It will be recognized that some matters of detailed organization can be resolved only after the basic principles have been accepted and implementation has been started. The duties of all boards and committees will have to be studied in detail so that responsibility for continuing performance and development can be assigned to specific departments and boards.

It is expected that all of the present permanent staff of the Church can be absorbed into the proposed new organization. The extent to which it will be necessary to augment this staff will depend on the recognition of the need for increased service or new activities.

Some of the recommendations contained in this report have already been implemented as a result of our interim report submitted in November, 1958. These are shown in the summary of recommendations on Page 4.

INTRODUCTION

It is perhaps trite to say that The Presbyterian Church in Canada is at an organizational crossroads. However, that this is so is evident from the growing demand throughout the Church for tighter control of finances, better administrative practices, and modern accounting and reporting methods. These demands are symptomatic of a need for re-organization of the administration of the Church in Canada.

The need for a re-examination of the organization and administrative practices of the Church has been apparent for some time and many prominent ministers and laymen have expressed concern over the situation in which the Church finds itself today. In an address to the 1958 General Assembly, the Rev. Dr. G. D. Johnston, convener of the General Board of Missions, said "why has it come about that after thirty-three years of labour, effort, and prayer, the Presbyterian Church is still a comparatively weak and ineffective instrument in the hands of God for the upbuilding of His Church in Canada? Why is it that in spite of great increases in the liberality of our people we face a crisis in the financial affairs of our church in this year?" In spite of the efforts of individuals and groups to improve archaic organization and practices, there was little, if any, collective action until the last meeting of the General Assembly, at which time decisions were made which indicate a general desire for improvement and a willingness to accept change.

Change is inevitable in a growing organization and serves to keep it dynamic and vigorous. The whole history of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and throughout the world has been one of change starting with reformation of the Church in Scotland in the sixteenth century to the days of union in Canada in 1875 and the division in 1925.

The official expression of the organization and procedures of the Church in Canada is the "Book of Forms", which, except for a few amendments passed at meetings of the General Assembly, reflects the organizational concepts of 1925.

According to the Book of Forms, a fundamental principle of the Presbyterian form of church government is that all office bearers "should rule with mutual consent of the brethren, and equality of power, everyone according to his function". Unfortunately, the pursuit of this principle has resulted in confusion between the legislative prerogatives of governing courts and boards and the administrative needs of the whole Church in the conduct of its day-to-day affairs. The annual meeting of the General Assembly has attempted to solve complex problems of administration in the fields of finance, property management, salary schedules, employee benefits, etc., to the extent that the larger problems of Church policy and long-range planning have been afforded little if any time for serious deliberation and attention.

A multiplicity of interlocking boards and committees has been established, some by the General Assembly, and others by individuals and groups in sporadic attempts to achieve liaison and co-ordination of effort. At the present time there are over fifty more or less active boards or committees.

This attempt to administer the affairs of the Church by committee has seemed to be the democratic method of operating, but in practice the tendency to populate committees with representatives from other committees, and the lack of clarity as to objectives, responsibilities and authorities of committees, has tended to place authority into the hands of a comparatively few people. These people have met the challenge over the years, for the most part justly and wisely, but they have been hampered by a lack of communication, co-ordinated planning and available time.

The challenge of the future can only be met by a major change in the administrative organization of the Church. A plan of organization is needed which will define the major functions of the Church and assign them to responsible groups working in harmony for the overall objective of Christian mission. These groups will require leadership, technical advice and co-ordination. It will not be sufficient to cut the work of the Church into small segments, operating independently of each other, but a co-ordinating, representative body will be needed to effect liaison. Through co-ordination, each group will become aware of the needs, problems and responsibilities of other groups and through mutual understanding and respect, plans for meeting common goals will be achieved.

1. ORGANIZATION PLAN

General

We recommend that the administration of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be organized into six departments, each responsible for a major function. Associated with each department would be an advisory board, with sub-committees, where necessary, for particular purposes.

The six departments would be:

- Christian Education
- Home Mission
- Overseas and Inter-Church Relations
- Personnel and Training
- Administration
- Communications

Of the six departments mentioned above, it will be seen that two, namely, Administration and Communications, are staff or service functions while the remainder are "line" groups having direct responsibility for the mission of the Church in Canada and abroad.

Each of these would be headed by a full-time salaried Director who would be responsible for organizing, planning and directing the work for which the department is responsible. The departments would be staffed with clergy or laity with appropriate skills, education and experience. Sections would be created within departments with supervisors to manage particular parts of the function of the department. For example, the Administration department may require a separate accounting section under an Accountant. It will probably be found necessary and useful to assign appropriate titles to the senior positions within each department even to the extent of using the term "Associate Director" to give status to major activities such as Stewardship or Church Extension.

The boards of each function would be headed by a Chairman appointed by the Assembly and comprised of members, either ministers or lay people, having knowledge or experience in the areas in which the related department operates. In the case of the four line departments referred to above, viz. Christian Education, Home Mission, Overseas and Inter-Church Relations, and Personnel and Training, it will probably be necessary to have members representing the Church geographically as well as members with special talents in order that such activities not become too ingrown or undemocratic. Generally speaking, the members of all boards or committees should be persons with an expressed interest or inclination in the particular field rather than persons co-opted because of a need for territorial representation.

shown by solid connecting lines to indicate that authority stems originally from congregations down to the departments and boards. The major activities of each new department are shown along with a partial list of related existing boards and committees which will be merged or identified with the new organization.

The scope of the Church Council and departments are set out in general terms below.

Church Council

We recommend that a Church Council be formed to co-ordinate and give direction to the work of all departments and boards. This Council would be a representative group comprised of the chairmen of boards, directors of departments, the Clerk of Assembly, four laymen appointed by the Assembly and an independent chairman. Of the eighteen members, it is expected that there would be about an equal number of clergy and laity on the Council at any one time. The members would have joint and several responsibility for actions and decisions of Council.

The Church Council would report to, and be responsible to, the General Assembly. It would be the chief administrative body of the Church with the responsibility of ensuring that the work of the Church is carried on efficiently and effectively within the policies established by the General Assembly. The Church Council would have the authorities needed to carry out its responsibilities including those powers now vested in various boards and committees. No one department or board under the proposed organization would have direct authority over another, but all would be represented on the Council and would be guided by the decisions made jointly at meetings of the Council.

The Church Council would recommend policy, submit short and long range plans, co-ordinate and recommend a realistic balanced budget and generally present the current and future needs of the permanent departments to the Assembly. Within the Council would operate the key administrative committees of the Church such as budget and finance, planning, and salary.

Christian Education Department

The Christian Education department would have responsibility for all of the lay education program of the Church. This would include the work of the present Christian Education department and also that connected with education and other activities of adults such as training of elders and home religion programs.

Home Mission Department

This department would be made up of all those activities having to do with the work of the Church in Canada such as church extension, evangelism, social action, social services and stewardship. There is a need for continuous co-ordination of the activities of the existing boards and committees handling these matters. Therefore, it is recommended that all of this work be brought together under one director and with one Board of Home Mission. As these activities are perhaps the most extensive activities carried out by the head office of the Church it will probably be necessary to have assistant or associate directors charged with responsibility for specific aspects of the overall task of home mission.

Overseas and Inter-Church Relations Department

The present task of the Overseas Missions Board appears to be that of relations with established churches in many parts of the world such as with the Presbyterian Church in Formosa. It is believed that this function of the Church should be recognized as a separate department and be expanded to include all inter-church relations and relations with bodies not within The Presbyterian Church in Canada. This grouping of activities would enable co-ordination of all relations with other churches and provide one voice for The Presbyterian Church in Canada while it is working with other denominations throughout the world.

Personnel and Training Department

We recommend that all of the theological and religious training facilities of the Church be co-ordinated by one department. This includes schools such as Knox College, Presbyterian College of Montreal, and the Missionary and Deaconess Training School. This department would be charged also with responsibility for recruitment for full-time service in the Church. The Director of Personnel and Training would act as the personnel officer of the permanent members of the Church, including ministers and deaconesses in congregations. The department would be responsible for salary administration, welfare benefits, employee relations and generally act as a personnel counsellor to the permanent staff. It would also maintain a register of ministers which would be available for reference by interim Moderators seeking ministers for congregations.

Administration Department

The Administration department would be headed by a top flight layman with the ability to supervise accounting, supply and purchasing, property management, and all other matters of an administrative nature. The Director of Administration would be co-ordinator of the budget and assist the departments and boards to produce a departmental budget in a form most suitable for consideration by the Church Council and for eventual presentation to the General Assembly. The Administration department would include a central purchasing and supply section and would be responsible for all office management services such as mailing, switchboard, janitor, stationery, etc. This department's responsibilities would include committees concerned with finance, office equipment, architecture, and the financial and administrative aspects of homes and facilities such as Penmarvian, as well as trusts that are not related to specific functions.

Communications Department

There is a need for a Communications department to bring together all of the various means of communicating with members within the Church and with the public. This is presently being done by media such as the Presbyterian Record and through publications prepared by many different boards and committees. The Radio-Audio-Visual committee has recently taken on new vigour and is pursuing an active program to aid the Church and its congregations. However, there is a need to have all this co-ordinated for maximum effectiveness. There is also a real need for a public relations voice of the Church, someone who is in close touch with the Press and other media and to whom outsiders can turn when requiring an opinion or comment from the Presbyterian Church. This person, as is common in public relations departments, would not create policy but would be the means of expressing it. The policy and pronouncements of the Church would be originated in the General Assembly or in departments charged with a particular responsibility. It should be recognized that the Church will be called upon to make statements, voice opinions, take stands on matters of current interest in Canada and the world, and that this should be anticipated and responsibility given to the various departments within their respective fields to prepare statements which would be released through the Communications department. In the Communications department would be persons skilled in presenting the message of the Church to its own people and to others through the medium of publications, moving pictures, film strips, radio, television, etc. The Director of Communications would supervise the Printing department and be charged with co-ordination of all printing and publishing activities of the Church. This would include liaison with Thorn Press, Presbyterian Publications, General Printers, and others doing printing work for The Presbyterian Church.

General Assembly

The General Assembly is an annual Assembly held at some convenient location in Canada as determined year by year. Because of the cost of these Assemblies, particularly the travelling expenses of commissioners from all parts of Canada, it is usual to hold these gatherings in or near Toronto as this is the geographical centre of Church membership. The cost of having annual Assemblies is not inconsiderable as there is usually an amount of some $25,000 provided in each year's budget for this purpose. The cost of holding the Assembly in Vancouver in 1956 amounted to over $68,000.

The General Assembly is the top court of the Presbyterian Church and is an historical and integral part of the Presbyterian form of church government. The commissioners from the forty-eight Presbyteries of the Church in Canada gather together to form policy and make plans to be executed by the various boards and committees of the Church as well as by Synods and Presbyteries. Not all of the work of the Assembly is of a legislative or judicial nature which one would suppose would be the case for such a court with a crowded program, but many of the decisions made are of an administrative nature; for example, the setting of salaries, selection of staff and other items of this nature.

The General Assembly should be a legislative court receiving advance copies of condensed reports from the major boards and departments of the Church and from the Presbyteries and Synods throughout the country. These reports would contain plans for the future as well as records of accomplishment. The reports of boards and departments would be reviewed and accepted first by the General Council.

The Assembly should be the forum where The Presbyterian Church in Canada can review progress, consider proposed policy and plans, formulate new ones if necessary revise old ones if needed, and give clear-cut decisions to guide the members of the Church for the period that lies ahead. It is not enough for the Assembly to give responsibility to Synods, Presbyteries, boards and departments but it must be ensured that such groups have the necessary authority to carry out their allotted tasks.

We believe that consideration should be given to holding meetings of the Assembly every two years instead of annually. This would be more economical and permit of Assemblies to be held with some regularity throughout Canada.

Synods

Up to now the position of Synods in the organization of the Church has not been too strong and we understand that it is largely a forum of ministers meeting from time to time to discuss matters of interest in the Synod but without any real responsibilities, or any powers to take action. It is, in the organization sense, an unnecessary level of government at the present time. However, we believe that decentralization of the Church's government, which will be needed as the Church grows in size and complexity, should be considered in terms of the strategic position of the Synods, particularly in the more populous areas in the country. As time goes on, the need will arise where a permanent staff will be needed at the Synod level for work now confined to Church office staff.

Presbyteries

The Presbyteries appear to be a real force in the Church and provide a strong means of promoting church extension within the bounds of a Presbytery as well as in acquainting the congregations of the overall needs, aims, purposes, and objectives of the Church at large. The position of the Presbytery in the Church government organization should be examined with care from time to time so as to prevent ingrowing to the point where the Presbytery ceases to be a strong link between the congregations and the program of the Church as a whole.

Boundaries of Synods and Presbyteries

It has been found necessary in the past to change the boundaries of Presbyteries and Synods in accordance with population growth. This will be a continuous need and we suggest that the size and boundaries of Synods and Presbyteries be examined at regular intervals and the necessary changes be made to prevent them becoming too large and unwieldy.

Moderator

We believe that the position of Moderator of the General Assembly should be clarified. In the eyes of the press and public, the Moderator is the official representative of the Church and as such is a person of authority and status. In the present organization of the Church, this is not the case and the Moderator is only the Chairman of the Assembly while it is in session.

It appears also that the practice of electing a Moderator from several candidates at the start of each Assembly permits of no preparation on the part of the minister selected, either personally or for the congregation he serves.

We recommend that the Moderator be elected at the close of each Assembly for the ensuing year and that he act as the representative of the Church whilst in office. He would preside at the next meeting of the Assembly after having a year in which to become acquainted intimately with the affairs of the Church at the national level. If it is necessary to make special arrangements for his congregation during absences on Church business, this can be done after election but before he becomes too involved in national affairs.

If the General Assembly were convened every other year, the Moderator would serve for a two-year term.

Clerk of Assembly

The Clerk of Assembly is a permanent official of the General Assembly and has the responsibility of arranging for Assemblies and advising the Moderator on matters of procedure, organization and Church law. He edits the minutes of the Assembly and conducts the general correspondence of the Church. We believe that this position should not be linked with any day-to-day administrative position in the Church nor should the occupant of this position be involved directly with departments or committees concerned with particular functions, thus tending to dissipate the energies required for the position, and removing objectivity from a position concerned with the overall Assembly of the Church. The position of the Clerk of Assembly would seem to be somewhat analogous to that of the Clerk of the Privy Council.

The incumbent of this position should co-ordinate the activities of committees such as Committee on Business of Assembly, Committee on Bills and Overtures, Committee to Advise the Moderator (or Advisory Council of Former Moderators), Committee on Reception. Other committees of a general nature, such as Special Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Order, Committee on Church Worship, Committee on History, Committee on Articles of Faith, should be in liaison with the Clerk of Assembly.

Advisory Council of Former Moderators

There does not appear to be any formal means of making full use of the long experience and mature wisdom of the ministers who have served as Moderators of the Church. We suggest that an Advisory Council be established comprised of former Moderators of The Presbyterian Church in Canada with the immediate past Moderator as Chairman to which council the Moderator or General Assembly could refer for advice.

2. ORGANIZATION — GENERAL COMMENTS

Existing Board of Administration

The powers of the Board of Administration as set out in the Book of Forms appear to be far-reaching. The Board has control of the financial affairs of the Church, and is responsible for securing revenues for missionary, educational and benevolent work as set out in the budget approved by the General Assembly. The Board receives estimates from all the departments of the Church and adjusts estimates for submission to the Assembly. The stipulation that the Board adjust the estimates is one that brings them into direct conflict with the departments of the Church in that to meet the expected revenues of the Church the forecast expenditures of various departments are sometimes slashed arbitrarily. Any person or group who has this position in any organization is faced with an unpopular task. These changes in allotments could be made with less friction through co-operative joint meetings of all concerned where the needs of all departments would be considered simultaneously.

Another function of the Board of Administration is to recommend salaries to be paid the officials of the Church. The task of salary administration is best handled by a personnel man in touch with salary levels and trends within and outside of the Church. The salaries paid in other churches, in universities and like organizations, and in industry, must and will have some bearing on the salaries paid to permanent staff of the Church.

The Board also considers the emergency needs of departments and provides relief. These emergency needs seem to be fairly common and perhaps stem in part from the actions of the Board in trimming budgeted expenditures. The Board is also required to supervise office accommodation and clerical assistance of departments. This is an administrative function and one which can be performed best by an individual on a day-to-day basis. There are other functions such as sanctioning banking arrangements and recommending temporary investment of monies, which can be performed by a committee but some of the others which appear to be within the Board's powers are not such as could be done efficiently by a group meeting from time to time. This, of course, has been recognized in practice and it has fallen by default to the Secretary of the Board of Administration to make many day-to-day decisions in the interest of good administration. This, of course, has taken much of the time of a very busy man on the permanent staff of the Church.

The Board has responsibility for co-ordination, and promotion of efficiency, of boards and departments. In this role they are perhaps a combination of General Manager and Comptroller, not an easy task for any person, let alone a board which only meets on occasion.

The Board of Administration is appointed by the General Assembly, and for the most part is made up of leaders in the ministry and laity of the Church, and persons with a long history and experience of service to the Church. However, in spite of the fact that some of the boards of the Church have representatives on the Board of Administration, the Board cannot be said to be representative in the nature that a Church Council or planning council would be.

Since the original formation of the Board of Administration, various Assemblies have added to the powers of the Board; the most recent being in 1948 when it was stipulated that new or increased expenditure would not receive final approval of a General Assembly until a report from the Board of Administration had been received. The inference is that the Board can shape the amount and direction of expenditures that will receive the approval of the General Assembly. Generally speaking, the Board of Administration plays a large part in the success or otherwise of each Assembly.

General Board of Missions

This is by far the largest spending board and probably the board with the most indirect authority and connections throughout the Church. Its expenditures are subject to review and control by the Board of Administration but its activities (especially those of the Home Missions Board) are so far flung that little, if any, activity goes on in The Presbyterian Church in Canada without the Missions Board being a part of it. This concentration of effort in one board has been feasible up to now but it is doubtful that such is practical in a growing church.

The proposed organization shows that this General Board would disappear and the work of the Board would be allocated to two boards and departments, in particular the Overseas and Inter-Church Relations department and the Home Mission department. This latter department would be subject to further subdivision as the work load increases.

Stewardship

As is common in other denominations it appears to be a principle of The Presbyterian Church in Canada that each congregation supports not only its own local work or mission but also the work of the Church beyond the boundaries of the congregation. The financial support given in this way makes up the "budget" of the Canadian Church. Although assistance in this way is usually thought of in terms of mission givings, the money is required to support the whole of the Church including Christian education, theological colleges, stewardship, the Presbyterian Record, evangelism and social action, pension fund, general office salaries and expenses, and many other activities connected with or administered by the Canadian Church.

The purposes for which the money is provided by local congregations are part of a program which is established and promoted by the courts of the Church — Presbyteries, Synods and General Assembly. As the amounts contributed by congregations make up the major part of the annual income of the Church and as the money is spent for approved programs there should be no feeling on anyone's part that such contributions are in the nature of a gift which may or may not be made. In fact, it would be a more practical way of considering these contributed amounts if they were considered in the light of assessments on each congregation, which assessments are made according to the current ability of the local congregation to help not only its own program but also the work of the Church at large.

It is perhaps logical to extend this thinking to that of the giving of each individual member of the Church to the extent that each contributor to the work of the Church should be willing to contribute as much as is within his power without needing to specify or direct as to how this money is to be used by the elders and clergy of the Church to carry out the real mission of the Church. The practice of having duplex envelopes and other means of enabling members of a congregation to limit the purposes for which their contributions can be used is apt, at the level of the Canadian Church, to result in curtailment of some worthwhile and important activity.

In our opinion the task of determining the co-ordinated needs of all activities of the Canadian Church should be that of the Church Council who are in a position to relate the needs and thus the expected expenditures to a realistic estimate of how much money will be available. The allocation of funds for the many purposes of the Church should be done through liaison and in an atmosphere of harmony in a co-ordinating council rather than through direct allocation by individual congregations and other levels of Church government. It is not in the best interests of the Church for each board or each activity to have to compete with others for what it thinks to be its rightful share of the money that is available.

We believe that a policy of giving money to the work of the Church at every level of the Church's government is in keeping with the principle of stewardship that is a basic principle of the Church in Canada today. We believe that everyone throughout the Church will accept this form of giving provided that they are kept informed as to the policies of the Church, its present and future programs, and receive information in the form of reports and statements as to how their money has been used to meet the financial obligations of the many different activities that make up the total mission of the Church. We also believe that no member of the Church need feel that contributions freely given for the general purposes of the Church or suggested assessments by the head office of the Church be looked upon as a form of taxation. The individual members will recognize that as he assumes an obligation within his own congregation he also assumes an obligation for the work of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Theological Colleges

We have suggested in a previous section of this report that the Director of Personnel and Training co-ordinate the religious training facilities of the Church. The need for this is particularly apparent in the present state of the theological colleges in Montreal and Toronto, which have perennial problems of financing and recruitment.

It is undoubtedly desirable for the Church to have training facilities throughout Canada and to be represented by well-staffed and respected colleges on the campuses of major Canadian universities. However, it is not in the best interests of the Church to be represented by colleges which have difficulties because of lack of support. At the present rate of recruitment into the ministry and the present level of giving to the colleges, it appears unlikely that new colleges will be opened or that the existing colleges will be much extended.

During the year 1957, as reported in the proceedings of the 1958 General Assembly, there were 27 students in the Presbyterian College in Montreal, and 65 students (including 13 post-graduate students) in Knox College, Toronto. The colleges have a much greater capacity than this and thus are able to house a number of non-theological students of the universities.

The colleges operate at a loss although the current annual budget of the Church includes amounts of $50,000 each for Knox College and Presbyterian College. Savings in operating costs could probably be made if the two colleges were consolidated and only one joint college continued. The economies that might be effected and the savings that might be realized would have to be considered in the light of endowments that might be entailed, and thus not transferable, and contractual commitments that would have to be honoured.

The traditional aspects of the two colleges and the local pride that results are factors that have to be weighed against possible dollar savings. It might also be that Church contributions would decline in an area that had to give up its theological college.

There is a need for an objective appraisal of the current status and needs of the training facilities of the Church along with a plan for the future. The Director of Personnel and Training would carry out this task with the help of those ministers and laymen concerned with recruitment and training.

Women's Missionary Society

This is an active and vigorous body that has worked for the good of the Church since the early days of its history. Through congregational groups and other means, the Women's Missionary Society has raised great sums of money for the work of the Church. Most of this money, as would be suggested by the name of the Society, has been used for mission work at home and abroad. The activities of the Women's Missionary Society, particularly in recent years, have been co-ordinated with the activities of the General Board of Missions. This working together to achieve a common purpose makes sense and should be encouraged so that there would be no possibility of duplication of effort or waste of talents between the General Board of Missions and the Women's Missionary Society.

The women of the Church have always had a strong voice in the affairs of the Church, if not in a formal way at the deliberations of the courts of the Church, at least in an influential way in congregations. It is important that this be recognized and that the women's organizations continue to grow and prosper, preferably on a more generalized basis than they have in the past. This might be encouraged through the formation of a Presbyterian women's organization similar to that originated for "Presbyterian Men." The work of the Presbyterian women would stem from the congregations, and be co-ordinated through Synods and Presbyteries, with The Presbyterian Church in Canada giving advice and providing liaison where necessary. A group of Presbyterian women organized so as to become aware of all the needs of the Church can devote their talents and hard-working effort not only to missions but to education, stewardship, church extension, social action and any other function which is needed by the Church to further its mission.

Headquarters

It has been proposed at various times that a new Church office be found for the Church. This should be pursued actively as the present facilities are overcrowded and do not lend themselves to efficient administration. Further study would probably show that worthwhile savings could be made by pooling of clerical work and better layout of offices, meeting rooms, and services. Consideration should be given to advantages that may be derived from rental, rather than ownership, of office space.

Church Staff

The proposed Director of Personnel and Training should, as one of his first tasks, formulate a policy regarding staff hiring and retirement. The hiring should cover such aspects as selection and indoctrination; retirement would include setting of retirement ages for male and female staff.

It also is important that a policy be established for appointing members to boards and committees. Care should be taken to ensure some turn-over in membership so as to provide new ideas and vigour at the same time allowing for some continuity of experience. This can be accomplished by establishing definite terms for members with limits on re-appointment and by retiring only a portion of the members at any one time.

3. FINANCIAL CONTROLS

Introduction

A church needs financial direction and management in the same way as any other organization. This need, which is not diminished by the fact that a church is a non-profit organization, is for good accounting records to:

- (1) Provide an effective tool for the financial management and operation of church facilities, and
- (2) Show proper accountability for receipts and disbursements.

The records and accounting reports must fulfil the above needs in order to budget and control expenditures, maintain the flow of necessary money into the church, and to report to the congregations on the financial trust placed in the hands of those responsible.

Heretofore there has been no formal system of regularly reporting to the various boards and committees details of expenditures with comparable budget figures. Thus it is difficult for any board or committee to control their expenditures or make accurate comparisons of their expenditures against the individual budget allocations.

It is recommended that the present set of accounts be revised to reflect more accurately the expenditures of each function of the Church under the control of department heads, committee chairmen, etc. This change would serve to introduce the principle of "responsibility for control" which is the foundation necessary for the preparation of accurate and informative departmental reports. A complete set of monthly financial reports should then be instituted which would bring together the expenditures of all the various functions, show detail comparisons with the budget allocations on a departmental basis and match the total current and cumulative expenditures against total current income.

We also suggest a revised form of balance sheet presentation for the annual accounts. This presentation, which is illustrated by a specimen balance sheet, reflects changes which could now be made as a result of the proposed organization structure. All assets such as loans, investments, buildings, etc. would be shown as assets of the Church and not of individual departments. The trust funds and corresponding trust fund reserves would be grouped on the balance sheet with details contained in supporting schedules.

Accounting

The transactions of a church may be divided into two main classifications:

- (1) General operations
- (2) Endowments and restricted gifts

The accounting data should be accumulated according to the two classifications shown above. The general operations classification would have asset, liability, revenue and expense accounts. The other classification would have a more limited set of accounts. The difference between assets and liabilities in a fund determine its balance. The difference between revenues and disbursements increases or decreases the fund balance.

Financial Reports

Several key monthly financial statements and reports are included to illustrate the type of reports introduced to accumulate expenditures by areas of responsibility. While these reports are based on the existing organization and chart of accounts, the principles of responsibility accounting would be carried out under the recommended form of organization using this type of report with little or no change in format. The specimen forms are:

- Income and Expenditure
- Assets and Liabilities
- Expenditures
- Overseas Missions
- Unrestricted Gifts and Bequests Received
- Restricted Gifts and Bequests Received
- Capital and Reserves
- Restricted Funds

Operation of Budgets

The anticipated total cost of operations for a year should be assembled on a departmental basis from the estimates prepared within the departments. To accomplish this, expense accounts must be established for all departments and their related boards and committees. Salaries, office supplies and travel are examples of the type of expenses common to the operations of all departments.

Income and expenditures are not received and incurred uniformly during the year. Consideration should be given to this when preparing the operating budget in order to obtain the maximum benefits accruing from a budgetary control system and particularly in view of the desirability of minimizing bank borrowing throughout the year.

4. FINANCE — GENERAL COMMENTS

Fiscal Year

At present the congregations close their year on December 31, and the Church in Canada on January 31. At the last meeting of the General Assembly the Board of Administration was given authority to change the year-end to December 31 at its own discretion. However, we do not believe there are any particular benefits to be derived from having the same year-end dates.

We believe there are advantages in having the Church's year-end closer to the time of the General Assembly. This could be accomplished by holding the Assembly within two months of January 31, but there appear to be good reasons for having the Assembly in June. Therefore, a later year-end would be indicated.

A year-end of, say, February 28 or possibly March 31, would enable all the congregational reports to be received, tabulated, corrected where necessary, and arranged for presentation in the reports of The Presbyterian Church in Canada as of that date. Such a year-end would enable the Church to close its books, prepare financial reports and other statistics for presentation to the General Assembly at its June meeting. If for any reason the financial reports for the past year, and the proposed budget for the ensuing year, are not acceptable to the Assembly it is still possible to make timely changes. At the present time, with the Assembly meeting half way through the following year, commitments are made which prohibit any real action being taken by the Assembly with respect to finances and proposed expenditures.

If such a change were made in the year-end, a policy with respect to inclusion of revenue in the Church's books would have to be established; contributions received from congregations between January 1 and the year-end might be treated as deferred income, or the Church could treat all income and expenditure on a cash basis, as received, without any reference to the congregational year-end.

Depreciation Reserves

We recommend that regular provisions for depreciation be recorded in the books so as to provide adequate reserves for the large investment in buildings and equipment. Failure to provide such depreciation reserves results in an incorrect view of the Church's assets and operating results.

Contractual Commitments

From time to time certain departments make commitments of a non-budget nature. These may take the form of loans to congregations, the purchase of property, or other items of a capital nature. However, the money must be found by The Presbyterian Church and unless some provision is made in the annual budget for these commitments it is quite likely the money will not be available. These commitments should be anticipated and form part of the departmental budgets.

Loans to Congregations

The responsibility for administering loans to congregations should be the responsibility of the Administration department. After the church extension section of the Home Mission department has established the need and after it has been determined that the amount is provided for in the annual budget, then the mechanics of making the loan and collecting principal and interest payments should be in the hands of the Administration department. All congregations should be made to pay interest, at least at a nominal rate, on all loans made to them. We believe that this is part of the responsibility of congregations and is a means of making them aware of the obligation they have to their fellow members in the Church. As far as possible, loans should be made from Church funds so as to save interest payments to financial institutions.

Ministers' Stipends and Expenses

At the present time the Home Missions department are greatly involved in administering the payment of stipends and reimbursement of travelling and other expenses. We recommend that as much of the administration of this activity as possible be done by the Administration department.

Investment Policy

The total investments of the Church as at January, 1958, excluding Montreal College, amounted to over $5,000,000. Included in this amount are some $700,000 for Knox College and over $2,000,000 for the Pension Fund.

It was noticed that the investments include a very high percentage of government or government-guaranteed bonds and correspondingly a small amount of growth stocks or term mortgages. In the holdings for the Pension Fund alone, $1,980,630 of the total of $2,050,000 is in bonds, much of which bears interest at 3% or 3½%. This could not be said to be a balanced portfolio which will permit growth of equity as well as protection of capital and ensurance of income.

We also noted that these investments are allocated specifically to the various trusts to which they pertain and little attempt has been made to consolidate the many securities into one investment portfolio for efficiency of administration.

We recommend that:

- (a) All investments under the control of the Trustee Board be consolidated into one investment portfolio and that the income from these investments be apportioned to the various trusts and funds on a pro rata basis. The basis for allocation would be determined quarterly from the capital accounts and this basis used unless there were some major change in the investments or in the funds represented by these investments. All securities of like issues or kind would be brought together and the portfolio administered as one for the common good of all trusts and funds. The capital accounts represented by these investments would, of course, be accounted for separately and the income received by each recorded in the books and shown in statements. Because of the special nature of the Pension Fund and the colleges, it may be desirable to keep the investments for these in separate portfolios.
- (b) A policy be determined for the investments of the Church so as to achieve proper balance between bonds, stocks and other forms of investment now and in the future.
- (c) Consideration be given to placing the administration of investments into the hands of an investment counsellor. While we recognize that good work has and will be done by investment committees, we believe that an investment portfolio of the size of the Church requires constant supervision. Other organizations such as the University of Toronto, and another church denomination, have found this practice worthwhile and remunerative. At the least, the present investment committee should be enlarged and given an active role in the care of investments.

Cash Funds

In the same manner that individual securities are now segregated and considered to apply specifically to various funds, so there are maintained many savings and current bank accounts representing the capital and income accounts of trusts.

We recommend that these accounts be consolidated for ease of administration and that interest be credited to the income accounts of the various trusts as earned by the funds on deposit.

This consolidation of bank accounts would not include the general operating funds of the Church, nor special funds such as the Pension Fund.

It will be realized that there would be no loss to any of the funds for special purposes as these would be accounted for separately in the books and the amounts realized from interest would be credited to these accounts and reflected in published statements.

In addition to the amounts in trusts under consideration above, there is also an amount of $167,000 shown on the balance sheet for "Sundry amounts held in trust." These amounts are not invested separately and the money has been used temporarily for other purposes of the Church. For the most part, these sundry amounts held in trust are not real trusts in the proper sense of the word but are monies raised for special purposes which can be exhausted for such purposes.

Congregational Accounting

We recommend that a detailed study be made of the statistical data prepared by congregations to ensure uniformity of approach and accuracy of results. Care should be taken to place all Church statistics on a common basis compatible with statistics published by other denominations as this data is used for comparison purposes by all churches.

To aid in obtaining uniform results from congregations, consideration might be given to development of a standard uniform accounting system to meet the requirements of congregations of varying sizes. This system could be presented in the form of an operating manual with standard forms available from head office. This uniform approach to accounting is common in branches of commercial corporations and also in non-profit organizations such as the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire.

5. OFFICE PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

Bookkeeping Machines

A survey of the operations of the two bookkeeping machines located in the Accounting Office revealed that neither of the two machines was operating at more than an average of 50% capacity. By modifying some of the present procedures connected with the recording of cash receipts all detailed ledger posting can be done on one machine. The elimination of the other machine and operator should result in a net saving of about $2,500 a year.

Ministers' Pension Record

The pension records prepared in the Pension department are, to a large extent, duplicates of records located in the Accounting department. This duplication could be avoided if the custodian of the pension records, who is actually an accounting staff member, was moved to the Accounting office with access to the records now prepared on the bookkeeping machine. The pension payment ledger can be eliminated as it is a duplicate of the information recorded in the pension cash book.

Group Insurance

The present group insurance receivable ledger can be eliminated by using a filed duplicate copy of the payment due statement.

Ministers' Stipend Payments

At present the ministers' stipend cheques are prepared on a bookkeeping machine. As the information for these payments is under the control of, and originates with, the Home Missions department, greater efficiency and elimination of duplicate records could be achieved if this department prepared the cheques. A "writing board" would enable the Home Missions department to prepare a cheque, post the minister's earnings record and write the stipend journal at one time. The present operation takes about six working days, that is, three days in the Home Missions department to prepare the detail requisition and another three days in the accounting office to prepare the cheques, post the earnings records and type the names and addresses on the cheques. Using a writing board this operation should take only about three days in the Home Missions department. Little time would be required in the accounting office to complete the operation. Other than that required for cheque signing and protectographing. Reorganization of head office departmental responsibilities may result in this clerical task being transferred to Administration.

Payrolls

At present there are three payroll periods, viz., monthly, bi-weekly and weekly. It is recommended that payroll periods be placed on a monthly basis with mid-month advances. This would eliminate the time-consuming practice of preparing four or five different payrolls during one month.

Mailing

The establishment of a central mailing department should be considered from which all mail going to the congregations and elsewhere could be handled. At present the boards and committees tend to maintain their own mailing lists and handle the mailing of their own material. This practice is resulting in duplication of facilities and effort with attendant additional costs. If a central mail room were established using the correct type of mailing machine, increased efficiency and some overall reduction in cost could be expected.

Invoicing for Materials and Services

Inter-departmental charges for printing materials and services should be invoiced immediately upon completion of work so that expenses will be shown in the correct accounting periods.

A multi-part invoice set is presently being considered for use in the Audio-Visual department. Consideration should be given to using the same form of invoice in any of the other departments invoicing for supplies and services.
